UNHCR Content Production Section

Christopher REARDON Tel. (41 22) 739-8937
Chief of Content Production reardon@unhcr.org

The UNHCR Content Production Section encompasses the following teams:

- UNHCR Video Unit
- UNHCR Photo Unit
- UNHCR Social Media Unit
- UNHCR Web Editing Unit

The Content Production Section assigns, produces, packages, publishes and shares news and feature content for UNHCR's core web and social media platforms. It also shares content with media partners for use on their own platforms. In addition to the services described under the various units below, the Content Production Section:

- Hosts unlisted media pages for specific news moments where trusted journalists can access embargoed material, including press releases, photos, video stories, b-roll footage, data sets and infographics.
- Provides UNHCR photos, video and other digital assets to colleagues, NGO partners, journalists, media publishers, scholars and other interested parties as appropriate. Starting in Autumn 2014 this will take the form of a searchable, cloud-based database.

Leo DOBBS (Eng)..... English Web Site editor	Tel: (41 22) 739-8394 dobbs@unhcr.org
Haude MOREL (Fr)..... French Web Site editor	Tel. (41 22) 739-8596 morelh@unhcr.org

The Web Editing Unit prepares and publishes content for UNHCR's flagship website, www.unhcr.org, which offers a wealth of information on refugee-related topics, as well as UNHCR's multimedia storytelling site, Tracks: <http://tracks.unhcr.org>.

Here are just some of the things the media might find useful in doing refugee stories.

- Basic information about UNHCR:
What is UNHCR? Who is a refugee? Profile of High Commissioner; UNHCR mission statement.
- Regularly updated news:
UNHCR-generated daily news and feature stories; press releases; briefing transcripts; refugee-related news stories from around the world; emergency updates. All searchable.
- Information about UNHCR operations:
Region- and country-specific details on where the agency works, what it does, who it works with and what it costs, plus an overview of strategies and projections in Global Report and Global Appeal.
- Information on specific crises:
The latest updates on refugee hotspots.
- Statistics at a glance:
Summary tables on worldwide figures, 10-year overviews and the latest asylum statistics
- Information by theme:
Subjects include asylum and protection, children and families, durable solutions (e.g. resettlement), environment, funding, internally displaced persons, women refugees.
- Publications:
The State of the World's Refugees; Global Appeal (future plans for UNHCR programs worldwide); Global Report (analysis of previous year's programs); Mid-Year Progress Report.
- Detailed Statistics
Quarterly and yearly figures for a wide variety of indicators, including total refugee populations; changes since previous period; analysis by age and gender; asylum applications.
- Research sources:
Including UNHCR Executive Committee documents; speeches of the High Commissioner; international refugee instruments; bibliographic database; research organisations; other refugee-related Web sites.

- Nansen Refugee Award

Instituted in 1954, the Nansen Refugee Award is given every year to an individual or an association which excels in supporting refugees. Named after the Norwegian explorer and first League of Nations High Commissioner for Refugees Fridtjof Nansen (1861-1930), the award helps promote greater interest in the cause of refugees.

- World Refugee Day

World Refugee Day is celebrated every June 20 in more than 100 countries, and is a tribute to the extraordinary courage and strength of refugees.

- Goodwill Ambassadors

- A complete list of UNHCR's Goodwill Ambassadors and more details about their work for refugees may be found on UNHCR website, www.unhcr.org/goodwill.
