Notwithstanding paragraph 2 of this Article, a multiple-entry visa for a short stay (C Visa) can be issued with a longer validity period, but no longer than five years, as decided by the public administration authority responsible for foreign affairs. A visa for a short-term stay (C Visa) can be issued to a group of travellers that was formed before making a decision about the travel, if the members of that group enter the territory of Montenegro together, stay there and leave the territory as a group. Such a visa shall not be valid for longer than 30 days. The visa from paragraph 4 of this Article shall be entered into a group passport and may be issued to a group of not less than 5 and not more than 50 persons, whereas the person who leads the group shall have his/her own passport and, when necessary, a visa. More detailed requirements for issuing a visa referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article shall be prescribed by the public administration authority responsible for foreign affairs.

Visa for Long-Term Stay (D Visa)

Article 22

The visa for a long-term stay (D Visa) shall be issued to a foreigner who has an intention to stay in Montenegro for a period longer than 90 days, for performance of business activities or work, but not longer than 180 days within one year counting from the date of first entry. The visa for a long-term stay (D Visa) shall be issued for one or multiple entries into Montenegro. More detailed requirements for issuing a visa referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall be prescribed by the public administration authority responsible for foreign affairs.

Limitations on the Validity

Article 23

When issuing a visa, the validity period of the travel document into which a visa is entered shall be at least three months longer than the validity period of the visa. Exceptionally, if thus required due to the humanitarian reasons, national interest or international obligation of Montenegro, a travel document can be entered a visa that may be valid not after the expiry date of validity period of the travel document, when the return of the foreigner into his/her country of residence or a third country is ensured.

Competence for Visa Issuing

Article 24

A foreigner shall be required to obtain a visa prior to entry into Montenegro. The visa shall be issued by a diplomatic or consular mission of Montenegro unless otherwise stipulated under this Law. A visa application shall be submitted by a foreigner in person, in a special form. Prior to issuing the visas referred to in Articles 19, 20 and 21 of this law, as well as a visa for a long-term stay for performance of business activities referred to in the Article 22 of this law, diplomatic or consular mission of Montenegro shall be obliged to obtain a prior consent of the police.

Notwithstanding paragraph 4 of this Article, transit visa (B visa) and visa for a short-term stay (C visa) for a single entry will be issued to the holder of a diplomatic or official passport or a foreigner who is coming at the invitation of a state authority of Montenegro, without the prior consent of the police, with the obligation of diplomatic and consular mission of Montenegro to, without any delay, notify the police and the state authority responsible for foreign affairs.

Prior to the issuance of a visa for a long-term stay (D visa) for the work referred to in Article 22 of this law, a diplomatic and consular mission of Montenegro shall obtain the approval of the Ministry.

Notwithstanding, if so required due to humanitarian, personal or professional reasons, the following may be issued at the border crossing point by the Police:

- 1) A short-stay visa (C visa) for a single entry and stay of up to 15 days,
- 2) A transit visa (B Visa), for a single transit across the territory of Montenegro of up to five days,
- 3) A transit visa (B Visa) to a seaman, or a group of seamen.

Visa issuance manner

Article 25

Visa shall be issued by entering a visa form into a valid foreigner's travel document.

Notwithstanding, if so required due to humanitarian reasons, national interest or international obligations of Montenegro, visa may be entered on a form for entering the visa if the travel document contains no place for visa entering or if the foreign travel document is not valid.

A more detailed procedure for visa issuing, the application form for visa issuing, visa form, form for visa entry, as well as the manner of visa entering into the foreign travel document shall be prescribed by the public administration authority responsible for foreign affairs.

Representation

Article 26

In the countries where Montenegro has no diplomatic or consular mission, a diplomatic or consular mission of another country can represent Montenegro in the process of issuing visas, as stipulated pursuant to an international treaty.

Extension of Validity for Short-Term Visa (C visa)

Article 27

A validity period of no visa for a short-term stay (C Visa) shall be extended, unless required so due to the humanitarian, professional, personal reasons or due to force majeure.

The extension of a visa referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may be granted to a foreigner if he/she provides an adequate medical, official and other documents proving the existence of the grounds for visa extension.

An application for the extension of the validity period of the visa from paragraph 2 of this Article shall be submitted to the police at the foreigner's place of residence before the expiry of the visa, in a prescribed form.

An application referred to in the paragraph 3 of this Article shall be decided upon by the police, which afterward notify the applicant of its decision.

A foreigner may stay in Montenegro until a decision following the application referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article is made.

The police have an obligation submit to the public administration authority competent for the foreign affairs a notice of a visa extension, which contains the following: name and surname of the foreigner, date, place and country of his/her birth, nationality, type and number of foreign travel document, the number of previously issued visa, the reasons for extension of a visa validity period, number, place and date of a visa extension.

Reasons for the Rejection of Visa Application

Article 28

Visa shall not be issued to a foreigner if:

- 1) An obstacle from Article 9 of this Law exists;
- 2) He/she fails to appear in person, as required upon the request of a diplomatic or consular mission of Montenegro;
- 3) he/she fails to submit the required documents proving the purpose and conditions for the issuance of the visa pursuant to this law;
- 4) he/she fails to submit proof of health and travel insurance;

5) he/she stayed in Montenegro for 90 days, without 180 days not having passed from the date of first entry. The foreigner shall be verbally advised about the reasons why his/her visa was not issued. Exceptionally, in the cases from paragraph 1 of this Article, a foreigner may be issued a visa, i.e. approved the entry into Montenegro, if thus required due to the humanitarian reasons, interests of Montenegro or internationally accepted commitments. In these cases, a foreigner may be allowed to enter the country solely on a specified border crossing point.

Shortening the Period of Visa Validity

Article 29

During the course of border control performing of the entry into Montenegro, the visa validity period may be shortened by the Police at the border crossing point, if:

- 1) it is determined that the foreigner does not have sufficient funds for subsistence,
- 2) the visa validity period is longer than the travel document validity period;
- 3) the foreigner would exceed the limit of 90 days of stay within the period of 180 days starting from the date of first entry.

Method of shortening the period of validity of a visa as well as the detailed requirements regarding the amount of funds needed for subsistence during the stay in Montenegro is regulated by the public administration authority responsible for the foreign affairs.

Entering Corrections to the Visa

Article 30

The Police may, in the course of performance of the border control, correct the data mistakenly entered into the visa issued by a diplomatic or consular mission of Montenegro. A detailed method of correcting the data referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be prescribed by the Ministry.

Cancellation of Visas

Article 31

A visa shall be cancelled by a diplomatic or consular mission of Montenegro or the Police if the existence of any of the reasons referred to in Article 8 of this Law is subsequently determined. A cancellation of an issued visa shall be entered into the foreign travel document.

Detailed manner of cancellation of the visas issued shall be prescribed by the public administration authority responsible for foreign affairs.

IV. RESIDENCE OF FOREIGN CITIZENS

Article 32

The residence of a foreigner in Montenegro pursuant to the provisions of this law shall include a:

- 1) stay of up to 90 days;
- 2) Temporary residence;
- 3) Permanent residence.

1. Stay of up to 90 Days

The Right to a Stay of up to 90 Days

Article 33

A foreigner shall be entitled to a stay of up to 90 days on the basis of short-stay visa (C Visa) or without a visa, in accordance with the stipulations of the Article 16 paragraph 2 of this law.

In the case referred to in paragraph 1 above, a foreigner may stay in Montenegro for 90 days during the period of 180 days counted from the date of first entry, unless otherwise provided by this Law or an international treaty.

A foreigner who has resided in Montenegro for 90 days, in accordance with paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, may re-enter and reside in Montenegro after an expiry of the period of 180 days counted from the date of first entry.

Reasons for the Cancellation of Stay of up to 90 Days

Article 34
