I. Resolution adopted by the Council at its fifth special session

S-5/1. Situation of human rights in Myanmar

The Human Rights Council,

Guided by the principles and objectives of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights and recalling General Assembly resolution 60/251 of 15 March 2006 and Commission on Human Rights resolution 2005/10 of 14 April 2005,

Deeply concerned at the situation of human rights in Myanmar,

Recalling that everyone has the right to take part in the government of their country, directly or through freely chosen representatives, the right to freedom of opinion and expression and the right to freedom of peaceful assembly and association,

1. Strongly deplotes the continued violent repression of peaceful demonstrations in Myanmar, including through beatings, killings, arbitrary detentions and enforced disappearances, expresses condolences to the victims and their families, and urges the Government of Myanmar to exercise utmost restraint and to desist from further violence against peaceful protesters;
2. Urges the Government of Myanmar to ensure full respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms and to investigate and bring to justice perpetrators of human rights violations, including for the recent violations of the rights of peaceful protesters;
3. Also urges the Government of Myanmar to release without delay those arrested and detained as a result of the recent repression of peaceful protests, as well as to release all political detainees in Myanmar, including Daw Aung San Suu Kyi, and to ensure that conditions of detention meet international standards and include the possibility of visiting any detainee;
4. Further urges the Government of Myanmar to lift all restraints on peaceful political activity of all persons by, inter alia, guaranteeing freedom of peaceful assembly and association and freedom of opinion and expression, including for free and independent media, and to ensure unhindered access to media information for the people of Myanmar;
5. Welcomes the decision of the Government of Myanmar to receive a visit by the Special Envoy to Myanmar of the Secretary-General, Ibrahim Gambari, and calls upon the Government of Myanmar to cooperate fully with him to find a peaceful solution;
6. Urges the Government of Myanmar to engage urgently in a reinvigorated national dialogue with all parties with a view to achieving genuine national reconciliation, democratization and the establishment of the rule of law;
7. Encourages the Government of Myanmar and the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights to engage in a dialogue with a view to ensuring full respect for all human rights and fundamental freedoms;

8. Urges the Government of Myanmar to cooperate fully with humanitarian organizations, including by ensuring full, safe and unhindered access of humanitarian assistance to all persons in need throughout the country;

9. Requests the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Myanmar to assess the current human rights situation and to monitor the implementation of this resolution, including by seeking an urgent visit to Myanmar, and to report to the resumed sixth session of the Human Rights Council, and in this respect urges the Government of Myanmar to cooperate with the Special Rapporteur;

10. Also requests the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Myanmar to inform the General Assembly at its sixty-second session on progress in this regard;

11. Decides to remain seized of this matter.

*2nd meeting
2 October 2007*

[Resolution adopted without a vote. See chapter II.]

II. Organization of work of the fifth special session

1. Pursuant to paragraph 10 of General Assembly resolution 60/251 of 15 March 2006, as well as in accordance with rule 6 of the Council's rules of procedure as contained in Council resolution 5/1 of 18 June 2007, the Council "shall hold special sessions, when needed, at the request of a member of the Council with the support of one third of the membership of the Council".
2. By letter dated 27 September 2007, addressed to the President of the Human Rights Council (A/HRC/S-5/1), the Permanent Representative of Slovenia to the United Nations Office at Geneva requested the holding of a special session entitled "The Human Rights Situation in Myanmar", to be held on Tuesday, 2 October 2007, immediately after the first part of the sixth session of the Human Rights Council.
3. The letter, received by the President on 28 September 2007, was accompanied by signatures in support of the above-mentioned request from the following 17 States members of the Council: Bosnia and Herzegovina, Canada, France, Germany, Guatemala, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Netherlands, Peru, Republic of Korea, Romania, Slovenia, Switzerland, Ukraine, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and Uruguay. Brazil subsequently signed the above-mentioned request.
4. As more than one third of the membership of the Council supported the above-mentioned request, the special session of the Council was convened on 2 October 2007.
5. In addition to the above-mentioned States members of the Council, the request was also supported by the following observer States of the Council: Albania, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Chile, Côte d'Ivoire, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, Greece, Guinea, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Monaco, Montenegro, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Spain, Sweden, The former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Turkey and United States of America. Morocco, Serbia and Singapore subsequently signed the above-mentioned request.

A. Opening and duration of the session

6. The Council held its fifth special session at the United Nations Office at Geneva on 2 October 2007. It held two meetings (see A/HRC/S-5/SR.1-2)* during the session.
7. The fifth special session was opened by the President of the Council, Mr. Doru Romulus Costea.

* Summary records of each of the meetings are subject to correction. They are considered final with the issuance of a consolidated corrigendum (A/HRC/S-5/SR.1-2/Corrigendum).

B. Attendance

8. The special session was attended by representatives of States members of the Council, observers for non-member States of the Council, observers for non-member States of the United Nations and other observers, as well as observers for United Nations entities, specialized agencies and related organizations, intergovernmental organizations and other entities, national human rights institutions and non-governmental organizations.

ANNEXES

ANNEX I

Administrative and programme budget implications of the resolution adopted by the Council at its fifth special session

Statement on programme budget implications (PBI)

1. Under the terms of paragraphs 9 and 10 of resolution A/HRC/S-5/1, the Human Rights Council:
  - (i) Requests the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Myanmar to assess the current human rights situation and to monitor the implementation of this resolution, including by seeking an urgent visit to Myanmar, and to report to the resumed sixth session of the Human Rights Council, and in this respect urges the Government of Myanmar to cooperate with the Special Rapporteur;
  - (ii) Requests also the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Myanmar to inform the General Assembly at its sixty-second session on progress in this regard.
2. According to the decision by the Human Rights Council, it is estimated that a total amount of US$ 46,700 would be required to implement the activities called for in operative paragraphs 9 and 10, for:
  - (i) Travel of the Special Rapporteur to Myanmar, to Geneva for the presentation of the report to the Council, and to New York to report to the General Assembly (US$ 28,200);
  - (ii) Travel of two OHCHR staff to accompany the Special Rapporteur to Myanmar (US$ 8,500);
  - (iii) Local transportation, interpretation and other miscellaneous services related to the mission to Myanmar (US$ 10,000).
3. Although provisions have not been made in the programme budget for biennium 2006-2007 to meet the additional activities, outlined in paragraph 2 above, it is anticipated that the resource requirements can be absorbed within the appropriations approved for the biennium 2006-2007 under section 23, Human Rights.
