

LAW

ON FOREIGNERS

I. BASIC PROVISIONS

Subject of the Law

Article 1

This Law shall stipulate the conditions for entry, movement and stay of foreigners, as well as the competence and activities of the public administration bodies in the Republic of Serbia with respect to entry, movement and stay of foreigners in the territory of the Republic of Serbia.

Implementation of the Law

Article 2

This Law shall not apply for the foreigners who:

- 1) Have applied for asylum, or have been granted asylum in the Republic of Serbia, unless otherwise stipulated by the Law;
- 2) Enjoy privileges and immunities pursuant to the international law, as regards the provisions hereof which are excluded as a result of these privileges and immunities;
- 3) Have been granted the status of refugee.

Stateless persons shall be the subject of the provisions of the Convention Relating to the Status of Stateless Persons, if this is more favourable to them.

Definition of terms

Article 3

Certain terms used for the purpose of this Law shall have the following meaning:

- 1) Foreigner shall mean any person who does not have the citizenship of the Republic of Serbia;
- 2) Competent authority shall mean a territorial unit of the Ministry of Interior (hereinafter referred to as: the Ministry), competent for the affairs related to foreigners;
- 3) Border police shall mean an organisational unit of the Ministry, directly responsible for the affairs of border control and other state border protection activities;
- 4) Entry into the Republic of Serbia shall mean the entry of foreigners into its territory, approved by the competent public authority, by crossing the state border, i.e. the state border crossing where border control is performed. The stay of foreigners in the transit area of airports or harbour and port anchorage through which international transport is conducted shall not, in the context of this Law, be regarded as entry into the Republic of Serbia;
- 5) Transit shall mean the crossing over the territory of the Republic of Serbia;

- 6) Border control shall imply the inspection of persons and travel documents, means of transportation and goods, conducted at the border crossing point prior to the intended crossing of the state border, or immediately after having crossed the state border, as well as other control pursuant to the law;
- 7) Foreign travel document shall mean ordinary personal, family, collective, diplomatic or service passport, seaman's book containing a visa and other documents recognised by international treaties as travel documents, which can be used to reveal identity of its holder, the term of validity of which has not expired and which has been issued in accordance with the regulations of a foreign country or by a relevant act of an international organisation;
- 8) Foreigner travel document shall mean a refugee travel document, a stateless person's travel documents and foreigner's laissez-passer;
- 9) Foreigner identity card shall mean identification document issued to a foreigner permanently resident in Serbia, or a foreigner in temporary residence who does not have a valid travel document;
- 10) Carrier shall mean a natural person or a legal entity registered as provider of public passenger transportation services in air, road, waterway or railway traffic;
- 11) Detention centre for foreigners shall imply facilities for accommodation of foreigners who have been denied entry into the country, or on whom banishment or removal from the country has been imposed but it is not possible to dispatch them in this manner, and who have been ordered to stay under close police surveillance, according to the law.

Entry and stay of foreigners

Article 4

A foreigner may enter into and stay in the Republic of Serbia, under the conditions stipulated by this Law, using a valid travel document containing a visa, or a permission to stay, unless provided otherwise by the law or an international treaty.

Limitation or prohibition of movement

Article 5

Movement and stay in a specific territory in the Republic of Serbia shall be limited or prohibited to a foreigner if this is necessary due to reasons related to protection of public order or safety of the Republic of Serbia and its citizens, or pursuant to an international treaty.

Compliance with laws

Article 6

A foreigner shall be obliged to observe the regulations and decisions of the public authorities during his/her movement and stay in the Republic of Serbia.

Application of legislation in the decision-making procedure regarding the rights and obligations of foreigners

Article 7

The provisions of the law regulating the general administrative procedure shall apply in the decision-making procedure regarding the rights and obligations of foreigners, unless otherwise stipulated by this law.

As regards the procedure of registering the place of permanent or temporary residence or termination of permanent or temporary residence and changing the home address of a foreigner, the provisions of the law regulating the place of permanent and temporary residence of the citizens of the Republic of Serbia shall apply, unless otherwise provided for herein.

II. ENTRY OF FOREIGNERS INTO AND EXIT FROM THE REPUBLIC OF SERBIA

Border control

Article 8

A foreigner shall be obliged to undergo border control procedure on entry into or exit from the Republic of Serbia.

Border control of foreigners shall be conducted in accordance with the applicable special law, and includes detection and prevention of illegal entry into the Republic of Serbia, denial of entry under the conditions stipulated in Article 11 hereof and/or denial of exit from the territory of the Republic of Serbia under the conditions established by Article 13, paragraph 2 of this Law.

Entry and exit using a collective travel document

Article 9

A foreigner listed in the travel document of another person may enter into and exit from the Republic of Serbia only if accompanied by the person in whose travel document he/she is listed.

Foreigners using a collective travel document shall only be allowed to enter into and exit from the Republic of Serbia if they travel together.

Foreigners listed in a collective travel document shall also be required to have a document with their personal photograph, which can be used to confirm their identity.

The leader of the group shall have his/her ordinary personal travel document.

Illegal entry into the Republic of Serbia

Article 10

Entry into the Republic of Serbia shall be considered illegal if it is gained:

- 1) Out of the place or time prescribed for crossing the state border;
- 2) By avoiding the border control;
- 3) By using another person's, invalid, and/or forged travel or other document;
- 4) By providing incorrect information to the border police;

- 5) During the period in which the protective measure of removal of foreigners from the Republic to Serbia, the security measure of banishing foreigners from the country, or the measure of cancellation of the permission to stay is in effect.

Denial of entry

Article 11

Entry into the Republic of Serbia shall be denied to a foreigner if:

- 1) He/she does not have a valid travel document, or a visa if required;
- 2) He/she does not have sufficient financial means to sustain him/her during the stay in the Republic of Serbia, to return to his/her country of origin or transit into the third country, and if he/she is not provided with means of livelihood in any other way during his/her stay in the Republic of Serbia;
- 3) He/she is in transit, but does not meet the requirements to enter the third country;
- 4) The protective measure of removal or the security measure of banishment is in effect, or if his/her permission to stay is cancelled, and/or other measures recognised in the domestic or international law, which include the prohibition of crossing the state border, are effective; this prohibition shall apply during the period in which the respective measure, or the cancellation of the permission to stay, is in force;
- 5) He/she does not have the certificate of vaccination or other proof of good health, when arriving from areas affected by an epidemic of infectious diseases;
- 6) Required so by reasons related to protection of the public order or the safety of the Republic of Serbia and its citizens;
- 7) He/she is registered as an international felon in the relevant records;
- 8) There is reasonable doubt that he/she will take advantage of the stay for purposes other than those declared.

The denial of entry shall be denoted in the respective foreigner's travel document.

The conditions referred to in paragraph 1, items 2), 5), 6) and 7) of this Law shall be prescribed more specifically by the Government.

Entry into and stay in the Republic of Serbia without a visa

Article 12

An international treaty or a Government decision may establish that citizens of particular countries may enter the Republic of Serbia without a visa, provided that obstacles referred to in Article 11 hereof do not exist.

The Government shall be competent to decide that citizens of particular countries may also enter the Republic of Serbia using a valid personal identity card, and/or other document which can confirm their identity and citizenship, on condition that obstacles referred to in Article 11, paragraph 1, Items 2) to 8) of the Law do not exist.

A foreigner who does not need a visa or a travel document to enter the Republic of Serbia may stay in the country for a maximum period of 90 days, within a timeframe of six months starting from the day of the first entry.

Exit

Article 13

A foreigner shall be free to exit the Republic of Serbia.

As an exception to paragraph 1 of this Article, the border police shall temporarily deny exit from the Republic of Serbia to a foreigner if:

- 1) He/she is in possession of another person's, invalid, and/or forged travel or other document;
- 2) He/she does not have the visa required to enter the next country;
- 3) There is justified suspicion that, by exiting the Republic of Serbia, the person may escape legal prosecution with respect to a criminal act or misdemeanour, avoid serving the sentence of imprisonment, execution of a court order, being arrested or execution of a due liability imposed by a competent authority.

After the reasons referred to in paragraph 2 hereof have ceased to exist, the foreigner shall be allowed to exit the Republic of Serbia.

III. VISAS

Visas, competence for issuing visas and consular cooperation

Article 14

Visa is a permission of entry, stay or transit obtained by a foreigner prior to entering the territory of the Republic of Serbia.

A visa shall be issued to a foreigner with a valid travel document; the term of visa's validity shall be shorter than the term of validity of the respective travel document.

A visa shall be issued by a diplomatic mission or consular office of the Republic of Serbia, unless otherwise stipulated in this Law.

Before issuing a visa, the relevant diplomatic mission or consular office of the Republic of Serbia shall be obliged, when provided for in paragraph 5 of this Article, to obtain the prior consent of the Ministry.

Having obtained the consent from the minister competent for interior affairs, the minister competent for foreign affairs shall establish the regulation stipulating the layout and content of the application form for visa, the request for obtaining the Ministry's consent, as well as the procedure for issuing visas in diplomatic missions or consular offices of the Republic of Serbia.

Exceptionally, when there are serious humanitarian reasons or it is in the interest of the Republic of Serbia, the border police may, with consent of the Ministry, issue a transit visa (type B visa) for a single transit, or a visa for short stay (type C visa) for a single entry with the term of validity of up to 15 days, when a foreigner has had no opportunity to apply for a visa via a diplomatic mission or a consular office of the Republic of Serbia, provided he/she presents adequate proof of urgency of the trip for which he/she needs the visa.

The visa referred to in paragraph 6 hereof shall not be issued to a foreigner associated to obstacles referred to in Article 11 of the Law.

Elaborated conditions and the procedure for issuing the visa referred to in paragraph 6 of this Article shall be prescribed by the minister competent for interior affairs.

An international treaty with the countries in which the Republic of Serbia does not have a diplomatic mission or a consular office may establish mutual representation in the procedure for issuing visas.

Types of visas

Article 15

The types of visas shall be as follows:

- 1) Airport transit visa (type A visa);
- 2) Transit visa (type B visa);
- 3) Short stay visa (type C visa);
- 4) Temporary residence visa (type D visa).

The layout of the visa form, its content and the modality of entering the visa referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article into a foreign travel document shall be prescribed by the minister competent for foreign affairs, with consent of the minister competent for interior affairs.

Airport transit visa (type A visa)

Article 16

A foreigner who does not leave the international transit area of airports or the aircraft during the intermediate stop between two legs of a flight or between connecting flights shall not need a visa.

As an exception to the provision in paragraph 1 hereof, the Government may specify which foreigners in particular travel routes shall need the airport transit visa, if so required by the reasons referred to in Article 5 of the Law.

At the personal request of a foreigner, an airport transit visa may be issued to him/her for a single or multiple transit through the international transit area of an airport, with which the foreigner is allowed to stay in this area up to 24 hours per one instance of transit.

Transit visa (type B visa)

Article 17

A transit visa shall be issued to a foreigner for a single, double or multiple transit through the territory of the Republic of Serbia.

A transit visa shall be issued with the term of validity of up to six months, and the duration of stay in the country per one transit shall not exceed five days.

A transit visa may be issued to a foreigner who is in possession of the visa for entry into the destination country or the country through which he/she is transiting if his/her obligation to have that visa is not abolished by an international treaty.

A transit visa may also be issued to a group of travellers which had been established before the decision to travel was taken, when the travellers are to transit through the territory of the Republic of Serbia together.

The visa referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article may be issued to a group of at least five and at most 50 persons, where the leader of the group shall be obliged to have a separate visa, if required.

Short stay visa (type C visa)

Article 18

A short stay visa shall be issued for the purpose of tourism, business and other travelling for a single, double or multiple entry into the Republic of Serbia.

The duration of an uninterrupted stay, and/or the total duration of successive visits of a foreigner with a short stay visa shall not exceed 90 days within a period of six months which started on the day of the first entry.

A short stay visa with the multiple entry option shall be issued with the term of validity of up to one year; however, it may also be issued with a longer term of validity to the staff of a foreign diplomatic mission or a consular office on condition of applied principle of reciprocity.

A short stay visa with the term of validity of up to 30 days may also be issued to a group of at least five and at most 50 persons, which had been established before the decision to travel was taken, provided that the members of that group are entering the territory of the Republic of Serbia together, staying in it and exiting as a group, where the leader of the group shall be obliged to have a separate visa, if required.

Temporary residence visa (type D visa)

Article 19

A temporary residence visa shall imply permission for entry into and temporary residence of foreigners in the Republic of Serbia.

A temporary residence visa shall be issued for the purposes, under the conditions and with the term of validity stipulated by this Law with respect to the permission for temporary residence.

If a foreigner intends to stay more than 90 days in the Republic of Serbia, he/she shall be obliged to obtain the visa referred to in paragraph 1 hereof, or to obtain the permission for temporary residence from the competent authority during his/her stay in the Republic of Serbia.

Extension of the visa's term of validity

Article 20

The visa's term of validity shall not be extendable.

As an exception to the provision in paragraph 1 of this Article, the visa's term of validity shall be extendable if so required by the humanitarian, professional or personal reasons and force majeure.

Elaborated conditions, the form of the application and the procedure for extension of the visa validity term in circumstances referred to in paragraph 2 hereof shall be prescribed by the minister competent for interior affairs.

The application for extension of the visa's term of validity shall be filed to the competent authority according to the place of foreigner's temporary residence.

Refusal of visa applications and visa cancellation

Article 21

The authority competent for issuing visas shall not issue a visa if:

- 1) The term of validity of a foreign travel document expires in less than ninety days;
- 2) Any of the obstacles referred to in Article 11 of the Law exists;
- 3) A foreigner fails to present himself/herself when summoned by a diplomatic mission or a consular office of the Republic of Serbia.

As an exception to the provisions in paragraph 1 of this Article, a visa may be issued for humanitarian reasons, if this is in the interest of the Republic of Serbia, or if accepted international obligations so require.

In the case referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, the Ministry may prescribe that a foreigner shall only be allowed to enter the country at a particular border crossing.

The authority competent for issuing visas or the border police will cancel any issued visa if it is afterwards established that some of the obstacles referred to in Article 11 of the Law do exist.

There shall be no right of appeal against the decision to refuse one's application for visa or the decision to cancel a visa.

The decision referred to in Article 5 of this Law shall not require a statement of grounds.

Obligations of carriers

Article 22

A carrier may transport a foreigner to a border crossing only if none of the obstacles referred to in Article 11, paragraph 1, Item 1) of this Law exist.

A carrier shall be obliged to provide transportation free of charge without delay or, if immediate transportation is not possible, to bear the costs of the stay and removal of the foreigner associated with the obstacles in Article 11, paragraph 1, Item 1) hereof.

The provisions in paragraph 2 of this Article shall also apply for the carrier who brought a foreigner into the international transit area of an airport if another carrier has refused to transport the foreigner into the destination country, or if entry into the destination country is denied to the foreigner.

An agency organising a tourism or business related travel shall be obliged to reimburse the incurred costs referred to in paragraph 2 hereof if these costs cannot be charged to the foreigner and if his/her illegal stay resulted from a fault on the part of the agency that organised the travel.

Obligations of guarantors

Article 23

A legal entity or a natural person that provided a foreigner with a letter of guarantee whereby the guarantor accepts the responsibility to cover any costs of the foreigner's stay and removal if these costs cannot be charged to the foreigner, shall be obliged to submit a certified copy of the letter of guarantee to the competent authority in accordance with the place of foreigner's temporary residence.

IV. THE STAY OF FOREIGNERS

The types of stay

Article 24

The types of stay of foreigners in terms of this Law shall be as follows:

- 1) Stay of up to 90 days;
- 2) Temporary residence;
- 3) Permanent residence.

Stay of up to 90 days

Article 25

Stay of up to 90 days shall mean the stay of a foreigner either without a visa or on the grounds of a visa, unless otherwise stipulated by this Law or an international treaty.

The purpose of temporary residence

Article 26

Temporary residence may be permitted to a foreigner whose intention is to stay in the Republic of Serbia longer than 90 days for the purposes of:

- 1) Work, employment, performance of economic or other professional activities;
- 2) Enrolling a school, university or advanced education course, scientific research, practical training, participation in the programmes of international exchange of pupils and students, and/or other scientific/education activities;
- 3) Family rejoining;
- 4) Other reasonable reasons in accordance with the law or an international treaty.

A foreigner to whom temporary residence has been permitted due to the reasons referred to in paragraph 1 hereof shall be obliged to stay in the Republic of Serbia in accordance with the purpose for which the stay has been approved.

Applying for temporary residence and the pertinent competence

Article 27

A foreigner who is already resident in the Republic of Serbia on other grounds shall apply for temporary residence to the competent authority.

In addition to the application for temporary residence, a foreigner shall also be obliged to submit a valid foreign travel document, as well as other proof justifying the reasons on account of which he/she is requesting the approval of temporary residence.

The applicant in paragraph 1 of this Article may not alter the reason of stay during the course of the procedure.

A foreigner shall file the application for extension of the temporary residence period to the competent authority at least 30 days prior to the expiry of the temporary residence period.

The decision on the application referred to in paragraphs 1 and 4 hereof shall be taken by the competent authority with prior consent of the public authority competent to verify the justification of the reasons for temporary residence; the latter public authority shall be obliged to respond to the request for consent within 15 days.

Conditions for issuing permissions

Article 28

A foreigner may be granted the permission for temporary residence if he/she furnishes the proof that:

- 1) He/she has got sufficient financial means to sustain him/her;
- 2) He/she has got health insurance;
- 3) His/her reasons for temporary residence are justified and in compliance with the purpose of temporary residence referred to in Article 26, paragraph 1 of the Law.

Fulfilment of the conditions stipulated in paragraph 1, Item 2) hereof shall be specified in more detail in a regulation by the minister competent for interior affairs, with consent from the minister competent for health.

A foreigner shall be denied the permission for temporary residence if any obstacles referred to in Article 11, paragraph 1 of this Law exist.

As an exception to the provisions in paragraphs 1 and 3 hereof, if it is in the interest of a court procedure regarding the criminal act of human trafficking, a foreigner who is the victim of such a criminal act shall be given the permission for temporary residence in the Republic of Serbia, except when obstacles referred to in Article 11, paragraph 1, Items 6) and 8) of this Law exist.

During the temporary residence in the Republic of Serbia, the foreigner referred to in paragraph 5 hereof, who does not have sufficient financial means to sustain himself/herself, shall be provided with appropriate accommodation, meals and elementary living conditions.

Duration of temporary residence

Article 29

Temporary residence may be approved for a period of up to one year, and may be extended for the same period, unless otherwise provided in this Law or an international treaty.

The staff of a diplomatic mission or a consular office may be given the permission for temporary residence with the term of validity longer than one year, provided that the principle of reciprocity is applied.

The foreigner referred to in Article 28, paragraph 5 of this Law shall be given the permission for temporary residence with a term of validity corresponding the time necessary for his/her participation in the criminal procedure.

The permission for temporary residence shall be entered into the travel document of a foreigner. The term of validity of a travel document shall exceed by at least six months the term of validity of the granted permission.

Exceptionally, the permission for temporary residence of a foreigner who does not possess a valid travel document shall be granted and extended by means of a decision.

The layout, content and the procedure of entering the permission for temporary residence into a foreign travel document shall be prescribed by the minister competent for interior affairs.

Temporary residence for the purpose of work, employment or performance of other activities

Article 30

Temporary residence for the purpose of work, employment, performance of economic or other professional activity may be permitted to a foreigner:

- 1) Who has been granted the right to work, or the permission for temporary residence is a precondition for exercising that right, in accordance with the regulations governing the work of foreigners in the Republic of Serbia;
- 2) Who intends to stay in the Republic of Serbia longer than 90 days, provided that he/she has fulfilled all other conditions stipulated by this Law, and does not require a work permit in terms of the regulations governing the work of foreigners in the Republic of Serbia.

The temporary residence referred to in paragraph 1 hereof shall be permitted to a foreigner until the expiry of the term of approved labour contract in the Republic of Serbia, or with the term of validity referred to in Article 29, paragraph 1 of the Law, as appropriate.

Temporary residence for the purpose of enrolling a school or university

Article 31

In addition to the application for obtaining the permission for temporary residence for the purpose of enrolling a school, university or advanced education course, scientific research, practical training, participation in the programmes of international exchange of pupils or students, and/or other scientific/education activities, a foreigner shall be obliged to present the proof of fulfilment of the conditions referred to in Article 28, paragraph 1, Item 3) of the Law.

The fulfilment of the conditions referred to in Article 28, paragraph 1, Item 3) of the Law, with respect to paragraph 1 hereof, shall be stipulated more specifically in a regulation by the minister competent for education and the minister competent for science.

Temporary residence referred to in paragraph 1 hereof may be extended for the term of maximum two years after the expiry of the period prescribed for attending a school, university, advanced education or practical training course.

Temporary residence for the purpose of rejoining the family

Article 32

The application for obtaining the permission for temporary residence for the purpose of rejoining the family shall be submitted by a foreigner – a nuclear family member of a citizen of the Republic of Serbia, or a nuclear family member of a foreigner who has been given the permission for permanent residence or temporary residence.

For the purpose of this Law, the members of a nuclear family shall include: spouses, their underage children born in or out of wedlock, underage adopted children or underage stepchildren.

Exceptionally, other cousins may also be considered as members of the nuclear family, provided that there are especially important personal or humanitarian reasons for family rejoining in the Republic of Serbia.

The fulfilment of the conditions referred to in paragraphs 1 and 3 hereof shall be stipulated more specifically in a regulation by the minister competent for interior affairs, with consent of the minister competent for social policy.

Extension of temporary residence

Article 33

A foreigner, who is a member of the nuclear family of a citizen of the Republic of Serbia, may be granted extension of the temporary residence up to the period of three years, or until the fulfilment of the conditions for obtaining the permission for permanent residence.

A foreigner, who is a member of the nuclear family of a citizen of the Republic of Serbia, may also be granted extension of the temporary residence in the case if the citizen of the Republic of Serbia is deceased, as well as in the case of divorced marriage with a citizen of the Republic of Serbia which lasted in the Republic of Serbia at least three years.

Temporary residence of an underage foreigner born in the territory of the Republic of Serbia

Article 34

An underage foreigner born in the territory of the Republic of Serbia shall be granted extension of the temporary residence for the period specified for the temporary residence of one of his/her parents or guardians.

Cancellation of the permission to stay and prohibition of entry into the Republic of Serbia

Article 35

The competent authority shall cancel the permissions issued to a foreigner in the Republic of Serbia who has been granted the permission for a short stay of up to 90 days and a foreigner who has been granted the permission for temporary residence in the Republic of Serbia if any of the obstacles referred to in Article 11 of this Law occur, or are detected at a later stage.

In the process of cancellation, the competent authority shall prescribe a deadline of maximum 30 days within which the foreigner shall be obliged to leave the Republic of Serbia and the period during which the foreigner shall be prohibited to re-enter the Republic of Serbia.

The cancellation of stay and the prohibition of entry shall be entered in the foreign travel document in the way stipulated by the minister competent for interior affairs.

Termination of stay

Article 36

A foreigner's stay shall terminate:

- 1) By expiry of the term of validity of the permission to stay;
- 2) By cancellation of the permission to stay;
- 3) If the protective measure of removal or the security measure of banishment is imposed on him/her.

Permanent residence

Article 37

Permanent residence may be permitted to a foreigner:

- 1) Who has stayed with no interruptions in the Republic of Serbia for at least five years on account of the permission for temporary residence before applying for permanent residence permit;
- 2) Who has been married to a citizen of the Republic of Serbia, or a foreigner with permanent residence, for at least three years;
- 3) Who is an underage person in temporary residence in the Republic of Serbia if one of his/her parents is a citizen of the Republic of Serbia or a foreigner with permanent residence, subject to the consent of the other parent;
- 4) Who has ancestral links to the territory of the Republic of Serbia.

As an exception to the provisions of paragraph 1 hereof, permanent residence may also be granted to other foreigners who have been granted the permission for temporary residence, if required by the humanitarian reasons or if this is in the interest of the Republic of Serbia.

With respect to the duration of uninterrupted stay in the Republic of Serbia required for eligibility for permanent residence referred to in paragraph 1, Item 1) hereof, only one half of the time spent in the Republic of Serbia by a foreigner, who has been granted the permission for temporary residence in the Republic of Serbia for the purposes referred to in Articles 30 and 31 of the Law, shall be recognised to this end.

The uninterrupted stay, referred to in paragraph 1, Item 1) hereof, shall also mean the stay with multiple periods of absence from the Republic of Serbia, totalling to the maximum of ten months of absence, or a single period of absence of up to six months, over a period of five years.

Marriage, in terms of paragraph 1, Item 2) hereof shall mean the matrimonial community for the purposes of living together in the territory of the Republic of Serbia.

A parent, in terms of paragraph 1, Item 3) hereof shall also mean any person who is in legal terms equal to a parent.

The time served in prison by a foreigner who has been granted the permission for temporary residence shall not be recognised as time accrued for eligibility for permanent residence.

A foreigner who has been granted permanent residence shall be equal in terms of rights and obligations with the citizens of the Republic of Serbia, except regarding the rights and obligations from which he/she is exempt pursuant to the Constitution and the law.

Further conditions for obtaining the permission for permanent residence shall be prescribed by the minister competent for interior affairs.

Competence

Article 38

The Ministry shall decide upon an application for permanent residence.

Appeal against the decision on rejection of an application for permanent residence shall be decided upon by the Government.

Permanent residence permit shall be entered into the travel document of a foreigner, if the foreigner possesses one; otherwise, it shall be entered into the foreigner identification card.

The layout, content and the modality of entering the permanent residence permit into a travel document or foreigner identification card, as appropriate, shall be prescribed by the minister competent for interior affairs.

Rejection of an application

Article 39

Permanent residence shall not be granted to a foreigner:

- 1) Who fails to fulfil the requirements stipulated in Article 37 hereof;
- 2) Who has been convicted of a criminal offence for which the perpetrator is prosecuted ex officio or in case that proceedings have been instituted for such an offence;
- 3) Who does not have any means of subsistence;
- 4) Who does not have health insurance;
- 5) Who does not have place of residence;
- 6) For reasons of safeguarding public order or security of the Republic of Serbia and its citizens.

A foreigner who has not been granted permanent residence owing to reasons referred to in paragraph 1, items 3–6 of this Article, shall receive cancellation of temporary residence as well.

Cancellation of permanent residence

Article 40

Stay in the Republic of Serbia shall be cancelled to a foreigner who has been granted permanent residence in the Republic of Serbia in the following cases:

- 1) Under the circumstances referred to in Article 39, paragraph 1, items 3–5 hereof;

- 2) Upon release from prison, if he/she has received the final unconditional sentence to imprisonment of more than six months for a criminal offence for which perpetrators are prosecuted ex officio;
- 3) If the protective measure of removal or security measure of banishment has been imposed on him/her;
- 4) If this is required for reasons of safeguarding public order or security of the Republic of Serbia and its citizens;
- 5) If he/she has provided false data regarding his/her identity or has concealed circumstances relevant to issuing the permit.

Cancellation of stay shall be subject to the provisions of Article 35, paragraphs 2 and 3 hereof, as appropriate.

As an exception, time limit within which the foreigner referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article is obliged to leave the Republic of Serbia may be extended, out of humanitarian reasons, for up to six months.

Termination of the right to permanent residence

Article 41

A foreigner's right to permanent residence shall be terminated if:

- 1) It has been ascertained that the foreigner has moved out of the Republic of Serbia or that he/she has stayed abroad in continuity for longer than one year and has failed to notify this fact to the competent authority;
- 2) His/her stay has been cancelled;
- 3) He/she has renounced the right to permanent residence.

The form of the statement on renunciation of the right to permanent residence shall be prescribed by the minister competent for interior affairs.

V. UNLAWFUL stay

Obligation of a foreigner to leave the Republic of Serbia on the grounds of unlawful stay

Article 42

Stay on the territory of the Republic of Serbia without a visa, permission for temporary residence or other legal grounds shall be regarded as unlawful residence.

A foreigner who unlawfully stays in the Republic of Serbia is obliged to leave its territory immediately or within a set time limit.

A foreigner shall be considered to have left the Republic of Serbia when he/she enters another state which he/she is permitted to enter.

A foreigner who has submitted an application for the extension of temporary residence or for asylum in a timely manner may remain in the Republic of Serbia until the final decision regarding the application has been issued.

Time limit for leaving the Republic of Serbia

Article 43

Time limit within which a foreigner who unlawfully stays in the Republic of Serbia is obliged to leave its territory shall be set by the decision issued by the competent authority. If considered necessary, an exact border crossing point may be determined and obligation imposed on the foreigner to report to a police officer at the border crossing.

Appeal against the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not suspend execution of the decision.

When setting the time limit referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the competent authority shall take into account the time necessary for the foreigner to leave the territory of the Republic of Serbia; such time limit may not be longer than 30 days from the day of issuing the decision.

The responsible authority may set a new time limit to a foreigner who has not left the Republic of Serbia within the set time limit for justifiable reasons.

A foreigner on whom a protective measure of removal or a security measure of banishment has been imposed, as well as a foreigner who should be repatriated pursuant to an international agreement, shall be granted extension of time limit for leaving the state only if there are justifiable reasons for doing so.

Execution of protective measure of removal

Article 44

When imposing a protective measure of removing a foreigner from the territory of the Republic of Serbia, provisions of Article 35, paragraph 2 hereof shall apply as appropriate.

Obligation to report unlawful stay of a foreigner

Article 45

State authorities, legal entities and natural persons are obliged to notify the responsible authority, without delay, of a foreigner who unlawfully stays in the Republic of Serbia or of a foreigner who fulfils the requirements for cancellation of residence in the Republic of Serbia.

The authority which has instituted criminal or petty offence proceedings against a foreigner is obliged to inform the competent authority, without delay, of unlawful residence of the foreigner.

VI. FORCED removal

Time limit for forced removal

Article 46

The responsible authority shall forcibly remove a foreigner if the foreigner unlawfully resides in the Republic of Serbia or in case the foreigner has failed to leave the Republic of Serbia within the set time limit.

A foreigner on whom a protective measure of removal or a security measure of banishment has been imposed, as well as a foreigner who is to be repatriated pursuant to an international agreement, shall be forcibly removed immediately.

Prohibition of forced removal

Article 47

A foreigner may not be forcibly removed to a territory where he/she would be under threat of persecution on the grounds of his/her race, sex, religion, nationality, citizenship, membership of a particular social group or his/her political views.

Provision of paragraph 1 of this Article shall not apply to a foreigner who is, on reasonable grounds, regarded as a threat to security of the Republic of Serbia or to a foreigner finally convicted of a grave criminal offence, wherefore he/she represents a threat to public order.

Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Article, a foreigner may not be forcibly removed to a territory in which he/she would be under threat of torture, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

Detaining a foreigner

Article 48

As an exception, if required for reasons of security of forced removal, a foreigner may be detained on the premises of the competent authority, but not longer than 24 hours.

Detention of a foreigner shall be subject to provisions of the Law on Police.

Ordering the stay in the immigration detention centre

Article 49

A foreigner who cannot be forcibly removed immediately or a foreigner whose identity has not been ascertained or who does not possess a travel document, as well as in other cases stipulated by law, shall be ordered to stay in the immigration detention centre of the Ministry (hereinafter: detention centre), under close police surveillance, pursuant to a decision to be issued by the competent authority.

Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Article, a foreigner with health-related or other special needs shall be assigned other appropriate accommodation.

Appeal against the decision on ordering or extending the measure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, shall be decided upon by a responsible district court.

The procedure of resolving the appeal referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall be subject to the provisions of Article 53 of the Law on Police (Official Gazette RS, No. 101/05).

Appeal against the decision on ordering the stay in the detention centre shall not suspend execution of the decision.

Duration of stay in the detention centre

Article 50

A foreigner shall stay in the detention centre until the time of his/her forced removal. Duration of residence in the Shelter shall not be longer than 90 days.

Upon expiry of time limit referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, stay of a foreigner in the detention centre may be extended if:

- 1) Identity of the foreigner has not been ascertained;

- 2) The foreigner intentionally obstructs forced removal;
- 3) The foreigner has filed an application for asylum during the forced removal procedure, with the aim of avoiding forced removal.

Total duration of residence in the detention centre shall not exceed 180 days.

A foreigner whose identity has been ascertained shall be discharged from the detention centre if it is expected, on reasonable grounds, that forced removal of the foreigner will not be possible.

The time a foreigner has spent out of the detention centre, in prison or in confinement shall not count as time spent in the detention centre, with the exception of the case referred to in Article 48, paragraph 1 hereof.

House rules and rules of stay in the detention centre

Article 51

A foreigner is obliged to observe the house rules and rules of stay in the detention centre, which he/she may not leave without permission.

House rules and rules of stay in the detention centre shall be prescribed by the minister responsible for interior affairs.

Placement of a minor in the detention centre

Article 52

An underage foreigner shall be placed in the detention centre together with a parent or other legal representative, as appropriate, unless the competent authority estimates that another type of accommodation is more suitable to the minor.

An underage foreigner may not be returned to the country of origin or to a third country willing to receive him/her, until appropriate reception has been ensured.

Termination of stay in the detention centre

Article 53

Stay in the detention centre shall be terminated:

- 1) Upon foreigner's departure from the Republic of Serbia;
- 2) Upon expiry of the set time limit for such stay;
- 3) Upon revocation of the decision on ordering or extending the stay in the detention centre;
- 4) Upon foreigner's acquisition of the right to asylum;
- 5) By release from the Shelter pursuant to Article 50, paragraph 4 hereof.

Travel restriction order

Article 54

The competent authority may issue a decision on imposing a travel restriction order requiring the stay in a particular place (hereinafter: travel restriction order) on a foreigner whose identity is known, who has residence and means of subsistence and who cannot be forcibly removed immediately.

A foreigner subject to travel restriction order is obliged to remain at a particular address and to regularly report to the nearest competent authority.

When there are justifiable reasons, the foreigner may temporarily leave the place specified by the travel restriction order, only on condition that he/she is allowed to do so by decision of the competent authority.

Duration of travel restriction order may not exceed 180 days.

A foreigner may, through the competent authority, lodge an appeal with the Ministry against the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article and against the decision referred to in paragraph 3 of this article ruling that he/she is not allowed to leave, within eight days from the day of receipt of the decision. Appeal against the decision shall not suspend its execution.

The travel restriction order shall be entered into the foreigner's travel document. A foreigner who does not possess a travel document shall be issued with a temporary identification card.

The modality of entering travel restriction order into a travel document, as well as the layout of the temporary identification card shall be prescribed by the minister responsible for interior affairs.

In accordance with Article 49 hereof, the competent authority shall order stay in the detention centre to a foreigner who, intending to prevent or obstruct forced removal, acts in contravention of the provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article.

Termination of travel restriction order

Article 55

The travel restriction order shall be terminated:

- 1) Upon the foreigner's departure from the Republic of Serbia;
- 2) Upon expiry of the time period for which the travel restriction order was imposed;
- 3) By declaring the decision void in the appeal procedure;
- 4) When the competent authority declares the decision void in case that grounds for imposing the travel restriction order have ceased;
- 5) In the case referred to in Article 50, paragraph 4 hereof.

Costs of escorting a foreigner

Article 56

The costs of escorting a foreigner to the diplomatic mission or consular office or detention centre, and/or to the state border, shall be borne by the foreigner in question.

If the foreigner has no means of subsistence, the employer that has recruited the foreigner without the required permit and the person that has committed to bear the costs of the foreigner's stay in the Republic of Serbia shall bear the costs referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article jointly and severally.

The costs which cannot be recovered in the manner described in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall be charged to the budget of the Republic of Serbia.

Temporary confiscation of documents and travel tickets

Article 57

In order to ensure the enforcement of the protective measure of removal, the foreigner's travel or other documents and travel tickets may be temporarily confiscated.

A certificate of confiscation of documents and tickets referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be issued.

Treatment of persons with special needs

Article 58

Throughout the removal procedure, the competent authority shall take into consideration the specific situation of a foreigner belonging to a group of persons with special needs, such as: minors, persons fully or partially deprived of their legal capacity, children separated from their parents or legal guardians, persons with disabilities, elderly persons, pregnant women, single parents with underage children and persons who have been subjected to torture, rape or other grave forms of psychological, physical or sexual violence.

In the course of execution of official actions in respect of foreigners referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the competent authority is obliged to act in conformity with regulations governing the status of persons with special needs and with international treaties.
