(b) specify the right of the petitioner to present the election petition;

(c) state the holding of the election, the scores of the Candidates and the person returned as the winner of the election; and

(d) state clearly the facts of the election petition and the ground or grounds on which the petition is based and the relief sought by the petitioner.

(2) The election petition shall be divided into paragraphs each of which shall be confined to a distinct issue or major facts of the election petition, and every paragraph shall be numbered consecutively.

(3) The election petition shall further—

(a) conclude with a prayer or prayers, as for instance, that the petitioner or one of the petitioners be declared validly elected or returned, having polled the highest number of lawful votes cast at the election or that the election may be declared nullified, as the case may be; and

(b) be signed by the petitioner or all petitioners or by the Solicitor, if any, named at the foot of the election petition.

(4) At the foot of the election petition there shall also be stated an address of the petitioner for service at which address documents intended for the petitioner may be left and its occupier.

(5) If an address for service is not stated as specified in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, the petition shall be deemed not to have been filed, unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders.

(6) An election petition, which does not conform with, subparagraph (1) of this paragraph or any provision of that subparagraph is defective and may be struck out by the Tribunal or Court.

Further particulars.

5. Evidence need not be stated in the election petition, but the Tribunal or Court may order such further particulars as may be necessary—

(a) to prevent surprise and unnecessary expense;

(b) to ensure fair and proper hearing in the same way as in a civil action in the Federal High Court; and

(c) on such terms as to costs or otherwise as may be ordered by the Tribunal or Court.

Address of Service.

6. For the purpose of service of an election petition on the respondents, the petitioner shall furnish the Secretary with the address of the respondents' abode or the addresses of places where personal service can be effected on the respondents.

Action by Secretary.

7.—(1) On the presentation of an election petition and payment of the requisite fees, the Secretary shall forthwith—

(a) cause notice, of the presentation of the election petition, to serve on each of the respondents;

(b) post on the tribunal notice board a certified copy of the election petition; and .

(c) set aside a certified copy for onward transmission to the person or persons required by law to adjudicate and determine the election petition.

(2) In the notice of presentation of the election petition, the Secretary shall state a time, not being less than five days but not more than seven days after the date of service of the notice, within which each of the respondents shall enter an appearance in respect of the election petition.

(3) In fixing the time within which the respondents are to enter appearance, the Secretary shall have regard to—

(a) the necessity for securing a speedy hearing of the election petition; and

(b) the distance from the Registry or the place of hearing to the address furnished under subparagraph (4) of paragraph 4 of this Schedule.

Personal service on Respondent.

8.—(1) Subject to subparagraph (2) and (3) of this paragraph, service on the respondents—

(a) of the documents mentioned in subparagraph (1) (a) of paragraph 7 of this Schedule; and

(b) of any other documents required to be served on them before entering appearance, shall be personal.

(2) Where the petitioner has furnished, under paragraph 6 of this Schedule, the addresses of the places where personal service can be effected on the respondents and the respondents or any of them cannot be found at the place or places, the Tribunal or Court on being satisfied, on an application supported by an affidavit showing that all reasonable efforts have been made to effect personal service, may order that service of any document mentioned in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph be effected in any ways mentioned in the relevant provisions of the Civil Procedure Rules for effecting substituted service in Civil cases and that service shall be deemed to be equivalent to personal service.

(3) The proceedings under the election petition shall not be vitiated notwithstanding the fact that—

(a) the respondents or any of them may not have been served personally; or

(b) a document of which substituted service has been effected pursuant to an order made under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph did not reach the respondent, and in either case, the proceedings may be heard and continued or determined as if the respondents or any of them had been served personally with the document and shall be valid and effective for all purposes.

Entry of Appearance.

9.—(1) Where the respondent intends to oppose the election petition, he shall—

(a) within such time after being served or deemed have been served with the election petition; or

(b) where the Secretary has stated a time under subparagraph (2) of paragraph 7 of this Schedule, within such time as is stated by the Secretary, enter an appearance by filing in the Registry a memorandum of appearance stating that he intends to oppose the election petition and giving the name and address of the Solicitor, if any, representing him or stating that he acts for himself, as the case may be, and, in either case, giving an address for service at which documents intended for him may be left or served.

(2) If an address for service and its occupiers are not stated, the memorandum of appearance shall be deemed not to have been filed, unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders.

(3) The memorandum of appearance shall be signed by the respondent or his Solicitor, if any.

(4) At the time of filing the memorandum of appearance, the respondent or his Solicitor, as the case may be, shall—

(a) leave a copy of the memorandum of appearance for each of the other parties to the election petition and three other copies of the memorandum to be preserved by the Secretary; and

(b) pay the fees for service as may be prescribed or directed by the Secretary; and in default of the copies being left and the fees being paid at the time of filing the memorandum of appearance, the memorandum of appearance shall be deemed not to have been filed, unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders.

(5) A respondent who has a preliminary objection against the hearing of the election petition on grounds of law may file a conditional memorandum of appearance.

Non-filing of Memorandum of Appearance.

10.—(1) If the respondent does not file a memorandum of appearance as required under paragraph 9 of this Schedule, a document intended for service on him may be posted on the Tribunal notice board and that shall be sufficient notice of service of the document on the respondent.

(2) The non-filing of a memorandum of appearance shall, not bar the respondent from defending the election petition if the respondent files his reply to the election petition in the Registry within a reasonable time, but, in any case, not later than twenty-one (21) days from the receipt of the election petition.

Notice of Appearance.

11. The Secretary shall cause copies of the memorandum of appearance to be served on, or its notice to be given to the other parties to the election petition.

Filing of reply.

12.—(1) The respondent shall, within fourteen (14) days of entering an appearance file in the Registry his Reply, specifying in it which of the fact alleged in the election petition he admits and which he denies, and setting out the facts on which he relies in opposition to the election petition.

(2) Where the respondent in an election petition, complaining of an undue return and claiming the seat or office for a petitioner intends to prove that the claim is incorrect or false, the respondent in his reply shall set out the facts and figures clearly and distinctly disproving the claim of he petitioner.

(3) The reply may be signed by the respondent or the Solicitor representing him, if any.

(4) At the time of filing the reply, the respondent or his Solicitor, if any, shall leave with the Secretary copies of the reply for services on the other parties to the election petition with ten (10) extra copies of the reply to be preserved by the Secretary, and pay the fees for service as may be prescribed or directed by the Secretary, and in default of leaving the required copies of the reply or paying the fees for service, the reply shall be deemed not to have been filed, unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders.

Service of Reply.

13. The Secretary shall cause a copy of the reply to be served on each of the other parties to the election petition.

Amendment of Election petition and reply.

14.—(1) Subject to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the provisions of the Civil Procedure Rules relating to amendment of pleadings shall apply in relation to an election petition or a reply to the election petition as if for the words “any proceedings” in those provisions there were substituted the words “the election petition or reply”.

(2) After the expiration of the time limited by—

(a) Section 141 of this Act for presenting the election petition, no amendment shall be made:

(i) introducing any of the requirements of subparagraph (1) of paragraph 4 of this Schedule not contained in the original Election petition filed, or

(ii) effecting a substantial alteration of the ground for, or the prayer in, the election petition, or

(iii) except anything which may be done under the provisions of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, effecting a substantial alteration of or addition to, the statement of facts relied on to support the ground for, or sustain the prayer in the election petition; and

(b) paragraph 12 of the Schedule for filing the reply, no amendment shall be made—

(i) alleging that the claim of the seat or office by the petitioner is incorrect or false; or

(ii) except anything which may be done under the provisions of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, effecting any substantial alteration in or addition to the admissions or the denials contained in the original reply filed, or to the facts set out in the reply.

Particulars of votes rejected.

15. When a petitioner claims the seat alleging that he had the highest number of valid votes cast at the election, the party defending the election or return at the election shall set out clearly in his reply particulars of the votes, if any, which he objects to and the reasons for his objection against such votes, showing how he intends to prove at the hearing that the petitioner is not entitled to succeed.

Petitioner's Reply.

16.—(1) If a person in his reply to the election petition raises new issues of facts in defence of his case which the petition has not dealt with, the petitioner shall be entitled to file in the Registry, within five (5) days from the receipt of the respondent's reply, a petitioner's reply in answer to the new issues of fact, so however that—

(a) the petitioner shall not at this stage be entitled to bring in new facts, grounds or prayers tending to amend or add to the contents of the petition filed by him; .and

(b) the petitioner's reply does not run counter to the provisions of subparagraph (1) of paragraph 14 of this Schedule.

(2) The time limited by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not be extended.

Further particulars or directive.

17.—(1) If a party in an election petition wishes to have further particulars or other directions of the Tribunal or Court, he may, at any time after entry of appearance, but not later than ten days after the filing of the reply, apply to the Tribunal or Court specifying in his notice of motion the direction for which he prays and the motion shall, unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders, be set down for hearing on the first available day.

(2) If a party does not apply as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, he shall be taken to require no further particulars or other directions and the party shall be barred from so applying after the period laid down in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph has lapsed.

(3) Supply of further particulars under this paragraph shall not entitle the party to go beyond the ambit of supplying such further particulars as have been demanded by the other party, and embark on undue amendment of, or additions to, his petition or reply, contrary to paragraph 14 of this Schedule.

(c) cause notice thereof to be published in conspicuous places in the constituency, in such form as the Tribunal or Court may direct.

Notice of no opposition to petition.

33.—(1) If before the hearing of an election petition, a respondent, other than the Electoral Officer, the Returning Officer or Presiding Officer, gives to the Tribunal or Court notice in writing signed by him or his Solicitor before the Secretary that he does not intend to oppose the election petition, the Secretary shall—

(a) serve notice thereof on the other parties to the election petition; and

(b) post or cause to be posted a notice thereof on the Tribunal notice board.

(2) The respondent shall file the notice with a copy for each other party to the election petition not less than six days before the day appointed for hearing of the election petition.

(3) A respondent who has given notice of his intention not to oppose the election petition shall not appear or act as a party against the election petition in any proceeding on it; but the giving of the notice shall not of itself cause him to cease to be a respondent.

Countermand of notice of hearing.

34.—(1) Where a notice of—

(a) the petitioner's intention to apply for leave to withdraw an election petition; or

(b) the death of the sole petitioner or the survivor of several petitioners; or

(c) the respondent's intention not to oppose an election petition, is received after notice of hearing of the election petition has been given, and before the hearing has begun, the secretary shall forthwith countermand the notice of hearing.

(2) The countermand shall be given in the same manner, and, as near as may be, as the notice of hearing.

Discretion of Tribunals or Court if no reply.

35. Where the respondent has not entered an appearance, or has not filed his reply within the prescribed time or within such time as the Tribunal or Court may have allowed, or has given notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition, then if—

(a) there remains no more than one other candidate in the election who was not returned; or

(b) the election petition contains no prayer for a determination that the election was void; or

(c) there are no facts or grounds stated in the election petition or in the reply, if any, or stated in any further particulars filed in the proceedings or otherwise appearing on proof of which it ought to be determined that election was void; or

(d) the election petition is one complaining of undue return and claiming the seat or office for the candidate who was not returned and the respondent has not raised any formal or written objections to any of the votes relied on by the petitioner, the Tribunal or Court may, if it deems fit, determine the proceedings on the election petition without hearing evidence or further evidence, and in any case, the proceedings shall be continued and determined on such evidence or otherwise as the Tribunal or Court may deem necessary for the full and proper determination of the election petition.

(6) No fees shall be payable for the summoning of witnesses summoned by the Tribunal or Court at its own instance.

Allocation of costs.

37.—(1) All costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the presentation of an election petition and to the proceedings consequent thereon, with the exception of such as are otherwise provided for, shall be defrayed by the parties to the election petition in such manner and in such proportions as the Tribunal or Court may determine, regard being had to—

(a) the disallowance of any costs, charges or expenses, which may in the opinion of the Tribunal or Court have been caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegation or unfounded objection on the part of the petitioner or of the respondent, as the case may be; and

(b) the discouragement of any needless expenses by throwing the burden of defraying the expenses on the Party by whom it has been caused; whether that Party is or is not on the whole successful.

(2) Where the Tribunal or Court declare an election to be void, it may, if satisfied that the invalidity was due either wholly or in part to the culpable default of an officer responsible for the conduct of the election in the performance of his duties imposed by this Act, order that the whole or part of the cost awarded to the successful petitioner be paid by that officer.

Return of Security.

38. Money deposited as security shall, when no longer needed as security for costs, charges or expenses, be returned to the person in whose name it deposited or to the person entitled to receive it by order of the Tribunal or Court which may be made on motion after notice and proof that all just claims have been satisfied or otherwise sufficiently provided for as the Tribunal or Court may require.

Payment of costs out of security.

39.—(1) The Tribunal or Court may, on application made by a person to whom any costs, charges or expenses is payable, order it to be paid out of a deposit made to secure it, after notice to the party by or on whose behalf the deposit was made, requiring him to file a statement within a specified time whether he opposes the application and the ground of his opposition.

(2) Where a dispute arises on an application under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the Tribunal or Court shall afford every person affected by the dispute an opportunity of being heard and shall make such order there on as it may deem fit.

(3) A person shall, be deemed to have been afforded the opportunity of being heard if notice of the appointed time for the inquiry into the dispute was given to him, though the person may not have been present at the making of the inquiry.

(4) A notice to be given to a person under this paragraph may be given by the Secretary handing him the notice or sending it to him by registered letter—

(a) in the case of a party, at the address for service;

(b) in the case of an application for payment, at the address given in his application, so however, that the provisions of this subparagraph shall not preclude the giving of notice in any other manner in which notice may be given or which may be authorized by the Tribunal or Court.

(5) Execution may be levied under an order for payment made by the Tribunal or Court under this paragraph in the same manner and to the same extent as execution may be levied under judgment for the payment of money.

Calling of witnesses.

40.—(1) On the hearing of an election petition, the Tribunal or Court may summon a person as a witness who appears to the Tribunal or Court to have been concerned in the election.

(2) The Tribunal or Court may examine a witness so summoned or any other person in the Tribunal or Court although the witness or person is not called and examined by a party to the election petition, and thereafter he may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the petitioner and the respondent.

(3) The expenses of a witness called by the Tribunal or Court at its own instance shall, unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders, be deemed to be costs of the election petition and may, if the Tribunal or Court so directs, be paid in the first instance by the Secretary in the same way as State witness' expenses and recovered in such manner as the Tribunal or Court may direct.

(4) Where the Tribunal or Court summons a person as a witness under this paragraph, the provisions of the Civil Procedure Rules relating to the expenses of persons ordered to attend a hearing shall apply as if they were part of this paragraph.

(5) The Tribunal or Court shall—

(a) in making and carrying into effect an order for the production and inspection of documents used in the election; and

(b) in the examination of any witness who produces or will produce a document, ensure that the way in which the vote of a particular person has been given shall not be disclosed.

Privileges of a witness.

41.—(1) A person called as a witness in a proceeding in the Tribunal or Court shall not be excused from answering a question relating to an offence or connected with an election on the grounds that the answer thereto may incriminate or tend to incriminate him, or on the ground of privilege.

(2) A witness who answers truly all questions which he is required by the Tribunal or Court to answer shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity under the hand of the Chairman or the Tribunal or Presiding Justice of the Court stating that the witness has so answered.

(3) An answer by a person to a question before the Tribunal or Court shall not, except in the case of a criminal proceeding for perjury in respect of the answer, be admissible in any proceeding, civil or criminal, in evidence against him.

(4) When a person has received a certificate of indemnity in relation to an election and legal proceedings are at any time brought against him for an offence against the provisions of this Act, committed by him prior to the date of the certificate at or in relation to that election, the Tribunal or Court having cognizance of the case shall, on proof of the certificate, stay the proceeding, and may, at its discretion award to that person such costs as he may have been put to in the proceeding.

Evidence of Respondent.

42. At the hearing of an election petition complaining of an undue return and claiming the seat or office for a petitioner, the respondent may, subject to the provisions of subparagraph (2) of paragraph 12 of this Schedule, give evidence to prove that the election of the petitioner was undue in the same manner as if he were the person presenting the election petition complaining of the election.

Enlargement and abridgement of time.

43.—(1) The Tribunal or Court shall have power, subject to the provisions of Section 141 of this Act and paragraph 14 of this Schedule, to enlarge time for doing any act or taking any proceedings on such terms (if any) as the justice of the case may require except otherwise provided by any other provision of this Schedule.

(2) An enlargement of time may be ordered although the application for the enlargement is not made until after the expiration of the time appointed or allowed.

(3) When the time for delivering a pleading or document or filing any affidavit, answer or document, or doing anything or act is or has been fixed or limited by any of the sections, paragraphs or rules under or in pursuance of this Act or by a direction or an order of the Tribunal or Court, the costs of an application to extend the time, where allowed or of an order made there on shall be borne by the party making the application unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders.

- (4) Every application for enlargement or abridgement of time shall be supported by affidavit.
- (5) An application for abridgement of time may be ex parte, but the Tribunal or Court may require notice of the application to be given to the other parties to the election petition.
- (6) An application for enlargement of time shall be made by motion after notice to the other party to the election petition but the Tribunal or Court may, for good cause shown by affidavit or otherwise, dispense with the notice.
- (7) A copy of an order made for enlargement or abridgement of time shall be filed or delivered together with any document filed or delivered by virtue of the order.

Service of Notice.

44.—(1) Where a summons, notice or document, other than a notice or document mentioned in subparagraph (1) of paragraph 7 of this Schedule, is required to be served on a person for a purpose connected with an election petition, it may be served by delivering it to the person or by leaving it at his last known place of abode in the constituency with any person there found who is a resident of the abode and appears to be 18 years of age or more.

(2) After a party has given an address for service it shall be sufficient if, in lieu of serving him personally with a document intended for him, the document is served—

(a) on the person appearing on the paper last filed on his behalf as his Solicitor wherever the person may be found or, if the person is not found at his office, on the clerk there apparently in charge; or

(b) on the person named as occupier in his address for service wherever the person may be found or, if the person is not found at the address, on—

(i) the person there found apparently in charge, if such address is a place or business, or

(ii) a person, other than a domestic servant, there found who is a resident of the address and appears to be 18 years of age or more.

(3) A party may change his address for service by giving notice of his new address for service and its occupier to the Secretary and to each party to the election petition, but, until a notice, is received by the Secretary, his old address for service shall continue to be his address for service.

(4) Where service by one of the modes specified in this paragraph has proved impracticable, the Tribunal or Court may, on being satisfied, on an application supported by an affidavit showing what has been done, that all reasonable efforts have been made to effect service—

(a) order that service be effected in any of the ways mentioned in the provisions of the Civil Procedure Rules relating to substituted service which service shall be sufficient; or

(b) dispense with service or notice as the Tribunal or Court deems fit.

Two or more candidates as respondents.

45. Two or more candidates may be made respondents to the same petition and their case may, for the sake of convenience be heard at same time but for all purposes (including the taking of security) the election petition shall be deemed to be a separate petition against each of the respondents.

Consolidated petitions.

46. Where two or more petitions are presented in relation to the same election or return, all the petitions shall be consolidated, considered and be dealt with as one petition unless the Tribunal or Court shall otherwise direct in order to do justice or an objection in line against one or more of the petitions has been upheld by the Tribunal or Court.

Electoral Officer, etc. as Respondents.

47.—(1) Where an election petition complains of the conduct of an Electoral Officer, a Presiding Officer, Returning Officer or any other official of the Commission he shall for all purposes be deemed to be a respondent and joined in the election petition as a necessary party, but an Electoral Officer, a Presiding Officer, Returning Officer or any other official of the Commission shall not be at liberty to decline from opposing the petition except with the written consent of the Attorney-General of the Federation.

(2) If consent is withheld by the Attorney-General under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph the Government of the Federation shall indemnify the Electoral Officer, Presiding Officer, Returning Officer or such other official of the Commission against any costs which may be awarded against him by the Tribunal or Court in respect of the election petition.

(3) Where the Commission, an Electoral Officer, a Presiding Officer, Returning Officer or any other official of the Commission has been joined as a respondent in an election petition, a Legal Officer of the Commission or a Legal Practitioner engaged by the Commission or the Attorney-General of the State concerned (acting in person or through any of his Legal Officers), or the Attorney-General of the Federation (acting in person or through any of his Legal Officers) shall represent the Commission Electoral Officer, Presiding Officer, Returning Officer or other official of the Commission at the Tribunal or Court.

(4) A private Legal Practitioner engaged by the Commission under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph shall be entitled to be paid his professional fees and a Legal Officer so engaged shall be paid such honorarium as may be approved by the Commission.

Duplicate of document.

48. In the absence of express provision in this Schedule, a party filing any document or process paper in connection with any step being taken in the proceedings of an election petition shall, unless the Secretary otherwise directs, leave with the Secretary copies of the document or process paper for service on each of the parties to the election petition in addition to three copies which the Secretary may preserve.

Noncompliance with rules, etc.

49.—(1) Noncompliance with any of the provisions of this Schedule, or with a rule of practice for the time being operative, except otherwise stated or implied, shall not render any proceeding void, unless the Tribunal or Court so directs, but the proceeding may be set aside wholly or in part as irregular, or amended, or otherwise dealt with in such manner and on such terms as the Tribunal or Court may deem fit and just.

(2) An application to set aside an election petition or a proceeding resulting there from for irregularity or for being a nullity, shall not be allowed unless made within a reasonable time and when the party making the application has not taken any fresh step in the proceedings after knowledge of the defect.

(3) An application to set aside an election petition or a proceeding pertaining thereto shall show clearly the legal grounds on which the application is based.

(4) An election petition shall not be defeated by an objection as to form if it is possible at the time the objection is raised to remedy the defect either by way of amendment or as may be directed by the Tribunal or Court.

(5) An objection challenging the regularity or competence of an election petition shall be heard and determined before any further steps in the proceedings if the objection is brought immediately the defect on the face of the election petition is noticed.

Application of rules of court.

50. Subject to the express provisions of this Act, the practice and procedure of the Tribunal or the Court in relation to an election petition shall be as nearly as possible, similar to the practice and procedure of the Federal High Court in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction, and the Civil Procedure Rules shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary to render them applicable having regard to the provisions of this Act, as if the petitioner and the respondent were respectively the plaintiff and the defendant in an ordinary civil action.

Practice and Procedure of Court of Appeal and Supreme Court.

51. Subject to the provisions of this Act, an appeal to the Court of Appeal or to the Supreme Court shall be determined in accordance with the practice and procedure relating to appeals in the Court of Appeal or of the Supreme Court, as the case may be, regard being had to the need for urgency on electoral matters.

SUPPLEMENTAL

Transitional Provisions

(1) The statutory functions, rights, interests, obligations and liabilities of the Independent National Electoral Commission established pursuant to the 1998 Decree, existing before the commencement of this Act under any contract or instrument, or in law or in equity shall, by virtue of this Act, be deemed to have been assigned to and vested in the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act.

(2) Any such contract or instrument as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, shall be of the same force and effect against or in favour of the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act and shall be enforceable as fully and effectively as if instead of the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act, the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act has been named therein or had been a party thereto.

(3) The Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act shall be subject to all the obligations and liabilities to which the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act was subject immediately before the commencement of this Act and all other persons shall have the same rights powers and remedies against the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act as they had against the Independent National Electoral Commission of Nigeria existing before the commencement of the Act.

(4) Any proceeding or cause of action pending or existing immediately before the commencement of this Act, by or against the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act in respect of any right, interest, obligation or liability of the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act may be continued or as the case may commenced and any determination of the court of law, tribunal or other authority or person may be enforced by or against the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act to the same extent that such proceeding or enforced by or against the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act.

(5) All assets, funds, resources and other movable or immovable property, which immediately before the commencement of this Act, were vested in the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act shall by virtue of this Act and without further assurance, be vested in the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act.

(6) Any person who immediately before the coming into force of this Act is the holder of any office in the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act shall, on the commencement of this Act, continue in office and be deemed to have been appointed by his office by the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act unless the authority by which the person was appointed terminates the appointment.
