

FILM AGENDA

Palais des Nations

FILM SUMMARIES & INFORMATION

Monday, 29 June

	ROOM
14h40 UNHCR operation in Afghanistan (2'40'')	XXII
14h43 Serbia: Dreams of a better life (3'49'')	XXII
14h40 Floating clinic helps refugees and locals (2'36'')	XXIII
14h43 Iraq: On the Edge of Nowhere (3'31'')	XXIII

Tuesday, 30 June

	ROOM
9h35 Surviving in Iraq IDPs (4'07'')	XIX
9h40 OCHA IDPs Campaign Trailer (2')	XIX
11h20 Somali refugees: camps in crisis (4'45'')	XXII
11h25 Deminers clear the way home in Lebanon (3'43'')	XXIII
14h30 Life for Iraqi refugees increasingly desperate (14'38'')	XIX
14h40 Burundi: Finding our Place (3'31'')	XXII
14h40 A new life for refugees from Bhutan (3'12'')	XXIII

PRODUCED BY: UNHCR
 RUN TIME (MINS): 2'40"
 EXIBHITION: 29 June, 14.40 pm, Room XXII

UNHCR operation in Afghanistan

UNHCR Goodwill Ambassador Angelina Jolie appeals for more support for Afghan refugee returnees. During her first visit to Afghanistan, Jolie saw both the successes and difficulties facing Afghans returning home after years of exile.

PRODUCED BY: UNHCR
 RUN TIME (MINS): 3'49"
 EXIBHITION: 29 June, 14.43 pm, Room XXII

Serbia: Dreams of a better life

The story of Miljo Miljic, a refugee from Bosnia and Herzegovina. Miljo Miljic wants to go home, but he can't. He lives a day to day existence, hoping the future will be better for his children.

PRODUCED BY: UNHCR
RUN TIME (MINS): 2'36"
EXIBHITION: 29 June, 14.40 pm, Room XXIII

Floating clinic helps refugees and locals

Medical care is often a luxury that few refugees can afford or access. A new floating clinic launched by local authorities and UNHCR will now bring health care to refugees and locals in a remote corner of Ecuador.

PRODUCED BY: UNHCR
RUN TIME (MINS): 4'07"
EXIBHITION: 30 June, 9.35 pm, Room XIX

Surviving in Iraq

It's estimated that more than 2 million people are displaced in Iraq. The UN refugee agency is trying to help the most vulnerable get their papers in order .

PRODUCED BY: UNHCR
RUN TIME (MINS): 3'31"
EXIBHITION: 29 June, 14.43 pm, Room XXIII

Iraq: On the Edge of Nowhere

Six years after the invasion to oust Saddam Hussein, Iraq is still insecure and about 1.8 million people live in limbo – without a job or a place to call home.

PRODUCED BY: OCHA
RUN TIME (MINS): 2'4"
EXIBHITION: 30 June, 9.40 pm, Room XIX

OCHA IDP Campaign Trailer

A short film/trailer to draw attention to OCHA's 2009 IDP Advocacy Campaign and the plight of IDP's worldwide.

PRODUCED BY: UNHCR
RUN TIME (MINS): 4'45"
EXIBHITION: 30 June, 11.20 pm, Room XII

Somali refugees: camps in crisis

UNHCR faces a major challenge in finding solutions for newly arrived Somalia refugees in Kenya.

PRODUCED BY: UNHCR
RUN TIME (MINS): 14'38"
EXIBHITION: 30 June, 14.30 pm, Room XIX

Life for Iraqi refugees increasingly desperate

More than 4.5 million Iraqis have been uprooted by the crisis in their country. More than 2.5 million of them are displaced within Iraq, while over 2 million have found refuge abroad, including 1.4 million in Syria and some half-a-million in Jordan. Life is getting increasingly desperate for these refugees as they run out of resources and, in some cases, overstay their visas.

PRODUCED BY: UNHCR
RUN TIME (MINS): 3.43"
EXIBHITION: 30 June, 11.25 pm, Room XIII

Nansen Refugee Award - Deminers clear the way home in Lebanon

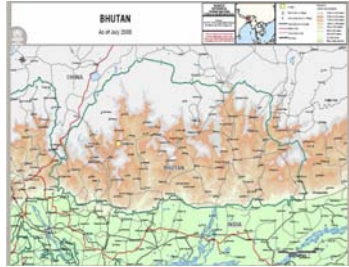

The 2008 Nansen Refugee Award recognizes the heroic work of Lebanese and international deminers in clearing southern Lebanon of tens of thousands of cluster munitions and allowing uprooted civilians to return home.

PRODUCED BY: UNHCR
RUN TIME (MINS): 3.31"
EXIBHITION: 30 June, 14.40 pm, Room XII

Burundi: Finding our Place

More than 75,000 Burundian refugees have returned home this year. One of the biggest challenges they face in restarting their lives is finding a place to live.

PRODUCED BY: UNHCR
RUN TIME (MINS): 3'12"
EXIBITION: 30 June, 14.40 pm, Room XXIII

A new life for refugees from Bhutan

They fled to Nepal from Bhutan amid ethnic tensions in the early 1990s.
Now, many of the slightly more than 100,000 refugees have been offered the possibility of resettlement to another country.