- (b) the relevant statements and documentaries presented by the applicant including information on whether the applicant has been or may be subject to persecution or serious harm;
- (c) the individual position and personal circumstances of the applicant, including factors such as background, gender and age, so as to assess whether, on the basis of the applicant's personal circumstances, the acts to which the applicant has been or could be exposed would amount to persecution or serious harm;

  - (ii) the application for international protection is considered to be unfounded due to the notion of safe country of origin or safe third country; or
  - (iii) where applicant has made inconsistent, contradictory, improbable or insufficient representations which made his claim clearly unconvincing in relation to his having been the object of persecution; or
  - (iv) the person has submitted a subsequent application which does not raise any relevant new elements with respect to his particular circumstances or to the situation in his country of origin; or
  - (v) where the applicant is making an application merely in order to delay or frustrate the enforcement of an earlier or imminent decision which would result in his removal; or

(2) A legal adviser who assists an applicant following a decision shall enjoy access to such information in the applicant's file as is liable to be examined by the Refugee Appeals Board in so far as the information is relevant to the examination of the application:

Provided that where disclosure of such information would jeopardize national security, the security of the organisations or persons providing information or the security of the persons to whom the information relates, or where the investigative interests relating to the examination of applications for international protection by the Commissioner or the international relations of Malta would be compromised, such access shall be precluded.

(3) The legal adviser who assists an applicant for international protection shall have access to closed areas such as detention facilities and transit zones for the purpose of consulting the applicant, subject to such limitations necessary for the security, public order or administrative management of the area.

(4) The Commissioner may provide that the applicant is allowed to bring with him to the personal interview a legal adviser:

8. The Commissioner shall ensure that, where a recommendation cannot be made within six months, the applicant concerned shall either:

Time limit for the decision.

- (a) be informed of the delay; or
- (b) receive, upon his request, information on the time frame within which the decision on his application is to be expected:

Provided that the Commissioner may assume that applicant has implicitly withdrawn his application for international protection when it is ascertained that:

- (a) he has refused notification of any document relating to the asylum procedure; or
- (b) he has failed to provide information essential to his application or has not appeared for a personal interview unless the applicant demonstrates, within a reasonable time, that his failure was due to circumstances beyond his control; or

Provided that:

This shall include information on the method of examination and the possible consequences of the result of the medical examination for the examination of the application for international protection, as well as the consequences of refusal on the part of the unaccompanied minor to undergo the medical examination which may include the rejection of his claim that he is a minor;

The representative shall be present at the interview and may ask questions or make comments within the framework set by the person who conducts the interview;
- (b) where an unaccompanied minor has a personal interview on his application for international protection, that interview is to be conducted and the decision prepared by a person who has the necessary knowledge of the special needs of minors.

Provided that in cases where there may be a threat to the life or integrity of the minor himself or his close relatives, particularly if they have remained in the country of origin, care must be taken to ensure that the collection, processing and circulation of information concerning these persons is undertaken on a confidential basis.

country as safe.

17. (1) In determining an application as inadmissible on the basis that a country is considered as a safe third country for the applicant, in accordance with article 24 of the Act, the Commissioner shall:

- (a) ensure that there is a connection between the applicant and the third country so that the applicant can reasonably be considered as able to go to that country;
- (b) ensure that the safety of the third country is assessed on an individual basis, taking into account any analysis made by reputable international organizations that may be available from time to time, including the office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees:

Provided that the applicant shall be able to appeal against the inadmissibility of the application on the basis of the safe third country if he can show that, should he be returned to such country, he will be subjected to torture, cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

(2) In taking the decision referred to in subregulation (1), the Commissioner shall:

- (a) inform the applicant of his decision;
- (b) provide him with a document informing the authorities of the third country, in the language of that country, that the application has not been examined in substance.

- (d) a group shall be considered to form a particular social group where in particular:
  - (i) members of that group share an innate characteristic, or a common background that cannot be changed, or share a characteristic or belief that is so fundamental to identity or conscience that a person should not be forced to renounce it, and
  - (ii) that group has a distinct identity in the relevant country, because it is perceived as being different by the surrounding society; and
  - (iii) depending on the circumstances in the country of origin, a particular social group might include a group based on a common characteristic or sexual orientation. (2) When assessing if an applicant has a well-founded fear of being persecuted, it is immaterial whether the applicant actually possesses the racial, religious, national, social or political characteristic which attracts the persecution, provided that such a characteristic is attributed to the applicant by the actor of persecution.
