- (e) in sub-paragraph (db) of the definition of “respondent”, for “application under the National Health Service Act 2006 or regulations having effect as if made under that Act by reason of section 4 of and Schedule 2 to the National Health Service (Consequential Provisions) Act 2006” substitute “health service case”;
- (f) in paragraph (db)(i) of the definition of “respondent”, after “Primary Care Trust” insert “or a Local Health Board”;
- (g) in paragraph (db)(ii) of the definition of “respondent”, after “Primary Care Trust” insert “or Local Health Board”.

(3) In rule 13 (sending and delivery of documents) after paragraph (1) insert—

“(1A) If the Tribunal permits or directs documents to be provided to it by email, the requirement for a signature on applications or references under rules 20(2), 22(4)(a) or 32(1)(b) may be satisfied by a typed instead of a handwritten signature.”

(4) In rule 20 (the application notice)—

(a) for paragraph (1) substitute—

“(1) If rule 19 (application for leave) does not apply, an applicant must start proceedings before the Tribunal by sending or delivering an application notice to the Tribunal so that, unless paragraph (1A) applies, it is received—

- (a) if the time for providing the application notice is specified in another enactment, in accordance with that enactment;
- (b) in a case under the Suspension Regulations, within 10 working days after written notice of the decision being challenged was sent to the applicant;
- (c) in a special educational needs case, within 2 months after written notice of the decision being challenged was sent to the applicant;
- (d) in a case listed in the Schedule, within 3 months after written notice of the decision being challenged was sent to the applicant;

(4) S.I. 2008/2699. Rule 1(3) and rule 20 have been amended by S.I. 2010/2653. The Schedule has been amended by S.I. 2009/1975 and S.I. 2010/2653.

(5) 2010 nawm 1

(6) 2006 c. 41

(7) 2006 c. 42

(8) 2006 c. 43

- (e) in any other case, within 28 days after written notice of the decision being challenged was sent to the applicant.”;
- (b) after paragraph (1) insert—
- “(1A) Where, in a health service case, the Tribunal has contingently removed a practitioner or performer from a list, an application may be made at any time if it is made under—
- (a) section 158(5)(a) of the National Health Service Act 2006;
 - (b) section 114(5)(a) of the National Health Service (Wales) Act 2006;
 - (c) regulation 15(6)(a) of the National Health Service (Performers Lists) Regulations 2004⁽⁹⁾; or
 - (d) regulation 15(6)(a) of the National Health Service (Performers Lists) (Wales) Regulations 2004⁽¹⁰⁾.”
- (5) In rule 21 (the response), for sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph (1) substitute—
- “(a) in a case under the Suspension Regulations, within 3 working days after the respondent received the application notice;
- (b) in a health service case, within 21 days after the respondent received the application notice;
 - (c) in a special educational needs case or a disability discrimination in schools case, within 30 working days after the respondent received the application notice;
 - (d) in any other case, within 20 working days after the respondent received the application notice.”.

(6) For the Schedule substitute—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules amend the Tribunal Procedure Rules applied by the First-tier Tribunal and Upper Tribunal. Apart from minor amendments which maintain the commonality of the drafting, the changes are as follows.

Rule 3 is about the Health, Education and Social Care Chamber (HESC). It simplifies the rules and the Schedule about time limits which apply in HESC cases. Rule 3 also makes textual amendments to take account of the coming into force of the Children and Families (Wales) Measure 2010 (2010 nawm 1). Rule 3(3) provides that a typed signature instead of a handwritten signature is permissible where applications or references are filed by email.

Rule 4 is about the Social Entitlement Chamber. In criminal injuries compensation cases the time limit for a response becomes 42 days.

Rule 6 is about the War Pensions and Armed Forces Compensation Chamber. It extends the time limit for all appeals under the Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act 1943 (c. 39) to 12 months.

Rule 8 is about the Upper Tribunal. Rule 8(2) amends the Tribunal Procedure (Upper Tribunal) Rules 2008 (S.I 2008/2698) to take account of appeal rights introduced by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Contribution to Costs of Special Resolution Regime) Regulations 2010 (S.I 2010/2220). Rule 8(3) gives the Upper Tribunal a discretion to allow a respondent to take part in a permission application for judicial review even if they have not filed an acknowledgement of service.

A regulatory impact assessment has not been prepared for these Rules as no impact on the public, private or voluntary sectors is foreseen.
