NOTE

In the Olympic Charter, the masculine gender used in relation to any physical person (for example, names such as member, leader, official, chef de mission, participant, competitor, athlete, judge, referee, member of a jury, attaché, candidate, personnel, or pronouns such as he, they, them) shall, unless there is a specific provision to the contrary, be understood as including the feminine gender.

Fundamental Principles

- 1 Modern Olympism was conceived by Pierre de Coubertin, on whose initiative the International Athletic Congress of Paris was held in June 1894. The International Olympic Committee (IOC) constituted itself on 23rd June 1894. In August 1994, the XII Congress, Centennial Olympic Congress, which was entitled “Congress of Unity”, was held in Paris .
- 2 Olympism is a philosophy of life, exalting and combining in a balanced whole the qualities of body, will and mind. Blending sport with culture and education, Olympism seeks to create a way of life based on the joy found in effort, the educational value of good example and respect for universal fundamental ethical principles.
- 3 The goal of Olympism is to place everywhere sport at the service of the harmonious development of man, with a view to encouraging the establishment of a peaceful society concerned with the preservation of human dignity. To this effect, the Olympic Movement engages, alone or in cooperation with other organizations and within the limits of its means, in actions to promote peace.
- 4 The Olympic Movement, led by the IOC, stems from modern Olympism.
- 5 Under the supreme Authority of the IOC, the Olympic Movement encompasses organizations, athletes and other persons who agree to be guided by the Olympic Charter. The criterion for belonging to the Olympic Movement is recognition by the IOC. The organization and management of sport must be controlled by the independent sport organizations recognized as such.

FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES

- 6 The goal of the Olympic Movement is to contribute to building a peaceful and better world by educating youth through sport practised without discrimination of any kind and in the Olympic spirit, which requires mutual understanding with a spirit of friendship, solidarity and fair play.
- 7 The activity of the Olympic movement, symbolized by five interlaced rings, is universal and permanent. It covers the five continents. It reaches its peak with the bringing together of athletes of the world at the great sports festival, the Olympic Games.
- 8 The practice of sport is a human right. Every individual must have the possibility of practising sport in accordance with his or her needs.
- 9 The Olympic Charter is the codification of the Fundamental Principles, Rules and Bye-laws adopted by the IOC. It governs the organization and operation of the Olympic Movement and stipulates the conditions for the celebration of the Olympic Games.

The Olympic Movement

1 Supreme Authority

- 1 The IOC is the supreme authority of the Olympic Movement.
- 2 Any person or organization belonging in any capacity whatsoever to the Olympic Movement is bound by the provisions of the Olympic Charter and shall abide by the decisions of the IOC.

2 Role of the IOC

The role of the IOC is to lead the promotion of Olympism in accordance with the Olympic Charter. For that purpose the IOC:

- 1 encourages the coordination, organization and development of sport and sports competitions, and ensures the promotion and application, in liaison with the international and national sports institutions, of measures aimed at strengthening the unity of the Olympic Movement;
- 2 collaborates with the competent public or private organizations and authorities in the endeavour to place sport at the service of humanity;
- 3 ensures the regular celebration of the Olympic Games;
- 4 participates in actions to promote peace, acts to protect the rights of the members of the Olympic Movement and acts against any form of discrimination affecting the Olympic Movement;
- 5 strongly encourages, by appropriate means, the promotion of women in sport at all levels and in all structures, particularly in the executive bodies of national and international sports organizations with a view to the strict application of the principle of equality of men and women;
- 6 supports and encourages the promotion of sports ethics;

The Olympic Movement

- 7 dedicates its efforts to ensuring that in sports the spirit of fair play prevails and violence is banned;
- 8 leads the fight against doping in sport;
- 9 takes measures the goal of which is to prevent endangering the health of athletes;
- 10 opposes any political or commercial abuse of sport and athletes;
- 11 encourages sports organizations and public authorities to use their best efforts to provide for the social and professional future of athletes;
- 12 encourages the development of sport for all, which is part of the foundations of high-level sport, which in turn contributes to the development of sport for all;
- 13 sees to it that the Olympic Games are held in conditions which demonstrate a responsible concern for environmental issues and encourages the Olympic Movement to demonstrate a responsible concern for environmental issues, takes measures to reflect such concern in its activities and educates all those connected with the Olympic Movement as to the importance of sustainable development;
- 14 supports the International Olympic Academy (IOA);
- 15 supports other institutions which devote themselves to Olympic education.

3 Belonging to the Olympic Movement

- 1 In addition to the IOC, the Olympic Movement includes the International Federations (IFs), the National Olympic Committees (NOCs), the Organizing Committees of the Olympic Games (OCOGs), the national associations, clubs, and the persons belonging to them, particularly the athletes whose interests constitute a fundamental element of its actions, and judges / referees, coaches and the other sports technicians. It also includes other organizations and institutions as recognized by the IOC.

The Olympic Movement

- 2 Any form of discrimination with regard to a country or a person on grounds of race, religion, politics, sex, or otherwise is incompatible with belonging to the Olympic Movement.

4 Recognition by the IOC

- 1 In order to promote the Olympic Movement throughout the world, the IOC may recognize as NOCs organizations the activity of which is linked to its role. Such organizations shall have, where possible, the status of legal persons in their countries. They must be established in accordance with the Olympic Charter, and their statutes must be approved by the IOC.
- 2 The IOC may recognize associations of NOCs formed at continental or world level, such as:
 - Association of National Olympic Committees (ANOC);
 - Association of National Olympic Committees of Africa (ANOCA);
 - Olympic Council of Asia (OCA);
 - Pan-American Sports Organization (PASO);

 - Association of Summer Olympic International Federations (ASOIF);
 - Association of the International Winter Sports Federations (AIWF);
 - Association of the IOC Recognized International Sports Federations (ARISF);
 - General Association of International Sports Federations (GAISF).
- 4 The recognition of associations of IFs or NOCs does not in any way affect the right of each IF and of each NOC to deal directly with the IOC and vice versa.
- 5 The IOC may recognize non-governmental organizations connected with sport, operating on an international level, the statutes and activities of which are in conformity with the Olympic Charter.
- 6 The IOC may withdraw, with immediate effect, its recognition from IFs, NOCs, and other associations and organizations.

5 Patronage by the IOC

- 1 The IOC may grant its patronage, upon such terms and conditions as it may consider appropriate, to international multisports competitions - regional, continental or worldwide - on condition that they take place in strict compliance with the Olympic Charter and are organized under the control of NOCs or associations recognized by the IOC, with the assistance of the IFs concerned and in conformity with their technical rules.
- 2 Furthermore, the IOC Executive Board may grant IOC patronage to other events, provided such events are in keeping with the goal of the Olympic Movement.

The Olympic Movement

6 Periodic Consultation with the IFs and with the NOCs

The IOC Executive Board organizes periodic meetings with the IFs and with the NOCs at least once every two years. Such meetings are chaired by the President of the IOC who determines the procedure and the agenda after consultation with the relevant bodies.

- 2 The Olympic Congress is composed of the members and honorary members of the IOC, of the delegates representing the IFs, the NOCs, and the organizations recognized by the IOC. In addition, the Olympic Congress comprises athletes and personalities invited in their individual capacity or on behalf of the organization which they represent.
- 3 The IOC Executive Board determines the agenda of the Olympic Congress after consultation with the IFs and the NOCs.

8 *Olympic Solidarity

- 1 The aim of Olympic Solidarity is to organize aid to NOCs recognized by the IOC, in particular those which have the greatest need of it. This aid takes the form of programmes elaborated jointly by the IOC and the NOCs, with the technical assistance of the IFs, if necessary.
- 2 All such programmes are administrated by the Olympic Solidarity Commission which is chaired by the President of the IOC.

- 3 The Olympic Games consist of the Games of the Olympiad and the Olympic Winter Games. Both take place every four years, subject to the provisions of paragraph 4 below.
- 4 The first Olympic Winter Games were celebrated in 1924. Starting from that date, they are numbered in the order in which they are held, the XVII Olympic Winter Games being, however, held in 1994. Those sports which are practised on snow and ice are considered as winter sports.

10 Olympiad

- 1 The term “Olympiad” designates a period of four successive years. The Olympiad begins with the opening of one edition of the Games of the Olympiad and ends with the opening of the following edition.
- 2 In the event of non-celebration of the Games of an Olympiad, such Olympiad begins four years after the start of the preceding Olympiad.
- 3 The Olympiads are numbered consecutively from the first Olympic Games (Games of the Olympiad) of modern times, celebrated in Athens in 1896.

11 Rights over the Olympic Games

The Olympic Games are the exclusive property of the IOC which owns all rights relating thereto, in particular, and without limitation, the rights relating to their organization, exploitation, broadcasting and reproduction by any means whatsoever.

The Olympic Movement

All profits derived from the celebration of the Olympic Games shall be applied to the development of the Olympic Movement and of sport.

- 1 The Olympic symbol consists of the five Olympic rings used alone, in one or in several colours.
- 2 The five colours of the rings are mandatorily blue, yellow, black, green and red. The rings are interlaced from left to right. The blue, black and red rings are situated at the top, the yellow and green rings at the bottom. The whole approximately forms a regular trapezium, the shorter of the parallel sides forming the base, according to the official design deposited at the IOC headquarters and reproduced below.
- 3 The Olympic symbol represents the union of the five continents and the meeting of athletes from throughout the world at the Olympic Games.

13 *Olympic Flag

The Olympic flag has a white background, with no border. In its centre is located the Olympic symbol in its five colours. Its design and proportions shall be those of the flag presented by Pierre de Coubertin at the Paris Congress in 1914.

- 2 The design of any Olympic emblem shall be submitted to the IOC Executive Board for its approval. Such approval is a prerequisite to any use of such emblem.

16 *Olympic Anthem

The Olympic anthem is that approved by the IOC at its 55th Session in 1958 in Tokyo, the score of which has been deposited at the IOC headquarters.

17 *Rights to the Olympic Symbol, Flag, Motto and Anthem

All rights to the Olympic symbol, the Olympic flag, the Olympic motto and the Olympic anthem belong exclusively to the IOC.

BYE-LAW TO RULES 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 AND 17

- 1.1 The IOC may take all appropriate steps to obtain the legal protection, both on a national and international basis, of the Olympic symbol, flag, motto and anthem.
- 1.2 Even if the national law or a trademark registration grants to an NOC the protection of the Olympic symbol, such NOC may only use the ensuing rights in accordance with instructions received from the IOC Executive Board.

The Olympic Movement

- 2 Each NOC is responsible to the IOC for the observance, in its country, of Rules 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 and of their Bye-law. It shall take steps to prohibit any use of the Olympic symbol, flag, motto or anthem which would be contrary to these Rules or their Bye-law. It shall also endeavour to obtain protection of the designations “Olympic” and “Olympiad” for the benefit of the IOC.
- 3 An NOC may at any time call upon the IOC for its assistance in obtaining protection, as envisaged above, for the Olympic symbol, flag, motto or anthem and for the settlement of any differences which may arise with third parties in such matters.
- 4 The NOCs may only use the Olympic symbol, flag, motto and anthem within the framework of their non-profit-making activities, provided such use contributes to the development of the Olympic Movement and does not detract from its dignity and provided the NOCs concerned have obtained the prior approval of the IOC Executive Board.
- 5 The IOC encourages, in collaboration with the NOCs of the countries concerned, the use of the Olympic symbol on postage stamps issued in liaison with the IOC by the competent national authorities.
- 6 The IOC may create one or several Olympic emblems which it may use at its discretion.
- 7
 - 7.1 An Olympic emblem may be created by an NOC or an OCOG.

 - 7.3 The area covered by the Olympic symbol contained in an Olympic emblem shall not exceed one third of the total area of such emblem. Furthermore, the Olympic symbol contained in an Olympic emblem must appear in its entirety and must not be altered in any way whatsoever.

The Olympic Movement

7.4 In addition to the foregoing, the Olympic emblem of an NOC must fulfil the following conditions:

7.4.1 The emblem must be designed in such a way that it is clearly identified as being connected with the country of the NOC concerned.

7.4.2 The distinctive element of the emblem cannot be limited to the sole name - or abbreviation of such name - of the country of the NOC concerned.

7.4.3 The distinctive element of the emblem must not make reference to the Olympic Games or to a specific date or event, so as to be limited in time.

7.4.4 The distinctive element of the emblem must not contain mottoes, designations or other generic expressions which give the impression of being universal or international in nature.

7.5 In addition to the provisions contained in paragraphs 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3 above, the Olympic emblem of an OCOG must fulfil the following conditions:

7.5.1 The emblem must be designed in such a way that it is clearly identifiable as being connected with the Olympic Games organized by the OCOG concerned;

7.5.2 The distinctive element of the emblem cannot be limited to the sole name - or abbreviation of such name - of the country of the OCOG concerned;

The Olympic Movement

- 7.5.3 The distinctive element of the emblem must not contain mottoes, designations or other generic expressions which give the impression of being universal or international in nature.
- 7.6 Any Olympic emblem which has been approved by the IOC Executive Board before the coming into effect of the foregoing provisions shall remain valid.
- 7.7 Whenever and wherever possible, the Olympic emblem of an NOC must be susceptible of registration (i.e. of legal protection) by the NOC in its country. The NOC must carry out such registration within six months of such emblem's approval by the IOC Executive Board and provide the IOC with proof of registration. IOC Executive Board approval of Olympic emblems may be withdrawn unless the NOCs concerned take all possible steps to protect their Olympic emblems and inform the IOC of such protection. Similarly, the OCOGs must protect their Olympic emblems, in the manner described above, in their countries as well as in other countries as decided in consultation with the IOC Executive Board. Any protection obtained by the NOCs and the OCOGs cannot be put forward against the IOC.
- 8 The use of the Olympic symbol, flag, motto and anthem for any advertising, commercial or profit-making purposes whatsoever is strictly reserved for the IOC.
- 9 The use of an Olympic emblem for any advertising, commercial or profit-making purposes whatsoever must be in accordance with the conditions laid down in paragraphs 10 and 11 below.
- 10 Any NOC or OCOG wishing to use its Olympic emblem for any advertising, commercial or profit-making purposes whatsoever, either directly or through third parties, must comply with this Bye-law and ensure its observance by such third parties.

The Olympic Movement

- 11 All contracts or arrangements, including those concluded by an OCOG, shall be signed or approved by the NOC concerned and shall be governed by the following principles:
- 11.1 The use of an NOC Olympic emblem shall only be valid within the country of the said NOC; such emblem, as well as any other Olympic-related symbols, emblems, marks or designations of an NOC, may not be used for any advertising, commercial or profit-making purposes whatsoever in the country of another NOC without the latter's prior written approval;
 - 11.2 similarly, the Olympic emblem of an OCOG as well as any other Olympic-related symbols, emblems, marks or designations of an OCOG, may not be used for any advertising, commercial or profit-making purposes whatsoever in the country of an NOC without the prior written approval of such NOC;
 - 11.3 in all cases, the period of validity of any contract concluded by an OCOG must not extend beyond December 31st of the year of the Olympic Games concerned;
 - 11.4 the use of an Olympic emblem must contribute to the development of the Olympic Movement and must not detract from its dignity; any association whatsoever between an Olympic emblem and products or services is prohibited if such association is incompatible with the fundamental principles of the Olympic Charter or the role of the IOC as set out therein.
 - 11.5 upon request by the IOC, any NOC or OCOG shall provide a copy of any contract to which it is a party.
- 12 The Olympic symbol and the Olympic emblems of the IOC may be exploited by it or by a person authorized by it, in the country of an NOC, provided that the following conditions are respectively fulfilled:

The Olympic Movement

- 12.1 For all sponsorship and suppliership agreements and for all marketing initiatives other than those referred to in paragraph 12.2 below, the condition shall be that such exploitation does not cause serious damage to the interests of the NOC concerned and that the decision be taken by the IOC Executive Board in consultation with such NOC, which shall receive part of the net proceeds deriving from such exploitation.
- 12.2 For all licensing agreements, the condition shall be that the NOC shall receive half of all net income from such exploitation, after deduction of all taxes and out-of-pocket costs relating thereto. The NOC will be informed in advance of any such exploitation.

The IOC, in its sole discretion, may authorize the broadcasters of the Olympic Games to use the Olympic symbol and the Olympic emblems of the IOC and the OCOGs to promote the broadcasts of the Olympic Games. The provisions of paragraphs 12.1 and 12.2 of this bye-law do not apply in respect of any such authorization.

The International Olympic Committee

IOC

19 Legal Status

- 1 The IOC is an international non-governmental non-profit organization, of unlimited duration, in the form of an association with the status of a legal person, recognized by decree of the Swiss Federal Council of September 17th, 1981.
- 2 Its domicile is in Lausanne, Switzerland.
- 3 The mission of the IOC is to lead the Olympic Movement in accordance with the Olympic Charter.
- 4 The decisions of the IOC, taken on the basis of the provisions of the Olympic Charter, are final. Any dispute relating to their application or interpretation may be resolved solely by the IOC Executive Board and, in certain cases, by arbitration, before the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS).

20 Members

1 Recruitment

- 1.1 The IOC chooses and elects its members from among such persons as it considers qualified. They must be nationals of a country in which they have their domicile or their main centre of interests and in which there is an NOC recognized by the IOC. Furthermore, such persons must speak at least one of the languages used at IOC Sessions.
- 1.2 There cannot be more than one member elected in a country. The IOC may, however, elect a second member in countries in which either the Games of the Olympiad or the Olympic Winter Games have been held.

The International Olympic Committee

1.3 In addition, the President can propose to the Session to elect no more than ten members without distinction of nationality or domicile. These elections must be motivated:

1.3.1 by the function of the persons concerned; or

1.3.2 by their particular qualifications.

Any member so elected must refrain from taking part in a vote in the following circumstances:

- when the vote concerns an Olympic Games host city election in which a city in the country of which he is a national is a candidate;
- when the vote concerns the selection of a venue for a Session, an Olympic Congress or any other meeting or event for which a city or any other public authority of the country of which he is a national is a candidate;
- when the vote concerns the election to membership in the International Olympic Committee of a candidate who is a national of the same country as the member;
- when the vote concerns the election, to any office on the Executive Board, or to any other office, of a candidate who is a national of the same country as the member;
- when the vote concerns any other matter relating to the country of which he is a national or the NOC of that country.

In case of doubt, the chairman shall decide whether or not the member concerned may take part in a vote.

At no time can the number of members so elected exceed ten.

The International Olympic Committee

- 1.4 The IOC admits them as members at a ceremony during which they agree to fulfil their obligations by taking the following oath: “Granted the honour of becoming a member of the International Olympic Committee and of representing it in my country, ..., and declaring myself aware of my responsibilities in such capacity, I undertake to serve the Olympic Movement to the very best of my ability, to respect and ensure the respect of all the provisions of the Olympic Charter and the decisions of the IOC, which I consider as not subject to appeal on my part, to keep myself free from any political or commercial influence and from any racial or religious consideration, and to defend in all circumstances the interests of the IOC and those of the Olympic Movement.”
- 1.5 Members of the IOC are its representatives in their respective countries and not delegates of their countries within the IOC.
- 1.6 Members of the IOC may not accept from governments, organizations, or other legal entities or natural persons, any mandate liable to bind them or interfere with the freedom of their action and vote.
- 1.7 Any member having served the IOC for at least ten years and who retires due to age, health or any other reason accepted by the IOC Executive Board, shall become an honorary member. Honorary members may continue their activities on behalf of the IOC. Their status remains unchanged, except that they shall no longer have the right to vote; they are invited to attend the Olympic Games, Olympic Congresses and IOC Sessions, where a place is reserved for each of them; they offer their advice when requested by the IOC President. The Olympic Order may be conferred on them.
- 1.8 IOC members are not personally liable for the debts and obligations of the IOC.

The International Olympic Committee

- 2.7 to perform other tasks assigned to him by the President, including, when needed, the representation of the IOC in any other country or territory.

3 Cessation of Membership

- 3.1 Any member of the IOC may terminate his membership at any time by delivering his written resignation to the President of the IOC. Before taking cognizance of such resignation, the IOC Executive Board may ask to hear the resigning member.

The International Olympic Committee

- 3.2 Any member of the IOC must retire at the end of the calendar year in which he reaches the age of 80, unless he was elected before the year 1966. If a member reaches this age limit while occupying the office of President, Vice-President or member of the IOC Executive Board, retirement shall be effective at the end of the IOC Session during which the term of such office is completed.
- 3.3 A member is deemed to have resigned and thus forfeits his membership without any further declaration on his part if he changes his nationality or transfers his domicile or main centre of interests to another country. The same shall apply, subject to force majeure, if he fails to attend Sessions or to take any active part in IOC works for two years. In such cases, the loss of membership will be ascertained by decision of the IOC.
- 3.4 An IOC member or honorary member may be expelled by decision of the IOC Session if he has betrayed his oath or if the Session considers that such member has neglected or knowingly jeopardized the interests of the IOC or has acted in a way which is unworthy of the IOC.
- 3.5 Decisions to expel an IOC member or honorary member are taken by a majority of two-thirds of the members present at the Session on the proposal of the Executive Board. The member concerned shall have the possibility to state his case and appear personally to such effect before the IOC Session.

21 Organization

The organs of the IOC are:

- 1 the Session,
- 2 the Executive Board,
- 3 the President.

The International Olympic Committee

- 4 In the event of doubt in determining the competence of one or the other of the organs of the IOC, the expression IOC used with no other specification or addition shall be understood as meaning the “Session”, subject to such delegation of powers which may have been made in favour of the Executive Board.

22 Sessions

- 1 A general meeting of the members of the IOC, called a Session, is held at least once a year. An extraordinary Session is convened upon the initiative of the President or upon the written request of at least one third of the members.
- 2 The place at which the Session is held is determined by the IOC, and that at which an extraordinary Session is held is determined by the President. The notices of the Sessions or extraordinary Sessions are sent out by the President at least one month before the meeting, together with an agenda.
- 3 The organization of the Session, including all financial matters relating thereto, is governed by the “Guide to Organizing Sessions” and other communications issued to that effect by the IOC Executive Board.
- 4 The Session is the supreme organ of the IOC. It adopts, modifies and interprets the Olympic Charter. Its decisions are final. Upon proposal of the Executive Board, it elects the members of the IOC.
- 5 The Session may delegate powers to the Executive Board.

23 Executive Board

- 1 Composition

The Executive Board consists of the President, four Vice-Presidents and six additional members.

The International Olympic Committee

2 Election

All the members of the Executive Board are elected by the Session, upon secret ballot, by a majority of votes cast.

3 Duration of mandates

3.1 The duration of the presidential mandate is set out in Rule 24 hereafter. The duration of the mandates of the Vice-Presidents and of the six other members of the Executive Board is four years.

3.2 Members of the Executive Board begin their mandates at the end of the Session which elected them; however, as soon as they are elected, they may participate in a consultative capacity at Executive Board meetings. Their mandates are terminated at the end of the last ordinary Session held during the year in which they expire.

4 Renewal of mandates

4.1 The conditions for the renewal of the President's mandate are set out in Rule 24 hereafter.

4.2 A Vice-President may only be re-elected to such office after a minimum period of four years. Furthermore, a Vice-President may not be re-elected to the Executive Board during the year in which his mandate expires, except for the office of President.

4.3 A member other than the President and the four Vice-Presidents may not be re-elected to the Executive Board during the year in which his mandate expires, except for the offices of President or Vice-President.

5 Vacancies

5.1 The case of vacancy of the President's office is addressed in Rule 24 hereafter.

The International Olympic Committee

- 5.2 In case of vacancy of a Vice-President's office, the IOC elects a new Vice-President at its following Session. Such new Vice-President holds office until the mandate of the Vice-President he is replacing expires. He is then immediately re-eligible for any office on the Executive Board.
- 5.3 In case of vacancy of another office within the Executive Board, the IOC elects a new member of the Executive Board at its following Session. Such new member completes the mandate of the member he is replacing. He is then immediately re-eligible for any office on the Executive Board.

The Executive Board manages the affairs of the IOC. In particular, it performs the following duties:

- 6.1 it attends to the observance of the Olympic Charter;

- 6.11 it performs all other duties assigned to it by the Session.

The Executive Board meets when convened by the President on the latter's initiative or at the request of the majority of its members.

24 The President

- 1 The IOC elects upon secret ballot a President from among its members, for a period of eight years. The President may be re-elected for successive four-year terms.
- 2 Except as provided in paragraph 3 below, the President is elected by the Session held during the second year of the Olympiad.
- 3 If the President is unable to fulfil the duties of his office, the Vice-President, who is senior in such office, replaces him until a new President is elected at the next IOC Session. This new President then completes the term of office of the President whom he replaces. The President is then re-eligible in accordance with the first sentence of paragraph 1 above.
- 4 The President presides over all activities of the IOC and represents it permanently.

The International Olympic Committee

- 5 The President sets up permanent or ad hoc commissions and working groups whenever it appears necessary, establishes their terms of reference and designates their members. The President decides their dissolution once he considers that they have fulfilled their mandates. No meeting of such commissions or working groups may be held without the prior agreement of the President of the IOC. The President is a member ex officio of all commissions and working groups and shall have precedence whenever he attends one of their meetings.

An Athletes' Commission shall be constituted, the majority of whose members shall be athletes elected by athletes participating in the Olympic Games. The election shall be held on the occasion of the Games of the Olympiad and the Olympic Winter Games in accordance with regulations adopted by the IOC Executive Board, in consultation with the Athletes' Commission, and communicated to the IFs and NOCs one year prior to the Olympic Games at which such election is to be held.

The right to be heard in the sense of this provision includes the right to be acquainted with the charges and the right to appear personally or to submit a defence in writing.
- 4 Any measure or sanction decided by the Session or Executive Board shall be notified in writing to the party concerned.
- 5 All measures or sanctions shall be effective forthwith unless the competent organ decides otherwise.

26 Procedures

1 Ordinary Procedure

- 1.1 The President, or, in his absence, the attending Vice-President who is senior in such office, chairs the Sessions and the meetings of the Executive Board. In the absence of the President and the Vice-Presidents, the attending member of the Executive Board who is senior in such office acts as Chairman.
- 1.2 The quorum required for a Session is half the total membership of the IOC, plus one. The quorum required for a meeting of the IOC Executive Board is six members.
- 1.3 Decisions are taken by a majority of the votes cast; however, a majority of two-thirds of the IOC members attending the Session (the said majority consisting of at least thirty members) is required for any modification of the Fundamental Principles and the Rules. The modified Rules and Bye-laws come into effect immediately, unless otherwise decided by the Session. A matter which does not appear on the agenda of a Session may be discussed if one third of the members so request or if the Chairman authorizes it.

- 1.4 Each member has one vote. Abstentions and blank or spoiled votes are not taken into consideration in the calculation of the required majority. Voting by proxy is not allowed. Voting is held by secret ballot if the Chairman so decides or upon the request of at least a quarter of the members present. In the event of a tie, the Chairman of the meeting shall decide.
- 1.5 The provisions of paragraphs 1.3 and 1.4 above are applicable to elections, whether of persons or of host cities. However, when there are (or remain) only two candidates, the candidate obtaining the greater number of votes is declared elected.
- 1.6 The President of the IOC establishes the regulations for all elections.
- 1.7 Any matter of procedure concerning IOC Sessions and not covered by the Olympic Charter is determined by the Chairman of the meeting.
- 1.8 The Chairman declares the Session closed.

2 Procedure in case of urgency

- 2.1 In case of urgency, the President or the Executive Board may submit a resolution to a vote by correspondence of the members of the IOC, to whom a deadline shall be set for their determination. If the total number of written answers received within such deadline is not less than half the total membership plus one, and if the number of answers received in favour of the proposed resolution reaches the requisite majority, the resolution is carried. The result must immediately be communicated in writing to the members of the IOC. For the calculation of the required majority, if there is any doubt as to the formal validity - particularly by reason of a delay in the mail or of other particular circumstances - or as to the material validity of one or several answers, the President decides in last resort upon the validity and the taking into account of such answers.

The International Olympic Committee

- 2.2 The President of the IOC may take action or a decision when circumstances prevent it from being taken by the Session or the Executive Board. Such action or decision must be submitted for ratification by the competent organ.
- 2.3 Resolutions, decisions or actions taken pursuant to this procedure in case of urgency cannot apply to modifications of the Olympic Charter.

27 Languages

- 1 The official languages of the IOC are French and English.
- 2 At all IOC Sessions, simultaneous interpretation into German, Spanish, Russian and Arabic must also be provided.

- 1 The IOC may accept gifts and bequests and seek all other resources enabling it to fulfil its tasks. It collects revenues from the exploitation of rights, including television rights, as well as from the celebration of the Olympic Games.
- 2 The IOC may grant part of the revenues derived from the exploitation of television rights to the IFs, NOCs including Olympic Solidarity, and the OCOGs.

The International Federations

IFs

29 Recognition of the IFs

In order to promote the Olympic Movement, the IOC may recognize as IFs international non-governmental organizations administering one or several sports at world level and encompassing organizations administering such sports at national level. The recognition of IFs newly recognized by the IOC shall be provisional for a period of two years or any other period fixed by the IOC Executive Board. At the end of such period, the recognition shall automatically lapse in the absence of definitive confirmation given in writing by the IOC.

As far as the role of the IFs within the Olympic Movement is concerned, their statutes, practice and activities must be in conformity with the Olympic Charter. Subject to the foregoing, each IF maintains its independence and autonomy in the administration of its sport.

30 Role of the IFs

- 1 The role of the IFs is to:
 - 1.1 establish and enforce, in accordance with the Olympic spirit, the rules concerning the practice of their respective sports and to ensure their application;
 - 1.2 ensure the development of their sports throughout the world;
 - 1.3 contribute to the achievement of the goals set out in the Olympic Charter, in particular by way of the spread of Olympism and Olympic education;
 - 1.4 establish their criteria of eligibility to the competitions of the Olympic Games in conformity with the Olympic Charter, and to submit these to the IOC for approval;

The International Federations

- 1.5 assume the responsibility for the technical control and direction of their sports at the Olympic Games and at the Games under the patronage of the IOC;
 - 1.6 provide technical assistance in the practical implementation of the Olympic Solidarity programme.
- 2 In addition, the IFs may:
- 2.1 formulate proposals addressed to the IOC concerning the Olympic Charter and the Olympic Movement in general, including the organizing and holding of the Olympic Games;
 - 2.2 give their opinions concerning the candidatures for organizing the Olympic Games, particularly concerning the technical capabilities of the candidate cities;
 - 2.3 collaborate in the preparation of the Olympic Congresses;
 - 2.4 participate, on request from the IOC, in the activities of the IOC commissions.

The National Olympic Committees

NOCs

31 *Mission and Role of the NOCs

- 1 The mission of the NOCs is to develop and protect the Olympic Movement in their respective countries, in accordance with the Olympic Charter.
- 2 The NOCs:
 - 2.1 propagate the fundamental principles of Olympism at national level within the framework of sports activity and otherwise contribute, among other things, to the diffusion of Olympism in the teaching programmes of physical education and sport in schools and university establishments. They see to the creation of institutions which devote themselves to Olympic education. In particular, they concern themselves with the establishment and activities of National Olympic Academies, Olympic Museums and cultural programmes related to the Olympic Movement;
 - 2.2 ensure the observance of the Olympic Charter in their countries;
 - 2.3 encourage the development of high performance sport as well as sport for all;
 - 2.4 help in the training of sports administrators by organizing courses and ensure that such courses contribute to the propagation of the Fundamental Principles of Olympism;
 - 2.5 commit themselves to taking action against any form of discrimination and violence in sport;
 - 2.6 shall fight against the use of substances and procedures prohibited by the IOC or the IFs, in particular by approaching the competent authorities of their country so that all medical controls may be performed in optimum conditions.

The National Olympic Committees

- 3 The NOCs have the exclusive powers for the representation of their respective countries at the Olympic Games and at the regional, continental or world multi-sports competitions patronized by the IOC.
- 4 The NOCs have the authority to designate the city which may apply to organize Olympic Games in their respective countries.
- 5 The NOCs must work to maintain harmonious and cooperative relations with appropriate governmental bodies; they must also contribute effectively to the establishment of programmes for the promotion of sport at all levels. As sport contributes to education, health, the economy and social order, it is desirable for the National Olympic Committees to enjoy the support of the public authorities in achieving their objectives. Nevertheless, the NOCs shall preserve their autonomy and resist all pressures of any kind, including those of a political, religious or economic nature, that may prevent them from complying with the Olympic Charter.
- 6 NOCs have the right to:
 - 6.1 formulate proposals addressed to the IOC concerning the Olympic Charter and the Olympic Movement in general, including the organizing and the holding of the Olympic Games;
 - 6.2 give their opinions concerning the candidatures for the organization of the Olympic Games;
 - 6.3 collaborate in the preparation of the Olympic Congresses;
 - 6.4 participate, on request from the IOC, in the activities of the IOC commissions.
- 7 The IOC helps the NOCs fulfil their mission through its various departments and Olympic Solidarity.

The National Olympic Committees

- 8 In order to fulfil their mission, the NOCs may cooperate with governmental or non-governmental bodies. However, they must never associate themselves with any activity which would be in contradiction with the Olympic Charter.
- 9 Apart from the measures and sanctions provided in case of infringement of the Olympic Charter, the IOC may, after having heard an NOC, suspend it or withdraw its recognition from it:
 - 9.1 if the activity of such NOC is hampered by the effect of legal provisions or regulations in force in the country concerned or by acts of other entities within such country, whether sporting or otherwise;
 - 9.2 if the making or expression of the will of the national federations or other entities belonging to such NOC or represented within it is hampered by the effect of legal provisions or regulations in force in the country concerned or by acts of other entities within such country, whether sporting or otherwise.

32 *Composition of the NOCs

- 1 Whatever their composition, NOCs must include:
 - 1.1 the members of the IOC in their country, if any. These members are also ex officio members of the executive organ of the NOC and have the right to vote in both general meetings and the executive organ;
 - 1.2 all national federations affiliated to the IFs governing sports included in the programme of the Olympic Games or the representatives designated by them (with a minimum of five such national federations). Proof must be adduced that these national federations exercise a specific and real sports activity in their country and internationally, in particular by organizing and participating in competitions and implementing training programmes for athletes. An NOC shall not recognize more than one national federation for each sport governed by such IF. Furthermore, such national federations or the representatives chosen by them must constitute the voting majority of the NOC and of its executive organ;

- 1.3 active athletes or retired athletes having taken part in the Olympic Games; however, the latter must retire from their posts at the latest by the end of the third Olympiad after the last Olympic Games in which they took part.
- 2 The NOCs may include as members:
 - 2.1 national federations affiliated to IFs recognized by the IOC, the sports of which are not included in the programme of the Olympic Games;
 - 2.2 multi-sports groups and other sports-oriented organizations or their representatives, as well as nationals of the country liable to reinforce the effectiveness of the NOC or who have rendered distinguished services to the cause of sport and Olympism.
- 3 When dealing with questions relating to the Olympic Games, only the votes cast by the executive organ of the NOC and by the national federations affiliated to IFs governing sports included in the programme of the Olympic Games are taken into consideration.
- 4 Governments or other public authorities shall not designate any members of an NOC. However, an NOC may decide, at its discretion, to elect as members representatives of such authorities.
- 5 Before existing as an NOC and acquiring the right to be designated as such, an organization must be recognized by the IOC. This recognition can be granted only to an organization, the jurisdiction of which coincides with the limits of the country in which it is established and has its headquarters.

The National Olympic Committees

1.1 In order to be recognized by the IOC, an applicant NOC must fulfil all conditions prescribed in Rule 32. In such a case, the applicant NOC must submit to the IOC for approval two copies, in French or English, of its statutes. The applicant NOC must obtain from each IF to which a member national federation of the applicant NOC is affiliated an attestation certifying to the IOC that such national federation is a member in good standing of the IF concerned.

1.2 Each applicant NOC, the statutes of which have been approved by the IOC, shall send a copy thereof to the IOC, together with a request for recognition and a list of the members of its executive organ, all three documents being certified as true copies by its President and its Secretary General.

2 The statutes of each NOC shall, at all times, be in accordance with the Olympic Charter and refer expressly to the latter. If there is any doubt as to the implication or the interpretation of the statutes of an NOC, or if there is a contradiction between such statutes and the Olympic Charter, the latter takes precedence.

3 Any subsequent change to the statutes as originally approved by the IOC shall also be communicated to the latter with a request for approval. Copies of the minutes of the meetings at which elections or replacement of members have taken place shall be sent to the IOC. All documents must be certified as true copies by the President and the Secretary General of the NOC.

4 The General Assembly of an NOC shall be held at least once a year.

5 The members of the executive organ of an NOC shall be renewed at least every four years, during a meeting of the General Assembly the agenda of which includes such renewal.

The National Olympic Committees

- 6 The members of the NOCs, with the exception of those who devote themselves to the administration of sport, shall accept no salary or bonus of any kind in consideration for the performance of their functions. They may, however, be reimbursed for their travelling and accommodation costs and other justified expenses incurred in the carrying out of their functions.
- 7 NOCs which cease temporarily or permanently to be recognized by the IOC thereupon lose all rights conferred upon them by the IOC, including, but not limited to, the rights:
 - 7.1 to call or refer to themselves as «National Olympic Committee»;
 - 7.2 to use their Olympic emblems;
 - 7.3 to benefit from the activity of Olympic Solidarity;
 - 7.4 to take part in activities led or patronized by the IOC (including regional Games);
 - 7.5 to send competitors, team officials and other team personnel to the Olympic Games;
 - 7.6 to belong to any association of NOCs.
- 8 The NOCs perform the following tasks:
 - 8.1 They constitute, organize and lead their respective delegations at the Olympic Games and at the regional, continental or world multi-sports competitions patronized by the IOC. They decide upon the entry of athletes proposed by their respective national federations. Such selection shall be based not only on the sports performance of an athlete but also on his ability to serve as an example to the sporting youth of his country. The NOCs must ensure that the entries proposed by the national federations comply in all respects with the provisions of the Olympic Charter.

The National Olympic Committees

- 8.2 They provide for the equipment, transportation and accommodation of the members of their delegations. They contract for the latter's benefit adequate insurance covering the risks of death, disability, illness, medical and pharmaceutical expenses and third party liability. They are responsible for the behaviour of the members of their delegations.
- 8.3 They have the sole and exclusive authority to prescribe and determine the clothing and uniforms to be worn, and the equipment to be used, by the members of their delegations on the occasion of the Olympic Games and in connection with all sports competitions and ceremonies related thereto.

This exclusive authority does not extend to specialized equipment used by athletes of their delegations during the actual sports competitions. For the purposes of this rule, specialized equipment shall be limited to such equipment acknowledged by the NOC concerned as having a material effect on the performance of athletes, due to the specialized characteristics of the equipment. Any publicity in respect of any such specialized equipment must be submitted to the NOC concerned for approval if there is any reference, express or implied, to the Olympic Games.

- 9 It is recommended that NOCs:
 - 9.1 regularly organize (if possible each year) an Olympic Day or Week intended to promote the Olympic Movement;
 - 9.2 include in their activities the promotion of culture and arts in the fields of sport and Olympism;
 - 9.3 participate in the programmes of Olympic Solidarity;
 - 9.4 seek sources of financing which will enable them to maintain their autonomy in all respects. The collection of funds must, however, be accomplished in accordance with the Olympic Charter and in such a manner that the dignity and independence of the NOC are not harmed.

The National Olympic Committees

33 The National Federations

To be recognized by an NOC and accepted as a member of such NOC, a national federation must exercise a specific and real sports activity, be affiliated to an IF recognized by the IOC and conduct its activities in compliance with both the Olympic Charter and the rules of its IF.

34 Country and Name of an NOC

- 1 In the Olympic Charter, the expression “country” means an independent State recognized by the international community.
- 2 The name of an NOC must reflect the territorial extent and tradition of its country and must be approved by the IOC.

35 Flag, Emblem and Anthem

The flag, the emblem and the anthem adopted by an NOC for use in relation to its activities, including the Olympic Games, must be approved by the IOC Executive Board.

BYE-LAW TO RULE 36

The duration of the competitions of the Games of the Olympiad and of the Olympic Winter Games shall not exceed sixteen days. If no competition is scheduled for Sundays or public holidays, the duration of the Olympic Games may, with the approval of the IOC Executive Board, be extended accordingly.

37 *Election of the host city

- 1 The election of any host city is the prerogative of the IOC alone.

The Olympic Games

- 2 Only a city the candidature of which is approved by the NOC of its country can apply for the organization of the Olympic Games. The application to organize the Olympic Games must be made to the IOC by the official authority of the city concerned with the approval of the NOC. The official authority of the city and the NOC must guarantee that the Olympic Games will be organized to the satisfaction of and under the conditions required by the IOC. Should there be several candidate cities in one country for the organization of the same Olympic Games, it rests with the NOC to decide which one will be proposed for election.
- 3 The organization of the Olympic Games shall not be entrusted to a city unless the latter has submitted to the IOC a document drawn up by the Government of the country under consideration, in which the said Government guarantees to the IOC that the country will respect the Olympic Charter.
- 4 Any city applying for the organization of the Olympic Games must undertake in writing to respect the conditions prescribed for candidate cities issued by the IOC Executive Board, as well as the technical norms laid down by the IF of each sport included in the programme of the Olympic Games. The IOC Executive Board shall determine the procedure to be followed by the candidate cities.
- 5 Any candidate city shall offer such financial guarantees as considered satisfactory by the IOC Executive Board. Such guarantees may be given by the city itself, local, regional or national public collectivities, the State or other third parties. At least six months before the start of the IOC Session at which such Olympic Games will be awarded, the IOC shall make known the nature, form and exact contents of the guarantees required.
- 6 The election relating to the designation of the host city takes place in a country having no candidate city for the organization of such Olympic Games, after due consideration of the report by the evaluation commission for candidate cities composed of members of the IOC and representatives of IFs and NOCs. Save in exceptional circumstances, such election must take place seven years before the holding of the Olympic Games.

- 7 The IOC enters into a written agreement with the host city and the NOC of its country, which agreement specifies in detail the obligations incumbent upon them. Such agreement is signed immediately upon the election of the host city.

BYE-LAW TO RULE 37

Two evaluation commissions for candidate cities are appointed by the IOC President. They are composed of:

- for the Games of the Olympiad, three members representing the IFs, three members representing the NOCs, four IOC members, one member proposed by the Athletes' Commission, as well as specialists whose advice may be helpful; and

- 5.4 The entry form may also include such other provisions as may be necessary to ensure, in particular, that the arbitration process in Rule 74 shall be effective in the host country of the Olympic Games.
- 6 No entry shall be valid unless the above provisions have been observed.

BYE-LAW TO RULE 69

1 Opening Ceremony

- 1.1 The Olympic Games shall be proclaimed open by the Head of State of the host country.
- 1.2 The Head of State is received at the entrance of the stadium by the President of the IOC and by the President of the OCOG. The two Presidents then show the Head of State into his box in the official stand.
- 1.3 The parade of the participants then follows. Each delegation, dressed in its official uniform, must be preceded by a name-board bearing its name and must be accompanied by its flag, to be carried by a member of the delegation. The flags of the participating delegations, as well as the name-boards, shall be provided by the OCOG and shall all be of equal size. The name-board-bearers shall be designated by the OCOG.
- 1.4 No participant in the parade is permitted to carry flags, banners, banderoles, cameras or other visible accessories or objects which are not part of his uniform.
- 1.5 The delegations parade in alphabetical order according to the language of the host country, except for Greece, which leads the parade, and for the host country, which brings up the rear. Only those athletes participating in the Olympic Games with the right to accommodation in the Olympic Village may take part in the parade, led by a maximum of six officials per delegation.

- 1.6 The delegations salute the Head of State and the President of the IOC as they walk past their box. Each delegation, after completing its march, proceeds to the seats which have been reserved for it in order to watch the ceremony, with the exception of its flag bearer who remains on the field.
- 1.7 The President of the IOC, accompanied by the President of the OCOG, proceeds to the rostrum positioned on the field in front of the official stand. The President of the OCOG gives an address lasting a maximum of three minutes, then adds these words: "I have the honour of inviting ..., President of the International Olympic Committee, to speak."
- 1.8 The President of the IOC then gives a speech in which he makes a reference to Pierre de Coubertin and further declares: "I have the honour of inviting ... (the Head of State) to proclaim open the Games of the... Olympiad of the modern era (or the... Olympic Winter Games)."
- 1.9 The Head of State proclaims the Games open by saying: "I declare open the Games of ... (name of City) celebrating the ... Olympiad of the modern era (or the ... Olympic Winter Games)."
- 1.10 While the Olympic anthem is being played, the Olympic flag, unfurled horizontally, is brought into the stadium and hoisted on the flagpole erected in the arena.
- 1.11 The Olympic torch is brought into the stadium by runners relaying each other. The last runner circles the track before lighting the

The Olympic Games

Olympic flame which shall not be extinguished until the closing of the Olympic Games. The lighting of the Olympic flame shall be followed by a symbolic release of pigeons.

- 1.12 The flag bearers of all the delegations form a semi-circle around the rostrum. A competitor of the host country mounts the rostrum. Holding a corner of the Olympic flag in his left hand, and raising his right hand, he takes the following solemn oath: "In the name of all the competitors I promise that we shall take part in these Olympic Games, respecting and abiding by the rules which govern them, in the true spirit of sportsmanship, for the glory of sport and the honour of our teams."
- 1.13 Immediately afterwards, a judge from the host country mounts the rostrum and, in the same manner, takes the following oath: "In the name of all the judges and officials, I promise that we shall officiate in these Olympic Games with complete impartiality, respecting and abiding by the rules which govern them, in the true spirit of sportsmanship."
- 1.14 The national anthem of the host country is then played or sung. The flag bearers then proceed to the seats which have been reserved to enable them to attend the artistic programme.
- 1.15 In the event of the IOC authorizing a secondary opening ceremony to take place at another Olympic venue, the IOC Executive Board shall determine its protocol, on the proposal of the OCOG.

2 Closing Ceremony

- 2.1 The closing ceremony must take place in the stadium after the end of all the events. The participants in the Olympic Games having the right to accommodation in the Olympic Village take the seats reserved for them in the stands. The flag bearers of the participating delegations and the name-board-bearers enter the stadium in single file in the same order and take up the same positions as for the opening ceremony of the Olympic Games. Behind them march the athletes, without distinction of nationality.

- 2.2 The flag bearers then form a semi-circle behind the rostrum.
- 2.3 The President of the IOC and the President of the OCOG mount the rostrum. To the sounds of the Greek national anthem, the Greek flag is hoisted on the flagpole that stands to the right of the central flagpole used for the winners' flags. The flag of the host country is then hoisted on the central flagpole, while its anthem is played. Finally, the flag of the host country of the next Olympic Games is hoisted on the lefthand flagpole to the strains of its anthem.
- 2.4 The mayor of the host city joins the President of the IOC on the rostrum and hands him, for the Games of the Olympiad, the flag donated in 1920 by the Belgian Olympic Committee, and for the Olympic Winter Games, the flag donated in 1952 by the city of Oslo; the President of the IOC hands it on to the mayor of the host city of the following Olympic Games. This flag must be displayed until the following Olympic Games in the latter city's main municipal building.
- 2.5 After an address by the President of the OCOG, the President of the IOC gives the closing speech of the Olympic Games, which he ends with these words: "I declare the Games of the ... Olympiad (or the ... Olympic Winter Games) closed and, in accordance with tradition, I call upon the youth of the world to assemble four years from now at ... (if the city has not yet been chosen, the name of the city is replaced by the words: "the place to be chosen"), to celebrate with us there the Games of the ... Olympiad (or the ... Olympic Winter Games)".

The Olympic Games

- 2.6 A fanfare then sounds; the Olympic flame is extinguished, and while the Olympic anthem is being played, the Olympic flag is slowly lowered from the flagpole and, unfurled horizontally, carried out of the arena, followed by the flag bearers. A farewell song resounds.

70 *Victory, Medals and Diplomas Ceremony
