Summary

PRMN is a UNHCR-led trend analysis project that aims to monitor movements of displaced populations into and within Somalia. On behalf of UNHCR, NRC and 39 local partners in the field in Somalia (South Central regions, Puntland and Somaliland) are collecting data through interviews with refugee and IDP returnees, and with IDPs and host communities conducted at strategic locations along travel routes. Reports are verified and published by UNHCR to broaden insight into movement trends for analytical and programmatic purposes.

Cross-border movement

A total of 3,561 people crossed the border into Somalia during this reporting period. According to PRMN interviews, Juba Hoose reported 2,103 cross border movements, Bay (673), Banadir (351), Gedo (160), Juba Dhexe (130), Woqooyi Galbeed (130) and Bari (14).

Refugee Returns

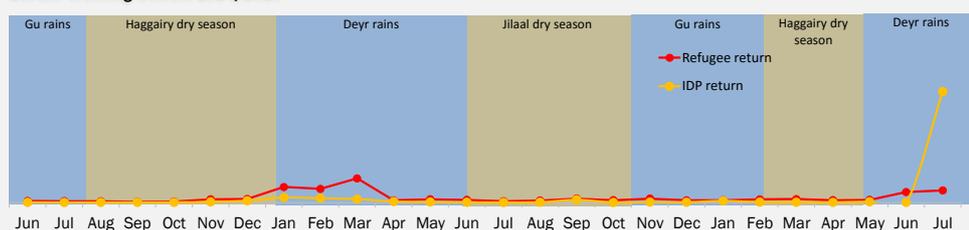

During this reporting period, 5,588 returnees were interviewed during their return journeys from neighboring countries in the region. The refugee returns included 3,708 from Kenya, 1,156 from Ethiopia, Saudi Arabia (560), Yemen (138) and Djibouti (26). The majority of the returnees from Kenya intend to permanently settle in Somalia after the Kenya Government decided the

IDP Returns

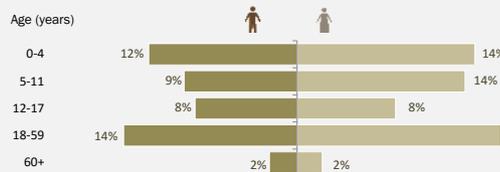

This reporting period, 51,394 internally displaced persons were interviewed as they returned to their villages of origin from other parts of Somalia. The districts which recorded IDP returns were Baydhaba (7), Marka(66), Berbera (5) and Belet Weyne (51,316). The returnees in Belet Weyne are a group of people who were displaced due to the recent floods and were now returning to their homes after the water levels receded.

These populations were initially displaced in to Bacad (1,529), Belet Weyne (33,418), Buulo Kahin (1,524), Buulo Raaxo (826), Garaash (780), Hawo-tako (420), Heegan (742), Hilo Kelyo (694), Horseed (1,883), Leebow (840), Qoydo (1,238) and Shiniile (1,422) districts, from where they departed and resettled in Belet Weyne.
