MISSING PERSONS IN NEPAL

The right to know

Following the 10-years long armed conflict in Nepal, which ended in November 2006, families of 3'198 missing people reported to the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) and the Nepal Red Cross Society (NRCS) the disappearance of their relatives, often following their alleged arrest or capture by one of the parties to the conflict, or during armed encounters.

As a neutral, independent and impartial humanitarian organization with an international mandate to alleviate the suffering of the victims of armed conflicts and other situations of violence, one of the tasks of the ICRC is to assist all parties to the former conflict in Nepal to fulfill their obligations to clarify the fate and whereabouts of missing persons. The various field assessments conducted by the ICRC and the NRCS on the needs of these families have repeatedly shown that their primary need is to know what happened to their missing loved-ones, even years after the events took place.

WHAT IS THIS PUBLICATION?

This publication aims to bring public recognition to the families of missing persons in Nepal as a result of the conflict and to highlight their suffering and their needs. It also constitutes an appeal to the government of Nepal, and all former parties to the conflict to clarify the fate (and when possible the whereabouts) of those who went missing during the conflict and to ensure that all families of missing persons are included in government programmes put in place to support the victims of conflict.

For five consecutive years (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2012) the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) and the Nepal Red Cross Society (NRCS) published lists of missing persons in Nepal. Since 2010, this list is also available, in English and Nepali, on ICRC's website (www.familylinks.icrc.org).

This 6th edition of the Book of Missing Persons in Nepal was prepared on 31 July 2013 and it contains the names of 1360 persons who were reported missing by the family members, to the ICRC or NRCS and whose fate and/or whereabouts has not been clarified yet.

The names are listed by district of residence of the missing person's closest relative.

This edition is divided into two parts:

Part 1 lists the names of 951 persons who were reported as missing to the ICRC by their relatives and whose fate has still not been clarified. To date, their families have not received information about the circumstances that lead to their disappearance and do not know whether their missing relatives are dead or alive.

Part 2 lists the names of 409 missing persons confirmed dead and whose families have been informed accordingly. Their families are still waiting to know where they were buried. And some families also wish for the human remains of their loved ones to be exhumed.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

- GENERAL PUBLIC

IS ONE OF YOUR RELATIVES MISSING AS A RESULT OF THE CONFLICT?

If one of your relatives went missing during the conflict and his/her name is not on this list and if you are expecting a response from the authorities, please contact the nearest ICRC office or the district branch of the Nepal Red Cross Society to report their disappearance.

CAN YOU PROVIDE INFORMATION ABOUT ANYONE ON THIS LIST?

If you have any information on the fate or the whereabouts of anyone whose name appears on the list, please contact the nearest ICRC office or the district branch of the Nepal Red Cross Society.

- AUTHORITIES:

Ensure all families of missing persons are included in government programmes supporting the victims of the conflict, such as for Interim Relief, Scholarships, Single Women Assistance, Orphan Assistance, Trainings, etc.

WHAT IS A “MISSING PERSON”?

In Nepal, the ICRC defines a “missing person” as an individual who is unaccounted for as a result of the armed conflict that took place in the country between 13 February 1996 and 21 November 2006, and whose family is still waiting for one or more of the following:

- a satisfactory answer from the authorities clarifying their fate;
- government's acknowledgement of the disappearance in the form of a declaration of death, a death certificate or the granting of special status;
- government's assistance that will enable them to receive reparations;
- if the person is dead, information on the location of their remains and the chance to recover them.

MISSING PERSONS: INTERNATIONAL LAW APPLICABLE IN NEPAL

The conflict in Nepal is considered a “non-international armed conflict” from the standpoint of IHL. The specific provisions of IHL that apply to this conflict are contained in:

- the four Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 (common Article 3);
- customary IHL: families have the right to know the fate and whereabouts of their relatives (Rule 117). Furthermore, whenever circumstances permit, all possible measures shall be taken, without delay, to search for the dead, prevent their bodies from being despoiled, and decently dispose of them. This includes recording all available information prior to disposal and marking the locations of the graves (Rules 112, 113 and 116).

These provisions address the protection of victims of non-international armed conflict. They do not affect the legal status of the parties to the conflict (Art. 3 common to the Four Geneva Conventions).

SUFFERING OF THE FAMILIES

People have gone missing for as long as wars have been fought. The circumstances of disappearance vary: people are killed and buried in unmarked graves; they are taken off the street or from their homes and subsequently die in custody without their next-of-kin being informed. Other missing persons include people (civilians or fighters killed in combat) whose remains are not identified or recovered. Although it is a tragedy for the person who disappears, their family are victims too. With nothing to prove that the person is alive or dead, the family is unable to obtain closure.

The suffering of the families is not only emotional – having a relative go missing can be financially crippling. Missing persons are often the breadwinners, and the loss of income can plunge a family into poverty. In Nepal, the situation is made worse by the legal requirement that a person must be missing for 12 years in order to officially be declared dead. During this period, family members are unable to move on, transfer property, remarry, or simply perform final rites. Until they obtain adequate proof of death, relatives cannot mourn, and they may feel guilty if they do attempt to begin the mourning process.

THE RIGHT TO KNOW

The families of missing persons tell us that what they need above all else is to know what happened to the person. The right of a family to know what has happened to a relative is enshrined in international humanitarian law (IHL) and human rights law and must be respected. The legal obligations are laid down in the Geneva Conventions, their Additional Protocols and in the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance. International law is clear on the matter: it is illegal to make people disappear, and the next-of-kin must be informed without delay when a person is captured, detained, or dies. Authorities must do everything they can to prevent people from going missing and to deal with the consequences of disappearances when they do occur. When a missing person is believed to be dead, locating, recovering and identifying their remains is an indispensable component of the healing process for the families and communities.
