

Protection for Conflict-Induced IDPs: Assessment for Action

*Protection Cluster Working Group
Early Recovery Cluster Working Group*

Table of Contents

Executive Summary

1. Context

1.1 Demographic profile

1.2 Public Perceptions

1.3 Meaningful Participation

1.4 Solution-oriented approach

2. Prevention of displacement

2.1 Causes of displacement

2.2 Prevention of displacement

2.3 Humanitarian evacuations

2.4 Protection risks during flight

3. Institutional Protection Framework

3.1 Applicable international law

3.2 National legal framework

3.3 Institutional framework

3.4 Partnerships

4. Protection from the Effects of Armed Conflict

4.1 Security in IDP areas

4.2 Presence of armed elements

4.3 Forced recruitment and child recruitment

5. Security from Violence and Exploitation

5.1 Security risks deriving from common crimes

5.2 Right to family life

5.3 Gender-based violence (GBV)

5.4 Child labour

5.5 Child risk prevention and response

5.7 Persons with disabilities and older persons

5.8 Other security threats

6. Equality before the law

6.1 Birth certificates

6.2 Identity, civil status and other documents

6.3 Ration card and registration

6.4 Policing

6.5 Access to the national justice system

6.6 Alternative dispute resolution systems

6.7 Freedom of movement and choice of residence

6.8 Detention

7. Participation in public life

7.1 Political participation and participation in public life

7.2 Internal community dynamics

8. Right to food, water and housing

8.1 Right to food, including potable water

8.2 Access to food assistance

8.3 Adequate housing

8.4 Appropriate clothing and other basic domestic and personal items

9. Right to health care and education

9.1 Primary curitative health care

9.2 Primary preventive health care

9.3 Primary education

9.4 Secondary education

9.5 Safe and non discriminatory education facilities

9.6 Higher education and vocational training

10. Right to work, social security, housing, land and property

10.1 Degree of self-reliance

10.2 Wage-earning employment

10.3 Social security and just and favourable conditions of work

10.4 Self-employment

10.5 Social programs for persons with specific needs

10.6 Programmes to enhance self-reliance

10.7 Housing, land and property

10.8 Housing, land and property restitution

11. Durable solutions

11.1 Free and informed choice

11.2 Participation in planning

11.3 Return and relocation travel

11.4 Sustainability of durable solutions