

FEDERAL LAW
No. 115-FZ of 25 July 2002
on the Legal Position of Foreign Citizens in the Russian Federation

Passed by the State Duma on June 21, 2002

Approved by the Federation Council on July 10, 2002

Chapter I. General Provisions

Article 1. Object of Regulation of This Federal Law

The present Federal Law defines the legal position of foreign citizens in the Russian Federation and regulates relations between foreign citizens, on the one hand, and the state power bodies, local self-government bodies and official persons of these bodies, arising in connection with the stay (residence) of foreign citizens in the Russian Federation and with the performance by them on the territory of the Russian Federation of the labour, business and other activity, on the other.

Article 2. Basic Concepts

1. The following basic concepts are used for the purposes of this Federal Law:

- foreign citizen - a natural person who is not a citizen of the Russian Federation and who disposes of proofs of his possession of the citizenship (of his being a subject) of a foreign state;
- stateless person - a natural person, who is not a citizen of the Russian Federation and who has no proofs of his possession of the citizenship (of his being a subject) of a foreign state;
- invitation for an entry to the Russian Federation - the document, which is a ground for the issue of a visa to a foreign citizen or for an entry to the Russian Federation in the order, not requiring a visa, in the cases, stipulated by a federal law or by an international treaty of the Russian Federation;
- migration card - the document, containing information about the foreign citizen, coming to the Russian Federation, and serving also for exerting control over a temporary stay of the foreign citizen in the Russian Federation;
- permit for a temporary residence - confirmation of the right of a foreign citizen or of a stateless person to reside for a time in the Russian Federation till receiving a residence permit, formalized as a note, made in the document which identifies the personality of the foreign citizen or of the stateless person, or as the document of an established form, issued in the Russian Federation to a stateless person who has no document, identifying his personality;
- residence permit - the document, issued to a foreign citizen or to a stateless person in confirmation of their right to a permanent residence in the Russian Federation, as well as of their right to a free exit from the Russian Federation and a free entry to the Russian Federation. The residence permit, issued to a stateless person, is at the same time the document, identifying his personality;

- foreign citizen, legally staying in the Russian Federation – the person, who has a valid residence permit or a permit for a temporary residence, or a visa, or the other documents, stipulated by the federal law or by the international treaty of the Russian Federation, which confirm the foreign citizen’s right to stay (to reside) in the Russian Federation;
- foreign citizen, temporarily staying in the Russian Federation - the person, who has arrived in the Russian Federation on the ground of a visa or in the order not requiring the receipt of a visa, and who has no residence permit or a permit for a temporary residence;
- foreign citizen, temporarily residing in the Russian Federation - the person, who has received a permit for a temporary residence;
- foreign citizen, permanently residing in the Russian Federation - the person, who has received a residence permit;
- labour activity of a foreign citizen - the work of a foreign citizen in the Russian Federation on the ground of a labour contract or of a civil-law contract for the performance of works (for rendering services);
- foreign worker - a foreign citizen, temporarily staying in the Russian Federation and performing a labour activity in the established order;
- foreign citizen, registered as an individual businessman – a foreign citizen, registered in the Russian Federation as an individual businessman, carrying out an activity without creating a legal entity;
- permit for work - the document, confirming the right of a foreign worker to a temporary performance on the territory of the Russian Federation of a labour activity, or the right of a foreign citizen, registered in the Russian Federation as an individual businessman, to the performance of a business activity;
- deportation - the forcible banishment of a foreign citizen from the Russian Federation in case of the loss or of the termination of the legal grounds for his further stay (residence) in the Russian Federation.

2. For the purposes of the present Federal Law, the concept “a foreign citizen” incorporates the concept “a stateless person”, with the exception of the cases, when the federal law establishes for stateless persons special rules, differing from the rules, laid down for foreign citizens.

Article 3. Legislation on the Legal Position of Foreign Citizens in the Russian Federation

The legislation on the legal position of foreign citizens in the Russian Federation is based on the Constitution of the Russian Federation and consists of the present Federal Law and of the other federal laws. At the same time, the legal position of foreign citizens in the Russian Federation is defined by the international treaties of the Russian Federation.

Article 4. Foundations of the Legal Position of Foreign Citizens in the Russian Federation

Foreign citizens in the Russian Federation enjoy the rights and discharge the duties on a par with the citizens of the Russian Federation, with the exception of the cases, stipulated by the federal law.

Article 5. Temporary Stay of Foreign Citizens in the Russian Federation

1. The time term for a temporary stay of a foreign citizen in the Russian Federation is determined by the term of validity of the visa, issued to him. The time term for a temporary stay in the Russian Federation of a foreign citizen, who has arrived in the Russian Federation in the order, not requiring the receipt of a visa, cannot exceed 90 days, with the exception of the cases, stipulated by this Federal Law.
2. A foreign citizen, temporarily staying in the Russian Federation, is obliged to go out of the Russian Federation after an expiry of the term of the visa validity, or of the term, fixed by the present Federal Law, if at the moment of an expiry of the said term he has not obtained a permit for an extension of the term for a stay or a permit for a temporary residence.
3. The term for a temporary stay of a foreign citizen in the Russian Federation may be, respectively, either extended or reduced, if the conditions have changed, or if the circumstances, because of which he was permitted to enter the Russian Federation, have stopped to exist.
4. Decision on an extension or on the reduction of the time term for the foreign citizen's temporary stay in the Russian Federation shall be adopted by the federal executive power body, controlling the issues of foreign affairs, or by the federal executive power body, controlling the issues of internal affairs, or by its territorial subdivisions.
5. The term for a temporary stay in the Russian Federation of a foreign citizen, who has arrived in the Russian Federation in the order, not requiring the receipt of a visa, and who has concluded a labour contract or a civil-law contract for the performance of works (for rendering services) with the observation of the demands of the present Federal Law, shall be extended for a term of validity of the concluded contract, but for no longer than one year, counted as from the day of the foreign citizen's entry in the Russian Federation. Decision on extending the time term for a foreign citizen's temporary stay in the Russian Federation shall be adopted by the territorial division of the federal executive power body, controlling the issues of internal affairs, about which a note shall be made in the migration card.

Article 6. Temporary Residence of Foreign Citizens in the Russian Federation

1. A permit for a temporary residence may be issued to a foreign citizen in the framework of the quota, approved by the Government of the Russian Federation. The term of validity of a permit for a temporary residence comprises three years.
2. The quota for the issue of permits for a temporary residence to foreign citizens is annually approved by the Government of the Russian Federation on the proposals from the executive state power bodies of the subjects of the Russian Federation, with an account for the demographic situation in the corresponding subject of the Russian Federation and for the given subject's possibilities to provide for the foreign citizens' maintenance.
3. A permit for a temporary residence may be issued to a foreign citizen without an account for the quota, approved by the Government of the Russian Federation, if:
 - 1) he was born on the territory of the RSFSR and was in the past a citizen of the USSR, or if he was born on the territory of the Russian Federation;

- 2) he is recognized as incapable of working, while he has an able-bodied son or daughter, who is a citizen of the Russian Federation;
- 3) he has if only one parent, incapable of working, who is a citizen of the Russian Federation;
- 4) he is married to a citizen of the Russian Federation, whose place of residence is in the Russian Federation;
- 5) he has made investments in the Russian Federation in an amount, established by the Government of the Russian Federation;
- 6) in the other cases, stipulated by the federal law.

4. The territorial subdivision of the federal executive power body, controlling the questions of internal affairs, shall issue to a foreign citizen a permit for a temporary residence at an application, submitted by the foreign citizen, temporarily staying in the Russian Federation, to the above-said body, or submitted by the foreign citizen to the diplomatic representation or to the consular institution of the Russian Federation in the state of residence of this citizen, within a six-month term, or shall refuse him in the issue of such permit.

5. As it considers an application from a foreign citizen for the issue of a permit for a temporary residence, the territorial subdivision of the federal executive power body, controlling the questions of internal affairs, shall direct inquiries to the security bodies, to the service of the officers of justice, to the tax bodies, to the bodies for the social provision, for public health and for the migrational service, as well as to the other interested bodies, which are obliged to supply information on the existence or on the absence of the circumstances, preventing the issue to a foreign citizen of a permit for a temporary residence.

6. If a foreign citizen was refused in the issue of a permit for a temporary residence, he shall have the right to file an application for the issue of a permit for a temporary residence in the same order, not earlier than in one year as from the day of the rejection of the previous application.

7. A permit for a temporary residence shall contain the following information: the surname, name (written out in letters of the Russian and of the Latin alphabets), the date and the place of birth, the sex and the citizenship of the foreign citizen, the number and the date of adopting the decision on the issue of the permit, the term of the permit validity, and the name of the executive power body, which has issued the permit.

8. The procedure for the issue of a permit for a temporary residence and the list of documents to be submitted together with an application for the issue of the permit for a temporary residence, shall be approved by the Government of the Russian Federation.

Article 7. Grounds for the Refusal in the Issue or for the Cancellation of a Permit for a Temporary Residence

A permit for a temporary residence shall not be issued to a foreign citizen, and the earlier issued permit for a temporary residence shall be cancelled, if the given foreign citizen:

- 1) comes out for a forcible change of the foundations of the constitutional system of the Russian Federation, or creates by other actions a threat to the security of the Russian Federation or of the citizens of the Russian Federation;
- 2) finances or plans terrorist (extremist) acts, renders assistance in committing such acts or commits them himself, and also if he supports a terrorist (extremist) activity by other actions;

- 3) in the course of five years, preceding the day of his filing an application for the issue of a permit for a temporary residence, was subject to a forcible expulsion out of the boundaries of the Russian Federation or to deportation;
- 4) has submitted forged or counterfeit documents, or has supplied deliberately false information about himself;
- 5) is convicted by a court sentence, which has come into legal force, for committing a grave or an especially grave crime, or a crime whose repetition is recognized as dangerous;
- 6) has an unserved or not taken off criminal record for committing a grave or an especially grave crime on the territory of the Russian Federation or outside of its borders, recognized as such in conformity with the federal law;
- 7) was repeatedly (two and more times) in the course of one year brought to administrative responsibility for a violation of the legislation of the Russian Federation in the part of ensuring the regime of the stay (residence) of foreign citizens in the Russian Federation;
- 8) is unable to present proofs of the possibility to maintain himself and his family members in the Russian Federation within the limits of the subsistence minimum, while not resorting to the assistance of the state, with the exception of the case, when the foreign citizen is recognized as incapable of working;
- 9) after an expiry of three years as from the day of his arrival has no living quarters on the territory of the Russian Federation on the grounds, stipulated by the legislation of the Russian Federation;
- 10) has gone out of the Russian Federation to a foreign state for a permanent residence;
- 11) is out of the boundaries of the Russian Federation for more than six months;
- 12) has married a citizen of the Russian Federation, which has served as a ground for receiving a permit for a temporary residence, but this marriage is recognized by the court as invalid;
- 13) is ill with narcomania, or has no certificate on the absence of the illness, caused by the virus of the human acquired immunodeficiency (HIV-infection), or suffers from one of the infectious diseases, presenting a threat to other people. The list of such infectious diseases and the procedure for confirming their existence or absence are approved by the Government of the Russian Federation.

Article 8. Permanent Residence of Foreign Citizens in the Russian Federation

1. In the course of the term of validity of the permit for a temporary residence, and if there exist the legal grounds, to a foreign citizen at his application may be issued a residence permit. An application for the issue of a residence permit shall be lodged by a foreign citizen to the territorial subdivision of the federal executive power body, controlling the matters of internal affairs, not later than six months before an expiry of the term of validity of the permit for a temporary residence.
2. Before receiving a residence permit, a foreign citizen is obliged to live in the Russian Federation for at least one year on the ground of a temporary residence permit.
3. A residence permit is issued to a foreign citizen for five years. After an expiry of the term of validity of the residence permit, this term may be extended by another five years at an application from the foreign citizen. The number of such extensions of the term of validity of the residence permit is not limited.
4. A residence permit shall contain the following information: the surname and name (written out in letters of the Russian and of the Latin alphabets), the date and the place of birth, the sex and the citizenship of the foreign citizen, the number and the date of adopting the decision on the issue of the residence permit, the term of validity of the residence permit and the name of the executive power body, which has issued the residence permit; it shall be formalized as the document of an established form.

5. The procedure for the issue of a residence permit and the list of documents to be submitted together with an application for the issue of a residential permit, as well as the procedure for the re-registration of the residence permit, shall be approved by the Government of the Russian Federation.

Article 9. Grounds for the Refusal to Issue or for the Cancellation of a Residence Permit

A residence permit to a foreign citizen shall not be issued, and an earlier issued residence permit shall be cancelled, if the given foreign citizen:

- 1) comes out for a forcible change of the foundations of the constitutional system of the Russian Federation, or creates by other actions a threat to the security of the Russian Federation or of the citizens of the Russian Federation;
- 2) finances or plans terrorist (extremist) acts, renders assistance in committing such acts or commits them himself, and also if he supports a terrorist (extremist) activity by other actions;
- 3) has been subjected to an administrative expulsion out of the boundaries of the Russian Federation, or to deportation;
- 4) has submitted forged or counterfeit documents, or has supplied deliberately false information about himself;
- 5) is convicted by a court sentence, which has come into legal force, for committing a grave or an especially grave crime, or a crime whose repetition is seen as dangerous;
- 6) has an unserved or not taken off criminal record for committing a grave or an especially grave crime on the territory of the Russian Federation or outside of its borders, recognized as such in conformity with the federal law;
- 7) repeatedly (two and more times) in the course of one year was brought to administrative responsibility for a violation of the legislation of the Russian Federation in the part of the observation of the regime for a stay (residence) of foreign citizens in the Russian Federation;
- 8) is unable to present proofs for the possibility to maintain himself and his family members in the Russian Federation within the limits of the subsistence minimum, while not resorting to the assistance of the state, with the exception of the case, when a foreign citizen is recognized as incapable of working;
- 9) after an expiry of three years as from the day of his entry has no living quarters on the territory of the Russian Federation on the grounds, stipulated by the legislation of the Russian Federation;
- 10) has gone from the Russian Federation to a foreign state for a permanent residence;
- 11) has been out of the boundaries of the Russian Federation for more than six months;
- 12) has married a citizen of the Russian Federation, which served as a ground for receiving a temporary residence permit, and this marriage is recognized as invalid by the court;
- 13) is ill with narcomania, or has no certificate on the absence of the illness, caused by the virus of the acquired human immunodeficiency (HIV-infection), or suffers from one of the infectious diseases, presenting a threat to other people. The list of such infectious diseases and the procedure for confirming their existence or absence is approved by the Government of the Russian Federation.

Article 10. Documents Identifying the Person of a Foreign Citizen in the Russian Federation

1. Seen as the documents, identifying the person of a foreign citizen in the Russian Federation, shall be the foreign citizen's passport or another document, established by the federal law or recognized in conformity with the international treaty of the Russian Federation as the document, identifying the person of a foreign citizen.

Article 18. Invitation for an Entry to the Russian Federation to a Foreign Citizen for the Performance of a Labour Activity

1. The quota for the issue to foreign citizens of invitations for an entry to the Russian Federation for the performance of a labour activity is annually approved by the Government of the Russian Federation at the proposals of the executive bodies of the state power of the subjects of the Russian Federation, with an account for the demographic situation in the corresponding subject of the Russian Federation and for the given subject's possibilities for the maintenance of foreign citizens. The above-mentioned proposals from the executive bodies of the state power of the subjects of the Russian Federation shall be formulated on the basis of the principle of the priority use of the national labour resources, while taking into account the situation on the labour market.

2. An invitation for an entry to the Russian Federation to a foreign worker for the performance of a labour activity shall be issued by a federal executive power body, controlling the matters of internal affairs, or by its territorial subdivision at the request for the issue of an invitation, submitted by the employer or by the customer of the works (services) to the corresponding body. Together with the request for the issue of an invitation for the performance of a labour activity, the employer or the customer of the works (services) shall submit to the territorial subdivision of the federal executive power body, controlling the matters of internal affairs, or directly to the federal executive power body, controlling the matters of internal affairs, if the invitation shall be issued by the said federal body:

- 1) a permit for the invitation and the use of foreign workers;
- 2) the documents, necessary for the issue of an invitation for work to every foreign worker. Simultaneously with an invitation for the performance of a labour activity, to the employer or to the customer of the works (services) shall be issued a permit for work to every foreign worker.

3. A permit for inviting and using foreign workers, with the exception of the case, described in Item 4 of the present Article, shall be issued by the federal executive power body, supervising the matters of internal affairs, or by its territorial subdivisions, if there exists the conclusion of the corresponding territorial subdivision of the federal executive power body, controlling the matters of the employment of the population.

4. A permit for inviting and using foreign workers in the composition of the crews of Russian seaships shall be issued by the federal executive power body, controlling the matters of internal affairs, if there is the conclusion of the federal executive power body, supervising the matters of transport, in accordance with the order, established by the Government of the Russian Federation in conformity with this Federal Law.

5. A permit for work shall be issued to a foreign citizen, temporarily staying in the Russian Federation, by the territorial subdivision of the federal executive power body, controlling the matters of internal affairs, under the condition that the employer or the customer of the works (services) enters the funds, necessary to provide for the exit of the foreign worker by the corresponding kind of transport from the Russian Federation, onto an account, specially opened by the federal executive power body, controlling the matters of internal affairs.

6. The order for the issue of a permit for work and the list of the documents to be submitted together with the application for the issue of a permit for work, shall be approved by the Government of the Russian Federation.

7. After the exit of the foreign worker from the Russian Federation, the funds, mentioned in Item 5 of the present Article, shall be returned to the employer or to the customer of the works (services) after an expiry of the term of the contract, and to the foreign citizen, registered as an individual businessman - upon the presentation of the travel documents, confirming that the fare for the exit of the foreign worker from the Russian Federation is paid.

8. The employer or the customer of the works (services), who has invited a foreign citizen to the Russian Federation for a labour activity, or who has concluded a new labour agreement or a civil-law contract for the performance of works (for rendering services) with the foreign worker in the Russian Federation, shall be obliged:

- 1) to possess a permit for the invitation and the use of foreign workers;
- 2) to provide for the foreign worker's receipt of a permit for work;
- 3) to present the documents, necessary for the registration of the foreign citizen at the place of his stay in the Russian Federation;
