

The continued strategic priority for the Basic Needs Sector is to provide assistance to meet the ongoing basic needs of Syrian refugees, based on a multi-sectoral household profiling and identification methodology, specific to each country. As of August, 234,747 households have received core relief items in-kind, which is just over 100 per cent of the targeted population. Approximately 442,500 households have received unconditional, sector specific or emergency cash assistance and over 203,600 households received seasonal support through cash or in-kind assistance. Some highlights of the Basic Needs Sector across the region in August include:

The Basic Needs Working Group in Jordan provided around USD 6,687,403 worth of regular cash and non-food items to vulnerable beneficiaries from the refugee and host community. In Turkey, some 1.59 million individuals have benefited from cash-based interventions since the beginning of the year.
