SHELTER MONTHLY

Sep - Oct 2016, Issue No. 09

REBUILDING THE LIVES OF THOSE HARD TO REACH, A MUST: Grandmother, Aisha, with her daughters and grandchildren has been living in an unfinished building in Qudsaya, a hard-to-reach and formerly besieged town in Rural Damascus. They are among the 30,000 people in this town needing urgent shelter support.

MAJOR HIGHLIGHTS

- To better understand the situation of the population in need on the ground and strengthen the sector's humanitarian response plan for 2017, the sector, co-led by UNCHR and MoLA, organized a Governorates Needs Identification Workshop on 17th-18th of October 2016. The activity also served as an opportunity to enhance communication and collaboration amongst all shelter actors on the national and sub-national level. Overall, Governorate (local authorities) representatives expressed the need for more durable shelter options along with emergency shelter support. This has validated the planned response of the sector for 2017, which focuses more on a resilient-oriented type of assistance. 16 shelter partners participated in the workshop, as well as representatives from 10 Governorates in Syria.
- In line with its current focus on a resilient-oriented approach, the sector gathered shelter partners on 12th of October 2016 in order to highlight lessons learned in implementing Owner-Oriented Shelter Projects. The outcome will serve to improve the set of guidelines that has been developed to harmonize the response. In addition to Homs city, where Owner-Oriented projects were launched and still represent the main focus, Dara'a and Rural Damascus have been identified as potential geographic areas to implement such an activity.
- The sector has also started designing a winterization shelter kit, to be tested this winter and included in the 2017 shelter response.
- Collective shelter rehabilitations and upgrades have been ongoing in both public and private buildings. In September, UNHCR in partnership with Première Urgence Internationale (PUI) successfully completed four (4) shelters in Tartous and one (1) shelter in Lattakia. Al-Karnak relocation project is still in the preparation phase with no major developments.
- The sector contributed to the finalization of the 2017 Humanitarian Needs Overview.

GAPS AND CHALLENGES

- Continued influx of displaced population has increased the number of IDPs seeking shelters and overstretches the capacity of authorities and host communities to provide adequate shelter solutions (i.e. As-Sweida);
- Limited or no access to population in need in hard-toreach and besieged areas and lack of long-term access is an impediment for partners to provide proper shelter support;
- Difficulties in gaining approval for private properties and from unfinished building owners affect the ability of the sector to better address the population in need (i.e. Banias and Jableh in Tartous governorate);
- Limited availability of potential shelter sites and structures for implementation of transitional solutions, is a real challenge especially when in need of temporary solution for newly displaced people;
- Lack of income generating opportunities ensuring the necessary financial means continues to hamper the access to basic shelter materials among the most vulnerable population;
- Persistent shortage of electricity, water and sanitation compels the sector to coordinate better with other sectors to address these, in order to better alleviate the suffering of the population in need;
- Weak community-based shelter management skills and lack of community participation reduce the sense of ownership among the population of concern and therefore affects the implementation quality of shelter projects;
- Rigorous bureaucratic and approval procedures affect the timeliness and effectiveness of shelter assistance;
- Limited operational capacity hampers the sector to extend the scope and impact of shelter support interventions;
- Weak coordination with the field due to lack of dedicated coordinators affects the complementarity of shelter projects among international and local humanitarian agencies;
- Absence of age and gender disaggregated information of population in need impedes the sector to accommodate and target specific needs;
- Limited and irregular monitoring and evaluation due to insecurity and sensitivities compromise the ability of the sector to assess the efficiency of shelter response and better inform future planning;
- Absence of clear and effective feedback mechanism for the population in need, due to information gathering and needs assessment sensitivities, hinders the sector to better determine the adequacy of its effort;
- Limited stocks and lack of warehouse capacity affect the extent of shelter contingency planning.

CRISIS BACKGROUND: The crisis in Syrian Arab Republic that started in March 2011 has transformed into a multi-sided armed conflict that displaced around 6.5 million people and forced around 4.2 million people out of the country to seek asylum. According to the Humanitarian Needs Overview in 2016, around 13.5 million people are in need of humanitarian support of which around 5.3 million people are desperate to receive emergency shelter, essential household items and other multi-sectoral assistance as they continue to struggle in insecure areas. The degree of resilience and positive coping mechanism of the affected population have reduced due to the protracted nature of the conflict. Purchasing power and the ability to provide for their basic household needs have decreased due to economic recession that left thousands of Syrian people unemployed and the prospect of accessing essential household items has also declined due to closure of essential service providers.

PARTNER IN FOCUS

Première Urgence Internationale (PUI) or First International Emergency is an international non-profit, apolitical and secular organization. Globally, PUI aims to provide comprehensive response to address the basic needs of population affected by humanitarian crises.

PUI is one of the first international non-government organizations registered in Syria in 2008, conducting education projects for Iraqi refugees. Since then, PUI has been working closely with the Syrian Arab Red Crescent (SARC), the Ministry of Education (MoE), the Ministry of Local Administration (MoLA), international NGOs, and United Nations agencies in government -controlled areas.

PUI has been recognized in Syria with expertise on postemergency and early recovery. With the outbursts of the crisis in 2011, the scale and diversity of needs led PUI to continue emergency distribution (i.e. hygiene kits, winter kits, kitchen sets, stoves, drinking water), help improve housing conditions of internally displaced persons (i.e. rehabilitation of individual and collective shelters), rehabilitate and revive the activities of a primary health centers, and support the education of displaced students (i.e. additional classes construction, teacher training, and vocational training).

PUI team is operating in Syria with 102 staff. To know more about PUI, visit their website at www.premiere-urgence.org

ABOUT US

We Collaborate

We coordinate for the common good.

The Shelter Sector in Syria is one of the activated sectors to respond to the civil war that erupted in 2011. The sector values the need to collectively address gaps, ensure complementarity and strengthen accountability to the people it aims to help. Activated in 2012, the sector has been co-led by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) with the Ministry of Local Administration (MoLA) in Syria.

GEOGRAPHIC PRESENCE

We Share Information

We process data to better decide.

The sector functions using evidence-based approach. It treats information as support to better protect the displaced people it aims to assist. With information management, the sector is able to identify the most vulnerable, deliver appropriate response, and monitor its impact. The sector recognizes the need to provide the right information to the right people at the right time using the right channels.

We Rebuild Lives

We rebuild homes to alleviate suffering.

More than rehabilitating shelters, the sector provides hope to vulnerable displaced people. In every shelter project the sector provides, it helps these people get back on their feet. Ranging from live-saving shelter support to resilient-oriented shelter assistance, the sector has been committed to provide durable and long-term shelter solutions to all affected population in Syria.
