Basic constitutional studies examination regulations and requirements

Pursuant to Paragraph e) of Subsection (1) of Section 4 of Act LV of 1993 on Hungarian Citizenship (hereinafter referred to as “Citizenship Act”), persons of full age and capacity applying for naturalization - with the exceptions set out in Subsection (2) of Section 4/A of the same Act - are required to pass an examination of basic constitutional studies in the Hungarian language.

1.⁹⁶ According to Subsection (1) of Section 4/A of the Citizenship Act, the examination shall be taken before the body in charge of naturalization and nationality matters (hereinafter referred to as “office”) before an examination committee appointed by the head of the office.

2. The examination covers the following subjects:

2.1 Hungary’s role in the Carpathian Basin, Europe and international organizations (UN, Council of Europe, NATO, European Union)

2.2 Hungary’s national symbols and holidays (coat of arms, flag, crown, national anthem, Szózat, national holidays)

2.3 Turning points in Hungarian history (conquest of Magyars, state foundation; extinction of the Árpád Dynasty, Turkish rule, Habsburg empire, revolution and freedom fight of 1848-49, Austro-Hungarian compromise, World War I and II, 1956 revolution, 1990 downfall of communism)

2.4 Hungarian dignitaries in arts, music and sciences

2.5 Best known personalities in Hungarian literature

2.6⁹⁷ Basic Branches of the Fundamental Law (Parliament, President of the Republic, the Government, the Constitutional Court and the judicial system)

2.7 Administrative system (central, regional, local bodies, system of self-governance)

2.8 Fundamental rights and obligations of citizens (freedoms, economic, social and cultural rights, protection of civil rights and obligations)

2.9 Hungarian citizenship (how to acquire it by birthright or otherwise, how it is terminated and means to verify it)

3. The Application for Examination (Annex 1) must be filled out and submitted before taking the examination. Upon receipt of the application, the applicant shall be informed of the examination requirements and the fee payable.

4.⁹⁸

5.⁹⁹ The examination fee specified in Subsection (6) of Section 13 of Government Decree 125/1993 (IX. 22.) Korm. on the Implementation of the Act LV of 1993 on Hungarian Citizenship (hereinafter referred to as “ImpD”) shall be payable to the account of the office. The deposit slip or receipt in proof of payment of the examination fee shall also be attached to the Application for Examination.

6. The date of the examination shall be scheduled as best suitable for the office and the applicant. The applicant shall be informed in writing regarding the date and place of the examination at the time he submits the Application for Examination or at least fifteen days before the scheduled date of the examination.

7. The examination shall be carried out upon receipt of payment of the prescribed fee.

8. The examination committee shall consist of three members - who have the qualifications defined in Subsection (3) of Section 13 of the ImpD - appointed by the head of the office. The chairman of the committee shall be responsible for the supervision of the examination procedure to ensure that it is conducted in due compliance with legal requirements. The chairman of the committee shall exclude any applicant who causes any disturbance or who violates the rules of the examination. Exclusion from the examination shall be properly documented.

9. Apart from the examination committee, a recorder shall also participate in the procedure, whose job is to draft the examination report and perform other administrative duties.

10.¹⁰⁰ The applicant, members of the examination committee and the recorder are equally entitled to file an objection stating conflict of interest or bias. The head of the office shall investigate such objection and may as a consequence replace the committee.

11.¹⁰¹

12. The examination consists of a written and an oral exam. The chairman of the examination committee may forgo either the written or the oral exam in consideration of any handicap of the applicant if substantiated by a medical diagnosis. This medical diagnosis shall be attached as an integral part of the examination report.

13. The written and oral exams shall be completed on the same day. The applicant shall be allowed a 30-minute break before taking the oral examination.

14. The examination procedure shall be recorded in a report (Annex 2), which shall indicate if the applicant passed and received a certificate. The particulars of each examination procedure shall be entered in the examination ledger (Annex 3) and signed by the chairman of the examination committee.

15. The performance of the applicant shall be rated “passed” or “failed”. If the exam is passed, a certificate shall be issued to the applicant.

16. The “Certificate of Basic Constitutional Studies” is a confidential document. The head of the office shall be responsible for the enforcement of the regulations concerning the administrative protection of such confidential documents.

17. The examination ledger and the “Certificate of Basic Constitutional Studies” are authentic instruments. The examination ledger shall be archived by the competent archive pursuant to Subsection (1) of Section 12 of Act LXVI of 1995 on Public Documents, Public Archives and the Protection of Private Archive Materials. Other documents of the examination procedure (Application for Examination, other petitions, notification, written test and the examination report) shall be retained for fifteen years.

18. Any applicant who fails shall be readmitted to take the examination once again. The fee for the second round of examination is specified in Subsection (6) of Section 13 of the ImpD. If the applicant failed either the written or the oral exam only, fifty per cent of the examination fee shall be paid.

¹⁰⁰ Amended: by Section 3 of Government Decree 26/2011 (III. 10.) Korm. In force: as of 11. 03. 2011. Amended: by paragraph (7) Section 8 of Government Decree 417/2012 (XII. 29.) Korm. In force: as of 1. 03. 2013.

¹⁰¹ Repealed: by paragraph (7) Section 8 of Government Decree 417/2012 (XII. 29.) Korm. No longer in force: as of 1. 03. 2013.

19. In the case specified under Subsection (7) of Section 13 of the ImpD, the examination fee shall be refunded.

20. If a certificate of examination is lost or destroyed the applicant may request a replacement from the office to be issued on the basis of the examination ledger.
