

NOTICE OF CALL FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

The Representation of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees in Angola is calling for expressions of interest for the selection of partners to ensure the implementation of the projects in respect of its 2019 programming. To this effect, the Representation of UNHCR in Angola invites non-governmental organizations, national and international, operating in Angola or in the region who wish to participate in the operation of protection and assistance to refugees, the internally displaced and other people affected (by the mandate of UNHCR), to visit its website for details of the projects, as well as the conditions for participation.

Interested organizations are free to bid on one or more of the projects listed on the UNHCR website, <https://partner.unhcr.org>, accordant to their expertise and capabilities.

UNHCR reserves the right to reconsider the geographic or sectoral distribution of projects based on the interests of the operation. UNHCR also reserves the right to carry out all or part of the call for expressions of interest.

UNHCR welcomes submissions prepared jointly with other organisations, as well as those from national organisations and / or with a capacity-building element for national organisations.

The deadline for submission is 'close of business', 5 November 2018 (Luanda). After this time, no further documentation will be accepted.

Conditions of participation:

- Calls for expressions of interest are open on equal terms to all national or international organizations operating in Angola or in the region, and having at least 5 years-experience in the field of competence.
 - Applications are to be submitted in the form of a project concept note following the template available on the UNHCR web site: <http://www.unhcr.org/expressions-interest.html>
Applications are to be sent to the following e-mail address: angluprg@unhcr.org.
- All concept notes should be submitted electronically and must include the title of the project and its code. No hard (paper) versions will be considered.
- All bidding organizations must be registered with UNHCR. Organizations that are not yet registered with UNHCR must fill out the Partner Declaration. This statement is intended to determine whether a potential partner is committed to the fundamental values of UNHCR and its commitment to the people supported. To determine if an organization is registered, please contact the address epartner@unhcr.org.
- Submissions must include the ability to verify the statements of the bidder, as appropriate.
- Should you require a Portuguese version of this call for expressions of interest, please contact kiala@unhcr.org to request.

Publication of the results:

- The results of the call for expression of interest will be published no later than 16 November 2018.
- Only selected bidders will be contacted by UNHCR for the formalities of partnership.
- UNHCR brings to the attention of the public that the application and submission process is free of charge. UNHCR assumes no liability related to the payment of any sum of money.
