	Onsite monitoring will be suspended and data collection through phones will be scaled up, leveraging existing community networks. Social distancing will be strictly observed at all times	Information services requiring the gathering of people will be suspended. Otherwise, COVID-19 will have no direct impact on info services. CV-19 messages will always be interspersed.	These activities will be carried out observing social distancing as long as movement is still possible. They will be reduced or suspended based on the context evolution.
