

Cox's Bazar Bangladesh:
Reducing disaster displacement in camp settlements
- An informal city of already displaced residents -

Extending National DRR Mechanisms: CPP expansion to Camp Settlements

- To ensure macro level disaster preparedness and the national cyclone early warning system is integrated into the camp settlements of Cox's Bazar
- To enable camp settlers to be prepared, equipped and responsible for the early warning dissemination and early action for over 900,000 camp settlement residents
- To increase the capacity of the camp settlers by providing trainings and ensure they have the ownership of preparedness and response activities for a multitude of emergencies to reduce loss of life and
- Residents trained as First Responders to support their own camp communities and assist any internal displacement issues with site management sector partners
- Collective action through consortium approach to address key disaster risks in the camps including site planning, development, embankment protection and heavy infrastructure

ঘূর্ণিঝড় প্রস্তুতি কর্মসূচি (সিপিপি) CYCLONE PREPAREDNESS PROGRAMME (CPP)

A Joint Programme of Government of Bangladesh and Bangladesh Red Crescent Society

EARLY WARNING AND EARLY ACTION FOR NEARLY
900,000 RESIDENTS
IN COX'S BAZAR CAMP
SETTLEMENTS

3,400

CPP camp volunteers training and equipping ongoing through a phased approach

2,600+

out of targeted 3,400 CPP camp volunteers trained and equipped up to Dec 2019 with personal protection gear, first aid, search & rescue and early warning equipment camps with CPP camp volunteer units: all camps having 5 CPP units with 20 members with equal female and male representation to implement national early warning system and first response

34

900,000

camp residents covered with coordinated early warning system by CPP and disaster preparedness activities in coordination with RRRC, ISCG, UNHCR, IOM, UNDP and all site management agencies existing CPP host community volunteers in Cox's Bazar to be retrained and re-equipped to support millions of host community residents

4,000+

ঘূর্ণিঝড় প্রস্তুতি কর্মসূচি (সিপিপি) CYCLONE PREPAREDNESS PROGRAMME (CPP)

A Joint Programme of Government of Bangladesh and Bangladesh Red Crescent Society

The Cyclone Preparedness Programme (CPP) is working with stakeholders in camp settlements for collective action

SMEP
Site Maintenance and Engineering Project