

Uruguay

May 2020

Hosting some 28,630 refugees, asylum-seekers and migrants, most of them from Venezuela, UNHCR works with the Uruguayan government and partners to provide information on access to territory, asylum and regularization, while providing with its partners support for basic goods and services such as psycho-social support, health, education, both in cash and in-kind. UNHCR with its partners also facilitates the socio-economic integration of refugees and migrants in the local market. Moreover, UNHCR supports the Uruguayan government to implement a Rural Resettlement Program that has already permitted the arrival of 35 refugees from the North of Central America.

Uruguay is a State Party to the 1951 Convention and its 1967 Protocol since 1970. Uruguay acceded to the 1954 Convention relating to the Status of Stateless Persons in 2004, and the 1961 Convention on the Reduction of Statelessness in 2001, having integrated both already into its national legislation.

Working with Partners

- UNHCR works in close coordination with Government counterparts, namely with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Ministry of Interior, and the Refugee Commission (CORE), as well as with other UN agencies to provide protection and seek durable solutions for refugees. UNHCR is a member of the CORE.
- UNHCR works in close cooperation with the local Governments of the City of Montevideo and the Department of Canelones, where most of the refugee and migrant reside.
- SEDHU (Servicio Ecueménico para la Dignidad Humana) is UNHCR's partner for providing counselling, basic humanitarian assistance, and support for self-reliance and sustainable livelihoods to refugees and asylum-seekers. UNHCR also works with Idas y Vueltas, both in Montevideo and in Chuy to provide legal assistance to persons of concern, to do border monitoring; train officials in direct border service posts; and support refugees, asylum-seekers and migrants in their socio-economic integration.
- UNHCR is promoting a new strategy with the private sector in order to generate awareness and facilitate the labour insertion of refugees and migrants in the local market.
- UNHCR co-leads with IOM the Southern Cone chapter platform for the Refugee and Migrant Response Plan (RMRP) for Venezuelans, in close cooperation with 13 partners.

Main Activities

Protection & Durable Solutions

- Provide technical support and advice to national authorities involved in the implementation of fair and efficient Refugee Status Determination (RSD) procedures. Capacity building activities are implemented to strengthen the CORE, and its permanent secretariat in order to ensure access to territory, due process in admission, registration, eligibility interviews, RSD assessments and right to appeal. UNHCR also provides capacity building and training to other relevant counterparts.
- Support the Uruguayan government to buttress its capacities to better respond to continuous arrival of Venezuelans and to promote durable solutions for them, while providing emergency humanitarian assistance and ensuring protection support for vulnerable cases.
- Produce information and identify protection risks, promote human rights and identify coping mechanisms of Venezuelan nationals no matter their migratory or refugee status through the implementation of the Protection Monitoring Tool, while at the same time referring individual cases with specific needs to partner agencies.
- Provide technical and financial support to the government and civil society to consolidate sustainable resettlement programs and complementary pathways for admission under the leadership of the CORE. This involves close collaboration with SEDHU and international partners in order to promote a stronger community and private sector participation in the co-sponsorship of refugees. The resettlement program is currently focused on receiving refugees from the North of Central America.
- Support the government which is progressively assuming the leadership of local integration strategies, inter alia, through the promotion of policies and the allocation of public funding for refugees.
- As part of its initiative "Cities of Solidarity", UNHCR works with two local governments in Montevideo and Canelones to facilitate access to information, orientation and improve reception conditions as well as to better integrate refugees and migrants in their local communities, strengthening access to rights, employment, as well as social protection and employment promotion schemes.
- Advocate for the facilitation of the naturalization procedure for refugees and statelessness persons and provide the necessary information to ensure they can make an informed decision on this option.
- Promote actions addressed to prevent, identify and respond to situations of Sexual Gender-Based Violence (SGVBV) affecting refugee women and children through regular protection dialogues and empowerment activities with refugee women and girls.
- Provide technical support for the implementation of the law for the recognition and protection of stateless persons.
- Enhance two-way communication through communicating with communities strategy, producing informative material about access to asylum, documentation and rights available on Help website.

Humanitarian Assistance, Community Empowerment and Self-Reliance

- UNHCR through its partners provides humanitarian assistance to vulnerable asylum-seekers and refugees with special needs. The assistance consists of financial support as well as counselling. Its partners also assist on legal issues and documentation.
- UNHCR also works for the improvement of self-reliance and livelihoods of refugees and migrants, include vocational training activities organized through the National Institute for Employment and Labour Training (INEFOP), and Human Resources institutions, and the inclusion of CVs in a database after the training sessions for a possible job matching.
- During the first quarter of the year, 112 most vulnerable individuals (32 families) received multi-purpose unconditional CBI to cover their basic needs, some 360 individuals were provided with free legal assistance, orientation, information and referral to various service providers, and psychosocial assistance was provided to 150 individuals.

COVID-19 Situation (as of May, 2020)

- In May, UNHCR partner provided remote advice and orientation to 935 refugees and migrants (570 Venezuelans). The partners also gave multipurpose cash assistance to 145 people, 130 of them Venezuelans. Cases of homeless people or at risk of being so, family groups with difficulties for covering their accommodation, people with health problems, elderly, pregnant women, people who have lost formal or informal employment were prioritized.
- UNHCR partner continued providing guidance to asylum-seekers so they submit their asylum applications. The partner, being member of the Permanent Secretariat of CORE, registered 41 asylum applications since the implementation of the remote registration procedure. Uruguay became the first country in the region to regulate exceptions to border closure for persons in need of international protection and family reunification.
- Partners carried out a winterization campaign in Montevideo, reaching some 128 refugees and migrants, including 80 Venezuelans.
- Partners continue to provide psycho-social support to SGBV survivors and information on available protection mechanisms and measures, in coordination with the National Institute for Women.
- UNHCR partner has been working with the Municipality of Montevideo, referring refugees and migrants in vulnerable conditions so they can receive subsidies. The Municipality carried out during May a census of 5,300 people with housing needs, out of which it foresees to be able to support a 1,000 with subsidies. The Municipality is prioritizing family groups with children, people without formal income, people with disabilities, and in highly vulnerable conditions.
- In order to support national authorities' efforts to fight the pandemic, UNHCR procured 100 oximeters for the Ministry of Health.
- UNHCR organized national e-consultations with key counterparts to discuss proposals to support the socioeconomic recovery of refugees and migrants and their host communities. Over 55 relevant stakeholders -including national and local government representatives, key UN agencies, civil society organizations, the private sector, chambers of commerce, and refugee and migrant organizations- discussed emerging needs, challenges and opportunities linked to the labor inclusion and entrepreneurship. Six projects directed at various economic sectors, such as ICT, the agroforestry industry and the care sector were identified, targeting over 1,000 persons directly and 2.800 persons indirectly. The main findings of the national consultations and project profiles have been shared with relevant partners and donors.
- Information material regarding the constantly evolving national response and restrictions and quarantine has been made available for refugees, as well as organizations requesting UNHCR advice and assistance, on UNHCR's website unhcr.help.org
