The Free Legal Aid Directory for IDPs and Conflict-Affected People includes international and national organizations, as well as a network of national Free Legal Aid Centers providing primary and secondary legal assistance in line with the provisions of the 2011 Law of Ukraine on 'Free Legal Aid'. Free primary legal aid refers to assistance with access to law: consultation and explanation of legal issues; support in drafting legal requests, complaints and other legal documents (excluding procedural documents); as well as support accessing secondary legal aid and mediation. Free secondary legal aid refers to access to justice: representation of people in courts, as well as tribunals and other government bodies; and drafting procedural documents.

According to the Law of Ukraine on Free Legal Aid, primary legal assistance is provided to all citizens of Ukraine, while secondary legal assistance is provided only to certain categories of marginalized people.

The Free Legal Aid Directory does not list all government Free Legal Aid Centers. For a list of all centres, please consult the following websites:
