

Ex.U.IDPs

Executive Unit For IDPs Camps Management

Head of Executive Unit
Nageeb Abdul Rahman Al Sadee

Executive Unit For IDPs Camps Management

Establishment

Executive Unit was established by Cabinet Resolution No. (454) of 2009.

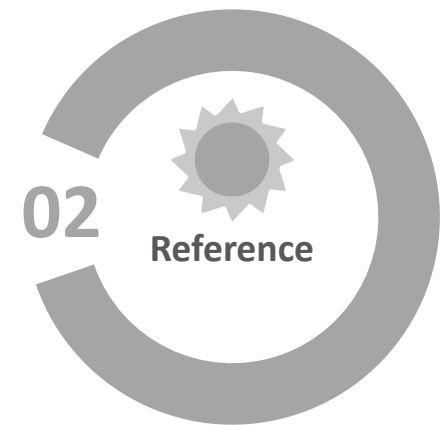

The role

Hosting and housing of IDPs,
Coordinating their humanitarian work,
Monitoring the services provided to IDPs according to the humanitarian standards

Properties

It operates under the supervision of the Prime Minister

Its regulations and references are derived from humanitarian standards

Our Tasks

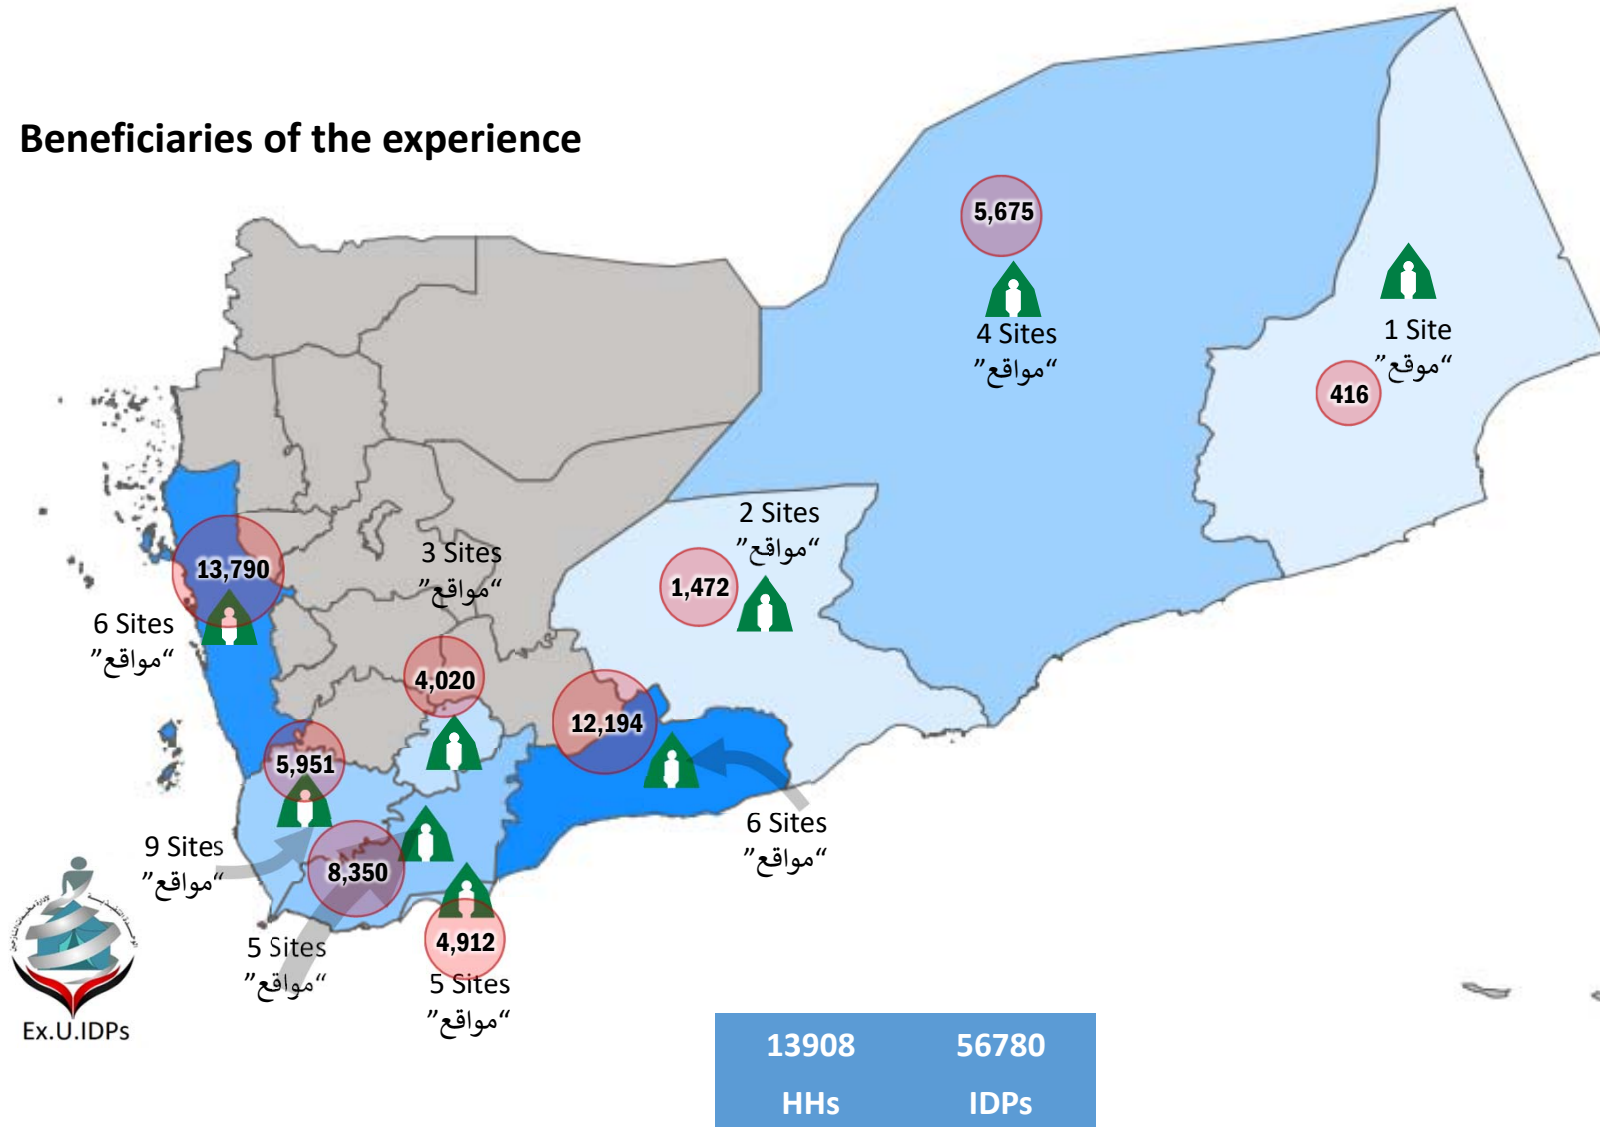

Ex.U.IDPs

Ex.U.IDPs

Beneficiaries of the experience

Ex.U.IDPs

UNHCR
المفوضية السامية للأمم المتحدة
لتحريك اللاجئين

Searching for alternative land

Taking IDPs 's opinion and consulted them in transferring

Relocation

Transferring of IDPs

Showing a case

Zahra Khalil camp

Benefits from Experience

Security and stability of IDPs

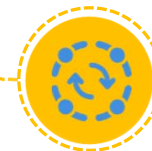

Easy access for IDPs to the services providers

Providing an environment for humanitarian agencies for safe investment

Creating a state of harmony between IDPs and the host community

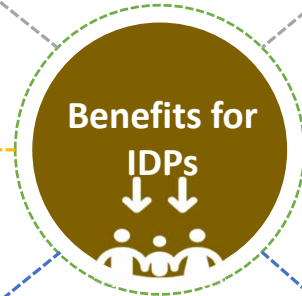

Creating a suitable environment for thinking of durable solutions

Ease of access by organizations to IDPs

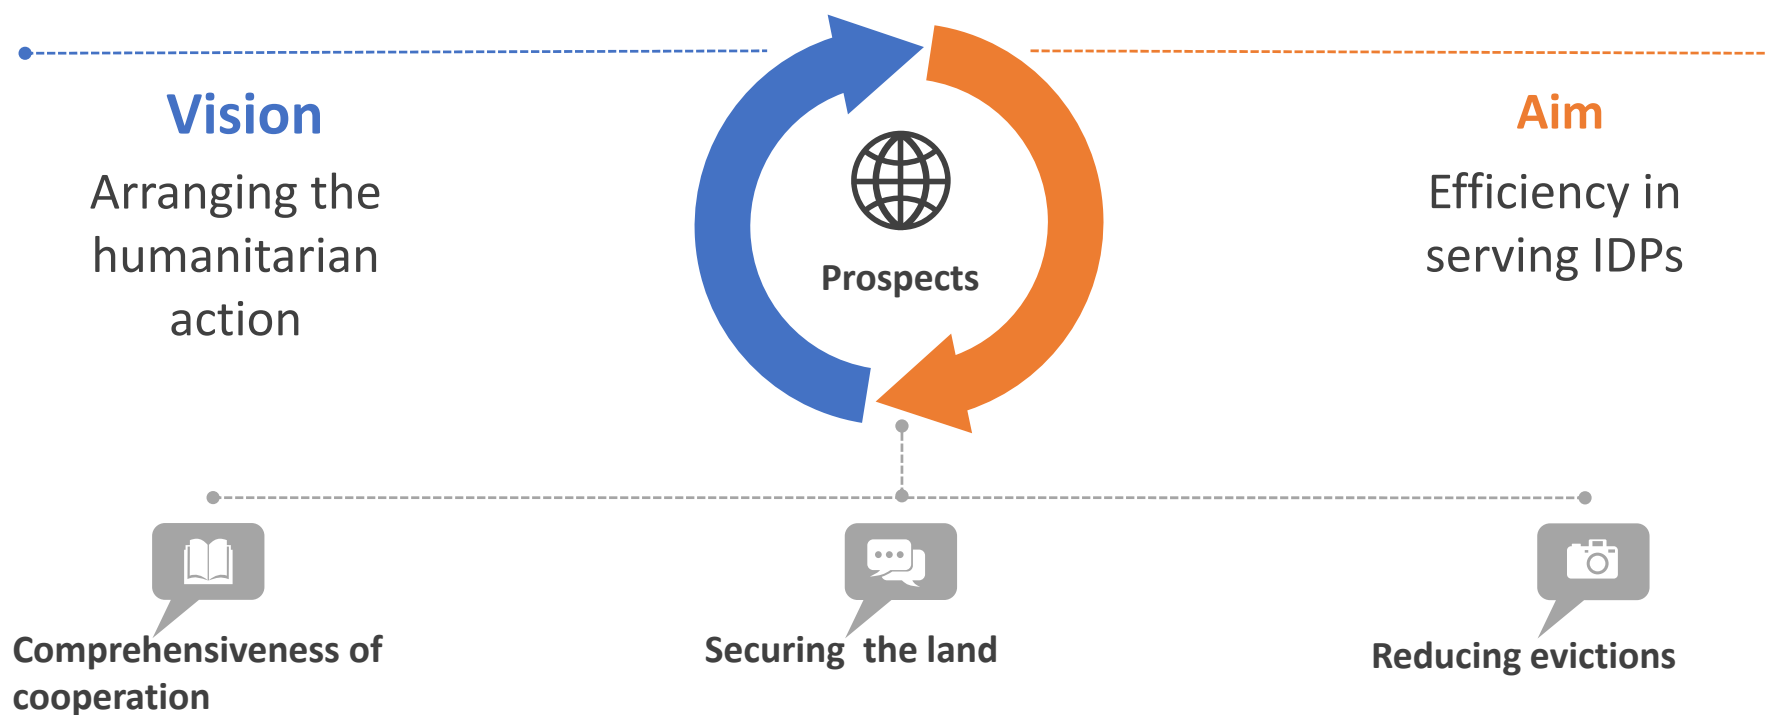

Partnership experience

Partnership Prospects

Ex.U.IDPs

The Importance of the Experience and the Necessity of Its Sustainability

It is essential for cooperation between organizations and government agencies

Generalizing the experience in the different activities

Participating in finding lasting solutions

Generalizing the benefits of the experience

The Difficulties

The need for training

The lack of capabilities to cover all regions

Lack of a unified database

The security situation

Not all partners are involved in the experience

The Importance of Generalizing the Experience

The importance of generalizing the experience

Positive view from society

Common understanding of the problems

Ease of solving problems

Creating a safe and stable environment for IDPs

Providing a condition of sustainability