The Frame Agreement will be signed for an initial period of three (3) years, with a possible extension of one (1) year, subject to a satisfactory performance.

UNHCR REUA is composed of over 70 staff who go on around 500 missions (trips) per year (in normal circumstances). Such missions are undertaken mainly by air and rail with a 75%-25% ratio for European and Intercontinental flights.

2.5 Special conditions and requirements

2.5.1 Travel Policy

The agency shall fully adhere to the current Travel Policy detailed below:

Current air travel policy requires the agency in all cases to research and book the lowest available fares and to research alternate itineraries (at least three options, if available) in order to provide the lowest appropriate fares, which satisfy the travel policies and mission requirements. Our travel policies embody the following basic principles:

- a) Use of lowest applicable fare (most economical option) according to specified requirements;
- b) Use low cost carriers where possible;
- c) Full economy fares may be used only if no appropriate reduced fares are available;
- d) While the most economical route should be prioritised, the total time of the journey should not exceed the most direct route by 4 hours or more
- e) When the total additional time is less than 4 hours, a more expensive direct route can be chosen, provided the cost does not exceed USD 150 per leg (USD 300 both ways)
- f) Business class travel or equivalent may be applicable only in limited situations: either for a direct flight over 9 hours, or for over 11 hours of a multi leg journey with a max of 2 hours transit included in the calculation of the duration of the journey;
- g) Travel regulations prohibit first-class air travel except for a few specific categories;
- h) Travel by train - first class is accepted;
- i) Tickets can be combined in any form in order to fulfil the most economical criteria (combination of one-way tickets, with fictional return, including return flight to fictional destination, regular airline combined with low cost carrier, multi-destination ticket combined with one way ticket etc.).

The agency must be knowledgeable of and prepare to offer in accordance with the established travel policy: special fares, restricted fares, discount fares, and bulk fares for use whenever appropriate. Fares which entail restrictive conditions (such as penalties or stay over), however, shall only be booked with the express approval of authorized UNHCR personnel.

2.5.2 Other special conditions

- a) UNHCR reserves the right to interview and to refuse to work with the selected, assigned travel consultant.
- b) All written communication between the requestor and the agent shall be in English or French.
- c) The travel agent shall provide the above mentioned services both for official missions and for private requests of staff members. The private request will have to be invoiced to the staff members. If the cost of a ticket is to be shared by the office and the staff member, the agent is required to issue two separate invoices. UNHCR will not be liable for the cost of the private portion requested by the staff member.
