Operational Context:

Area of expertise: Digital Content

Nature of the Position

The position of Senior PSP Individual Giving Assistant (Digital Content) supports the Private Sector Partnerships strategy for UNHCR in Thailand. Digital Content Coordination is an essential component of Digital Fundraising programme and Mass Communication. As such, the nature of the position provides an important function to raise voice on behalf of UNHCR beneficiaries, engage online audiences, and enhance UNHCR brand awareness.

The key functions, duties and responsibilities are to facilitate digital platforms and develop digital content for UNHCR Thailand social media accounts and website, refine and grow quality content, audiences, and engagement. This includes, ensuring regular monitoring and reporting of digital communication activities to obtain maximum impact and continuous improvement and assist in the development of new initiatives for the UNHCR Thailand website and social media.

Organizational Setting and Work Relationships

The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) is mandated to lead and coordinate international action to protect and assist refugees and other persons of concern.

Private Sector Partnerships Service (PSP) sits within UNHCR's Division of External Relations (DER) and is responsible for mobilizing resources from the private sector for refugees. UNHCR has developed a Private Sector Fundraising Strategy focusing on both Individual Giving and Private Sector Partnerships, identifying priority fundraising markets and regions.

Individual Giving (IG) is targeted at the general public to secure the support of individuals through regular, unrestricted donations, cash appeals and legacies. The aim is to generate both monthly and one-time donations from individuals using various channels and methods including direct mail, face-to-face fundraising, telemarketing, digital fundraising, DRTV and emergency fundraising, with focus on strong donor loyalty and lifetime value.

The purpose is to maximize the donor base from the individual giving (IG) for UNHCR, those with the ability to provide donations of between $1 to $10,000 (depending on local market conditions, as well as scope of responsibility) per year to UNHCR.

All UNHCR staff members are accountable to perform their duties as reflected in their job description. They do so within their delegated authorities, in line with the regulatory framework of UNHCR which includes the UN Charter, UN Staff Regulations and Rules, UNHCR Policies and Administrative Instructions as well as relevant accountability frameworks. In addition, staff members are required to discharge their responsibilities in a manner consistent with the core, functional, cross-functional and managerial competencies and UNHCR's core values of professionalism, integrity and respect for diversity.
