

Global Alliance to End Statelessness Taskforce

Terms of Reference

Purpose:

To support the establishment of the Global Alliance Against Statelessness, in a manner which is representative and inclusive of its stakeholders.

Composition:

UNHCR will act as the Secretariat for the Global Alliance Taskforce. The Global Alliance Taskforce will ideally be composed of at least one representative from each of the following stakeholder groups for a total of 10 -15 Taskforce members:

- Organisations led by persons with lived experience of statelessness
- UN Entities
- International Organisations
- Global Civil Society Groups
- Academic Institutions
- Foundations

Selection Criteria:

The Secretariat will make a final decision on composition of the Taskforce, taking into account the following criteria:

- Regional diversity
- Range and depth of experience working on statelessness and related issues
- Experience in establishing other global or regional issue-based coalitions or alliances

Period of Operation:

The Taskforce will be established no later than 30 July 2022 and will continue to operate until the Global Alliance is launched, ideally at the Summit for the Future in September 2023.

Tasks:

The Taskforce members are expected to engage in the following tasks:

- Regularly participating in monthly online Taskforce meetings of up to 2 hours [July 2022 – September 2023] and other meetings as needed
- Based on survey results, developing a draft vision, structure, strategy, and indicative workplan for the Global Alliance [July – Oct 2022]
- Supporting the roll-out of consultations on the draft vision (including theory of change), structure, strategy and workplan with relevant stakeholder groups, which may include travel and face-to-face participation for up to two days [Nov 2022 – April 2023]
- Based on the results of the consultation process, finalizing the structure, strategy and two-year workplan for the Global Alliance [May – July 2023]
- Support the organization of the launch event for the Global Alliance [June– Sept 2023]

Please note that the above-mentioned tasks will require taskforce members to play an active role in the taskforce and a commitment to reviewing and contributing to documents and meetings.

Deadline for Taskforce Applications:

24 June 2022.

Kindly submit the application form to hqpr03@unhcr.org with the subject line: Global Alliance Taskforce.
