- (1) This Division applies in relation to a person (the accused) if any of the following events happen:
 - (a) either the accused, the prosecutor or both appear before the Court in accordance with an order committing the accused for trial on indictment, or sentencing, before the Court for an indictable offence;
 - (b) the prosecutor files in the Court an indictment against the accused for an indictable offence (whether or not the accused has been examined and committed for trial on indictment);
 - (c) the prosecutor applies to the Court for an extension of time in which to file in the Court an indictment of the kind covered by paragraph (b) against the accused;
 - (d) the accused applies to the Court in relation to the prosecutor's failure to file an indictment against the accused in response to an order committing the accused for trial on indictment before the Court for an indictable offence;
 - (e) either the accused, the prosecutor or both appear before the Court in accordance with an order of a State or Territory court granting the accused bail in relation to an indictable offence.

Indictable primary proceedings

- (2) This Division applies in relation to the following proceedings (the indictable primary proceedings):
 - (a) proceedings in the Court that are commenced by, or that include, an event mentioned in subsection (1);
 - (b) proceedings in the Court for sentencing the accused if the Court, in proceedings covered by paragraph (a), has accepted a plea of guilty, or a verdict of guilty, for a count in the indictment in relation to the accused;

- (c) proceedings in the Court that are ancillary to proceedings covered by paragraph (a) or (b).

Parties to the proceedings

- (3) In indictable primary proceedings, the accused and the prosecutor are parties to the proceedings.

Note: More than one accused may be a party to the proceedings if they are prosecuted on a single indictment (see sections 23BB and 23BD).

Offences to which this Division applies

- (4) A reference in this Division to an offence is a reference to any of the following:
- (a) an offence against either of the following sections of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010:
 - (i) section 44ZZRF (making a contract etc. containing a cartel provision);
 - (ii) section 44ZZRG (giving effect to a cartel provision);
 - (b) if jurisdiction is conferred on the Court under subsection 32(4) in respect of a matter—an indictable offence to which the matter relates.

Note: Paragraph (b) covers any Commonwealth indictable offence associated with a particular prosecution of a cartel offence mentioned in paragraph (a).

Subdivision B—Matters relating to indictments

23BA Indictment may include alternate counts

The prosecutor may include alternate counts in an indictment.

23BB Single count can cover multiple accused

The prosecutor may, in an indictment, include a single count against more than one accused for the same indictable offence if the count is founded on alleged facts that are the same or substantially the same for each accused.

23BC Separating one or more accused from a single count

- (1) The Court may order one or more accused included in a single count in an indictment to be tried separately:
 - (a) in the same proceedings on a different count in the same indictment; or
 - (b) in separate proceedings on one or more further indictments; if the Court is satisfied that it is expedient to do so in the interests of justice.
- (2) If the Court makes an order under subsection (1), the Court may make such other orders as it thinks appropriate in the circumstances.
- (3) The Court may make an order under subsection (1) before trial or during the trial.

23BD Single indictment can include multiple counts

Single accused

- (1) The prosecutor may, in a single indictment, include counts against the accused for more than one indictable offence if those counts:
 - (a) are founded on alleged facts that are the same or substantially the same; or
 - (b) are, or form part of, a series of alleged indictable offences:
 - (i) of the same or a similar character; or
 - (ii) committed in the pursuit of a single purpose.

Multiple accused

- (2) The prosecutor may, in a single indictment, include counts against more than one accused for the same or different indictable offences if those counts:
 - (a) are founded on alleged facts that are the same or substantially the same; or
 - (b) are, or form part of, a series of alleged indictable offences:
 - (i) of the same or a similar character; or
 - (ii) committed in the pursuit of a single purpose.

23BE Separating one or more counts from a single indictment

- (1) The Court may order one or more counts in an indictment to be tried separately:
 - (a) in separate proceedings; and
 - (b) on one or more further indictments;if the Court is satisfied that it is expedient to do so in the interests of justice.
- (2) If the Court makes an order under subsection (1), the Court may make such other orders as it thinks appropriate in the circumstances.
- (3) The Court may make an order under subsection (1) before trial or during the trial.

23BF Time within which indictments must be filed following committal order

Scope

- (1) This section applies if the accused is committed for trial before the Court for an indictable offence.

General rule—indictments must be filed within 3 months

- (2) An indictment may only include a count that covers the offence if the indictment is filed in the Court as soon as practicable, and in any event within 3 months, after the committal order is made.

Extension—if accused/count separated from earlier indictment

- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent the inclusion of a count in an indictment if:
 - (a) the count contains the same offence, in relation to the accused, as an earlier count from which the accused was separated by an order under subsection 23BC(1); and
 - (b) the indictment is filed within 3 months after:
 - (i) if the Court accepts a plea of guilty, or a verdict of guilty, in relation to the earlier count and any of the other accused remaining covered by that count—the end of sentencing proceedings relating to that count; or

Section 23BG

- (ii) otherwise—the end of the trial of those other accused remaining covered by the earlier count.
- (4) Subsection (2) does not prevent the inclusion of a count in an indictment if:
 - (a) the count is the same as another count relating to the accused that was separated from an earlier indictment by an order under subsection 23BE(1); and
 - (b) the first-mentioned indictment is filed within 3 months after:
 - (i) if the Court accepts a plea of guilty, or a verdict of guilty, in relation to any of the counts remaining in the earlier indictment—the end of sentencing proceedings relating to those counts; or
 - (ii) otherwise—the end of the trial relating to the counts remaining in the earlier indictment.
- (5) The Court may order that subsection (3) or (4) does not apply in relation to an indictment, and may make such other orders about the time within which the indictment must be filed as the Court thinks appropriate in the circumstances.

Extension—by court order

- (6) On application by the prosecutor, the Court may, by order, extend (or further extend) the time by which, under subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5), an indictment is required to be filed.
- (7) The Court may exercise its power under subsection (6) only if the application for the extension (or further extension) is made before the end of the period to be extended (or further extended).

No effect on filing indictments in other courts

- (8) This section does not prevent an indictment of the accused for the indictable offence being filed in another court that has jurisdiction in relation to the offence.

23BG Consequences of not filing indictment within time

- (1) If the accused is committed for trial before the Court for an indictable offence and an indictment is not filed in the Court within the time required by section 23BF, the Court may:
 - (a) discharge the accused; and

- (b) make such other orders as it thinks appropriate in the circumstances.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to subsections (3) and (4).
- (3) The Court must not:
 - (a) proceed with the trial as if an indictment had been filed in the Court; or
 - (b) acquit the accused of the offence.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply if an indictment of the accused for the indictable offence is filed in another court that has jurisdiction in relation to the offence.

23BH Amending indictments

Amendments before a trial

- (1) The prosecutor may, in accordance with the Rules of Court, amend (or replace) an indictment in relation to an accused at any time during the proceedings before the start of a trial of the accused on the indictment.

Note: A trial starts when the accused is arraigned before a jury (see subsection 23FA(2)).

Amendments during a trial

- (2) During a trial of the accused on an indictment, the prosecutor may amend (or replace) the indictment in relation to the accused only with the leave of the Court.

Consequences of amending indictments

- (3) If the prosecutor replaces an indictment under subsection (1) or (2), the Court must dismiss the replaced indictment.
- (4) If an indictment is amended or replaced, the Court may make such orders as it thinks appropriate in the circumstances.

Note: If, for example, an indictment was amended to remove a count against the accused, the Court could discharge the accused in relation to that count.

- (5) This section does not affect the amendment of an indictment under other provisions of this Division.

Subdivision C—Pre-trial matters (hearings, disclosure and quashing indictments)

23CA Pre-trial hearings

- (1) As soon as practicable after an indictment is filed in the Court, the Court must:
 - (a) order the prosecutor and the accused to attend a pre-trial hearing before the Court; and
 - (b) at the hearing, direct the accused to enter a plea to each count in the indictment that relates to the accused.
- (2) Before a trial on the indictment starts, the Court may order the prosecutor and the accused to attend one or more further pre-trial hearings before the Court.

Note: The Court may also order pre-trial disclosure (see subsection 23CD(1)).

23CB Court may make orders during pre-trial hearings

- (1) During a pre-trial hearing, the Court may make orders and determinations for the efficient management and disposal of a trial on the indictment.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Court may do any or all of the following under that subsection:
 - (a) make orders, or give leave, under Subdivision B (matters relating to indictments);
 - (b) hear and determine an objection to the indictment;
 - (c) make an order under subsection 23CD(1) (pre-trial disclosure);
 - (d) determine the admissibility of evidence;
 - (e) hear and determine a submission that the matter should not proceed to trial for a reason not mentioned in a preceding paragraph of this subsection;
 - (f) rule on a matter of law that may arise during a trial on the indictment.

Note 1: The Court could, for example, rule whether business records are admissible.

Note 2: For the purposes of paragraph (2)(b), the bases on which the accused may object to an indictment are set out in subsection 23CP(1).

- (3) If a trial on the indictment starts, an order or determination under subsection (1) applies for the trial unless the Court is satisfied that to follow the order or determination would be contrary to the interests of justice.

23CC Matters that must be raised during pre-trial hearings

If a matter covered by paragraph 23CB(2)(b) or (e) was not raised during the pre-trial hearings for an indictment, the matter cannot be raised during the trial unless the Court is satisfied that to not do so would be contrary to the interests of justice.

23CD Pre-trial and ongoing disclosure

- (1) After the indictment is filed in the Court and before a trial on the indictment starts, the Court may order:
- (a) the prosecutor to give the accused notice of the case for the prosecution in accordance with section 23CE; and
 - (b) the accused, after having been given notice of the case for the prosecution, to give the prosecutor notice of the accused's response in accordance with section 23CF; and
 - (c) the prosecutor, after having been given notice of the accused's response, to give the accused notice of the prosecution's response to the accused's response in accordance with section 23CG; and
 - (d) the prosecutor and the accused to make ongoing disclosures in accordance with section 23CH until, for each count in the indictment relating to the accused, the accused is either:
 - (i) convicted of the offence covered by the count; or
 - (ii) discharged in relation to the count.

The order may specify the time within which each disclosure is to be made.

- (2) The accused must give the following to the prosecutor as soon as practicable after the accused's first pre-trial hearing before the Court in relation to the indictment:
- (a) if at the trial the accused proposes to adduce supporting evidence of an alibi—notice of particulars, prepared in accordance with the Rules of Court, of that alibi;
 - (b) if at the trial the accused proposes to adduce supporting evidence that the accused was suffering from a mental impairment (within the meaning of section 7.3 of the Criminal Code)—notice of particulars, prepared in accordance with the Rules of Court, of that impairment.

Section 23CE

Note: A party may also be required to disclose additional information as a result of other laws (for example, subsection 44ZZRO(2) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010).

23CE Disclosure of case for the prosecution

The notice of the prosecution's case must include the following:

- (a) an outline of the prosecution's case that sets out the facts, matters and circumstances on which the prosecution's case is based;
- (b) for each witness the prosecutor proposes to call at the trial:
 - (i) a copy of a signed statement by the witness that sets out the evidence the witness is to give at the trial; or of so much of that information as is necessary to suggest that existence;

- (j) a list identifying:
 - (i) any information, document or other thing not in the prosecutor's possession that the prosecutor reasonably believes contains evidence that may be relevant to the accused's case; and

Note: Information and things do not need to be disclosed more than once (see section 23CK).

23CH Ongoing disclosure obligations

- (1) If the Court makes an order under subsection 23CD(1) requiring ongoing disclosure in accordance with this section:
 - (a) the accused's ongoing disclosure obligations are set out in subsection (2); and
 - (b) the prosecutor's ongoing disclosure obligations are set out in subsections (4) and (5).

Accused's ongoing disclosure obligations

- (2) If, contrary (or in addition) to the accused's response under section 23CF, the accused later:
 - (a) no longer takes issue with, or no longer contests, something set out in the notice of the prosecution's case; or
 - (b) takes issue with something set out in the notice of the prosecution's case on an alternate or additional basis to the basis set out in the accused's response; or
 - (c) no longer requires the prosecution to do something, or to ensure that something is done; or
 - (d) agrees or accepts, or consents to, something set out in the notice of the prosecution's case; or
 - (e) obtains a report, relevant to the trial, that has been prepared by an expert witness whom the accused proposes to call at the trial;

the accused must notify this to the prosecutor. When giving notice of a report by an expert witness, the accused must include a copy of the report.

Note: The order may specify the time within which the accused must notify this to the prosecutor (see section 23CD).

Prosecution's ongoing disclosure obligations

- (4) If, contrary (or in addition) to the prosecution's response under section 23CG, the prosecutor later:
 - (a) no longer contests something set out in the accused's response; or
 - (b) no longer requires the accused to do something, or to ensure that something is done; or
 - (c) agrees or accepts, or consents to, something set out in the accused's response; or

- (d) obtains a report, relevant to the trial, that has been prepared by an expert witness whom the prosecution proposes to call at the trial;

the prosecutor must notify this to the accused as soon as practicable. When giving notice of a report by an expert witness, the prosecutor must include a copy of the report.

Note: The order may specify the time within which the prosecutor must notify this to the accused (see section 23CD).

- (5) After giving the prosecution's response under section 23CG, the prosecutor must give the accused:
 - (a) a copy or details of any additional information, document or other thing in the prosecutor's possession that the prosecutor reasonably believes contains evidence that may be relevant to the accused's case; and
 - (b) if the prosecutor reasonably believes information in the prosecutor's possession suggests the existence of evidence that may be relevant to the accused's case—a copy or details of so much of that information as is necessary to suggest that existence; and
 - (c) if the prosecutor reasonably believes any information, document or other thing not in the prosecutor's possession contains evidence that may be relevant to the accused's case—a statement to that effect identifying:
 - (i) the information, document or thing; and
 - (ii) a place where the prosecutor reasonably believes the information, document or thing to be.

Note 1: Information and things do not need to be disclosed more than once (see section 23CK).

Note 2: The order may specify the time within which the prosecutor must give these things to the accused (see section 23CD).

23CI Copies of things need not be provided if impracticable etc.

- (1) Nothing in this Subdivision requires a copy or details of any information, document or other thing to be given if it is unlawful, impossible or impracticable to provide the copy or details.
- (2) However, the party to the proceedings required (but for subsection (1)) to give the copy or details must:

Section 23CJ

- (a) notify the other party of a reasonable time and place at which the information, document or other thing may be inspected; and
- (b) allow the other party a reasonable opportunity to inspect the information, document or other thing.

23CJ Personal details need not be provided

- (1) Nothing in this Subdivision requires the prosecutor to disclose the address or telephone number of any witness proposed to be called by the prosecutor, or of any other living person, unless:
 - (a) the address or telephone number is a materially relevant part of the evidence; or
 - (b) on application by the accused—the Court makes an order directing the disclosure.

Note: The Court may make orders to protect witnesses, information, documents and other things (see section 23HC).

- (2) The Court must not make an order under paragraph (1)(b) directing the disclosure of information unless it is satisfied that:
 - (a) the accused needs the information to prepare properly for the hearing of the evidence for the prosecution; and
 - (b) if the disclosure is likely to present a risk to a person's safety or welfare—the accused's need for the information outweighs this risk.
- (3) This section does not prevent the disclosure of an address if:
 - (a) the disclosure does not identify it as a particular person's address; and
 - (b) it could not reasonably be inferred from the matters disclosed that it is a particular person's address.
- (4) If:
 - (a) a statement is to be given to the accused; and
 - (b) the statement contains an address or telephone number that must not be disclosed;the address or telephone number may, without reference to the person who made the statement, be deleted from the statement, or rendered illegible, before the statement is given to the accused.

23CK Things need not be disclosed to a party more than once

A party to indictable primary proceedings (the current proceedings) need not disclose anything under this Subdivision to another party if the first-mentioned party has already disclosed it to the other party:

- (a) during the current proceedings; or
- (b) during committal or other proceedings relating to an offence founded on alleged facts that are the same or substantially the same as those for an offence being prosecuted in the current proceedings.

23CL Effect on legal professional privilege and other privileges and duties etc.

Litigation privilege not an excuse for failing to comply with pre-trial disclosure requirements

- (1) A party is not excused from disclosing material under this Subdivision on the basis of litigation privilege claimed by the party in relation to the material.

Note: The party can still be excused from disclosing material on the basis of advice privilege (that is, privilege that would, if the material were evidence to be adduced in the Court, protect against a disclosure covered by section 118 of the Evidence Act 1995).

- (2) This Subdivision does not otherwise:
 - (a) abrogate or affect the law relating to legal professional privilege; or
 - (b) amount to a waiver of legal professional privilege.

Note: This means, for example, that legal professional privilege will apply for the trial.

Other privileges and duties unaffected

- (3) This Subdivision does not abrogate or affect:
 - (a) the operation of the National Security Information (Criminal and Civil Proceedings) Act 2004; or
 - (b) the law relating to public interest immunity.
- (4) This Subdivision does not abrogate or affect the law relating to any duty of a person investigating the accused to ensure that information and other things are disclosed to the prosecutor or the accused.

Section 23CM

Definitions

(5) In this section:

legal professional privilege includes privilege (however described) under Division 1 of Part 3.10 of the Evidence Act 1995, or a similar law of a State or Territory.

litigation privilege means privilege (however described) that would, if the material were evidence to be adduced in the Court, protect against a disclosure covered by section 119 of the Evidence Act 1995.

23CM Consequences of disclosure requirements

Orders to ensure non-compliance does not unfairly affect the other party

- (1) The Court may make such orders as it thinks appropriate to ensure that:
- (a) any failure by the prosecutor to comply with an order under subsection 23CD(1) does not cause unfairness to the accused; and
 - (b) any failure by the accused to comply with an order under subsection 23CD(1) does not prejudice the prosecutor's ability to efficiently conduct the prosecution.
- (2) However, the Court must not make an order under subsection (1) if it would result in an unfair trial.

Certain evidence cannot be adduced at trial unless there is earlier disclosure

- (3) If the accused fails to comply with subsection 23CD(2) in relation to an alibi, the accused may only adduce evidence of the alibi with the leave of the Court.
- (4) If the accused fails to comply with subsection 23CD(2) in relation to a mental impairment (within the meaning of section 7.3 of the Criminal Code), the accused may only adduce evidence that the accused was suffering from the impairment with the leave of the Court.

23CN Restricting further disclosure of disclosed material

- (1) This section restricts what a person (the entrusted person) may do with any information, document or other thing (the protected material) the person obtains as the result of a disclosure under this Subdivision.
- (2) The entrusted person commits an offence if the person discloses any protected material to another person.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

- (3) Each of the following is an exception to the prohibition in subsection (2):
 - (a) the disclosure is for the purposes of the proceedings for which the entrusted person obtained the protected material;
 - (b) the Court has given leave for the disclosure;
 - (c) the disclosure happens for the purposes of, or in connection with, the performance of the duties of the entrusted person's official employment;
 - (d) the disclosure is of protected material that has already been lawfully disclosed in proceedings in open court.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to a matter in subsection (3) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

- (4) The entrusted person is not to be required:
 - (a) to produce to a court or tribunal any document that is or contains protected material; or
 - (b) to disclose protected material to a court or tribunal.
- (5) In this section:

disclose means divulge or communicate.

official employment means:

- (a) service as:
 - (i) the Director of Public Prosecutions; or
 - (ii) a member of the staff of the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions; or

Section 23CO

- (iii) a Special Prosecutor under the Special Prosecutors Act 1982; or
- (iv) the Attorney-General; or
- (v) a person appointed by the Governor-General in relation to the prosecution for which the entrusted person obtained the protected material; or
- (b) representing, or otherwise performing services for, a person referred to in paragraph (a); or
- (c) exercising the powers, or performing the functions, of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

23CO Restricting admissibility of disclosed material as evidence in other proceedings

- (1) The Court may order that any or all of the material disclosed under this Subdivision is not admissible:
 - (a) in any other proceedings before the Court; or
 - (b) in any other court (whether exercising federal jurisdiction or not); or
 - (c) in any proceedings before a person authorised by a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory, or by the consent of the parties, to hear evidence.
- (2) An order made under subsection (1) ceases to have effect if, during the indictable primary proceedings, the material is lawfully disclosed in open court.
- (3) The Court may, on the application of an interested person (whether during the indictable primary proceedings or otherwise), order that an order made under subsection (1) be:
 - (a) set aside; or
 - (b) varied;if the Court is satisfied it is in the interests of justice to do so.
- (4) The Court may, before making an order under subsection (3), direct that notice of the application be given to such persons as it thinks fit or be published in such manner as it thinks fit, or both.

23CP Objecting to indictments

- (1) The accused may object to a count in the indictment on the basis of:
 - (a) a formal defect apparent on the face of the indictment; or
 - (b) the Court lacking jurisdiction; or
 - (c) autrefois acquit or autrefois convict; or
 - (d) a pardon.

Note: The objection must be raised during a pre-trial hearing unless the Court allows otherwise (see section 23CC).

- (2) If the Court upholds the objection, the Court may:
 - (a) in every case:
 - (i) make an order quashing the count in relation to the accused; and
 - (ii) if after quashing the count, no counts remain in the indictment in relation to the accused or any other accused—make an order quashing the indictment; and
 - (iii) discharge the accused in relation to the count; and
 - (iv) make such other orders as it thinks appropriate in the circumstances; or
 - (b) if the objection is covered by paragraph (1)(a)—make an order for the amendment of the indictment to remove the defect instead of quashing the count.

23CQ Examining witnesses after committal in absence of the jury

Part III Jurisdiction of the Court

Division 1A Original jurisdiction (indictable offences)

Section 23DA

Note: A person examined under this section will be examined in the absence of a jury.

- (2) The Court may make such orders as it thinks appropriate in the circumstances to give effect to a direction under subsection (1).
- (3) A direction under subsection (1) may permit either or both of the parties to examine the person named in the direction.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(d), the absence of committal proceedings does not, of itself, mean it will be contrary to the interests of justice to proceed to trial without the person being examined.

Subdivision D—Pre-trial matters (empanelling the jury)

23DA Simplified outline

The following is a simplified outline of this Subdivision:

- There are rules about the number of jurors on a jury.
- Before convening jury panels for trials in a State or Territory, the Sheriff needs to determine one or more jury districts for the State or Territory. A jury roll for each jury district can then be obtained.
- Not everyone on a jury roll is qualified to serve as a juror.
- For each trial, the Sheriff convenes a jury panel by:
 - (a) selecting the jury district and preparing a jury list from the corresponding jury roll; and
 - (b) randomly selecting some of the persons on the jury list and summoning them to attend court for jury service.
- The jury is then selected from those persons on the jury panel.

- A person on the jury panel will not become a juror if they are excused from jury service, or if their inclusion on the jury is successfully challenged. A potential juror may also be asked to temporarily stand aside during the selection of the jury.

23DB Application to criminal proceedings

This Subdivision applies in relation to juries for indictable primary proceedings.

23DC Number of jurors on jury

- (1) The number of jurors on a jury is:
 - (a) 12; or
 - (b) such larger number (not exceeding 15) as the Court orders.
- (2) An order under paragraph (1)(b) must be made before the jury is empanelled for the proceedings.

23DD Continuation of the trial with a reduced jury

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), if a juror is discharged during a trial, the Court may direct that the trial continue with the remaining jurors.

Note: For when a juror is discharged, see Subdivision E.
- (2) If the Court gives a direction under subsection (1) after the jury has retired to consider its verdict on a count in the indictment, the verdict of the remaining jurors has the same effect as if it were the verdict of all the persons who were jurors when the jury retired to consider its verdict.

Note: There must not be more than 12 jurors when the jury retires to consider its verdict (see section 23DE).
- (3) A trial must not continue with fewer than 10 jurors.

23DE Ballot to reduce additional jurors

If, before the jury is asked to retire to consider its verdict on a count in the indictment, there are more than 12 jurors, a ballot must be conducted to select at random 11 of the jurors who, together with the jury foreperson, will consider the verdict.

Part III Jurisdiction of the Court

Division 1A Original jurisdiction (indictable offences)

Section 23DF

Note 1: This means the jury foreperson is excluded from the ballot. For the appointment of the jury foreperson, see section 23EA).

Note 2: The jurors not selected in the ballot are discharged at the end of the conduct of the ballot (see section 23EJ).

23DF Jury districts (establishment and boundaries)

- (1) The Sheriff may, in writing, determine that the electoral Divisions specified in the determination constitute a jury district for a particular State or Territory.
- (2) There may be more than one jury district for a State or Territory.
- (3) A determination made under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.

23DG Jury roll for a jury district

 - (a) a jury list has been prepared under subsection (1); and
 - (b) the jury list no longer contains the number of persons the Sheriff thinks is adequate to allow a jury to be empanelled;the Sheriff may supplement the list by selecting additional persons, who have not already been summonsed under section 23DP for the jury, at random from the jury roll for the applicable jury district.

Note: The situation described in paragraph (b) may arise because of a larger than expected number of persons being removed from the list under section 23DO.
- (6) A jury list is not a legislative instrument.

23DN Investigation and questionnaires

- (1) The Sheriff may make such enquiries as he or she thinks necessary to determine whether a person included on the jury list:

Discharge if Judge incapable of proceeding

- (4) If, during a trial, a Judge becomes incapable of proceeding with the trial or directing the discharge of the jury, another Judge must discharge the jury.

Discharge if number of jurors falls below 10

- (5) The Court must discharge the jury immediately if the number of jurors falls below that permitted in subsection 23DD(3).

23EM Consequences of discharging the jury

General rule

- (1) The Court must order a new trial of an accused in relation to a count in the indictment if:
 - (a) the jury is discharged without delivering a unanimous verdict on the count in relation to the accused; and
 - (b) the count is not covered by paragraph 23EL(2)(c), (d) or (e).

If Court thinks it appropriate to empanel a new jury from the same jury panel

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if:
 - (a) the jury is discharged under subsection 23EL(1); and
 - (b) the Court thinks it appropriate to give a direction under subsection (3).
- (3) If the jury is discharged under subsection 23EL(1), the Court may direct an officer of the Court to start the process for empanelling a new jury under section 23DU from the same jury panel.
- (4) For the purposes of empanelling the new jury, this Division (other than this section) applies as if the first jury had not been empanelled.

Note 1: This has the effect of resetting the limits on challenges, and for the standing aside, of potential jurors.

Note 2: The Court may direct the Sheriff to supplement the jury panel under section 23DW.

- (5) Despite subsection (4):
 - (a) the jurors on the first jury, and any potential jurors discharged before the empanelling of the first jury, cannot be empanelled on the new jury and remain discharged; and
 - (b) to avoid doubt, section 23DT is taken to have been satisfied in relation to the empanelling of the new jury.

Subdivision F—Matters relating to pleas, the trial and verdicts

23FA Accused to be arraigned before the jury

- (1) If the prosecution of the accused is to proceed to trial, the accused must be arraigned before a jury in accordance with the Rules of Court.
- (2) The trial on indictment of the accused starts when the accused is arraigned before the jury.

23FB Practice and procedure applicable to the trial

Unless the Court orders otherwise:

- (a) the laws of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) the laws of the State or Territory applying under subsection 68(1) of the Judiciary Act 1903; and
- (c) the Rules of Court;

relating to the practice and procedure to be followed during the trial, are to be those in force at the time the indictment is filed in the Court.

23FC Admissibility of evidence given in committal proceedings

- (1) If the trial happens as the result of a court committing the accused for trial before the Court, then this section applies to:
 - (a) evidence given by witnesses; and
 - (b) documents tendered in evidence;

(committal evidence) during those committal proceedings (whether or not the committal evidence was given, or tendered, in relation to an offence being determined at the trial).
- (2) The Court may allow a party to admit committal evidence, in whole or in part, as evidence at the trial if the Court is satisfied:
 - (a) that the individual who gave the evidence, or tendered the document, in the committal proceedings:
 - (i) is dead, or is so ill as not to be able to travel or to give evidence without a risk of endangering the individual's life; or
 - (ii) is absent from Australia; or
 - (b) that there are other valid reasons for doing so.

23FD Entering pleas

- (1) The accused may enter a plea of guilty, or not guilty, to a count in the indictment.

Note: The Court may reject a plea of guilty in the interests of justice (see subsection 23FJ(1)).

- (2) The accused is taken to have entered a plea of not guilty to a count in the indictment if the accused fails to enter a plea to the count when directed by the Court.

Note: A failure to enter a plea includes a failure to say anything and a failure to give a direct answer.

- (3) The accused may both:
- (a) enter a plea to a count in the indictment; and
 - (b) object to the count.

23FE Pleading to some counts in satisfaction of other counts

If:

- (a) the accused enters a plea of guilty to one or more counts in the indictment; and
 - (b) the prosecutor advises the Court that the prosecutor accepts the plea or pleas of guilty in satisfaction of the indictment;
- the indictment is taken to be amended so that no other count in the indictment covers the accused.

23FF Pleading to different offences capable of being supported by indictment

- (1) The accused may enter a plea of guilty to an offence not specified in the indictment if:
- (a) the Court has jurisdiction to try a person for the offence; and
 - (b) the prosecutor consents; and
 - (c) the matters alleged in the indictment can support an allegation that the accused committed the offence.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, if the accused pleads guilty to an offence in accordance with subsection (1), the indictment is taken to have always included a count against the accused for the offence.

Section 23FG

Note: If the accused proposes to enter a plea of guilty to an offence that cannot be supported by the matters alleged in the indictment, the prosecutor will need to amend the indictment under section 23BH to include a count for the offence before the accused can enter the plea to that offence.

23FG Changing pleas

Accused may change plea

- (1) The accused may change his or her plea in accordance with this section.

Changing plea to guilty

- (2) If the accused has entered a plea of not guilty in relation to a count in the indictment, the accused may change the plea to guilty.

Note: The Court may reject the change of plea in the interests of justice (see subsection 23FJ(1)).

Changing plea to not guilty

- (3) If the accused has entered a plea of guilty in relation to a count in the indictment, the accused may change the plea to not guilty only with the leave of the Court. The Court may grant leave at any time before the Court imposes a sentence on the accused in relation to an offence specified in the count.
- (4) If the accused changes the plea in accordance with subsection (3):
- (a) the Court must direct that the accused be put on trial in relation to the count; and
 - (b) the Court may make such orders as to matters preliminary to the trial as the Court thinks appropriate.

Note: The Court could, for example, make orders under Subdivision C.

23FH Court's verdict if no case to answer

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) after the close of the prosecutor's case for a count in the indictment in relation to the accused; and
 - (b) before the jury delivers its verdict for the count in relation to the accused;

the Court finds the accused has no case to answer in relation to the count.

- (2) The Court must:
 - (a) enter a judgment of acquittal for the count in relation to the accused; and
 - (b) discharge the accused in relation to the count.
- (3) The Court must not direct the jury to deliver a verdict for the count in relation to the accused.

23FI Jury's verdict

Verdict must be unanimous

- (1) The jury's verdict on each count in the indictment must be unanimous. If the indictment includes alternate counts, the jury need only reach a verdict on one of those counts.
- (2) Before the jury retires to consider its verdict on a count in the indictment, the Court must inform the jury that its verdict must be unanimous.

Jury may deliver alternative verdicts

- (3) If an offence specified in a count in the indictment is an offence for which an Act allows the jury to find the accused:
 - (a) not guilty of the offence; but
 - (b) guilty of another offence;the Court may inform the jury of this.
- (4) If, in accordance with an Act referred to in subsection (3), the jury unanimously finds the accused:
 - (a) not guilty of an offence specified in a count in the indictment; but
 - (b) guilty of another offence;the indictment is taken to have always included a count against the accused for the other offence.

Foreperson is to deliver the verdict

- (5) The jury's verdict is to be delivered by the jury foreperson.

23FJ Consequences of guilty pleas and guilty verdicts

Guilty pleas

- (1) If the accused:
 - (a) enters a plea of guilty; or
 - (b) changes, in accordance with subsection 23FG(2), a plea of not guilty to a plea of guilty;to a count in the indictment, the Court must accept the plea of guilty unless:
 - (c) the Court gives leave under subsection 23FG(3) for the accused to change the plea of guilty to a plea of not guilty; or
 - (d) it would be contrary to the interests of justice to accept the plea of guilty.
- (2) If a plea of guilty is not accepted under subsection (1):
 - (a) the plea has no further effect; and
 - (b) the accused is taken to have entered a plea of not guilty to the count.

Guilty verdicts

- (3) If the jury delivers a unanimous verdict of guilty for a count in the indictment in relation to an accused, the Court must accept the verdict unless it would be contrary to the interests of justice to do so.

Consequences of accepting a guilty plea or guilty verdict

- (4) If a plea of guilty, or a verdict of guilty, is accepted for a count in the indictment in relation to an accused, then:
 - (a) the Court is taken to have found the count proven in relation to the accused; and
 - (b) the accused is taken to be convicted of the offence covered by the count; and
 - (c) the Court must proceed to sentence the accused in relation to the offence (whether or not the Court first adjourns the proceedings); and
 - (d) if there is an alternate count included in the indictment for the accused and the first-mentioned count—the Court must discharge the accused in relation to the alternate count.

- (5) However, if the accused changes, in accordance with subsection 23FG(3), a plea of guilty to the count to a plea of not guilty, then:
 - (a) paragraphs (4)(a) and (b) are taken never to have applied in relation to the plea of guilty; and
 - (b) the Court must cease any sentencing proceedings to the extent that those proceedings relate to the plea of guilty; and
 - (c) if the Court has discharged the accused under paragraph (4)(d) in relation to an alternate count—the accused is taken never to have been so discharged.
- (6) Paragraph (4)(b) does not apply if, when sentencing the accused in relation to the offence, the Court makes an order under section 19B of the Crimes Act 1914.

23FK Consequences of not guilty verdicts

If the jury delivers a unanimous verdict of not guilty for a count in the indictment in relation to the accused, the Court must acquit and discharge the accused in relation to the count.

Subdivision G—Procedure on committal for sentencing

23GA When Subdivision applies

This Subdivision applies if, as a result of the accused entering a plea of guilty to an indictable offence, a court (the committal court) makes an order (the committal order) committing the accused for sentencing before the Court for the offence.

23GB Accused taken to have been committed for trial etc.

- (1) For the purposes of this Act and the Judiciary Act 1903, the committal court is taken to have made an order:
 - (a) on the day it made the committal order; and
 - (b) to the effect of committing the accused for trial before the Court for the indictable offence.
- (2) If an indictment including a count covering the indictable offence is filed in accordance with this Division, then this Division applies as if:
 - (a) the accused entered before the Court, immediately after that filing, a plea of guilty to the count; and

Part III Jurisdiction of the Court

Division 1A Original jurisdiction (indictable offences)

Section 23HA

(b) paragraph 23CA(1)(b) were omitted.

Note: The Court must accept the plea unless either the Court gives leave to the accused to change the plea to a plea of not guilty, or if it would be contrary to the interests of justice to accept the plea (see subsection 23FJ(1)).

Subdivision H—Custodial and other matters

23HA Remanding in custody when proceedings adjourned

- (1) If, during indictable primary proceedings:
- (a) there is no bail order having effect for the accused for the offence; or
 - (b) if a bail order is so having effect, the accused cannot be released on bail for the offence (see subsection 58DE(1));
- the Court may, by warrant of commitment, remand the accused in custody during an adjournment in the proceedings.

Note 1: Before the accused's first appearance before the Court, the person may be being remanded in custody or granted bail under the law of a State or Territory applied by subsection 68(1) of the Judiciary Act 1903.

Note 2: Subject to this subsection, State or Territory law will apply in relation to custody matters before the Court during the proceedings (see sections 68 and 68B of the Judiciary Act 1903).

- (2) A warrant of commitment under subsection (1) may be signed by any Judge, the Registrar or any Deputy Registrar, District Registrar or Deputy District Registrar of the Court.

23HB Oaths and affirmations

- (1) A person required to make an oath or affirmation under this Division must make the oath or affirmation in the form provided for in the Rules of Court.
- (2) The Court may require a person to make an oath or affirmation for the purposes of this Division if the Court thinks this is reasonably necessary.

23HC Protecting witnesses etc.

Note: The Court may also restrict or prohibit the publication of information about witnesses and evidence (see section 50).

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Court may do either or both of the following under that subsection:
 - (a) order the exclusion of the public, or of persons specified by the Court, from a sitting of the Court;
 - (b) direct how a witness may give evidence.

23HD Accused cannot make unsworn statements

This Division applies to the Court’s appellate jurisdiction in relation to civil matters.

24 Appellate jurisdiction

 - (b) appeals from judgments of the Supreme Court of a Territory (other than the Australian Capital Territory or the Northern Territory); and

- (a) a judgment by consent;
 - (b) a decision granting or refusing summary judgment under section 31A.

 - (b) the Court from taking account of the interlocutory judgment in determining an appeal from a final judgment in the proceeding.

25 Exercise of appellate jurisdiction

- (6) The Court constituted by a single Judge may state any case or reserve any question concerning a matter (whether or not an appeal would lie from a judgment of the Judge to a Full Court of the Court on the matter) for the consideration of a Full Court and the Full Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the case or question.

26 Cases stated and questions reserved

- (1) A court from which appeals lie to the Court may state any case or reserve any question concerning a matter with respect to which such an appeal would lie from a judgment of the first-mentioned court for the consideration of the Court and the Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the case or question.

- (3) A court referred to in subsection (1) shall not state a case, or reserve or refer a question concerning a matter referred to in that subsection, to a court other than the Court.

27 Evidence on appeal

- (3) The powers specified in subsection (1) may be exercised by the Court notwithstanding that the notice of appeal asks that part only of the decision may be reversed or varied, and may be exercised in favour of all or any of the respondents or parties, including respondents or parties who have not appealed from or complained of the decision.
- (4) An interlocutory judgment or order from which there has been no appeal does not operate to prevent the Court, upon hearing an appeal, from giving such decision upon the appeal as is just.

29 Stay of proceedings and suspension of orders

- (1) Where an appeal to the Court from another court has been instituted:
 - (a) the Court or a Judge, or a judge of that other court (not being the Federal Magistrates Court or a court of summary jurisdiction), may order, on such conditions (if any) as it or he or she thinks fit, a stay of all or any proceedings under the judgment appealed from; and

- (2) Subject to this section, the Federal Court must order the judgment to be registered.
- (3) A New Zealand judgment must not be registered if on the day on which the application is made:
 - (a) the judgment has been wholly satisfied; or
 - (b) the judgment could not be enforced in New Zealand.
- (4) Subject to sections 32X, 32Y and 32Z:
 - (a) a registered judgment is, for the purposes of enforcement, of the same force and effect; and
 - (b) proceedings may be brought on the judgment; and
 - (c) the amount (if any) for which the judgment is registered carries interest; and
 - (d) the Federal Court has the same control over the enforcement in Australia of the judgment;as if the judgment had been a judgment originally made or given by the Federal Court acting within its jurisdiction and entered on the day of registration.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), if an amount payable under a New Zealand judgment that is to be registered is expressed in New Zealand currency, the judgment is to be registered:
 - (a) if the judgment creditor has stated in the application that the judgment creditor wishes the judgment to be registered in New Zealand currency—in that currency; or
 - (b) in any other case—as if it were for an equivalent amount in Australian currency, based on the rate of exchange prevailing on the second business day (the conversion day) before the day on which the application for registration is made.

- (5A) For the purposes of paragraph (5)(b), the rate of exchange prevailing on the conversion day is the average of the rates at which Australian dollars may be bought in New Zealand currency at:
- (a) 11 am; or
 - (b) if another time is prescribed for the purposes of this subsection—that other time;
- on that day from 3 authorised foreign exchange dealers selected by the judgment creditor.
- (5B) The reference in paragraph (5)(b) to a business day is a reference to a day on which the authorised foreign exchange dealers selected by the judgment creditor as mentioned in subsection (5A) publish rates at which Australian dollars may be bought in New Zealand currency.
- (6) If, on the day of application for registration of a New Zealand judgment under which an amount is payable, the judgment has been partly satisfied, the judgment must not be registered for the whole amount payable under the judgment, but only for the balance remaining payable on that day.
- (7) In addition to any amount payable under a New Zealand judgment (including any interest that under New Zealand law is due under the judgment up to the time of registration), the judgment is to be registered for the reasonable costs of and incidental to registration, including the costs of obtaining a certified copy of the judgment from the High Court of New Zealand and the costs of obtaining from foreign exchange dealers evidence of the rates at which Australian dollars may be bought in New Zealand currency.
- (8) In this section:
- authorised foreign exchange dealer means a person authorised by a general authority issued by the Reserve Bank of Australia under regulation 38A of the Banking (Foreign Exchange) Regulations to buy and sell foreign currency.

32X Variation of registered judgment

- (1) Every judgment of the High Court of New Zealand that varies a registered New Zealand judgment must be registered in the Federal Court and, on registration, this Division applies to the judgment as varied.
- (2) A registered New Zealand judgment that has been varied by a judgment of the High Court of New Zealand may not be executed, and proceedings may not be taken to enforce such a registered judgment, without the leave of the Federal Court until the varying judgment is registered in the Federal Court.

32Y Cases in which registration must be set aside

The Federal Court must set aside the registration of a judgment, on the application of the judgment debtor, if the Federal Court is satisfied:

- (a) that the judgment has been discharged or can no longer be enforced in New Zealand; or
- (b) that the judgment has been wholly satisfied; or
- (c) that the judgment was not registrable under this Division or was not properly registered; or
- (d) that the judgment has been reversed on appeal or otherwise set aside; or
- (e) that the judgment relates to a claim for relief for a contravention, or 2 or more contraventions, of section 36A of the Commerce Act 1986 of New Zealand (whether or not it also relates to other claims for relief) and the claim for relief for the contravention has been, or all of those contraventions have been, finally dismissed.

32Z Stay of enforcement of registered judgment

- (1) If the Federal Court is satisfied that a judgment debtor under a registered New Zealand judgment:
 - (a) has applied, or intends to apply, to have the judgment set aside; or
 - (b) has appealed, or intends to appeal, against the judgment;the Federal Court may order that enforcement of the judgment in Australia be stayed pending the final determination of the application or appeal, until a specified day or for a specified period.

- (2) If the Federal Court makes an order on the ground:
 - (a) that a person intends to apply to have a judgment set aside; or
 - (b) that a person intends to appeal against a judgment;the Federal Court must require the person, as a condition of the order, to make the application or bring the appeal by a specified day or within a specified period.
- (3) Every order is to be made on the condition that the judgment debtor pursues the application or appeal in an expeditious manner.
- (4) An order may be made on such other conditions, including conditions relating to giving security, as the Federal Court thinks fit.

 - (d) an officer of the Commonwealth, of a State or of a Territory, in his or her capacity as such an officer.

33F Persons under disability

- (1) It is not necessary for a person under disability to have a next friend or committee merely in order to be a group member.
- (2) A group member who is under disability may only take a step in the representative proceeding, or conduct part of the proceeding, by his or her next friend or committee, as the case requires.

33G Representative proceeding not to be commenced in certain circumstances

A representative proceeding may not be commenced if the proceeding would be concerned only with claims in respect of which the Court has jurisdiction solely by virtue of the Jurisdiction of Courts (Cross-vesting) Act 1987 or a corresponding law of a State or Territory.

33H Originating process

- (1) An application commencing a representative proceeding, or a document filed in support of such an application, must, in addition to any other matters required to be included:
 - (a) describe or otherwise identify the group members to whom the proceeding relates; and
 - (b) specify the nature of the claims made on behalf of the group members and the relief claimed; and
 - (c) specify the questions of law or fact common to the claims of the group members.
- (2) In describing or otherwise identifying group members for the purposes of subsection (1), it is not necessary to name, or specify the number of, the group members.

33J Right of group member to opt out

- (1) The Court must fix a date before which a group member may opt out of a representative proceeding.
- (2) A group member may opt out of the representative proceeding by written notice given under the Rules of Court before the date so fixed.
- (3) The Court, on the application of a group member, the representative party or the respondent in the proceeding, may fix another date so as to extend the period during which a group member may opt out of the representative proceeding.
- (4) Except with the leave of the Court, the hearing of a representative proceeding must not commence earlier than the date before which a group member may opt out of the proceeding.

33K Causes of action accruing after commencement of representative proceeding

- (1) The Court may at any stage of a representative proceeding, on application made by the representative party, give leave to amend the application commencing the representative proceeding so as to alter the description of the group.

Section 33L

- (2) The description of the group may be altered so as to include a person:
 - (a) whose cause of action accrued after the commencement of the representative proceeding but before such date as the Court fixes when giving leave; and
 - (b) who would have been included in the group, or, with the consent of the person would have been included in the group, if the cause of action had accrued before the commencement of the proceeding.
- (3) The date mentioned in paragraph (2)(a) may be the date on which leave is given or another date before or after that date.
- (4) Where the Court gives leave under subsection (1), it may also make any other orders it thinks just, including an order relating to the giving of notice to persons who, as a result of the amendment, will be included in the group and the date before which such persons may opt out of the proceeding.

33L Situation where fewer than 7 group members

If, at any stage of a representative proceeding, it appears likely to the Court that there are fewer than 7 group members, the Court may, on such conditions (if any) as it thinks fit:

- (a) order that the proceeding continue under this Part; or
- (b) order that the proceeding no longer continue under this Part.

33M Cost of distributing money etc. excessive

Where:

- (a) the relief claimed in a representative proceeding is or includes payment of money to group members (otherwise than in respect of costs); and
- (b) on application by the respondent, the Court concludes that it is likely that, if judgment were to be given in favour of the representative party, the cost to the respondent of identifying the group members and distributing to them the amounts ordered to be paid to them would be excessive having regard to the likely total of those amounts;

the Court may, by order:

- (c) direct that the proceeding no longer continue under this Part;
or
- (d) stay the proceeding so far as it relates to relief of the kind mentioned in paragraph (a).

33N Order that proceeding not continue as representative proceeding where costs excessive etc.

- (1) The Court may, on application by the respondent or of its own motion, order that a proceeding no longer continue under this Part where it is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice to do so because:
 - (a) the costs that would be incurred if the proceeding were to continue as a representative proceeding are likely to exceed the costs that would be incurred if each group member conducted a separate proceeding; or
 - (b) all the relief sought can be obtained by means of a proceeding other than a representative proceeding under this Part; or
 - (c) the representative proceeding will not provide an efficient and effective means of dealing with the claims of group members; or
 - (d) it is otherwise inappropriate that the claims be pursued by means of a representative proceeding.
- (2) If the Court dismisses an application under this section, the Court may order that no further application under this section be made by the respondent except with the leave of the Court.
- (3) Leave for the purposes of subsection (2) may be granted subject to such conditions as to costs as the Court considers just.

33P Consequences of order that proceeding not continue under this Part

Where the Court makes an order under section 33L, 33M or 33N that a proceeding no longer continue under this Part:

- (a) the proceeding may be continued as a proceeding by the representative party on his or her own behalf against the respondent; and

Section 33Q

- (b) on the application of a person who was a group member for the purposes of the proceeding, the Court may order that the person be joined as an applicant in the proceeding.

33Q Determination of issues where not all issues are common

- (1) If it appears to the Court that determination of the issue or issues common to all group members will not finally determine the claims of all group members, the Court may give directions in relation to the determination of the remaining issues.
- (2) In the case of issues common to the claims of some only of the group members, the directions given by the Court may include directions establishing a sub-group consisting of those group members and appointing a person to be the sub-group representative party on behalf of the sub-group members.
- (3) Where the Court appoints a person other than the representative party to be a sub-group representative party, that person, and not the representative party, is liable for costs associated with the determination of the issue or issues common to the sub-group members.

33R Individual issues

- (1) In giving directions under section 33Q, the Court may permit an individual group member to appear in the proceeding for the purpose of determining an issue that relates only to the claims of that member.
- (2) In such a case, the individual group member, and not the representative party, is liable for costs associated with the determination of the issue.

33S Directions relating to commencement of further proceedings

Where an issue cannot properly or conveniently be dealt with under section 33Q or 33R, the Court may:

- (a) if the issue concerns only the claim of a particular member—give directions relating to the commencement and conduct of a separate proceeding by that member; or

- (b) if the issue is common to the claims of all members of a sub-group—give directions relating to the commencement and conduct of a representative proceeding in relation to the claims of those members.

33T Adequacy of representation

- (1) If, on an application by a group member, it appears to the Court that a representative party is not able adequately to represent the interests of the group members, the Court may substitute another group member as representative party and may make such other orders as it thinks fit.
- (2) If, on an application by a sub-group member, it appears to the Court that a sub-group representative party is not able adequately to represent the interests of the sub-group members, the Court may substitute another person as sub-group representative party and may make such other orders as it thinks fit.

33U Stay of execution in certain circumstances

Where a respondent in a representative proceeding commences a proceeding in the Court against a group member, the Court may order a stay of execution in respect of any relief awarded to the group member in the representative proceeding until the other proceeding is determined.

33V Settlement and discontinuance—representative proceeding

- (1) A representative proceeding may not be settled or discontinued without the approval of the Court.
- (2) If the Court gives such an approval, it may make such orders as are just with respect to the distribution of any money paid under a settlement or paid into the Court.

33W Settlement of individual claim of representative party

- (1) A representative party may, with leave of the Court, settle his or her individual claim in whole or in part at any stage of the representative proceeding.

Section 33W

- (2) A representative party who is seeking leave to settle, or who has settled, his or her individual claim may, with leave of the Court, withdraw as representative party.
- (3) Where a person has sought leave to withdraw as representative party under subsection (2), the Court may, on the application of a group member, make an order for the substitution of another group member as representative party and may make such other orders as it thinks fit.
- (4) Before granting a person leave to withdraw as a representative party:
 - (a) the Court must be satisfied that notice of the application has been given to group members in accordance with subsection 33X(1) and in sufficient time for them to apply to have another person substituted as the representative party; and
 - (b) any application for the substitution of another group member as a representative party has been determined.
- (5) The Court may grant leave to a person to withdraw as representative party subject to such conditions as to costs as the Court considers just.

Division 3—Notices

33X Notice to be given of certain matters

- (1) Notice must be given to group members of the following matters in relation to a representative proceeding:
 - (a) the commencement of the proceeding and the right of the group members to opt out of the proceeding before a specified date, being the date fixed under subsection 33J(1);
 - (b) an application by the respondent in the proceeding for the dismissal of the proceeding on the ground of want of prosecution;
 - (c) an application by a representative party seeking leave to withdraw under section 33W as representative party.
- (2) The Court may dispense with compliance with any or all of the requirements of subsection (1) where the relief sought in a proceeding does not include any claim for damages.
- (3) If the Court so orders, notice must be given to group members of the bringing into Court of money in answer to a cause of action on which a claim in the representative proceeding is founded.
- (4) Unless the Court is satisfied that it is just to do so, an application for approval of a settlement under section 33V must not be determined unless notice has been given to group members.
- (5) The Court may, at any stage, order that notice of any matter be given to a group member or group members.
- (6) Notice under this section must be given as soon as practicable after the happening of the event to which the notice relates.

33Y Notices—ancillary provisions

- (1) This section is concerned with notices under section 33X.
- (2) The form and content of a notice must be as approved by the Court.
- (3) The Court must, by order, specify:

Section 33Y

and the order may include provision:

- (c) directing a party to provide information relevant to the giving of the notice; and
 - (d) relating to the costs of notice.
- (4) An order under subsection (3) may require that notice be given by means of press advertisement, radio or television broadcast, or by any other means.
 - (5) The Court may not order that notice be given personally to each group member unless it is satisfied that it is reasonably practicable, and not unduly expensive, to do so.
 - (6) A notice that concerns a matter for which the Court's leave or approval is required must specify the period within which a group member or other person may apply to the Court, or take some other step, in relation to the matter.
 - (7) A notice that includes or concerns conditions must specify the conditions and the period, if any, for compliance.
 - (8) The failure of a group member to receive or respond to a notice does not affect a step taken, an order made, or a judgment given, in a proceeding.

Division 4—Judgment etc.

33Z Judgment—powers of the Court

- (1) The Court may, in determining a matter in a representative proceeding, do any one or more of the following:
 - (a) determine an issue of law;
 - (b) determine an issue of fact;
 - (c) make a declaration of liability;

 - (f) award damages in an aggregate amount without specifying amounts awarded in respect of individual group members;
 - (g) make such other order as the Court thinks just.
- (2) In making an order for an award of damages, the Court must make provision for the payment or distribution of the money to the group members entitled.
- (3) Subject to section 33V, the Court is not to make an award of damages under paragraph (1)(f) unless a reasonably accurate assessment can be made of the total amount to which group members will be entitled under the judgment.
- (4) Where the Court has made an order for the award of damages, the Court may give such directions (if any) as it thinks just in relation to:
 - (a) the manner in which a group member is to establish his or her entitlement to share in the damages; and
 - (b) the manner in which any dispute regarding the entitlement of a group member to share in the damages is to be determined.

33ZA Constitution etc. of fund

- (1) Without limiting the operation of subsection 33Z(2), in making provision for the distribution of money to group members, the Court may provide for:
 - (a) the constitution and administration of a fund consisting of the money to be distributed; and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) the payment by the respondent of a fixed sum of money into the fund; or
 - (ii) the payment by the respondent into the fund of such instalments, on such terms, as the Court directs to meet the claims of group members; and
 - (c) entitlements to interest earned on the money in the fund.
- (2) The costs of administering a fund are to be borne by the fund, or by the respondent in the representative proceeding, as the Court directs.
- (3) Where the Court orders the constitution of a fund mentioned in subsection (1), the order must:
 - (a) require notice to be given to group members in such manner as is specified in the order; and
 - (b) specify the manner in which a group member is to make a claim for payment out of the fund and establish his or her entitlement to the payment; and
 - (c) specify a day (which is 6 months or more after the day on which the order is made) on or before which the group members are to make a claim for payment out of the fund; and
 - (d) make provision in relation to the day before which the fund is to be distributed to group members who have established an entitlement to be paid out of the fund.
- (4) The Court may allow a group member to make a claim after the day fixed under paragraph (3)(c) if:
 - (a) the fund has not already been fully distributed; and
 - (b) it is just to do so.

- (5) On application by the respondent in the representative proceeding after the day fixed under paragraph (3)(d), the Court may make such orders as are just for the payment from the fund to the respondent of the money remaining in the fund.

33ZB Effect of judgment

A judgment given in a representative proceeding:

- (a) must describe or otherwise identify the group members who will be affected by it; and
- (b) binds all such persons other than any person who has opted out of the proceeding under section 33J.

Division 5—Appeals

33ZC Appeals to the Court

- (1) The following appeals under Division 2 of Part III from a judgment of the Court in a representative proceeding may themselves be brought as representative proceedings:
 - (a) an appeal by the representative party on behalf of group members and in respect of the judgment to the extent that it relates to issues common to the claims of group members;
 - (b) an appeal by a sub-group representative party on behalf of sub-group members in respect of the judgment to the extent that it relates to issues common to the claims of sub-group members.
- (2) The parties to an appeal referred to in paragraph (1)(a) are the representative party, as the representative of the group members, and the respondent.
- (3) The parties to an appeal referred to in paragraph (1)(b) are the sub-group representative party, as the representative of the sub-group members, and the respondent.
- (4) On an appeal by the respondent in a representative proceeding, other than an appeal referred to in subsection (5), the parties to the appeal are:
 - (a) in the case of an appeal in respect of the judgment generally—the respondent and the representative party as the representative of the group members; and
 - (b) in the case of an appeal in respect of the judgment to the extent that it relates to issues common to the claims of sub-group members—the respondent and the sub-group representative party as the representative of the sub-group members.
- (5) The parties to an appeal in respect of the determination of an issue that relates only to a claim of an individual group member are that group member and the respondent.

- (6) If the representative party or the sub-group representative party does not bring an appeal within the time provided for instituting appeals, another member of the group or sub-group may, within a further 21 days, bring an appeal as representing the group members or sub-group members, as the case may be.
- (7) Where an appeal is brought from a judgment of the Court in a representative proceeding, the Court may direct that notice of the appeal be given to such person or persons, and in such manner, as the Court thinks appropriate.
- (8) Section 33J does not apply to an appeal proceeding.
- (9) The notice instituting an appeal in relation to issues that are common to the claims of group members or sub-group members must describe or otherwise identify the group members or sub-group members, as the case may be, but need not specify the names or number of those members.

33ZD Appeals to the High Court—extended operation of sections 33ZC and 33ZF

- (1) Sections 33ZC and 33ZF apply in relation to appeals to the High Court from judgments of the Court in representative proceedings in the same way as they apply to appeals to the Court from such judgments.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) limits the operation of section 33 whether in relation to appeals from judgments of the Court in representative proceedings or otherwise.

Division 6—Miscellaneous

33ZE Suspension of limitation periods

- (1) Upon the commencement of a representative proceeding, the running of any limitation period that applies to the claim of a group member to which the proceeding relates is suspended.
- (2) The limitation period does not begin to run again unless either the member opts out of the proceeding under section 33J or the proceeding, and any appeals arising from the proceeding, are determined without finally disposing of the group member's claim.

33ZF General power of Court to make orders

- (1) In any proceeding (including an appeal) conducted under this Part, the Court may, of its own motion or on application by a party or a group member, make any order the Court thinks appropriate or necessary to ensure that justice is done in the proceeding.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the operation of section 22.

33ZG Saving of rights, powers etc.

Part VIB—Bail

Division 1—Introduction

58CA Simplified outline

The following is a simplified outline of this Part:

- During indictable primary proceedings or criminal appeal proceedings the Court may grant (and continue) bail for the accused.
- If granted bail, the accused must sign a bail undertaking.
- A decision about bail may be reconsidered if there is a change in circumstances.
- The Court must also reconsider bail if the accused fails to comply with the accused's bail undertaking.
- A failure by the accused to appear before the Court in accordance with the accused's bail undertaking may be an offence, and may lead to the forfeiture of security provided as a condition of bail.

Note 1: The procedures relating to bail and custody during committal proceedings, and during summary prosecutions in the Court, are those applying under subsection 68(1) of the Judiciary Act 1903 (see also paragraph 68B(1)(b) of that Act).

Note 2: During indictable primary proceedings, the Court may decide to remand the accused in custody (see section 23HA).

Division 2—Granting bail

58DA Applying for bail

- (1) During indictable primary proceedings or criminal appeal proceedings, the accused can apply to the Court for bail for one or more offences.
- (2) However, if the Court refuses to grant bail to the accused for an offence, the accused cannot apply again for bail for the offence unless there has been a material change in circumstances since the refusal.

58DB Granting bail

- (1) The Court may, by order, grant bail to the accused for one or more of the offences.
- (2) In deciding whether to grant bail, the Court must consider the following:
 - (a) whether the accused will appear in court if bail is granted;
 - (b) the interests of the accused;
 - (c) the protection of any other person;
 - (d) the protection and welfare of the community, including whether there is a risk that the accused will commit offences if bail were granted;
 - (e) whether there is a risk that the accused will approach witnesses or attempt to destroy evidence.
- (2A) An accused applying for bail during indictable primary proceedings is entitled to be granted bail during the proceedings in relation to an offence against either of the following sections of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010:
 - (a) section 44ZZRF (making a contract etc. containing a cartel provision);
 - (b) section 44ZZRG (giving effect to a cartel provision);unless the Court decides otherwise after considering the matters mentioned in subsection (2).

Section 58DC

- (3) In deciding whether to grant bail during criminal appeal proceedings, the Court must also be satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances that justify granting bail.
- (4) This section has effect subject to any other Act.

58DC Bail may be granted subject to conditions

- (1) A bail order may be made unconditionally or subject to one or more specified conditions.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the conditions can include one or more of the following:
 - (a) the accused reside at a specified place;
 - (b) the accused report to a specified person at a specified place at a specified time or times;
 - (c) the accused surrender any passport held by the accused and agree not to approach a point of international departure;
 - (d) the accused provide security in the form of money, or other property, for forfeiture if the accused fails to appear before the Court in accordance with the accused's bail undertaking;
 - (e) one or more other specified persons provide security in the form of money, or other property, for forfeiture if the accused fails to appear before the Court in accordance with the accused's bail undertaking.
- (3) Money or other property deposited with the Court, or otherwise provided, as security in accordance with a condition of bail must be dealt with by the Court in accordance with the Rules of Court.

58DD Bail to be stayed pending appeal

- (1) If:
 - (a) the Court makes a bail order; and
 - (b) the prosecutor requests the Court to stay the bail order pending appeal;the bail order is stayed by force of this section for 48 hours.
- (2) If a notice of appeal from the bail order is filed within that 48 hours, the stay of the bail order continues by force of this section until:
 - (a) the appeal is finally disposed of; or

- (b) the prosecutor withdraws the appeal in accordance with the Rules of Court; or
 - (c) a Full Court orders, under this subsection, that the stay be set aside;
- whichever happens first.
- (3) If the prosecutor makes a request under paragraph (1)(b), the appeal from the making of the bail order must be dealt with as quickly as possible.
 - (4) If a bail order is stayed by force of this section, the Court must, by warrant of commitment, remand the accused in custody for the duration of the stay.
 - (5) A warrant of commitment under subsection (4) may be signed by any Judge, the Registrar or any Deputy Registrar, District Registrar or Deputy District Registrar of the Court.

58DE Bail undertakings etc.

- (1) If the Court grants bail to the accused, then the accused can only be released on bail if:
 - (a) the accused has signed an undertaking (a bail undertaking) containing the matters set out in subsection (2) and made in accordance with the Rules of Court; and
 - (b) each other person (if any), who as a condition of bail has agreed to provide security, has signed an undertaking (a third party security undertaking) made in accordance with the Rules of Court; and
 - (c) subsection 58DC(3) is complied with in relation to any security required as a condition of bail.
- (2) A bail undertaking must set out:
 - (a) an undertaking by the accused to:
 - (i) appear in person before the Court in accordance with the bail order; and
 - (ii) promptly notify the Court if the accused changes his or her residential address; and
 - (b) an undertaking by the accused to comply with the specified conditions, if any, on which bail has been granted.

Section 58DF

- (3) A bail undertaking, and any third party security undertaking made in relation to the accused's bail, must be expressed to cover:

 - (b) each period for which bail may be continued under subsection 58GA(1).
- (4) The Registrar must cause the parties to be given a copy of:
 - (a) the accused's bail undertaking; and
 - (b) any third party security undertaking made in relation to the accused's bail.

58DF Effect of granting bail

- (1) If an accused is released on bail under this Part for an offence, the accused is entitled to be at liberty in respect of the offence in accordance with the accused's bail undertaking.

Note: This does not prevent the accused from being held in custody for some other offence.

- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to a stay under section 58DD.

58DG Seeking discharge from undertaking to give security

- (1) A person who has made a third party security undertaking in relation to the accused's bail may apply to the Court to be discharged from the person's liability under that undertaking.
- (2) If:
 - (a) the person so applies; and
 - (b) at the time of applying, the accused has not failed to appear before the Court in accordance with the accused's bail undertaking;

the Court must direct that the person be discharged from this liability, unless satisfied it would be contrary to the interests of justice to do so.

Note: A direction will cause a reconsideration of the accused's bail (see Division 3).

58DH Dealings with property given as security for bail

A person commits an offence if:

- (a) the person is:
 - (i) an accused who has signed a bail undertaking; or
 - (ii) a person who has signed a third party security undertaking made in relation to the accused's bail; and
- (b) the person has, under that undertaking, undertaken to forfeit security if the accused does not appear before the Court in accordance with the accused's bail undertaking; and
- (c) while the person's undertaking is in force, the person:
 - (i) disposes of, or otherwise deals with, any of that security that is not money; and
 - (ii) intends by this to prevent the forfeiture of the security, to destroy the security or to reduce its value.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

58EA Reconsidering bail—discharge of security or accused fails to comply with the accused’s bail undertaking

- (1) This section applies if, in relation to a bail order:
 - (a) the Court gives a direction under subsection 58DG(2); or
 - (b) the prosecutor applies for the bail order to be varied or revoked on the basis that the accused has failed to comply with the accused’s bail undertaking.
- (2) The Court must cause the accused to be brought before the Court in accordance with the Rules of Court.

Note: In a case where the accused failed to appear before the Court in accordance with the accused’s bail undertaking, the Court may be asked to commence forfeiture proceedings (see section 58FB).
- (3) The Court may, by order, vary or revoke the bail order.
- (4) In deciding whether to vary or revoke the bail order, the Court must consider:
 - (a) the matters set out in subsection 58DB(2); and
 - (b) if the decision is to be made during criminal appeal proceedings—the principle that exceptional circumstances must exist for the accused to be released on bail.

58EB Reconsidering bail—change in circumstances

- (1) The Court may, by order, vary or revoke the accused’s bail order under this section if:
 - (a) the Court is satisfied that there has been a sufficient change in circumstances since the making of the bail order; and
 - (b) the Court considers:
 - (i) the matters set out in subsection 58DB(2); and
 - (ii) if the decision is to be made during criminal appeal proceedings—the principle that exceptional circumstances must exist for the accused to be released on bail.

- (2) If the Court is satisfied an application for an order under this section is frivolous or vexatious, the Court may refuse the application without a hearing.

58EC Consequences if bail is varied or revoked

- (1) If the Court varies the accused's bail under this Division, then the accused can only be released on bail if:
- (a) the accused has signed a new bail undertaking under paragraph 58DE(1)(a); and
 - (b) each other person (if any), who has undertaken to provide security as a condition of bail, has signed a new third party security undertaking under paragraph 58DE(1)(b); and
 - (c) subsection 58DC(3) is complied with in relation to any security required as a condition of bail.
- (2) If the Court revokes the accused's bail under this Division, the Court may cause the accused to be committed to prison in accordance with the Rules of Court.

Part VIB Bail

Division 4 Further consequences if accused fails to appear in accordance with bail undertaking

Section 58FA

Division 4—Further consequences if accused fails to appear in accordance with bail undertaking

58FA Offence for failing to appear before the Court

- (a) the person is the accused; and
 - (b) the person gives the Court a bail undertaking; and
 - (c) the person is released on bail under this Part; and

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

Note: The accused's bail will also be reconsidered under Division 3.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the person has a reasonable excuse.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (2)—see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

58FB Notice of proposed forfeiture

- (1) The prosecutor may apply to the Court for a direction under subsection (2) if the accused allegedly fails to appear before the Court in accordance with the accused's bail undertaking.
- (2) The Court may direct the Registrar to give a notice to:
- (a) each person who provided security for the accused's bail; and
 - (b) any other person who the Court considers may have an interest in security provided for the accused's bail.

A failure by the Registrar to give a notice to a person covered by the direction, if the Registrar has made reasonable efforts to do so, does not affect the validity of any forfeiture order.

- (3) The notice must:
- (a) invite the person to show cause, by filing an objection in accordance with paragraphs 58FC(3)(b) and (c), why the security should not be forfeited; and
 - (b) contain the particulars set out in the Rules of Court.

- (4) An application under subsection (1) cannot be made more than 6 months after the alleged failure to appear before the Court.

58FC Ordering forfeiture

- (1) The Court must order the forfeiture of all specified security provided by a particular person for the accused's bail if the Court is satisfied that the accused failed to appear before the Court in accordance with the accused's bail undertaking.

Note 1: For the forfeiture of security provided by more than one person, separate forfeiture orders will be required.

Note 2: A forfeiture order may be appealed (see subsection 30AA(3)).

- (2) However, the Court may decide to not make a forfeiture order, or to reduce the amount of security to be forfeited, if the Court is satisfied that:

- (a) the accused had a reasonable excuse for failing to appear; or
- (b) it is in the interests of justice to do so.

- (3) In deciding whether to make a forfeiture order, the Court must consider any objection:

- (a) filed by a person who the Court is satisfied either provided security for the accused's bail or has an interest in such security; and
- (b) filed before the end of the 28th day after:
 - (i) if the person was given a notice under subsection 58FB(2)—the day of being given the notice; or
 - (ii) otherwise—the first day on which a notice was given to a person under subsection 58FB(2); and
- (c) containing the particulars set out in the Rules of Court.

The Court may also invite the person to make submissions.

58FD When forfeiture orders take effect

- (1) A forfeiture order never takes effect if it is set aside on appeal.
- (2) If the forfeiture order is not set aside on appeal, it takes effect:
- (a) if a notice of appeal was not filed in relation to the order—at the end of the time for filing such a notice under section 30AF; or
 - (b) otherwise—when the appeal is finally disposed of.

Part VIB Bail

Division 4 Further consequences if accused fails to appear in accordance with bail undertaking

Section 58FE

Note: If a forfeiture order is varied on appeal, it will take effect as varied.

- (3) If a forfeiture order takes effect, the Registrar must give written notice that it has taken effect to:
- (a) the person who provided the security forfeited by the order; and
 - (b) each other person (if any) who objected to the making of the order in relation to that security.

58FE Effect of forfeiture orders

Security is money held by the Court or property other than registrable property

- (1) If security specified in a forfeiture order is:
- (a) money deposited with or otherwise provided to the Court; or
 - (b) property other than:
 - (i) money; or
 - (ii) registrable property;
- the security vests absolutely in the Commonwealth at the time the order takes effect.

Security is money not held by the Court

- (2) If security specified in a forfeiture order is an amount of money that has not been deposited with or otherwise provided to the Court, then:
- (a) the amount is taken to be a civil debt payable by the provider of the security to the Commonwealth at the time the order takes effect; and
 - (b) the Commonwealth may enforce the forfeiture order as if it were an order made in civil proceedings against the provider to recover a debt due by the provider; and
 - (c) the debt arising from the order is taken to be a judgment debt; and
 - (d) if the undertaking under which the amount was provided as security also specified property to secure payment of the amount—the Commonwealth may enforce the undertaking in respect of that property.

Security is registrable property

- (3) If security specified in a forfeiture order is registrable property, then:
- (a) that property vests in equity in the Commonwealth but does not vest in the Commonwealth at law until the applicable registration requirements have been complied with; and
 - (b) the prosecutor may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, do anything necessary or convenient to give notice of, or otherwise protect, the Commonwealth's equitable interest in that property; and
 - (c) the Commonwealth is entitled to be registered as the owner of that property; and
 - (d) the Court may, by order, authorise a person to:
 - (i) do; or
 - (ii) authorise the doing of;anything necessary or convenient to obtain the registration of the Commonwealth as the owner.
- (4) The powers of a person who is the subject of an order under paragraph (3)(d) include executing any instrument required to be executed by a person transferring an interest in property of that kind.

*Meaning of registrable property

- (5) In this section:

registrable property means property, title to which is passed by registration on a register kept pursuant to a provision of any law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory.

Division 5—When bail ends

58GA Continuing bail orders

- (2) Unless the Court orders otherwise, if:
 - (a) the accused appears before the Court in accordance with the accused's bail undertaking; and
 - (b) the accused's bail order would no longer have effect after that appearance (otherwise than because of section 58GB); and
 - (c) the Court does not make a direction under subsection (1) during that appearance;the Court is taken to have directed under subsection (1) that the bail order continue to have effect until the accused's next scheduled appearance before the Court.
- (3) If the Court gives a direction under subsection (1), each of the following continue to have effect:
 - (a) the accused's bail undertaking;
 - (b) each third party security undertaking made in relation to the accused's bail;subject to any contrary intention in the undertaking and to any variation ordered by the Court.

58GB Bail discharged if the Court discharges the accused

A bail order ceases to have effect if the Court discharges the accused in relation to all the offences for which bail was granted.

58GC Continuing security undertakings when bail ends

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) security was provided for the accused's bail; and
 - (b) the accused's bail order is revoked under section 58EA because of a failure by the accused to appear before the Court in accordance with the accused's bail undertaking.

- (2) Despite the revocation, each of the following continue to have effect to the extent to which they relate to the security provided for the accused's bail:
- (a) the accused's bail undertaking;
 - (b) each third party security undertaking made in relation to the accused's bail.

Note: Generally, the bail undertaking and any third party security undertaking will automatically end at the same time as the bail order.

- (3) This continuation of an undertaking to provide security ceases if:
- (a) a forfeiture order cannot take effect in relation to the security and the failure; or
 - (b) the Court orders the continuation to cease.

Note 1: When a forfeiture order takes effect is set out in section 58FE.

Note 2: A forfeiture order cannot be made unless an application is made within 6 months of the failure (see subsection 58FB(4)).

58GD Returning security when bail ends

If:

- (a) a person provides security for the accused's bail under a bail undertaking or third party security undertaking; and
- (b) the accused's bail order ceases to have effect; and
- (c) if section 58GC applies—the continuation of the undertaking to provide the security ceases under subsection 58GC(3); and
- (d) the Court holds the security solely because of the undertaking;

the Court must return the security to the person.

Note: The money or property will not be returned if it was forfeited under Division 4 or is being held as security in relation to another bail order.

Division 6—Other matters

58HA Admissibility of certain matters

- (3) The Registrar of the Federal Court may issue any necessary directions concerning the performance by that person of functions of a Deputy Registrar of the Federal Court.
- (4) Nothing in this item enables the Registrar of the Federal Court to terminate the appointment of that person as a Deputy Registrar of the Federal Court under section 18N of the Federal Court of Australia Act 1976.
