(3) (a) Any reference in this Act to the national status of the father of a person at the time of that person's birth shall, in relation to a person born after the death of his father, be construed as a reference to the national status of the father at the time of the father's death.

(b) Where the death referred to in paragraph (a) occurred before the 6th July, 1966, and the birth occurred after the 5th July, 1966, the national status that the father would have had if he had died on the 6th July, 1966, shall be deemed to be his national status at the time of his death.

[Ch1501s23]23. Renunciation of citizenship

(1) If any citizen of Malawi of full age and capacity, who is a citizen of any other country, or who satisfies the Minister that he will become a citizen of any other country, makes a declaration in the form set forth in the Sixth Schedule of his renunciation of citizenship of Malawi, the Minister may cause the declaration to be registered and, upon its being so registered that person shall cease to be a citizen of Malawi:

Provided that if a person who has made a declaration of renunciation in accordance with this section does not become a citizen of any other country as aforesaid within three months of the date of his making such declaration of renunciation, he shall be deemed to be, and to have remained, a citizen of Malawi, notwithstanding the making by him of such declaration:

Provided further that forthwith upon his being restored to citizenship of Malawi, any such person shall take an oath of allegiance in the form specified in the Second Schedule, and if that person declines, neglects or omits to take the said oath of allegiance his citizenship of Malawi shall not be restored to him.

(2) The Minister may refuse to register any such declaration of renunciation of citizenship of Malawi if it is made during any war in which Malawi is engaged or if, in his opinion, it is otherwise contrary to public policy to register the declaration.

[Ch1501s24]24. Deprivation of citizenship of persons who exercise certain rights in other countries

The Minister may by order deprive any citizen of Malawi, other than a citizen of Malawi by birth or descent, of his citizenship if the Minister is satisfied that that person has at any time while a citizen of Malawi and of full age and capacity voluntarily claimed and exercised in any other country any right available to him under the law of that country, being a right accorded exclusively to its own citizens, and that it is not conducive to the public good that he should continue to be a citizen of Malawi.

[Ch1501s25]25. Deprivation of citizenship in other cases

(1) Subject to this section, the Minister may by order deprive of his citizenship any citizen of Malawi, other than a citizen of Malawi by birth or descent, if he is satisfied that such citizenship was acquired, wholly or partially, by means of or as a result of fraud, false representation or the concealment of any material fact.

(2) Subject to this section, the Minister may by order deprive of his citizenship any citizen of Malawi other than a citizen of Malawi by birth or descent, if he is satisfied that that citizen—

(a) has shown himself by act or speech to be disloyal or disaffected towards the Government of Malawi;

(b) has, during any war in which Malawi was engaged, unlawfully traded or communicated with any enemy or been engaged in or associated with any business that was to his knowledge carried on in such a manner as to assist an enemy in that war; or

(c) has, within seven years after becoming naturalized, been sentenced in any country to imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months; or

(d) has been ordinarily resident outside Malawi for a continuous period of seven years and during that period has not registered annually in the prescribed manner with a Malawi diplomatic or consular office abroad, or has not notified the Minister in writing of his intention to retain his citizenship of Malawi.

(3) The Minister shall not deprive a person of citizenship under this section unless he is satisfied that it is not conducive to the public good that that person should continue to be a citizen of Malawi.

(4) Before making an order under this section, the Minister shall give the person against whom the order is proposed to be made notice in writing informing him of the ground on which it is proposed to make, and of his right to, an inquiry under this section; and, if that person applies for an inquiry, the Minister shall refer the case to a committee of inquiry consisting of a chairman, being a person possessing judicial experience, appointed by the Minister and of such other members appointed by the Minister as he thinks proper.

[Ch1501s26]26. Effect of renunciation or deprivation

(1) A citizen of Malawi who is deprived of his citizenship by an order of the Minister under this Act shall, upon making of the order, cease to be a citizen of Malawi.

(2) The renunciation by any person of his Malawi citizenship or the deprivation of any person's Malawi citizenship under this Act shall not affect the liability of that person for any offence committed by him before the renunciation or deprivation of his citizenship.

[Ch1501s27]27. Restoration of citizenship

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Minister, may, if he considers it desirable on taking into account all the circumstances of a case, restore citizenship of Malawi to a person who has lost such citizenship whether voluntarily by a declaration of renunciation of citizenship under section 23, or involuntarily by reason of Part III of this Act.

(2) If a person to whom restoration of citizenship of Malawi has been granted under this section does not produce to such officers as the Minister may appoint in that behalf, within three months or within such further period as the Minister or such officer may allow, evidence sufficient to satisfy such officer—

(a) that he has renounced any other nationality or citizenship which he may have possessed; and

(b) that he has taken an oath of allegiance in the form specified in the Second Schedule, (notwithstanding that such person may at some previous time already have taken the oath of allegiance or made a declaration of renunciation or other citizenship), the restoration of citizenship of Malawi to that person shall be cancelled.

[Ch1501s31]31. Renunciation of citizenship of other countries

Where, under this Act, a person is required to renounce the nationality or citizenship of any country other than Malawi and the law of that country makes no provision for the renunciation of nationality or citizenship, that person shall make the declaration specified in the Third Schedule, or the declaration specified in the Fourth Schedule, as the circumstances of the case may require, and a person who makes any such declaration shall be treated as having complied with any such requirement.

[Ch1501s32]32. Evidence

(1) Every document purporting to be a notice, certificate, order or declaration, or any entry in a register, or subscription of an oath of allegiance or declaration of renunciation, given, granted or made under this Act, shall be received in evidence, and shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been given, granted or made by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf it purports to have been given, granted or made.

(2) Prima facie evidence of any document of the kind mentioned in subsection (1) may be given by production of a document purporting to be certified as a true copy thereof by such person and in such manner as may be prescribed.

- (d) for the giving of any notice required or authorized to be given to any person under this Act;
- (e) for the cancellation of the registration of, and the cancellation or amendment of certificates of naturalization relating to, persons deprived of citizenship under this Act, and for requiring such certificates of registration to be delivered up for those purposes;

(f) for the registration of the births and deaths of persons of any class or description born or dying elsewhere than in Malawi, and for annual registration at Malawi diplomatic or consular offices abroad;
