(Consolidated text with Amendment 67/22)

(“Official Gazette of the Republic of Macedonia”, No. 67/92, 8/04, 98/08, 158/11 and 55/16 and “Official Gazette of the Republic of North Macedonia” No. 174/21 and 67/22)

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

This Law regulates the manner and the conditions for acquisition and termination of the citizenship of the Republic of North Macedonia, establishing the citizenship, competent state body for resolving such cases, proving citizenship and keeping records of citizens of the Republic of North Macedonia.

Citizenship is a legal bond between persons and the state and does not denote the ethnic origin of persons.

Article 2

A citizen of the Republic of North Macedonia may also hold a citizenship of another state.

A citizen of the Republic of North Macedonia holding a citizenship of another state, in the Republic of North Macedonia shall be considered exclusively as a citizen of the Republic of North Macedonia, unless otherwise determined by an international agreement.

II. ACQUIRING CITIZENSHIP OF THE REPUBLIC OF NORTH MACEDONIA

Article 3

The citizenship of the Republic of North Macedonia shall be acquired by:

- 1) origin,
- 2) birth on the territory of the Republic of North Macedonia,
- 3) naturalization, and

4) international agreements.

1. By Origin

Article 4

A child shall acquire citizenship of the Republic of North Macedonia by origin, provided that:

- 1) at the time of the child's birth, both parents are citizens of the Republic of North Macedonia;
- 2) at the time of the child's birth, one of the parents is a citizen of the Republic of North Macedonia and the child is born in the Republic of North Macedonia, unless the parents have mutually agreed that the child shall acquire the citizenship of the other parent, and
- 3) at the time of the child's birth, one of the parents is a citizen of the Republic of North Macedonia and the other parent is unknown or holds unknown citizenship, that is without a citizenship, and the child is born abroad.

An adopted child shall also acquire citizenship of the Republic of North Macedonia by origin in the event of full adoption when both of the adoptive or one of the adoptive parents is a citizen of the Republic of North Macedonia.

Article 5

A child born abroad whose one parent at the time of the child's birth is a citizen of the Republic of North Macedonia, and the other is a foreign citizen, shall acquire citizenship of the Republic of North Macedonia by origin, provided that before reaching the age of 18 years the child is reported for registration as a citizen of the Republic of North Macedonia, or if before reaching the age of 18 years the child has become, together with the parent who is a citizen of the Republic of North Macedonia, a permanent resident of the Republic of North Macedonia. In the case of a legal dispute over custody of the child, citizenship shall be acquired after the legal validity of the court's decision.

Under the conditions referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, a person that is not registered by both of the parents, having reached the age of 18, can acquire the citizenship of the Republic of North Macedonia provided that he/she submits a registration form for acquiring the citizenship of the Republic of North Macedonia before reaching the age of 23 years.

The registration form referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall be submitted to the body competent for keeping registers wherein additional child birth registration is performed or to the diplomatic and consular office of the Republic of North Macedonia abroad.

A child acquiring citizenship of the Republic of North Macedonia, in terms of Article 4 of this Law and paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, shall be considered a citizen of the Republic of North Macedonia from the moment of birth.

2. By Birth on the territory of the Republic of North Macedonia

Article 6

Citizenship of the Republic of North Macedonia shall be acquired by a child found or born on the territory of the Republic of North Macedonia whose parents are unknown, or hold unknown citizenship or no citizenship.

The child referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall lose the citizenship of the Republic of North Macedonia if before reaching the age of 15 years it is determined that the child's parents are foreign citizens, and provided that the child shall not be left without a citizenship.
