Code No. 04/L-082

CRIMINAL CODE OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOSOVO

Assembly of Republic of Kosovo,

Based on Article 65 (1) of the Constitution of the Republic of Kosovo;

Approves

GENERAL PART

CHAPTER I
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1
Basis and limits of criminal sanctions

1. Criminal offenses and criminal sanctions are foreseen only for those actions that infringe and violate the freedoms, human rights and other rights and social values guaranteed and protected by the Constitution of the Republic of Kosovo and international law to the extent that is not possible to protect these values without criminal sanctions.
2. The criminal offenses and the types of measures and the severity of the criminal sanctions for the perpetrators of criminal offenses are based on the necessity of criminal justice enforcement and the proportionality of the level and nature of the danger for human rights and freedoms and social values.

Article 2
Principle of legality

1. Criminal offenses, criminal sanctions and measures of mandatory treatment are defined only by law.
2. No criminal sanction or measure of mandatory treatment may be imposed on a person for an act, if prior to the commission of the act, the law did not define the act as a criminal offense and did not provide a criminal sanction or measure of mandatory treatment for the act.
3. The definition of a criminal offense shall be strictly construed and interpretation by analogy shall not be permitted. In case of ambiguity, the definition of a criminal offense shall be interpreted in favor of the person against whom the criminal proceedings are ongoing.

Article 3
Application of the most favorable law

1. The law in effect at the time a criminal offense was committed shall be applied to the perpetrator.
2. In the event of a change in the law applicable to a given case prior to a final decision, the law most favorable to the perpetrator shall apply.
3. When a new law no longer criminalizes an act but a perpetrator has been convicted by a final decision in accordance with the prior law, the enforcement of the criminal sanction shall not commence or, if it has commenced, shall cease.
4. A law, which was expressly in force only for a determined time, shall be applicable to criminal offenses committed while it was in force, even if it is no longer in force, unless the law itself expressly provides otherwise.

Article 4
Criminal sanctions and measures of mandatory treatment

1. The criminal sanctions are:
 - 1.1. principal punishments;
 - 1.2. alternative punishments;
 - 1.3. accessory punishments; and

- 1.4. judicial admonition.
2. The measures of mandatory treatments that may be imposed on a perpetrator who is not criminally liable or is addicted to drugs or alcohol are:
 - 2.1. mandatory psychiatric treatment and custody in a health care institution;
 - 2.2. mandatory psychiatric treatment at liberty; and
 - 2.3. mandatory rehabilitation treatment of persons addicted to drugs or alcohol.

Article 5
Limitations on the execution of criminal sanctions and measures of mandatory treatment

In the execution of a criminal sanction or a measure of mandatory treatment, certain rights of the perpetrator may be denied or restricted only to the extent that is commensurate with the nature or the content of the sanction or measure and only in a manner that provides for the respect of his or her human dignity, and is in compliance with international law.

Article 6
Application of the general part of this Code

The provisions of the General Part of this Code apply to all criminal offenses defined in the Laws of the Republic of Kosovo.

CHAPTER II
CRIMINAL OFFENSES AND CRIMINAL LIABILITY

Article 7
Criminal offense

A criminal offense is an unlawful act which is defined by law as a criminal offense, the characteristics of which are defined by law and for which a criminal sanction or a measure of mandatory treatment is prescribed by the law.

Article 8
Manner of commission of criminal offenses

1. A criminal offense may be committed by an act or omission.
2. A criminal offense is committed by omission only when the perpetrator was obliged to undertake an act but fails to do so.

Article 9
Time of commission of criminal offenses

A criminal offense is committed at the time the perpetrator acted or ought to have acted, irrespective of when the consequence occurred.

Article 10
Location of commission of criminal offenses

1. A criminal offense is committed at the location where the perpetrator acted or ought to have acted, as well as at the location where the consequence occurred.
2. A criminal offense is attempted at the location where the perpetrator acted, as well as at the location where the perpetrator intended the consequence to occur.

Article 11
Act of minor significance

An act shall not constitute a criminal offense even though it has the characteristics of a criminal offense as defined by law if it is an act of minor significance. The act shall be deemed to be of minor significance when the danger involved is insignificant due to the nature or gravity of the act; the absence or insignificance of intended consequences; the circumstances in which the act was committed; the low degree of criminal liability of the perpetrator; or, the personal circumstances of the perpetrator.

Article 12
Necessary defense

1. An act committed in necessary defense is not a criminal offense.
2. An act is committed in necessary defense when a person commits the act to avert an unlawful, real and imminent attack against himself, herself or another person and the nature of the act is proportionate to the degree of danger posed by the attack.

3. An act that is disproportionate to the degree of danger posed by an attack exceeds the limits of the necessary defense.

4. When the perpetrator exceeds the limits of necessary defense, the punishment may be reduced. When the perpetrator exceeds the limits by reason of strong trauma or fear caused by the attack, the punishment may be waived.

Article 13

Extreme necessity

1. An act committed in extreme necessity is not a criminal offense.

2. An act is committed in extreme necessity when a person commits the act to avert an imminent and unprovoked danger from himself, herself or another person which could not have otherwise been averted, provided that the harm created to avert the danger does not exceed the harm threatened.

3. When the perpetrator caused the danger through negligence, or exceeds the limits of extreme necessity, the punishment may be reduced. When the perpetrator exceeds the limits in exceptionally mitigating circumstances, the punishment may be waived.

4. There is no extreme necessity if the perpetrator was obliged by law to expose himself or herself to the danger.

Article 14

Violence or threat

1. An act committed under the influence of unbearable violence or unbearable threat is not a criminal offense. An act will only be considered to have been committed under influence of unbearable violence or unbearable threat if, when the danger ceases to exist, the person immediately reports the influence of unbearable violence or unbearable threat and the unlawful act to the competent authority.

2. If the criminal offense is committed under the influence of a bearable violence or bearable threat the punishment may be reduced. An act will only be considered to have been committed under influence of bearable violence or bearable threat if, when the danger ceases to exist, the person immediately reports the influence of unbearable violence or unbearable threat and the unlawful act to the competent authority.

3. Whoever uses the violence or threat as provided for in paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article, is considered a perpetrator of a criminal offense.

Article 15
Acts committed under coercion

1. An act committed under coercion is not a criminal offense.
2. An act is committed under coercion when a person, faced with imminent force, or threat of violence endangering life, body or liberty which cannot otherwise be avoided, commits an unlawful act to avert the danger from himself, herself or a person with whom he or she has a domestic relationship. An act will only be considered to have been committed under coercion if, when the danger ceases to exist, the person immediately reports the coercion and the unlawful act to the competent authority.
3. An act is not committed under coercion if, and to the extent that, the perpetrator could be expected under the circumstances to accept the danger, in particular because he or she caused the danger or because he or she was under a legal obligation to face such imminent force or threat of violence. In such circumstances the punishment may be reduced.

Article 16
Superior order

1. When a criminal offense has been committed by a person pursuant to an order of a government or of a superior, whether military or civilian, the perpetrator shall not be exempt from criminal liability unless:
 - 1.1. the person was under a legal obligation to obey such an order;
 - 1.2. the person did not know that the order was unlawful; and
 - 1.3. the order was not manifestly unlawful.
2. Orders to commit genocide or other crimes against humanity in all circumstances are manifestly unlawful.

Article 17
Criminal liability

1. A perpetrator of a criminal offense is criminally liable if he or she is mentally competent and has committed the criminal offense intentionally or negligently.
2. A person is criminally liable for the negligent commission of a criminal offense only when this has been explicitly provided for by law.

3. A person is not criminally liable if, at the time of the commission of a criminal offense, he or she is under the age of fourteen (14) years.

Article 18
Mental incompetence and diminished mental capacity

1. A person who commits a criminal offense is considered mentally incompetent if, at the time of the commission of a criminal offense, he or she suffered from a permanent or temporary mental illness, mental disorder or disturbance in mental development that affected his or her mental functioning so that he or she was not able to understand the nature and importance or consequences of his or her actions or omissions or was not able to control his or her actions or omissions or to understand that he or she was committing a criminal offense.

2. A person who commits a criminal offense is considered to have diminished mental capacity if, at the time of the commission of a criminal offense, his or her ability to understand the nature and importance or consequences of his or her actions or omissions was substantially diminished because of the conditions in paragraph 1 of this Article. Such person is criminally liable but the court shall take these conditions into consideration when deciding the duration and the type of sanction or measure of mandatory treatment it imposes.

Article 19
Committing criminal offenses in a state of intoxication

A person is criminally liable if he or she, by use of alcohol, narcotics, or by another method, renders himself or herself in such a state that he or she cannot understand the significance of his or her own actions or omissions or control his or her own behavior, if prior to bringing himself or herself to such a state, such actions or omissions were intended or if he or she is negligent in relation to the criminal offense and the law provides for criminal liability for the negligent commission of this offense.

Article 20
Causal link

A person is not criminally liable if there is no causal connection between the action or omission and the consequences.

Article 21
Intent

1. A criminal offense may be committed with direct or eventual intent.

2. A person acts with direct intent when he or she is aware of his or her act and desires its commission.

3. A person acts with eventual intent when he or she is aware that a prohibited consequence can occur as a result of his or her act or omission and he or she accedes to its occurrence.

Article 22

Knowledge, intention, negligence or purpose

Knowledge, intention, negligence or purpose required as an element of a criminal offense may be inferred from factual circumstances.

Article 23

Negligence

1. A criminal offense may be committed by conscious or unconscious negligence.

2. A person acts with conscious negligence when he or she is aware that a prohibited consequence can occur as a result of his or her act or omission but recklessly thinks that it will not occur or that he or she will be able to prevent it from occurring.

3. A person acts with unconscious negligence when he or she is unaware that a prohibited consequence can occur as a result of his or her act or omission, although under the circumstances and according to his or her personal characteristics he or she should or could have been aware of such a possibility.

Article 24

Liability for graver consequences

When the commission of a criminal offense causes consequences which exceed the intent of the perpetrator and the law has provided for a more severe punishment, the more severe punishment may be imposed if the consequence is attributable to the perpetrator's negligence.

Article 25

Mistake of fact

1. A person is not criminally liable if, at the time of committing a criminal offense, he or she is unaware of a characteristic of that act or he or she mistakenly believed that circumstances existed which, had they in fact existed, would have rendered the act permissible.

2. If a person's mistake is due to negligence, he or she is criminally liable for a criminal offense which has been negligently committed if the law specifically provides for criminal liability for the negligent commission of that offense.

Article 26
Mistake of law

1. A person who, for justifiable reasons, did not know or could not have known that an act was prohibited is not criminally liable.

2. If the mistake was avoidable, the person is criminally liable but the punishment may be reduced.

3. A mistake of law is avoidable if any person could have easily known that the act was unlawful or if the perpetrator, by reason of his or her profession, occupation or service was obliged to know the act was unlawful.

Article 27
Preparation of a criminal offense

1. Whoever intentionally prepares a criminal offense shall be punished only if expressly provided for by law.

2. If the law prescribes the punishment for the preparation of a certain criminal offense, the preparation of the criminal offense includes supplying or making available the means to commit a criminal offense; removing the impediments to the commission of a criminal offense; agreeing, planning or organizing with another person the commission of a criminal offense; as well as, other activities that create conditions for the direct commission of a criminal offense, but which do not constitute the act itself.

Article 28
Attempt

1. Whoever intentionally takes action toward the commission of an offense but the action is not completed or the elements of the intended offense are not fulfilled has attempted to commit a criminal offense.

2. An attempt to commit a criminal offense for which a punishment of three or more years may be imposed shall be punishable. An attempt to commit any other criminal offense shall be punishable only if expressly provided for by law.

3. A person who attempts to commit a criminal offense shall be punished as if he or she committed the criminal offense, however, the punishment may be reduced.

Article 29
Inappropriate attempt

The court may waive the punishment of a person who attempts to commit a criminal offense with inappropriate means or against an inappropriate object.

Article 30
Voluntary abandonment of attempt

1. The court may waive the punishment of a person for a punishable attempt of a criminal offense if such person voluntarily abandons the commission of a criminal offense which he or she has commenced, even though he or she is aware that according to all the circumstances he or she could continue the act or, if after the completion of such an act, he or she prevents the occurrence of the consequences.

2. The perpetrator shall be punished for those acts described in paragraph 1 of this Article which constitute another separate criminal offense.

COLLABORATION IN CRIMINAL OFFENSES

Article 31
Co-perpetration

When two or more persons jointly commit a criminal offense by participating in the commission of a criminal offense or by substantially contributing to its commission in any other way, each of them shall be liable and punished as prescribed for the criminal offense.

Article 32
Incitement

1. Whoever intentionally incites another person to commit a criminal offense shall be punished as if he or she committed the criminal offense if the criminal offense is committed.

2. Whoever intentionally incites another person to commit a criminal offense shall be punished as if he or she committed the criminal offense if the criminal offense is attempted but not committed.

3. Whoever intentionally incites another person to commit a criminal offense punishable by imprisonment of at least five (5) years and the offense is not even attempted, the inciter shall be punished for attempt.

Article 33
Assistance

1. Whoever intentionally assists another person in the commission of a criminal offense shall be punished more leniently.

2. Assistance in committing a criminal offense includes, but is not limited to: giving advice or instruction on how to commit a criminal offense; making available the means to commit a criminal offense; creating conditions or removing the impediments to the commission of a criminal offense; or, promising in advance to conceal evidence of the commission of a criminal offense, the perpetrator or identity of the perpetrator, the means used for the commission of a criminal offense, or the profits or gains which result from the commission of a criminal offense.

Article 34
Criminal association

1. Whoever agrees, explicitly or implicitly, with one or more persons to commit or to incite the commission of a criminal offense that is punishable by imprisonment of at least five (5) years, and undertakes preparatory acts for the fulfillment of such agreement, shall be punished as provided for the criminal offense.

2. The court may reduce or waive the punishment of a person who is criminally liable as provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article if such person:

2.1. voluntarily renounces the agreement;

2.2. voluntarily undertakes actions to prevent the continuous existence of the criminal association or the commission of a criminal offense consistent with its goals; or

2.3. voluntarily discloses knowledge of the agreement to the police while the planned criminal offense may still be prevented.

Article 35
Agreement to commit criminal offense

1. Whoever agrees with one or more other persons to commit a criminal offense and one or more of such persons does any substantial act towards the commission of the criminal offense, shall be punished as provided for the criminal offense.
2. For the purposes of this Article, the term “substantial act towards the commission of a crime,” need not be a criminal act, but shall be a substantial preparatory step towards the commission of the crime which the persons have agreed to commit.

Article 36
Limits on criminal liability and punishment for collaboration

1. A co-perpetrator is criminally liable within the limits of his or her intent or negligence.
2. A person who incites or assists in the commission of a criminal offense shall be held criminally liable within the limits of his or her intent.
3. Personal circumstances including relations and capacities which may result in exemption from criminal responsibility, waiver of punishment, the existence of graver or lighter forms of the criminal offense or which have an effect on the determination of the punishment shall only be taken into account with respect to the person to whom they relate. However, if the personal circumstances which relate to the offender have an impact on a more severe or a more lenient punishment, and these circumstances constitute an element of the criminal offense, the co-perpetrator, inciter or assistant is liable for the punishment foreseen for the criminal offense when he or she knew about this circumstance, even if it did not relate to him or her.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS ON CRIMINAL LIABILITY FOR CRIMINAL OFFENSES COMMITTED THROUGH THE MEDIA

Article 37
Criminal liability of chief editors, publishers, printers or manufacturers

1. The author of the information is criminally liable when a criminal offense has been committed through the publication of information in the newspapers or other type of periodical, radio, television, internet or other means of communication.
2. The responsible chief editor or the person replacing him or her at the time of the publication of information is criminally liable when:

- 2.1. the author cannot be found or tried before a court of the Republic of Kosovo;
 - 2.2. the publication of the information was made without the knowledge of the author or against his or her will; or
 - 2.3. if during the time of publication of the information, factual and legal impediments existed for the initiation of criminal proceedings against the perpetrator and continue to exist.
3. The chief editor or the person replacing him or her at the time of publication of information is not held criminally liable if for justified reasons he or she was not aware of a circumstance as provided for in paragraph 2 of this Article.
 4. The publisher of a newspaper or other type of periodical is criminally liable when the chief editor or the person replacing him or her at the time of the publication of information in the newspaper or other type of periodical is criminally liable in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article.
 5. When the publisher is criminally liable in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Article and it is not possible to punish the publisher due to legal or factual impediments, the person who printed the information is criminally liable if he or she knew that such legal or factual impediments existed.
 6. The manufacturer is criminally liable when the chief editor or the person replacing him or her at the time of the publication of information by means of magnetic tape, film, slides, photographs or other video and audio devices intended for the mass media or for presentation to the public or to a large number of persons are criminally liable in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article.
 7. When the publisher, the printer or the manufacturer who is criminally liable pursuant to this Article is a legal person or a public entity, the person responsible for the printing or manufacturing activities is criminally liable.
 8. The persons referred to in this Article are not criminally liable if the publication of information is an accurate report of a session of a public entity or a statement by an official person.

Article 38

Protecting sources of information

1. A person who takes part as a professional in the publication of information or as a member of an editorial board of the media and his or her assistant are not criminally liable if they refuse to disclose the author of a publication or the sources of information.

2. The persons referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article are criminally liable if the court finds that:

2.1. the disclosure of information is necessary to prevent an attack that constitutes an imminent threat to life or physical integrity of any person.

Article 39

Application of general provisions on criminal liability

The provisions on the criminal liability of persons referred to in Articles 37 and 38 of this Code are applicable only if those persons are not held criminally liable under general provisions on criminal liability defined in this Code.

Article 40

Criminal liability of legal persons

1. A legal person is liable for the criminal offence of the responsible person, who has committed a criminal offence, acting on behalf of the legal person within his or her authorizations, with the purpose to gain a benefit or has caused damages for that legal person. The liability of legal person exists even when the actions of the legal person were in contradiction with the business policies or the orders of the legal person.

2. Under the conditions provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article, the legal person shall also be liable for criminal offences in cases of the responsible person, who has committed the criminal offence, who was not sentenced for that criminal offence.

3. The liability of the legal person is based on the culpability of the responsible person.

4. The subjective element of the criminal offence, which exists only for the responsible person, shall be evaluated in relation with the legal person, if the basis for the liability provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article, was fulfilled.

CHAPTER III PUNISHMENTS

Article 41

Purpose of punishments

1. The purposes of punishment are:

1.1. to prevent the perpetrator from committing criminal offenses in the future and to rehabilitate the perpetrator;

1.2. to prevent other persons from committing criminal offenses;

1.3. to provide compensation to victims or the community for losses or damages caused by the criminal conduct; and

1.4. to express the judgment of society for criminal offenses, increase morality and strengthen the obligation to respect the law.

Article 42 Types of punishments

1. The types of punishment are:

1.1. principal punishments;

1.2. alternative punishments; and

1.3. accessory punishments.

PRINCIPAL PUNISHMENTS

Article 43 Principal punishments

1. The principal punishments are:

1.1. punishment of life long imprisonment;

1.2. punishment of imprisonment;

1.3. punishment of a fine.

Article 44 Punishment of life long imprisonment

1. The law may provide for the punishment of life long imprisonment for the most serious criminal offenses committed under especially aggravating circumstances or criminal offenses that have caused severe consequences.

2. The law shall not prescribe the punishment of life long imprisonment as the only principal punishment for a particular criminal offense.

3. Life long imprisonment cannot be imposed on a person who at the time of committing the criminal offense was under twenty one (21) years of age or on a person who at the time of committing the offense had substantially diminished mental capacity.

Article 45 Punishment of imprisonment

1. The punishment of imprisonment may not be shorter than thirty (30) days or more than twenty five (25) years.

2. The punishment of imprisonment is imposed in full years and months and in cases where the term is up to six (6) months, in full days.

Article 46 Punishment of fine

1. The punishment of a fine may not be less than one hundred (100) European Euros (hereinafter “EUR”). The punishment of a fine may not exceed twenty five thousand (25,000) EUR or, in the case of criminal offenses related to terrorism, trafficking in persons, organized crime or criminal offenses committed to obtain a material benefit, it may not exceed five hundred thousand (500,000) EUR.

2. The judgment shall determine the deadline for the payment of a fine. The deadline may not be less than fifteen (15) days or more than three (3) months, but in justifiable circumstances, the court may allow the fine to be paid in installments over a period not exceeding two (2) years. The judgment shall also determine when the installments are to be paid and state that the privilege of paying by installments will be revoked if the convicted person fails to pay an installment on time.

3. If the convicted person remains unwilling or unable to pay the fine, the court may replace the punishment of fine with the punishment of imprisonment. When a punishment of imprisonment is substituted for a fine, one day in prison is calculated as twenty (20) EUR of the fine. However, the punishment of imprisonment shall not exceed three (3) years.

4. If the convicted person is unwilling or unable to pay the full fine, the Court shall replace the balance of the unpaid fine with punishment of imprisonment as provided for in paragraph 3 of this Article. If the convicted person pays the balance of the fine, the execution of his sentence shall be stayed.

5. If the convicted person remains unwilling or unable to pay the fine, instead of imposing a punishment of imprisonment, the court may, with the consent of the convicted person, substitute an order for community service work for the fine. An order for community service work shall calculate eight (8) working hours of community service work for each twenty (20) EUR of the fine. The community service work shall not exceed two hundred forty (240) working hours.

6. A fine shall not be collected after the death of the convicted person.

Article 47

Replacement of imprisonment with punishment of fine

The court may, with the consent of the convicted person, replace the punishment of up to six (6) months imprisonment with the punishment of fine.

Article 48

Replacement of punishment with order for community service work

1. The court may, with the consent of the convicted person, replace the punishment of up to six (6) months imprisonment with an order for community service work.

2. When imposing an order for community service work, the court shall order the convicted person to perform unpaid community service work for a specified term of thirty (30) to two hundred forty (240) working hours. The probation service will determine the type of community service to be performed by the convicted person, designate the specific organization for which the convicted person will perform the community service, decide on the days of the week when the community service work will be performed and supervise the performance of the community service work.

3. The community service work shall be performed within a period specified by the court which shall not exceed one (1) year.

4. If, upon the expiry of the specified period, the convicted person has not performed the community service work or has only partially performed such community service work, the court shall order a term of imprisonment. One (1) day of imprisonment shall be ordered for every eight (8) hours of community service that was not performed.

ALTERNATIVE PUNISHMENTS

Article 49 Alternative punishments

1. The alternative punishments are:
 - 1.1. suspended sentence;
 - 1.2. semi-liberty; and
 - 1.3. an order for community service work.
2. When imposing a suspended sentence, the court may also impose:
 - 2.1. an order for mandatory rehabilitation treatment; and
 - 2.2. an order for supervision by the probation service.

Article 50 Purpose of suspended sentences

The purpose of a suspended sentence is to not impose a punishment for a criminal offense that is not severe when a reprimand with the threat of punishment is sufficient to prevent the perpetrator from committing a criminal offense.

Article 51 Suspended sentence

1. The court may impose a suspended sentence on the perpetrator in accordance with the provisions of this Code.
2. In imposing a suspended sentence, the court shall determine a punishment for the perpetrator of the criminal offense and at the same time order that this punishment shall not be executed if the convicted person does not commit another criminal offense for the verification time determined by the court. The verification period cannot be less than one (1) year or more than five (5) years.
3. Within a suspended sentence the court may order that the punishment be executed if, within a determined time, the convicted person does not return the material benefit acquired from the commission of the criminal offense, does not compensate for the damage caused by the criminal offense or does not perform another obligation provided for by provisions in this Code. The court shall determine a deadline for the performance of these conditions within the verification period.

4. When the court imposes a punishment of imprisonment or a fine, the court may impose a suspended sentence for both punishments or only for the punishment of imprisonment.

Article 52 Conditions for imposing suspended sentences

1. A suspended sentence may be imposed on a perpetrator of a criminal offense for which the punishment of imprisonment of up to five (5) years is provided for by the law.

2. A suspended sentence may be imposed on a perpetrator of a criminal offense for which the punishment of imprisonment of up to ten (10) years is provided by for the law if the provisions of mitigation of the punishment are applied.

3. A suspended sentence may be imposed on a perpetrator as foreseen in paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article when the court imposes a punishment of a fine or of imprisonment of up to two (2) years, either for a single offense or concurrent offenses.

4. When determining whether to impose a suspended sentence, the court shall consider, in particular, the purpose of a suspended sentence, the past conduct of the perpetrator, his or her behavior after the commission of the criminal offense, the degree of criminal liability and other circumstances under which the criminal offense was committed.

5. When the court imposes a punishment of imprisonment and a fine, the court may impose a suspended sentence for both punishments or for only the punishment of imprisonment.

Article 53 Revocation of suspended sentence due to newly committed criminal offenses

1. The court shall revoke a suspended sentence if, during the verification period, the convicted person commits one or more criminal offenses for which a punishment of imprisonment of two (2) or more years has been imposed.

2. The court may revoke a suspended sentence if, during the verification period, the convicted person commits one or more criminal offenses for which a punishment of imprisonment of less than two (2) years or a punishment of a fine has been imposed, after considering all the circumstances related to the committed criminal offenses and the convicted person, and especially the similarity of the committed criminal offenses, their importance and the motives for committing the criminal offenses.

3. When revoking a suspended sentence, the court shall impose a single punishment for the criminal offense committed previously and the new criminal offense, in accordance with Article 80 of this Code and treat the revoked suspended sentence as determined.

4. If the court does not revoke a suspended sentence, it may impose a suspended sentence or a punishment of imprisonment or a punishment of a fine for the newly committed criminal offense. If the court imposes a suspended sentence for the newly-committed criminal offense, the court shall apply the provisions of Article 80 of this Code to impose a compound suspended sentence for both the previously committed and the newly committed criminal offense and it shall also determine a compound verification period which can be no less than one (1) year and no more than five (5) years, commencing on the day the sentencing decision becomes final. If the court imposes a punishment of imprisonment for the newly committed criminal offense, the period of time spent serving such term of imprisonment shall not be deducted from the verification period established by the suspended sentence for the previously committed act.

Article 54

Revocation of suspended sentences due to previously committed criminal offense

The court shall revoke the suspended sentence if, after imposing the suspended sentence, there is a final judgment establishing that the convicted person committed another criminal offense prior to the imposition of the suspended sentence and if the court determines that the suspended sentence would have not been imposed if that criminal offense had been known. In such a case, the provisions of paragraph 3 Article 53 of this Code shall apply.

Article 55

Revocation of suspended sentences due to failure to comply with conditions

If one or more conditions are imposed with a suspended sentence as provided for in paragraph 3 Article 51 and 59 of this Code and the convicted person fails to comply with the condition, or conditions, within the time determined by the court, the court may, within the verification period, extend the term for compliance with the condition or it may revoke the suspended sentence and execute the punishment provided for in the suspended sentence. If the court determines that the convicted person was unable to comply with the condition for justified reasons, the court shall waive the performance of that condition or replace it with another appropriate condition provided for by law.

Article 56

Deadlines for revocation of suspended sentences

1. A suspended sentence may be revoked during the verification period. If a convicted person commits a criminal offense requiring revocation of the suspended sentence during the verification period but it is established by a final judgment only after the expiry of the verification period, the suspended sentence may be revoked no later than one (1) year after the expiry of the verification period.

2. If a convicted person fails to comply with a condition imposed by the court as provided for in paragraph 3 of Article 51 and 59 of this Code within the time determined by the court, the court may revoke the suspended sentence no later than one (1) year after the expiry of the performance of obligations.

Article 57

Suspended sentence with order for mandatory rehabilitation treatment

1. The court may impose a suspended sentence with an order for mandatory rehabilitation treatment, where the convicted person is a first time offender and a drug addict or alcoholic if the court, after reviewing the report of the probation service, determines that the primary factor motivating the criminal offense was related to his or her drug or alcohol addiction and that successful treatment would minimize the risk of the commission of another criminal offense. The court shall state the period during which the mandatory treatment program should commence and when it should be completed. The period of mandatory treatment shall not be less than three (3) months and shall not exceed twelve (12) months.

2. The probation service shall supervise the rehabilitation treatment program.

3. The punishment will be deemed as served upon completion of the rehabilitation treatment program as required by the Probation Service.

4. If the convicted person withdraws from the rehabilitation treatment program, does not maintain contact with the Probation Service or does not perform obligations related to the order for treatment, the court may replace the previous obligation with a different one, extend the duration of the order for treatment or revoke the suspended sentence and order the execution of the punishment provided for in the suspended sentence.

Article 58

Suspended sentence with order for supervision by the probation service

1. The court may impose a suspended sentence with an order for supervision by the probation service if the court determines that the integration of the convicted person into society or compliance with any conditions imposed by the court will be better achieved through supervision by the probation service.

2. When imposing a suspended sentence with an order for supervision by the probation service, the court shall order the convicted person to maintain contact with the probation service. The court may also impose one or more of the conditions set out in paragraph 3 of Article 51 or Article 59 of this Code. The duration of a condition imposed shall not be less than six (6) months or more than three (3) years.

3. When imposing the obligations provided for in Article 59 of this Code, the court shall consider, in particular, the age of the convicted person; his or her general health and mental condition; lifestyle and needs, especially those related to family, school and work; the motives for committing the criminal offense; his or her behavior after its commission; his or her past conduct; personal and family-related circumstances; and, other circumstances which are important for the selection of the kind of supervision and its duration.

4. If the convicted person fails to maintain contact with the probation service or to perform an obligation provided for in Article 59 of this Code, as ordered by the court, the court may replace the previous obligation with a different one, extend the duration of the supervision within the verification period, or revoke the suspended sentence.

Article 59 Types of obligations set forth in a suspended sentence

1. A suspended sentence may also include an order to perform one or more of the following obligations:

- 1.1. to receive medical or rehabilitation care in a health care institution;
- 1.2. to undergo a medical or rehabilitation treatment program;
- 1.3. to visit a psychologist and/or another consultant and act in accordance with their recommendations;
- 1.4. to receive vocational training for a certain profession;
- 1.5. to perform a work activity;
- 1.6. to use wage and other income or property to fulfill a family obligation;
- 1.7. to refrain from changing residence without informing the probation service;
- 1.8. to abstain from the use of alcohol or drugs;
- 1.9. to refrain from frequenting certain places or locales;
- 1.10. to refrain from meeting or contacting certain people;
- 1.11. to refrain from carrying any kind of weapon;

- 1.12. to compensate or retribute the victim of the offense;
- 1.13. to return the material benefit acquired from the commission of the criminal offense;
- 1.14. not to possess or use a computer or to access the internet as directed by the court; or,
- 1.15. to provide financial reports as directed by the court.

Article 60

Order for community service work

1. An order for community service work may be imposed on a convicted person, if the court imposed a punishment of a fine of up to two thousand five hundred (2,500) EUR or a punishment of imprisonment of up to one (1) year. Community service work may only be ordered upon the consent of the convicted person.
2. When imposing an order for community service work, the court shall order the convicted person to perform unpaid community service work for a specified term of thirty (30) to two hundred forty (240) working hours. The probation service will determine the type of community service to be performed by the convicted person, designate the specific organization for which the convicted person will perform the community service, decide on the days of the week when the community service work will be performed and supervise the performance of the community service work.
3. The community service work shall be performed within a period of time determined by the court which shall not exceed one (1) year.
4. When imposing an order for community service work, the court shall also order the convicted person to maintain contact with the probation service and may order the convicted person to perform one or more of the obligations provided for in paragraph 3 of Article 51 or Article 59 of this Code. The duration of an obligation provided for in of Article 59 shall not be less than six (6) months or more than three (3) years. Paragraph 3 of Article 58 shall apply mutatis mutandis to an obligation ordered under this paragraph.
5. If the convicted person fails to perform the community service work the court may extend the duration of the supervision within the verification period or revoke the sentence.
6. If, upon the expiry of the specified period, the convicted person has not performed the community service work or has only partially performed such community service work, the court shall order a term of imprisonment. One (1) day of imprisonment shall be ordered for every eight (8) working hours of community service that was not performed.

Article 61
Semi-liberty

1. When the court imposes a punishment of imprisonment of up to one (1) year, it may order the execution of the punishment in semi-liberty, due to the convicted person's obligations related to work, education or vocational training, essential family responsibilities, or need for medical or rehabilitation treatment.
2. When serving a punishment in semi-liberty, the convicted person is obliged to return to prison after performing his or her obligations outside the prison within the period of time determined by the court.
3. When the convicted person does not perform his or her obligations provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article, the court shall revoke the order for the execution of the punishment in semi-liberty and order that the remaining punishment be served in a prison.
4. When the court orders execution of the punishment in semi-liberty, it may also impose one or more of the conditions set out in paragraph 3 of Article 51 or Article 59 of this Code.

ACCESSORY PUNISHMENTS

Article 62
Accessory punishments

1. An accessory punishment may be imposed together with a principal or alternative punishment.
2. The accessory punishments are:
 - 2.1. deprivation of the right to be elected;
 - 2.2. order to pay compensation for loss or damage;
 - 2.3. prohibition on exercising public administration or public service functions;
 - 2.4. prohibition on exercising a profession, activity or duty;
 - 2.5. prohibition on driving a motor vehicle;
 - 2.6. confiscation of a driver license;

- 2.7. confiscation;
 - 2.8. order to publish a judgment; and
 - 2.9. expulsion of a foreigner from the territory of the Republic of Kosovo.
3. The accessory punishment of a prohibition on driving a motor vehicle, or confiscation of an object may be imposed together with a suspended sentence, a judicial admonition or a waiver of punishment.

Article 63
Deprivation of right to be elected

The court shall deprive a perpetrator of the right to be elected for one (1) to four (4) years, if such person, with the intent of becoming elected, commits a criminal offence against voting rights or any other criminal offence for which a punishment of at least two (2) years imprisonment is provided.

Article 64
Order of restitution or compensation

1. The court, when sentencing a person who has been convicted of any offense involving the theft, loss, damage or destruction of property shall order that the perpetrator make restitution to the victim of the offense.
2. Restitution includes the costs equal to the value of any property stolen, lost, damaged or destroyed. Restitution shall also be ordered for any loss of income the victim experiences as a result of the offense and the related investigative and court proceedings.

Article 65
Prohibition on exercising public administration or public service functions

1. The court shall prohibit a perpetrator from exercising public administration or public service functions for one (1) to five (5) years after the punishment of imprisonment has been served, if such person has abused these functions and has been punished by imprisonment.
2. The court may prohibit a perpetrator from exercising public administration or public service functions for one (1) to three (3) years, if such person has abused these functions and has been punished by fine or suspended sentence.

Article 66
Prohibition on exercising a profession, activity or duty

1. The court may prohibit a perpetrator from exercising a profession, an independent activity, a management or administrative duty or duties related to the disposition, management or use of publicly owned property or the protection of such property, if such person has abused his or her position, activity or duty in order to commit a criminal offense or if there is reason to expect that the exercise of such profession, activity or duty can be misused to commit a criminal offense.
2. The court shall determine the duration of the punishment ordered pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article, which shall not be less than one (1) year and shall not exceed five (5) years, starting from the day the decision of the court becomes final. The period of time served in a prison or in a health care institution is not included in the duration of this punishment.
3. When imposing a suspended sentence, the court may decide that the suspended sentence will be revoked if the perpetrator does not comply with the prohibition on exercising a profession, activity or duty.

Article 67
Prohibition on driving motor vehicles

1. The court may prohibit a perpetrator who jeopardizes the safety of public traffic from driving a motor vehicle of a specific kind and category.
2. The court shall determine the duration of the punishment ordered pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article, which shall not be less than one (1) year and shall not exceed five (5) years, starting from the day the decision of the court becomes final. The period of time served in a prison or in a health care institution is not included in the duration of this punishment.
3. When imposing a suspended sentence, the court may decide that such a suspended sentence will be revoked if the perpetrator violates the prohibition on driving the motor vehicle. This paragraph shall not apply if there are extra-ordinary circumstances which require the perpetrator to drive.
4. If the punishment provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article is imposed on a person who has a foreign license for driving a motor vehicle, the punishment shall prohibit the use of the foreign license within the territory of the Republic of Kosovo.

Article 68
Confiscation of driver's licenses

1. The court may confiscate a driver's license for a specific type and category of motor vehicle from a perpetrator who jeopardizes the safety of the public traffic and prohibit the perpetrator from obtaining a new driver's license for a period of one (1) to five (5) years. If the perpetrator does not have a driver's license, the court shall prohibit the perpetrator from obtaining a driver's license for a period of one (1) to five (5) years.
2. The court may impose the punishment provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article if the perpetrator has committed a criminal offense causing grievous bodily injury or death of a person or if the court establishes that driving in public traffic is dangerous to the safety of public traffic because of the perpetrator's inability to drive a motor vehicle safely.
3. The driving license shall be confiscated by a final decision of the court. The period of time served in a prison or in a health care institution shall not be included in the duration of the present punishment.
4. After the expiry of the period determined by the court, the perpetrator may obtain a new driving license according to the general conditions provided for obtaining the relevant driving license.

Article 69
Confiscation of objects

1. Objects used or destined for use in the commission of a criminal offense or objects derived from the commission of a criminal offense shall be confiscated.
2. Objects provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article may be confiscated even if they are not the property of the perpetrator if confiscation is necessary for the interests of general security or for moral reasons if such confiscation does not adversely affect the rights of third parties to obtain compensation from the perpetrator for any damage.
3. The law may provide for the mandatory confiscation of an object.

Article 70
Order to publish judgments

1. The court may order the publication of a judgment, if it determines that publication is in the interests of the public, the injured party or other persons.
2. An order to publish a judgment shall require that a judgment be published, in whole or in part, in a newspaper or a radio broadcast or television broadcast. The publication shall be at the expense of the perpetrator.

3. The date of the publication and its duration shall be determined by the court.
4. A newspaper, radio station or television station shall publish a judgment sent to them by the court.
5. The publication of the judgment shall not be ordered if such publication would endanger an official secret, the privacy of persons or the morals of society.

Article 71

Expulsion of foreigners from the territory of the Republic of Kosovo

1. The court may order the expulsion of a foreigner from the territory of the Republic of Kosovo for a period of one (1) to ten (10) years.
2. In determining whether to apply the punishment provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article and the duration of such punishment, the court shall take into account the type and the gravity of the criminal offense, the motives for committing the criminal offense and the perpetrator's attachment to the Republic of Kosovo.
3. The punishment provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not be imposed if the execution of the punishment would be contrary to international law.
4. The duration of the expulsion shall start from the day the court decision becomes final. Time served in a prison or in a health care institution is not included in the duration of this punishment.

Article 72

Execution of accessory punishments

1. Subject to paragraph 2 of this Article, the execution of the accessory punishments provided for in Article 62 of this Code shall commence with the execution of a principal or alternative punishment.
2. The execution of the accessory punishments provided for in sub-paragraphs 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 2.4, 2.5 and 2.8 of paragraph 2 of Article 62 of this Code shall commence after the term of imprisonment has been executed. While serving the punishment of imprisonment, the convicted person may not enjoy the rights limited by the accessory punishments.

CALCULATION OF PUNISHMENT

Article 73

General rules on calculating punishments

1. When determining the punishment of a criminal offense, the court must look to any minimum and maximum penalty applicable to the criminal offense. The court must then consider the purposes of punishment, the principles set out in this chapter and the mitigating or aggravating factors relating to the specific offense or punishment.
2. The punishment shall be proportionate to the gravity of the offense and the conduct and circumstances of the offender.
3. When determining the punishment the court shall consider but not be limited by following factors:
 - 3.1. the degree of criminal liability;
 - 3.2. the motives for committing the act;
 - 3.3. the intensity of danger or injury to the protected value;
 - 3.4. the circumstances in which the act was committed;
 - 3.5. the past conduct of the perpetrator;
 - 3.6. the entering of a guilty plea; and
 - 3.7. the personal circumstances of the perpetrator and his or her behavior after committing a criminal offense.
4. When determining the punishment for a recidivist, the court shall especially consider whether the perpetrator has previously committed a criminal offense of the same type as the new criminal offense, whether the two (2) acts were committed for the same motives, and the period of time that has elapsed since the previous conviction was pronounced or since the punishment was served or waived.
5. When determining the punishment of a fine, the court shall consider the material situation of the perpetrator, and, in particular, the amount of his or her personal income, other income, assets and obligations. The court shall not set the level of a fine above the means of the perpetrator.

Article 74
General rules on mitigation or aggravation of punishments

1. The punishment imposed on a perpetrator is the punishment prescribed for the criminal offense, while a more lenient or severe punishment may be imposed only in accordance with the conditions provided for by this Code.
2. When determining the punishment the court shall consider, but not be limited by, the following aggravating circumstances:
 - 2.1. a high degree of participation of the convicted person in the criminal offense;
 - 2.2. a high degree of intention on the part of the convicted person, including any evidence of premeditation;
 - 2.3. the presence of actual or threatened violence in the commission of the criminal offense;
 - 2.4. whether the criminal offense was committed with particular cruelty;
 - 2.5. whether the criminal offense involved multiple victims;
 - 2.6. whether the victim of the criminal offense was particularly defenseless or vulnerable;
 - 2.7. the age of the victim, whether young or elderly;
 - 2.8. the extent of the damage caused by the convicted person, including death, permanent injury, the transmission of a disease to the victim, and any other harm caused to the victim and his or her family;
 - 2.9. any abuse of power or official capacity by the convicted person in the perpetration of the criminal offense;
 - 2.10. evidence of a breach of trust by the convicted person;
 - 2.11. whether the criminal offense was committed as part of the activities of an organized criminal group; and/or
 - 2.12. if the criminal offence is committed against a person, group of persons or property because of ethnicity or national origin, nationality, language, religious beliefs or lack of religious beliefs, color, gender, sexual orientation, or because of their affinity with persons who have the aforementioned characteristics;
 - 2.13. any relevant prior criminal convictions of the convicted person.

3. When determining the punishment the court shall consider, but not be limited by, the following mitigating circumstances:

3.1. circumstances falling short of grounds for exclusion of criminal responsibility, for example, diminished mental capacity;

3.2. evidence of provocation by the victim;

3.3. the personal circumstances and character of the convicted person;

3.4. evidence that the convicted person played a relatively minor role in the criminal offense;

3.5. the fact that the convicted person participated in the criminal offense not as the principal perpetrator but through aiding, abetting, or otherwise assisting another;

3.6. the age of the convicted person, whether young or elderly;

3.7. evidence that the convicted person made restitution or compensation to the victim;

3.8. general cooperation by the convicted person with the court, including voluntary surrender;

3.9. the voluntary cooperation of the convicted person in a criminal investigation or prosecution;

3.10. the entering of a plea of guilty;

3.11. any remorse shown by the convicted person;

3.12. post conflict conduct of the convicted person; and/or

3.13. in the case of a person convicted of the criminal offense of Hostage Taking, Kidnapping or Unlawful Deprivation of Liberty or as provided for in Article 175, 194 or 196 of this Code, effectively contributing to releasing or bringing the kidnapped, abducted, taken or detained person forward alive or voluntarily providing information that contributes to identifying others responsible for the criminal offense.

Article 75
Mitigation of punishments

1. The court may impose a punishment below the limits provided for by law or impose a lesser type of punishment:

1.1. when the law provides that the punishment of the perpetrator may be mitigated or reduced; or

1.2. when the court finds that there are particularly mitigating circumstances which indicate that the purpose of punishment can be achieved by imposing a lesser punishment; or,

1.3. in cases when the perpetrator pleads guilty or enters into a plea agreement. In such cases the court should take under consideration the opinion of the prosecutor, defense counsel and the injured party with regard to the mitigation of the punishment and it shall be advised but not constrained by the limits provided for in Article 76 of this Code.

Article 76
Limits on mitigation of punishments

1. When the conditions set out in Article 75 of this Code exist, the court may mitigate the punishment within the following limits:

1.1. if a period of at least ten (10) years is provided as the minimum term of imprisonment for a criminal offense, the punishment can be mitigated to imprisonment of up to five (5) years;

1.2. if a period of at least five (5) years is provided as the minimum term of imprisonment for a criminal offense, the punishment can be mitigated to imprisonment of up to three (3) years;

1.3. if a period of at least three (3) years is provided as the minimum term of imprisonment for a criminal offense, the punishment can be mitigated to imprisonment of up to one (1) year;

1.4. if a period of two (2) years is provided as the minimum term of imprisonment for a criminal offense, the punishment can be mitigated to imprisonment of up to six (6) months;

1.5. if a period of one (1) year is provided as the minimum term of imprisonment for a criminal offense, the punishment can be mitigated to imprisonment of up to three (3) months;

- 1.6. if a period of less than one (1) year is provided as the minimum term of imprisonment for a criminal offense, the punishment can be mitigated to imprisonment of up to thirty (30) days;
 - 1.7. if there is no indication of the minimum term of imprisonment for a criminal offense, a punishment of a fine can be imposed instead of imprisonment;
 - 1.8. if there is no indication of the minimum amount of a fine for a criminal offense, the fine can be mitigated to one hundred (100) EUR.
2. In determining the degree of mitigation of punishment in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article, the court shall take into special consideration the minimum and maximum term of punishment provided for the criminal offense.

Article 77

Waiver of punishments

1. The court may waive the punishment of the perpetrator for a criminal offense only when it is explicitly provided for by law.
2. When the court has been authorized by the law to waive the punishment of a perpetrator for a criminal offense, it may mitigate the punishment regardless of the limits on the mitigation of punishment.

Article 78

Special grounds to waive punishments for criminal offenses committed negligently

1. The court may waive the punishment of a perpetrator if he or she commits a criminal offense by negligence in the following cases:
 - 1.1. if the consequences of the criminal offense affect the perpetrator so severely that the punishment is unnecessary to achieve its purpose; or
 - 1.2. if immediately after the commission of a criminal offense the perpetrator makes efforts to eliminate or reduce the consequences of the offense and if he or she completely or substantially compensates for the damage caused by the offense.

Article 79
Aggravation of punishments for multiple recidivism

1. The court may impose a more severe punishment than the one provided for by law for a criminal offense punishable by imprisonment when it is committed intentionally in the following cases:
 - 1.1. if the perpetrator has been previously sentenced two (2) or more times to imprisonment of at least one (1) year for criminal offenses committed intentionally; and,
 - 1.2. if less than five (5) years have elapsed between the date of release or termination of the previous punishment and the commission of the new criminal offense.
2. The court may impose a more severe punishment by adding no more than an additional half of the maximum punishment to the punishment for the recidivist.
3. When determining whether to impose a more severe punishment, the court shall consider, in particular, the entering of a guilty plea, the similarity between the criminal offenses committed the motives for which they were committed, the circumstances in which they were committed and also the need to impose such a punishment to fulfill the purpose of the punishment.
4. This Article shall not apply to the punishment of life long imprisonment.

Article 80
Punishment of concurrent criminal offenses

1. If a perpetrator, by one or more acts, commits several criminal offenses for which he or she is tried at the same time, the court shall first pronounce the punishment for each act and then impose an aggregate punishment for all of these acts.
2. The court shall impose an aggregate punishment in accordance with these rules:
 - 2.1. if the court has imposed a punishment of life long imprisonment for one of the criminal offenses, it shall impose this punishment only;
 - 2.2. if the court has imposed a punishment of imprisonment for each criminal offense, the aggregate punishment must be higher than each individual punishment but the aggregate punishment may not be as high as the sum of all prescribed punishments nor may it exceed a period of twenty five (25) years;

- 2.3. if the court has imposed a punishment of imprisonment of up to three (3) years for each criminal offense, the aggregate punishment of imprisonment may not exceed eight (8) years;
- 2.4. if the court has imposed a punishment of a fine for each criminal offense, the aggregate punishment of a fine is the total sum of all fines but it may not exceed the amount of twenty five thousand (25,000) EUR or, when one or more criminal offenses are committed with the intent to obtain a material benefit, the amount of five hundred thousand (500,000) EUR;
- 2.5. if the court has imposed a punishment of imprisonment for some criminal offenses, while for others it has pronounced a punishment of a fine, the court will impose an aggregate punishment of a fine and imprisonment, in accordance with sub-paragraphs 2.1 to 2.4 of this paragraph.
3. The court shall impose an accessory punishment if it has been pronounced for at least one of the criminal offenses, in accordance with sub-paragraph 2.4 of paragraph 2 of this Article.

Article 81
Punishment of criminal offense in continuation

1. Criminal offense in continuation is constituted of several same or similar offenses committed in a certain time period by the same perpetrator, and that are considered as a whole due to the existence of at least two (2) of the following conditions:
- 1.1. the same victim of the criminal offense;
 - 1.2. the same object of the offense;
 - 1.3. the taking advantage of the same situation or the same time relationship;
 - 1.4. the same place or space of commission of the criminal offense; or
 - 1.5. the same intent of the perpetrator.
2. Criminal offenses perpetrated against personality may be considered as criminal offenses in continuation only if they are committed against the same person.
3. Criminal offenses in continuation which, due to their nature cannot be joined in one offense, shall not be considered criminal offenses in continuation.
4. If the criminal offense in continuation includes both grievous and light form of the same offense, it is considered that the criminal offense in continuation has been committed in grave form.

5. If the criminal offense in continuation involves an element of a sum of money, the criminal offense in continuation shall be determined by the overall sum of all the individual offenses.

6. A criminal offense that was not included in the criminal offense in continuation with the final judgment of the court, but was discovered later, is considered as a separate criminal offense.

Article 82

Calculating punishment of convicted persons

1. If a convicted person is tried for a criminal offense he or she committed before serving a punishment imposed under an earlier conviction, or for a criminal offense committed while serving a punishment of imprisonment, the court shall impose an aggregate punishment (Article 80 of this Code), taking into consideration the previously imposed punishment. The punishment or part of the punishment which the convicted person has already served shall be included in the aggregate punishment.

2. For a criminal offense committed while serving a punishment of imprisonment, the court shall determine the punishment of the perpetrator independently of the previously imposed punishment if the application of the provisions of Article 80 of this Code would lead to a failure to achieve the aims of punishment considering the duration of the un-served portion of the previously imposed punishment.

Article 83

Calculating detention and previous punishment

1. Time served in detention, house arrest as well as any period of deprivation of liberty related to the criminal offense shall be included in the punishment of imprisonment and of a fine.

2. A punishment of imprisonment or of a fine for a minor offense or an economic offense which was served or paid by the convicted person shall be included in the punishment for a criminal offense whose elements include the elements of the minor offense or the economic violation.

3. A protective measure which has been imposed for a minor offense or an economic offense shall be included in the accessory punishment for a criminal offense whose elements include the elements of the minor offense or the economic violation.

4. One (1) day of detention, one (1) day of deprivation of liberty, one (1) day of imprisonment, and a fine of twenty (20) EUR are equal for the purposes of calculation under this Article.

Article 84
Calculating detention and punishments served in other jurisdictions

The detention, deprivation of liberty during proceedings to transfer a person to another jurisdiction and the portion of a punishment served by the perpetrator pursuant to a judgment of a foreign court shall be calculated toward the punishment imposed by a court in the Republic of Kosovo for that same act or, if the punishment imposed outside of the Republic of Kosovo is not of the same character, the court shall calculate the punishment in a way it deems appropriate.

CHAPTER IV
JUDICIAL ADMONITION

Article 85
Purpose of judicial admonition

The purpose of a judicial admonition is to give a perpetrator a reprimand when, considering all the circumstances regarding the offense and the perpetrator, a judicial admonition is sufficient to achieve the purpose of a punishment.

Article 86
Judicial admonition

1. A perpetrator subject to a judicial admonition shall be informed that he or she has committed a harmful and dangerous act which constitutes a criminal offense and that if he or she commits such an act again, the court will impose a more severe criminal sanction.
2. A judicial admonition may be imposed for criminal offenses which are punishable by imprisonment of up to one (1) year or by a fine, when such offenses are committed under mitigating circumstances which render the offenses particularly minor.
3. A judicial admonition may also be imposed for certain criminal offenses punishable by imprisonment of up to three (3) years under the conditions provided for by law.
4. The court may impose a judicial admonition for more than one criminal offense committed concurrently, when each of the criminal offenses meet the conditions provided for in paragraph 2 or 3 of this Article.
5. When determining whether to impose a judicial admonition, the court shall consider, in particular, the purpose of a judicial admonition, the perpetrator's past conduct, his or her behavior after the commission of the criminal offense, the degree of criminal liability, other circumstances surrounding the criminal offense and the voluntary participation of the perpetrator in a treatment program.

CHAPTER V MEASURES OF MANDATORY TREATMENT

Article 87 General principles

1. A perpetrator with a mental disorder, or a person who is being treated as such, shall be treated with humanity and respect for the inherent dignity of the human person.
2. International standards applicable to persons with a mental disorder shall apply to a perpetrator with a mental disorder to the fullest extent possible, with only limited modifications and exceptions that are necessary in the circumstances.
3. A measure of mandatory psychiatric treatment shall not be ordered when it is disproportionate to the gravity of the acts committed, the acts expected to be committed by the perpetrator and the degree of danger that the perpetrator poses.

Article 88 Applicable measures and criminal sanctions

1. The measures of mandatory treatments that may be imposed on a perpetrator who is not criminally liable, has substantially diminished mental capacity or is addicted to drugs or alcohol are:
 - 1.1. mandatory psychiatric treatment and custody in a health care institution;
 - 1.2. mandatory psychiatric treatment at liberty; and
 - 1.3. mandatory rehabilitation treatment of persons addicted to drugs or alcohol.
2. A criminal sanction, in accordance with this Code, may also be imposed on a perpetrator who has committed a criminal offense in a state of diminished mental capacity, if the grounds for imposing such a criminal sanction exist.

Article 89

Mandatory psychiatric treatment in custody in a health care institution

1. The court may impose a measure of mandatory psychiatric treatment in custody in a health care institution on a perpetrator who has committed a criminal offense while in a state of mental incompetence or substantially diminished mental capacity, if it determines that:

1.1. the perpetrator committed an offense punishable by imprisonment of at least three (3) years;

1.2. there is a serious danger that the perpetrator will commit another criminal offense;

1.3. the mandatory psychiatric treatment in custody is necessary to avoid the commission of another criminal offense;

1.4. the perpetrator is unable to stand trial; and

1.5. the mandatory psychiatric treatment in custody is necessary to avoid a serious danger.

2. The court shall suspend the measure of mandatory psychiatric treatment provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article upon verification that the need for the treatment in a health care institution has ceased.

3. The time spent in a health care institution will count towards the term of the imposed punishment for the mandatory psychiatric treatment for the perpetrator who commits a criminal offense in a state of substantially diminished mental capacity and who was punished by imprisonment. If the time in custody for mandatory psychiatric treatment is less than the sentence of imprisonment, the court may order that the perpetrator be sent to prison to serve the remainder of the sentence or the court may order conditional release.

4. When considering conditional release under paragraph 3 of this Article, the court, in addition to the conditions set forth in Article 94 of this Code, shall give special consideration to the success of the mandatory treatment of the perpetrator, his or her health, the time spent in the health care institution and the length of the sentence that has not been served.

Article 90

Mandatory psychiatric treatment at liberty

1. The court may impose a measure of mandatory psychiatric treatment at liberty on a perpetrator who has committed a criminal offense while in a state of mental incompetence or substantially diminished mental capacity, if it determines that:

- 1.1. there is a serious danger that the perpetrator will commit a criminal offense;
 - 1.2. the mandatory psychiatric treatment at liberty is necessary to avoid the commission of another criminal offense; and
 - 1.3. mandatory psychiatric treatment at liberty is sufficient to avoid serious danger.
2. The measures of mandatory psychiatric treatment at liberty from paragraph 1 of this Article may be imposed on a perpetrator upon whom a measure of mandatory psychiatric treatment in custody in a health care institution was imposed when the court verifies that the custody in the health care institution is no longer necessary and the measures of mandatory psychiatric treatment at liberty are sufficient to address the considerations set forth in sub-paragraphs 1.1 to 1.3 of paragraph 1 of this Article.
3. Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph 1 of this Article, the court may impose mandatory psychiatric treatment at liberty on a perpetrator whose mental capacity is substantially diminished and who is on conditional release as provided for in Article 94 of this Code.
4. The mandatory psychiatric treatment at liberty may not exceed three (3) years if it imposed on a perpetrator who has substantially diminished mental capacity.
5. The court may impose mandatory psychiatric treatment in custody in a health care institution:
- 5.1. when the perpetrator fails to undergo the mandatory psychiatric treatment at liberty as set forth in paragraphs 1 to 3 of this Article;
 - 5.2. when the perpetrator abandons the mandatory psychiatric treatment at liberty; or
 - 5.3. when, in spite of the mandatory psychiatric treatment in custody in a health care institution, there is a serious danger that the perpetrator will again commit a criminal offense.

Article 91

Mandatory rehabilitation treatment of persons addicted to drugs or alcohol

1. The court may order a measure of mandatory rehabilitation treatment in a health care institution for any perpetrator who has committed a criminal offense under the influence of drugs or alcohol if both of the following conditions are met:
 - 1.1. the court has imposed a punishment, a judicial admonition or a waiver of punishment on the perpetrator; and

- 1.2. the court determines that the primary factor motivating the criminal offense was related to perpetrator's addiction to drugs or alcohol and there are prospects for successful treatment.
2. If the measure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article is imposed in addition to the punishment of a fine, a judicial admonition or a waiver of punishment, the court may, with the consent of the perpetrator, decide that such measure be executed at liberty. If the perpetrator fails to undergo the treatment at liberty without a justifiable cause or if he or she arbitrarily quits the treatment, the court may order that the treatment be executed in a health care institution.
3. If the measure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article is imposed in addition to the punishment of a fine, a judicial admonition, or a waiver of punishment, the treatment may not last for more than two (2) years.
4. If the measure referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article is imposed in addition to the punishment of imprisonment, it may last until the punishment is served. The time spent in the health care institution shall be calculated towards the imposed punishment.
5. The court must examine the execution of this measure every two (2) months to determine whether it is necessary to continue the measure.

CHAPTER VI GENERAL PROVISIONS ON THE EXECUTION OF PUNISHMENTS AND CONDITIONAL RELEASE

Article 92

Execution of punishments of imprisonment and life long imprisonment

1. The punishment of imprisonment or life long imprisonment shall be served in confined, semi-confined or open correctional facilities or units of correctional facilities.
2. The punishment of life long imprisonment shall commence in confined correctional facilities or units of correctional facilities.
3. During the execution of a punishment, the convicted person shall not be subjected to inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, including unnecessary mental and physical exertion or the deprivation of adequate medical treatment or other basic necessities.

Article 93
Limitation on restriction of rights of convicted persons

1. The rights of a convicted person shall always be respected during the execution of a punishment.
2. The rights of a convicted person may only be limited to the extent necessary and in compliance with the law and international human rights standards.

Article 94
Conditional release

1. A convicted person may be granted conditional release in accordance with this Code and the Law on the Execution of Penal Sanctions if there are reasonable grounds to expect that he or she will not commit a new criminal offense. The conduct of the convicted person while serving his or her punishment shall be taken into consideration when deciding whether or not conditional release is granted.
2. A person convicted of a criminal offence for which a punishment of at least five (5) years imprisonment has been provided, may be granted conditional release after serving two-thirds (2/3) of the imposed sentence. For other criminal offences, the convicted person may be granted conditional release after having served half of the imposed sentence.
3. A convicted person who has served forty (40) years of a sentence of life long imprisonment may be granted conditional release on the condition that he or she does not commit another criminal offense. The minimum period of supervision by the Probation Service shall be at least five (5) years.
4. Conditional release shall be decided by the Conditional Release Panel established by Kosovo Judicial Council in accordance with the Law on the Execution of Penal Sanctions.

Article 95
Revocation of conditional release

1. The court shall revoke conditional release if a convicted person, while on conditional release, commits one or more criminal offenses for which a punishment of imprisonment of more than one (1) year was imposed.
2. The court may revoke conditional release if a convicted person, while on conditional release, commits one or more criminal offenses for which a punishment of imprisonment of up to one (1) year was imposed. In determining whether to revoke conditional release, the court shall consider, in particular, the similarity of criminal offenses committed, the motives for committing the criminal offenses and other circumstances that indicate the appropriateness of revoking conditional release.

3. When the court revokes conditional release, it shall impose a punishment on the basis of the provisions from Articles 80 and paragraph 2 of Article 82 of this Code, treating the previously imposed punishment as determined. The portion of the previously imposed punishment which has been served by the convicted person following the previous sentence shall be calculated in the new punishment, whereas the time on conditional release shall not be calculated. The court judgment shall state that conditional release has been revoked. The court shall send a copy of the judgment to the Conditional Release Panel.

4. The provisions of paragraphs 1 to 3 of this Article shall apply also when a convicted person released on conditional release is punished for a criminal offense committed prior to his or her release on conditional release.

5. If the convicted person released on conditional release is sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one (1) year and if the court does not order the revocation of conditional release, the term of the release on conditional release shall be extended for the period of time the convicted person spent serving such sentence of imprisonment.

CHAPTER VII CONFISCATION OF MATERIAL BENEFITS ACQUIRED BY THE COMMISSION OF CRIMINAL OFFENSES

Article 96 Grounds for confiscating material benefits

1. No person may retain a material benefit acquired by the criminal offense.
2. The material benefit provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be confiscated by the court establishing the criminal offense, according to the terms provided for by law.

Article 97 Conditions and means of confiscating material benefits

1. Material benefits shall be confiscated from the perpetrator or when confiscation is not possible, the perpetrator shall be obliged to pay an amount of money corresponding to the material benefit acquired.
2. Material Benefits may be confiscated from the person to whom it has been transferred without compensation or with compensation that does not correspond to the real value, if such person knew or should have known that the material benefit was acquired by the commission of a criminal offense. When the material benefit has been transferred to a member of the family the benefits shall be confiscated from the member of the family unless such member of the family proves that he or she gave compensation for the entire value.

Article 98
Protection of injured parties

1. If property damages have been awarded to an injured party in criminal proceedings, the court shall order confiscation of the material benefit if it exceeds the amount of the property damages awarded to the injured party.

2. An injured party who, in the course of criminal proceedings has been instructed to initiate civil litigation with respect to his or her property claim, can request compensation from the confiscated material benefit. The injured party seeking compensation from the confiscated material benefit must commence civil litigation within six (6) months from the day of the final decision instructing him or her to initiate civil litigation and within three (3) months from the day of the final court decision establishing his or her property claim.

3. An injured party who fails to report a property claim during the course of criminal proceedings may demand compensation from the confiscated material benefit if he or she has initiated civil litigation within three (3) months from the day when he or she found out about the judgment confiscating the material benefit and no longer than two (2) years from the day the judgment on the confiscation of the material benefit became final and if he or she demanded compensation from the confiscated material benefit within three (3) months from the day when the decision establishing his or her property claim became final.

Article 99
Confiscating material benefits from legal persons

When a business organization or legal person has acquired a material benefit by the commission of a criminal offense of a perpetrator, such material benefit shall be confiscated from the business organization or the legal person.

CHAPTER VIII
LEGAL CONSEQUENCES OF PUNISHMENT

Article 100
Creation of the legal consequences of the punishment

1. Legal consequences of punishment may be foreseen only by law.
2. Legal consequences of the punishment cannot be created where a fine, suspended sentence or judicial admonition is imposed on the perpetrator or when the perpetrator is exempt from punishment.
3. Punishments for certain criminal offenses may have as a consequence cessation, loss of certain rights or prohibition of acquiring certain rights.

Article 101
Commencement and duration of legal consequences of the punishment

1. Legal consequences of the punishment commence on the day when the court judgment becomes final.
2. Legal consequences of the punishment that are composed of the prohibition of acquiring certain rights may not be extended for more than ten (10) years from the day when the punishment was served, pardoned, or where the statute of limitation has elapsed, if for certain legal consequences the law does not prescribe shorter duration.
3. When the punishment is expunged the legal consequences of the punishment cease to exist.

CHAPTER IX
REHABILITATION AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION FROM CRIMINAL RECORDS

Article 102
Legal status of convicted persons after service, waiver or prescription

1. After a punishment of imprisonment has been served, subject to pardon or prescribed by statutory limitation, a convicted person who has made restitution shall exercise and acquire all the rights provided for in the Constitution and law unless otherwise provided in this Code.

2. This Article shall also apply to a convicted person released on conditional release.

Article 103
Legal rehabilitation

1. Upon legal rehabilitation, a punishment shall be expunged from the record of a first time convicted person as provided in paragraph 2 of this Article and such person shall not be considered convicted.

2. A punishment shall be expunged from the record of the first time convicted person upon the expiry of the following periods of time, by operation of law, if the convicted person does not commit a new criminal offense within this period:

2.1. one (1) year from the day the judgment becomes final, in the case of a judicial admonition or a waiver of punishment;

2.2. one (1) year from the day the verification period expires, in the case of a suspended sentence;

2.3. one (1) year from the day a punishment is served, prescribed by statutory limitation or terminated by a pardon or a change in the law, in the case of a punishment of semi-liberty;

2.4. three (3) years from the day a punishment is served, prescribed by statutory limitation or terminated by a pardon or a change in the law, in the case of a punishment of imprisonment of up to one (1) year, a punishment of a fine or an accessory punishment;

2.5. five (5) years from the day a punishment is served, prescribed by statutory limitation or terminated by a pardon or a change in the law, in the case of a punishment of imprisonment of one (1) to three (3) years;

2.6. eight (8) years from the day a punishment is served, prescribed by statutory limitation or terminated by a pardon or a change in the law, in the case of a punishment of imprisonment of three (3) to five (5) years;

2.7. ten (10) years from the day a punishment is served, prescribed by statutory limitation or terminated by a pardon or a change in the law, in the case of a punishment of imprisonment of five (5) to ten (10) years;

2.8. fifteen (15) years from the day a punishment is served, prescribed by statutory limitation or terminated by pardon or a change in the law, in the case of a punishment of imprisonment of ten (10) to fifteen (15) years;

3. A punishment of imprisonment of more than fifteen (15) years or life long imprisonment shall not be expunged.

4. A punishment shall not be expunged during the duration of accessory punishments and measures of mandatory treatment.

Article 104 Judicial rehabilitation

The court may, upon the request of the convicted person, decide to expunge a punishment from its records and consider the person not convicted if one-half of the relevant period of time provided for in paragraph 2 of Article 103 of this Code has elapsed and if the convicted person has not committed a new criminal offense during that time. When deciding to expunge a punishment, prescribed by statutory limitation or terminated by pardon or a change in the Criminal Code, the court shall consider the conduct of the convicted person after serving the punishment, the nature of the criminal offense and other circumstances that may be important for evaluating the appropriateness of expunging the punishment.

Article 105 The content and disclosure of information from criminal records

1. A criminal record shall contain the following information: personal data on the perpetrator of a criminal offense; information on the punishment, judicial admonition, measure of mandatory treatment or waiver of punishment imposed on the perpetrator; changes in information on convictions that were entered in the criminal record; and, information on sentences served and on the expunging of wrongful convictions.

2. Information contained in a criminal record may be disclosed only with respect to convictions that have not been expunged and may be disclosed to the court, the prosecutor and the police in connection with criminal proceedings conducted against the person who had previously been convicted; to competent authorities in charge of the execution of criminal sanctions; and, to competent authorities involved in the procedure of granting pardon or expunging of sentences.

3. The data from the criminal record may be revealed to public entities upon a justified request provided that the accessory punishment or mandatory treatment is in force at the time of the request.

4. In cases where a conviction has been expunged, information on the conviction may only be revealed to the court, the prosecutor and the police in relation to criminal proceedings conducted against a person whose previous conviction has been expunged.

5. Any person, upon request, may obtain information on his or her criminal record when this information is necessary except where this would jeopardize national security or public safety or the prevention, investigation, detection and prosecution of criminal offenses.

CHAPTER X STATUTORY LIMITATION

Article 106 Statutory limitation on criminal prosecution

1. Unless otherwise expressly provided by this Code, the criminal prosecution may not be initiated after the following periods have elapsed.

1.1. thirty (30) years from the commission of a criminal offense punishable by life long imprisonment;

1.2. twenty (20) years from the commission of a criminal offense punishable by imprisonment of more than ten (10) years;

1.3. ten (10) years from the commission of a criminal offense punishable by imprisonment of more than five (5) years;

1.4. five (5) years from the commission of a criminal offense punishable by imprisonment of more than three (3) years.

1.5. three (3) years from the commission of a criminal offense punishable by imprisonment of more than one (1) year; and

1.6. two (2) years from the commission of a criminal offense punishable by imprisonment up to one (1) year or punishment of a fine.

2. When the law provides for more than one punishment for a criminal offense, the period of limitation shall be determined according to the most serious punishment.

Article 107 Commencement and stay of statutory limitation on criminal prosecution

1. The period of statutory limitation on criminal prosecution commences on the day when the criminal offense was committed. If a result constituting an element of the offense occurs later, the period of limitation shall commence to run from that time.

2. In the case of an offense committed against a person under the age of eighteen (18), the limitation period shall commence to run on the day the victim reaches the age of eighteen (18) years.

3. The period of statutory limitation shall not run for any time during which prosecution cannot be initiated or continued by law, including, but not limited to the following circumstances:

3.1. when the perpetrator is outside of the Republic of Kosovo and this causes a delay of proceedings;

3.2. when the perpetrator is wanted by arrest warrant;

3.3. when the Chief State Prosecutor, in accordance with the Code of Criminal Procedure, seeks to obtain evidence from outside of the Republic of Kosovo; or

3.4. during the guilty plea procedure.

4. The period of statutory limitation shall not be tolled if the offense is not prosecuted because of the absence of a request or authorization to prosecute or a request to prosecute by a foreign state.

5. The period of statutory limitation is interrupted by every act undertaken for the purpose of criminal prosecution of the criminal offense committed.

6. The period of statutory limitation is also interrupted if the perpetrator commits another criminal offense of equal or greater gravity than the previous criminal offense prior to the expiry of the period of statutory limitation.

7. A new period of statutory limitation will commence after each interruption.

8. Criminal prosecution shall be prohibited in every case when twice the period of statutory limitation has elapsed.

Article 108 Statutory limitation on the execution of punishments

1. Unless otherwise provided for by this Code, the imposed punishment cannot be executed after the following periods have elapsed:

1.1. thirty (30) years from a sentence of life long imprisonment;

1.2. twenty (20) years from a sentence of imprisonment of more than ten (10) years;

- 1.3. ten (10) years from a sentence of imprisonment of more than five (5) years;
 - 1.4. five (5) years from a sentence of imprisonment of more than three (3) years;
 - 1.5. three (3) years from a sentence of imprisonment of more than one (1) year;
and
 - 1.6. two (2) years from a sentence of imprisonment up to one (1) year or punishment of a fine.
2. The statutory limitations on the execution of punishments shall be tolled when the convicted person fails to appear for or fails to surrender to serve a sentence of imprisonment.

Article 109

Statutory limitation on the execution of accessory punishments and of measures of mandatory treatment

1. The execution of other accessory punishments shall be prohibited after five (5) years from the day when the judgment imposing this punishment becomes final.
2. The execution of a measure of mandatory treatment shall be prohibited after three (3) years from the day when the judgment imposing this measure becomes final.
3. The statutory limitations on the execution of accessory punishments and the execution of a measure of mandatory treatment shall be tolled when the person fails to comply with court orders pertaining to the accessory punishments and measure of mandatory treatment.

Article 110

Commencement and interruption of periods of statutory limitation on the execution of punishments

1. The period of statutory limitation on the execution of a punishment commences on the day when the judgment becomes final and, in the case of a revocation of an alternative punishment, on the day when the decision on revocation becomes final.
2. The period of statutory limitation does not run for any time during which the execution of the punishment may not be initiated by law.
3. If the punishment is reduced by the act of a pardon or a decision of the court upon extraordinary legal remedy, the time for commencement of statutory limitation is determined according to the new punishment, while the time of calculation of the statutory limitation is based on the original punishment.

4. The period of statutory limitation is interrupted by every act undertaken by a competent authority for the purpose of executing the punishment.
5. A new period of statutory limitation will commence after each interruption.
6. The execution of a punishment shall be prohibited in every case when twice the period of statutory limitation has elapsed
7. The provisions of paragraphs 2 to 5 of this Article shall also apply to the statutory limitations on the execution of accessory punishments and measures of mandatory treatment.

Article 111

Non-applicability of statutory limitation for crimes against international law and aggravated murder

1. No statutory limitation shall apply to the offenses of genocide, war crimes, crimes against humanity, or other criminal offenses to which the statutory limitation cannot be applied under international law.
2. No statutory limitation shall apply to the offense of aggravated murder.

CHAPTER XI PARDON

Article 112 Pardon

1. By means of a pardon and in accordance with the Law on Pardon specifically designated persons listed by name are granted exemption from complete or partial exemption from the execution of a punishment, the substitution of punishment with a less severe punishment or a suspended sentence or the expunging of punishment.
2. A perpetrator cannot be pardoned for any punishment for which the Conditional Release Panel has refused that person conditional release.

Article 113 Effect of pardon on third parties

The granting of pardon shall not affect the rights of third parties which are based upon the punishment or judgment.

CHAPTER XII
APPLICABILITY OF CRIMINAL LAWS OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOSOVO
ACCORDING TO THE PLACE OF THE COMMISSION OF THE CRIMINAL OFFENSE

Article 114
Applicability of criminal laws of the Republic of Kosovo on the territory of the Republic of Kosovo

1. The criminal laws of the Republic of Kosovo apply to any person who commits a criminal offense wholly or partly on the territory of the Republic of Kosovo.
2. The criminal laws of the Republic of Kosovo apply to any person who commits a criminal offense on any means of air or water transport which is registered in the Republic of Kosovo, regardless of the location of the air or water transport at the time the criminal offense was committed.

Article 115
Applicability of criminal laws of the Republic of Kosovo to specific criminal offenses committed outside the territory of the Republic of Kosovo

1. The criminal laws of the Republic of Kosovo apply to any person who commits the following criminal offenses outside the territory of the Republic of Kosovo;
 - 1.1. the criminal offenses provided for in Articles 148-153, 157-160, 164, 165, 166-169, 171, 173-175, 238, 241, 273-280, 293, 294, 302-304, 336 and 337 of this Code: and,
 - 1.2. criminal offenses which on the basis of an international agreement binding on the Republic of Kosovo must be prosecuted even though committed abroad.
2. The criminal laws of the Republic of Kosovo apply to any person who commits a criminal offense provided for in Articles 136-145 of this Code outside the territory of the Republic of Kosovo where such offense constitutes a threat to the security of the Republic of Kosovo or its population, in whole or in part.
3. The criminal laws of Kosovo apply to any person who is a national of the Republic of Kosovo if such person commits a criminal offence outside the territory of the Republic of Kosovo and if this act is also punishable at the place of its commission.
4. Paragraph 1 of this Article shall also apply to any person who, subsequent to the commission of a criminal offence, becomes a resident of the Republic of Kosovo.

Article 116

Applicability of criminal laws of the Republic of Kosovo to foreign person committing criminal offenses outside the territory of the Republic of Kosovo

1. The criminal laws of the Republic of Kosovo apply to any person who is a foreign person if:
 - 1.1. such person has committed a criminal offense outside the territory of the Republic of Kosovo against a national of the Republic of Kosovo even when such a criminal offense is not referred to in Article 115 of this Code;
 - 1.2. this act is also punishable at the place of its commission; and
 - 1.3. the perpetrator is found on the territory of the Republic of Kosovo or has been transferred to the Republic of Kosovo.

Article 117

Special prerequisites for prosecution of criminal offenses committed outside the territory of the Republic of Kosovo

1. In the cases provided for in Article 114 of this Code, if criminal proceedings have commenced but have not been completed in another jurisdiction, criminal proceedings shall be initiated in the Republic of Kosovo only upon the authorization of the Chief State Prosecutor of the Republic of Kosovo.
2. In the cases provided for in Articles 115 and 116 of this Code, criminal proceedings shall not be initiated if:
 - 2.1. the perpetrator has completely served the punishment imposed in another jurisdiction;
 - 2.2. the perpetrator has been acquitted in another jurisdiction by a final court judgment or the punishment was waived or prescribed by statutory limitation; or
 - 2.3. criminal proceedings for that criminal offense in another jurisdiction may only be initiated upon request of the injured party and such request has not been presented.
3. Criminal proceedings pursuant to Article 118 of this Code may be initiated in the Republic of Kosovo only upon the authorization of the Chief State Prosecutor of the Republic of Kosovo.
4. In the cases provided for in Article 114 of this Code the criminal prosecution of a foreign person may be transferred to a foreign jurisdiction on the condition of reciprocity.

Article 118
Special provisions for children

The present Code shall apply to persons under the age of eighteen (18) years to the extent that the applicable law on Juvenile Justice Code does not provide otherwise.

Article 119
Special provisions for legal persons

The criminal offenses for which a legal person may be criminally liable, the criminal liability of a legal person, the criminal sanctions which may be applied to a legal person and special provisions governing criminal procedures applicable to a legal person shall be provided for by this Code or separate law.

Definitions relating to the criminal offenses against sexual integrity

For the purposes of this chapter the following terms shall have this meaning:

1. Term ‘‘Consent’’ means the voluntary agreement of a person who has reached the age of sixteen years to engage in the sexual act in question. No consent is obtained where:
 - 1.1. such person expresses, by word or conduct, a lack of agreement to engage or to continue to engage in the sexual act;
 - 1.2. the agreement is expressed by the words or conduct of a person other than the victim;
 - 1.3. the agreement of the victim was obtained by deception, fear or intimidation, where such means do not involve the use of force, serious threat or exploitation as provided for in paragraph 3 of Article 230 of this Code; or
 - 1.4. such person is incapable of agreeing to the sexual activity because of diminished mental or physical capacity or intoxication by alcohol, drugs or other substances.

2. Nothing in paragraph 1 of this article shall be interpreted as limiting the circumstances in which there is no consent.

3. Term “Sexual act” means penetration however slight of any part of the body of a person with a sexual organ, or the penetration however slight of the anal or genital opening of a person with any object or any other part of the body.

4. Term “Subjecting another person to a sexual act” means the commission of a sexual act on another person by the perpetrator, or inducing another person to commit a sexual act on the perpetrator or a third person or inducing a third person to commit a sexual act on another person.

5. Term “Private parts” means the breasts of a woman, the penis, vagina and/or anus.

6. Term “Touching” means any direct or indirect contact, where there is no penetration, between the body of a person with any part of the body of another person or with an object.

7. Term “Child pornography” means any visual image or visual depiction or representation, including any photograph, film, video, picture or computer generated image or picture, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical or other means, which shows or represents:

7.1. the genitals (vagina, penis or anus) or the pubic area of a child primarily for sexual purposes;

7.2. a real child engaged in actual or simulated sexually explicit conduct;

7.3. a person appearing to be a real child engaged in actual or simulated sexually explicit conduct; or

7.4. realistic images of a non-existent child engaged in actual or simulated sexually explicit conduct.

8. Term “Prostitution” means offering or providing sexual services in exchange for payment, goods or services including, but not limited to, the discharge of an obligation to pay or the provision of goods or services including sexual services gratuitously or at a discount. It is irrelevant whether the payment, goods or services are given or promised to the person engaging in the sexual services or to a third person.

Article 229
Mistake of fact as to age of victim

1. For the purposes of the Chapter, a mistake as to the age of the victim who is under the age of sixteen (16) shall not be a mistake of fact under Article 25 of this Code if the perpetrator was negligent in making such mistake.
