Please supply examples of any relevant cases.

Under D.O.94 the Secretary of Justice shall decide on an application within thirty (30) days after the last date of the interview unless further inquiry is required. If an application is disapproved upon grounds that are established under D.O.94, any pending immigration case against the applicant which was suspended pursuant to Section 13 of D.O.94 shall be automatically reactivated and the applicant may be re-arrested and placed in detention.

Under Section 23 of D.O.94, the refugee status granted to an applicant shall be revoked by the Secretary of Justice if he finds, after investigation, that such status was obtained through willful misrepresentation of material facts.

With regard to extradition of alleged terrorists, the Philippines has existing extradition treaties with Australia, Canada, China, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Republic of Korea, Micronesia, Switzerland, Thailand and the United States.
