

ANGOLA: Expulsions

20 Oct 2009 - Close to 30,000 Angolans recently expelled from the Democratic Republic of the Congo are living in overcrowded reception centres in and around Mama Rosa (in Luvo) and Cuimba, Angola and are in need of shelter, food, medicine and sanitation facilities. The forced returns came in response to the waves of expulsions of large numbers of Congolese from Angola since December 2008.

Map Sources: ESRI, FAO, UNCS.

Reference: UNHCR. Some 30,000 expelled Angolans in "dire" need of assistance. 20 Oct 2009.

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations. Map created on 21 Oct 2009 – www.reliefweb.int