Election commissions shall use the print-spaces allocated in periodicals to explain election (referendum) legislation and answer voters' questions on referendum campaign groups, rules, the schedule of election activities, candidates, registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and the course of the election (referendum) campaign.

Article 21. Representation in Election Commissions

21.1. During elections, a registered candidate, political parties with a registered candidate, or blocs of political parties with a registered candidate during elections may appoint one citizen of the Republic of Azerbaijan with active suffrage as a representative with consultative voting rights to a relevant election commission. Referendum campaign groups may do the same during a referendum.

21.2. Election commission members with consultative voting rights, representing candidates nominated by a political party or bloc of political parties, shall be appointed by the respective political party or bloc of political parties.

21.3. Within 3 days, the relevant election commission shall approve the members with consultative voting right, nominated by the registered candidate, political parties and blocs of political parties that nominated their candidates and referendum campaign groups.

21.4. If political parties or referendum campaign groups merge, all but one of the members with consultative voting rights affiliated with these parties or groups shall be recalled from the election commissions. If a political party or referendum campaign group does not adhere to this requirement, the relevant election commission shall exclude on its own consideration the member with consultative voting rights to be recalled from the commission.

Article 22. Status of an Election Commission Member

22.1. Initiators of establishment of referendum campaign groups, authorized representatives, agents and observers of candidates, registered candidates, as well as political parties and blocs of political parties nominated a candidate, referendum campaign groups, observers, members of election commissions with consultative voting right, persons directly subordinate to candidates and registered candidates, and according to the Family Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan, the kin, wives and wives' kin of the mentioned persons (children, parents, adopted children, brothers, sisters, grandchildren, grandfathers, grandmothers), persons who previously violated the election legislation and were withdrawn from the membership of the commission by a decision of a superior election commission or who committed violations of election legislation, which have been confirmed by a court decision cannot function as a member of election commission with decisive voting right. In the case such a person is appointed to an election commission, and if this case is confirmed by the body that appoints the member of the election commission, the member of the election commission shall be replaced by a substitutive member provided for in Article 19.7 of this Code.

Restrictions regarding close kin in this Article (excepting immediate relatives), shall not apply to members of precinct election commissions established in territories where the number of voters is less than 100 but more than 50, as specified in Article 36.7 of this Code.

Term of office of commission members that was temporarily terminated due to kinship is restored after the official announcement of election results. Term of office of the election commission member appointed as a replacement is limited to the period during which the person who s/he is replacing cannot function.

22.2. A member of one election commission cannot be a member of another election commission at the same time. Except for the cases indicated in Article 36.3 of this Code, a member of an election commission with decisive voting rights may not be in public or municipal service.

22.3. A member of an election commission with decisive voting rights shall be dismissed from his/her position based on the decision of a relevant election commission within a month, or within three days if during preparation/holding of elections, in the following cases:

22.3.1 upon submission of a written application of resignation and the approval of this application by the chairperson of the election commission;

22.3.2 on the grounds provided for Articles 22.1 and 22.2 of this Code.

22.3.3. if he/she is a member of a political party.

22.4 Powers of an election commission member with decisive voting rights shall be immediately terminated in the following cases:

22.4.1. on becoming a candidate for the post of President, deputy of the Milli Majlis or a member of a municipality;

22.4.2. on being elected as members or officials of State bodies and municipalities (except for the members of election commissions specified in Article 36.3 of this Code);

22.4.3. on losing citizenship of the Republic of Azerbaijan, or becoming a citizen of another country;

22.4.4. on the coming into force of a guilty verdict by a court;

22.4.5. on the coming into force of a court decision recognizing the relevant election commission member as incapacitated or with limited capacity, or considering him/her as missing or dead;

22.4.6. on the approval by court decision of the relevant election commission's decision of the election commission members' non-fulfillment of his/her duties on regular basis or violation of the provisions of Article 17.6 of this Code; and

22.4.7. on confirmation of violation of election legislation requirements by a corresponding resolution of the court.

22.5. A member of the election commission may neither be dismissed from his/her position, nor have his/her authorities terminated by the body that appointed him/her, except in the cases established in Articles 22.3 and 22.4 of this Code.

22.6. A new member shall be appointed in place of the member with decisive voting rights who has left the election commission in the cases mentioned in Articles 22.3 and 22.4 of this Code, by the body that had appointed the previous member. A new member shall be appointed at the latest within 30 days after the day of resignation of the out-going member, and within 10 days if during preparation/holding of elections.

22.7. Regardless of their status, commission members shall bear liability for violation of the requirements of the present Code, as established for officials by the Criminal Code or Code of Administrative Offences of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

22.8. The members of election commissions with decisive voting rights, specified in Article 36.3 of this Code, occupying municipal positions, as well as working in organizations, departments and institutions funded by the State budget, cannot be appointed to another position or dismissed by an employer without their own consent during their involvement in the commission.

22.9. A member of an election commission with consultative voting rights shall have the same rights as a member of election commission with decisive voting rights, excluding the right to issue ballots and de-registration cards for voting, to count ballots, to cancel ballots and de-registration cards, to draw up protocols on Returns and results of voting, to vote during decisions on issues concerning authorities of the election commission and to sign decisions of the relevant election commission.

CHAPTER Five.

Election (Referendum) Constituencies and Constituency Election Commissions

Article 29. Election (Referendum) Constituencies

29.1. In order to hold elections, the Central Election Commission shall form 125 election (referendum) constituencies (hereinafter election constituencies) every 5 years, based on information on the number of voters permanently residing and registered in the relevant territorial units, provided by the municipalities in conjunction with the relevant executive bodies. Election constituencies shall, as a rule, be formed on the basis of the of average voter representation norm. The average voter representation norm is determined by dividing the total number of registered voters in the country by 125. Election constituencies shall be considered single-mandate constituencies during the elections of deputies of the Milli Majlis, and considered as election territories during the Presidential and Municipal Elections and referendums.

29.2. Voters residing outside the Republic of Azerbaijan shall be included in the voters' lists of election constituencies. Information on the number of voters permanently residing outside the Republic of Azerbaijan, or on long-term missions abroad and registered with the relevant diplomatic representations and consulates of The Republic of Azerbaijan, shall be submitted to the Central Election Commission by a relevant executive power body. Based on this information, the Central Election Commission shall approve a list of the relevant election constituencies for inclusion of the voters residing outside the country on the voter lists during referendums and Presidential elections. The number of voters in election constituencies where the voters residing outside the Republic of Azerbaijan are included on the lists should be less than the of average voter representation norm.

29.3. Election constituencies shall be formed in observation of the following requirements:

29.3.1. As a rule, the number of registered voters should be approximately equal among the election constituencies within the boundaries of the administrative-territorial units of the Republic of Azerbaijan, but no more than 10% higher/lower than the average representation norm in distant or impassible places and no more than 5% higher than the average representation norm elsewhere;

29.3.2. The formation of election constituencies in administrative-territorial units that do not share borders shall be prohibited.

29.3.3. Determining (or changing) the boundaries of election constituencies with the intended purpose of creating a majority of any group of voters shall not be allowed.

29.4. While observing of the requirements for formation of election constituencies indicated in Articles 29.2 and 29.3 of this Code, the necessity of non-intersection of the boundaries of municipalities should be taken into consideration. During municipal elections, when it is not possible to observe Article 29.1 of this Code regarding the number of voters residing in the territory of a municipality, the Central Election Commission shall settle the case by precisely defining the boundaries of each election constituency. If the remainder obtained through division of the amount of voters residing in the territory of the municipality (municipalities) into the average representation norm is more than the percentages indicated in Article 29.3.1 of this Code as a result of establishment of more than one constituencies in the territory of the relevant municipality or inclusion of more than one municipality in the same constituency, the Central Election Commission may not act upon Article 29.1 of this Code while creating the constituency. In this case, the Central Election Commission shall ground its decision by specifying the reasons why it was not possible to follow Article 29.1 of this Code in the decision on formation of the election constituency.

29.5. The Central Election Commission should approve the scheme of formation of election constituencies and their maps on the basis of information on voters, every 5 years within 30 days after the Integrated Voters' List is compiled. During this period, the scheme of formation of election constituencies and their maps can be re-approved, taking into consideration the requirements provided for in Articles 29.3 and 46 of this Code.

29.6. The scheme of formation of election constituencies and their maps, as well as proposals on boundaries of election constituencies shall be prepared by a commission on determining the boundaries of election constituencies created under the Central Election Commission and consisting of specialists. The work of such a commission shall be supervised by the Deputy Chairman of the Central Election Commission and he/she shall be considered the chairperson of the commission, due to his/her post. Meetings of the Commission on Determining the Boundaries of Election Constituencies shall be held no later than two months after the annual update of the Integrated Voters' List. The main object of such commission shall be ensuring the compliance of the election commissions with Articles 29.3 and 29.7 of this Code. Only 1/3 of the members of such commissions may be involved in civil service. If election constituencies are formed immediately before the holding elections (referendum), the scheme of formation of election constituencies and their maps should be approved at least 55 days before election (referendum) day and published at least 50 days before election (referendum) day.

29.7. The following should be indicated in the scheme of formation of election constituencies:

29.7.1. the name and number of each election constituency;

29.7.2. the list of municipalities of administrative-territorial units, or towns, districts, districts in towns located in every election constituency (if an election constituency includes a part of an administrative-territorial unit, municipality, or settlement, the boundaries of that part of the administrative-territorial unit, municipality, and settlement should be outlined in the scheme. If one election constituency is formed in one administrative-territorial unit, a list of municipalities located in the election constituency shall not be included in the scheme for formation of election constituency);

29.7.3. the center of each election constituency;

29.7.4. the number of voters registered in each election constituency and, in the case more than one election constituency is formed in an administrative-territorial unit, the number of voters registered in each municipality included in an election constituency;

29.7.5. in accordance with Article 29.2 of this Code, the number of voters in the relevant election constituency residing outside the boundaries of the Republic of Azerbaijan, as well as an indication of the foreign countries of residence of such voters.

29.8. The State (Computerized) Information System can be used during the formation of election constituencies and determination of their scheme of formation.

29.9. A unified election constituency, formed for Presidential Elections of the Republic of Azerbaijan and for conduct of a referendum, shall cover the whole territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan;

29.10. According to Article 46 of this Code, voters included on the Voters List in a constituency shall also be considered as voters included on the Voters List in the unified election constituency.

Article 30. Organization of Constituency Election Commissions

30.1. If election constituencies are organized directly before elections (referendum), they should be formed at least 50 days prior to Voting Day.

30.2. A Constituency Election Commission shall consist of 9 members. Members of the Constituency Election Commission are appointed by the Central Election Commission.

30.3. Three members of a Constituency Election Commission shall be nominated by the members of the Central Election Commission representing the political party of which the deputies constitute the majority in the Milli Majlis. Other three members of a Constituency Election Commission shall be nominated by the members of the Central Election Commission representing the political parties of which the deputies constitute the minority in the Milli Majlis, and other three members shall be nominated by the members of the Central Election Commission representing the non-partisan deputies of the Milli Majlis. Candidates for membership of the Constituency Election Commission may be presented by local branches of the relevant political parties to members of the Central Election Commission representing political parties. 2 of the candidates to the Constituency Election Commission nominated by members of the Central Election Commission representing the non-partisan deputies, may be agreed to in the following way: 1 candidate with the members of the Central Election Commission representing the political party of which the deputies constitute the majority in the Milli Majlis, and another candidate with the members of the Central Election Commission representing the political parties of which the deputies constitute a minority in the Milli Majlis.

30.4. Members of election constituency shall receive an appropriate card from the Central Election Commission.

Article 31. Duties of Constituency Election Commissions

31.1. The Constituency Election Commission shall perform the following general duties:

31.1.1. supervise observation of suffrage of citizens of the Republic of Azerbaijan in the territory of the election constituency;

31.1.2. consider, within its own authority, complaints related to the violation of rules set forth in this Code, and make grounded decisions;

31.1.3. create proper conditions for the pre-election activities of candidates, registered candidates, political parties, and blocs of political parties in the territory of the election constituency, as well as conditions for pre-referendum activities of referendum campaign groups;

CHAPTER SIX.

Election (Referendum) Precincts and Precinct Election Commissions

Article 35. Establishment of Election (Referendum) Precincts

35.1. Taking into account the number of registered voters within the territories of municipalities, election (referendum) precincts (hereafter referred to as election precincts) shall be formed every 5 years with the purpose of conducting voting and of counting votes. Separate election precincts may be formed before the expiration of the above-mentioned period, for the purpose of ensuring observation of the requirements of Article 35.3.1 of this Code.

35.2. Election precincts shall be created by the relevant Constituency Election Commissions, with the agreement of the relevant executive body and municipality, taking into account the necessity of creating the most favorable conditions for voters, as well as local and other circumstances. If election precincts are created directly before the elections (referendum), they should be established at least 50 days prior to Election Day. The boundaries of an election precinct shall be clearly indicated in the decision of the Constituency Election Commission to form the election precinct (if the election precinct covers a part of a settlement, then street names and apartment numbers shall be indicated).

35.3. The following requirements should be followed when creating election precincts:

35.3.1. the number of voters registered within the territory of each election precinct should be, at most, 1500 and, at least, 50;

35.3.2. the borders of the election precincts must not cross the borders of the constituencies.

35.4. Polling stations (precincts) may be created in conformity with the rules defined by the Central Election Commission and within the period defined by Article 35.2 of this Code in the following cases: On oil platforms located in the Azerbaijani sector of the Caspian Sea, ships at sea on Election Day (if more than 50 voters are on), and in facilities where voters are temporarily present (hospitals, sanatoriums and rest homes). But in exceptional cases specified by the Central Election Commission, polling stations may be created at least 5 days prior to Election Day. Such polling stations shall be included in the constituency created where they are situated or, in the case of ships, the territory where the ship is registered. Such voting stations may only be created during referendums and Presidential elections.

35.5. Military servants should vote in general polling stations. Rules on transporting citizens of the Republic of Azerbaijan who are in limited military service are determined by the Central Election Commission. It is allowed to create polling stations in the military units located outside of settlements only in the cases where the number of military servants is over 50 and more than an hour is required to transport the military servants to the general polling station by public transportation. In such circumstances, voting stations shall be created within the period defined by Article 35.2 of this Code. In exceptional cases, such polling stations shall be created by the commanders of the military units, in accordance with the decision of the relevant Constituency Election Commission, at least 5 days prior to Voting Day. Military servants from frontier troops, military servants located in areas of military conflict, and military servants serving under special regime, in the cases established by the Central Election Commission, shall vote in election precincts created within their military units. A decision about military persons serving under the special regime conditions shall be made by the Central Election Commission at least 5 days prior to the voting day. In the election precincts formed in accordance with this Article, conditions shall be created for access to the working rooms of the election commission and to the voting room, pursuant to the rules defined by this Code, for all members of the Precinct Election Commission and superior election commissions, registered candidates and their representatives, authorized representatives of political parties and blocs of political parties and observers.

35.6. Election precincts, which are established for the collection and counting of votes of voters outside the country on Voting Day, shall be created by the heads of diplomatic representations or consulates of the Republic of Azerbaijan at least 30 days prior to Voting Day, in the territories where such voters reside, provided the number of voters registered with the consulate is more than 50. Such polling stations may only be created during referendums and Presidential elections.

35.7. Information on the following should be published by the Constituency Election Commission at least 45 days prior to Voting Day: Precinct Election Commissions and polling Stations, a list indicating the number and borders of polling stations (if a polling station occupies a part of a settlement's territory), a list of settlements (if a polling station covers several settlements) and telephone numbers of the Precinct Election Commission. Information on election precincts established within the period indicated in Articles 35.4. and 35.5. of this Code should be published not later than 2 days after the day they are established.

35.8. Issues with publishing the information mentioned in Articles 35.7 and 109 of this Code in the election precincts established outside of the Republic of Azerbaijan are to be settled by the heads of the relevant diplomatic representations or consulates, taking into account the local circumstances.

Article 36. Formation of Precinct Election Commissions

36.1. Precinct Election Commissions, comprising of 6 members, shall be formed by the relevant Constituency Election Commission.

36.2. 2 members of a Precinct Election Commission shall be nominated by the members of the Constituency Election Commission representing the political party of which the deputies constitute the majority in the Milli Majlis. Another 2 members of a Precinct Election Commission shall be nominated by the members of the Constituency Election Commission representing the political parties of which the deputies constitute the minority in the Milli Majlis. A further 2 members shall be nominated by the members of the Constituency Election Commission representing the non-partisan deputies of the Milli Majlis. Candidates for membership of the Precinct Election Commission may be presented to the Constituency Election Commission members representing political parties by local branches of the relevant political parties, or by voters (voters' initiative groups) to the Constituency Election Commission members representing non-partisan deputies of the Milli Majlis. Candidates should be citizens of the Republic of Azerbaijan, permanently residing within the territory of the relevant election constituency.

36.3. No more than 2 members of the Precinct Election Commission may be in municipal service.

36.4. If Precinct Election Commissions are created directly before the elections (referendum), they should be organized at least 40 days prior to Voting Day.

36.5. Precinct Election Commission members shall obtain cards in accordance with the rules defined by the Central Election Commission.

36.6. Each registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, and voters' initiative group shall have the right to appoint one observer to the Precinct Election Commission from the time the Precinct Election Commission commences its work until the voting results are made official. Such observers shall not be required to be registered in the order specified in Article 40.7 of this Code, and they shall be given appropriate badges indicated in Article 40.7 of this Code".

36.7. Precinct Election Commissions may be formed by open vote at general meetings of voters in the cases provided for in Articles 35.4 and 35.5 of this Code, in election precincts where the number of voters is between 50 and 100, and in impassable places. In such cases, the composition of the Precinct Election Commission may be approved by the Constituency Election Commission.

Article 37. Duties of the Precinct Election Commission

37.1. The Precinct Election Commission shall perform the following duties during preparation and conduct of referendums, elections of deputies to the Milli Majlis, Presidential elections and elections to municipalities:

37.1.1. inform the public on the address of the Precinct Election Commission, its telephone number, working hours, and the date and place of voting;

- by a majority of 3 votes, if attended by 4 members.

39.4. Decisions of the Precinct Election Commission are to be published within 12-hours at the latest.

CHAPTER Seven.

Transparency during Preparation and Conduct of Elections (Referendum)

Article 40. Transparency in the Activity of the Election Commissions

40.1. The activity of election commissions must be transparent for voters.

40.2. Members of election commissions, candidates registered within the relevant constituency and their authorized representatives/agents, agents of referendum campaign groups, and agents of political parties and blocs of political parties shall have the right to:

- observe vote counting and meetings of election commissions;
- familiarize themselves with, and observe the processing of, the ballot papers, voters' lists, de-registration cards for voting, and protocols on results and Returns of the voting in the Precinct and Constituency Election Commissions;
- obtain copies of the decisions of the Constituency and Precinct Election Commissions and other election documents (except for voter lists, de-registration cards for voting, election ballot papers and signature sheets);
- observe implementation of other election activities in election commissions.

40.3. Persons mentioned in Article 40.2 of this Code shall not be required to get additional permission of the election commissions or be registered as observers in order to attend the meetings of the relevant election commissions or become familiarized with the above-mentioned documents. The relevant election commissions shall ensure free access to such persons of the locations where election documents are being processed or votes are being counted.

40.4. Citizens of the Republic of Azerbaijan possessing active suffrage rights and the foreigners mentioned in Article 44 of this Code may act as observers.

40.5. The observer may carry out observation based on his/her own initiative or the initiative of a registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, referendum campaign group or a non-governmental organization working in the field of elections.

40.6. Applications for carrying out observation within the entire territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan may be submitted to the Central Election Commission from the day elections are announced and up to 10 days prior to elections. Applications shall indicate the observer's surname, forename, patronymic, place of residence, and ID card series and number. If necessary, applications shall also indicate the name of the candidate whose interests are being represented, the name of the referendum campaign group or the names and legal addresses of the non-governmental organization, political party or bloc of political parties. Two photos shall be attached to the application. Decisions on each application should be made within 3 days from the date of submission. Applications for observation may be rejected only if the information provided in the application is not confirmed. If conduct of observation is not permitted by the Central Election Commission, a complaint regarding this decision may be filed with the Court of Appeal. In the case the observation is allowed, the observer shall be provided with a badge prepared corresponding to the rules established by the Central Election Commission.

40.7. Applications for carry out observation within the territory of an election constituency may be presented to the relevant Constituency Election Commission from the day elections are announced and up to 5 days prior to elections. Applications shall indicate the observer's surname, forename, patronymic, place of residence, ID card series and number and, if necessary, the name of the referendum campaign group or names and legal addresses of the non-governmental organization, political party or bloc of political parties. Two photos shall be attached to the application. Decisions on each application should be made within 2 days from the date of submission. Applications for observation can be rejected only if the information provided in the application is not confirmed. If conduct of observation is not permitted by the Constituency Election Commission, a complaint regarding this decision may be filed with the Central Election Commission. In the case observation is allowed, the Constituency Election Commission shall provide the observer with a badge prepared corresponding to the rules established by the Central Election Commission.

40.8. Representatives of the mass media shall have the right to participate in election commissions' meetings and in the course of work regarding elections documents and vote counting.

40.9. In accordance with the rules articulated in Article 20.1 of this Code, the relevant election commission shall provide information on the time of processing of election documents and meetings of the election commission to: the superior election commissions, each registered candidate and his/her authorized representative, agents of political parties and blocs of political parties which have registered candidates, agents of referendum campaign groups and observers entitled to be present at commission meetings.

40.10. Representatives of the interested parties shall have the right to be present at the meetings at which elections commissions are investigating the officially submitted complaints.

40.11. In accordance with this Code, the election commissions shall inform the citizens on:

- the biography of each candidate registered in accordance with this Code;
- the results of registration;
- the list of candidates;
- other information received by the election commission about candidates; and
- results of voting regarding the referendum issue or candidates.

40.12. The persons mentioned in Article 40.2 of this Code, as well as observers, international observers and representatives of the mass media, may observe the implementation of election activities, the determining of voting results and election (referendum) returns, the completion of protocols of voting results and election (referendum) returns (overall returns) and the counting and recounting of votes in all election commissions.

40.13. Only the observers who have obtained specific permission by being registered with the Central Election Commission, in accordance with the rules defined by the Central Election Commission for getting this right, shall have the right to observe meetings of the election commission up to Voting Day. This right should be indicated on the badge provided by the Central Election Commission. Such observers shall be identified by the Central Election Commission by means of drawing of lots, with a condition that each of the subjects provided for in Article 40.5 of this Code shall have one observer with such a right (separately for each election commission), and that the number of such observers for each commission shall not exceed 10. No specific permission shall be required to observe a meeting of an election commission on Voting Day.

40.14. Unimpeded access to voting rooms of any of the electoral precincts, including those established in military units, hospitals, sanatoriums, rest homes and oil platforms located in the Caspian Sea, should be ensured for all election commission members, persons mentioned in Article 40.2 of this Code and observers.

40.15. On Voting Day, every authorized person in the polling station, including members of the Precinct Election Commission, persons specified in Article 40.2 of this Code and mass media representatives, should have a badge of a specific form determined by the Central Election Commission to allow for establishing their status, which displays their surname, forename, patronymic, position and picture.

40.16. 42.2.3. to observe the issuance (delivery) of ballot papers to voters;

42.2.4. to observe voting outside of polling stations;

42.2.5. to observe the counting of voters, of ballot papers and of cancelled ballot papers;

42.2.6. to demand inclusion of the observation results in the protocol of the election commission;

42.2.7. to watch, in circumstances ensuring observation and from a certain distance, the counting of votes, marked and unmarked ballot papers, in order to check the vote's validity, and to become familiar with the election commission's protocol on voting results and election (referendum) returns (overall returns) and other documents;

42.2.8. to address suggestions and comments on the organization of voting to the chairperson of the Precinct Election Commission or, in the chairperson's absence, the person who assumes the chairperson's powers;

42.2.9. to become familiar with the voters' list, and to photocopy or obtain, free of charge, 1 copy of an election commission's documents, protocols on voting results and election (referendum) returns and/or documents and attachments prepared by the election commissions. These documents will be made available to observers for the period starting from the moment an election commission commences its activity on Voting Day up to when the ballot boxes are sealed and the protocols on voting results are received by election commissions. Additional copies of such documents may be made for a fee defined by the Central Election Commission (the election commission should verify copies of the above mentioned documents at the request of an observer).

42.2.10. to observe the recount of votes in the relevant election commissions.

42.2.11. to observe the transfer of election documents to the Constituency Election Commission and the Central Election Commission.

42.3. The observer shall be prohibited:

42.3.1. to issue ballot papers to voters;;

42.3.2. from asking voters on how they voted or will vote;

42.3.3. from signing a receipt of a ballot paper on behalf of a voter heart the voter's request;

42.3.4. from marking a ballot paper on behalf of a voter heart the voter's request;

42.3.5. from participating directly in the counting of ballot papers with the commission members with decisive voting rights;

42.3.6. from conducting actions obstructing the work of an election commission;

42.3.7. from carrying out election campaigning directed at voters;

42.3.8. from making actions or calls directed to supporting any of the candidates, political parties or issues of a referendum, or making actions or calls that could be understood as support of a particular candidate or political party;

42.3.9 from intervening in decision making of the relevant election commissions;

42.3.10 from responding to voters' questions (except for questions concerning the observer's status).

42.4. the registration of an observer not complying with the requirements specified in Article 42.3 of this Code may be cancelled by a relevant court upon application of the election commission that registered the observer.

42.5. In the case observers submit their opinion on observation results to the Chairperson of the Central, Constituency or Precinct Election Commission, the opinion shall be attached to the protocol on either voting results or election returns.

Article 43. Representatives of the Mass Media

43.1. Representatives of the mass media may cover meetings of all election commissions, familiarize themselves with election commissions' protocols on voting results and election (referendum) returns, and photocopy or obtain, free of charge, one copy of the relevant election commission's decisions, protocols and attached documents. Additional copies of such documents may be purchased for a fee set by the Central Election Commission.

43.2. Upon request of the representatives of mass media, the copies of decisions of an election commission, protocols on voting results and election returns should be approved by the election commission.

Article 44. International (Foreign) Observers

44.1. International (foreign) observers (hereinafter - international observers) coming to the Republic of Azerbaijan, in accordance with the rules defined by legislation on pertinent invitation, shall be registered with the Central Election Commission. Citizens of the Republic of Azerbaijan shall not obtain the status of international observer.

44.2. Invitations may be sent by the Milli Majlis, appropriate executive authority bodies or the Central Election Commission, after a decision on holding elections has been officially published.

44.3. Influential non-governmental organizations, working in the field of protection of human and citizens' rights and freedoms, may also submit their proposals on inviting international observers to deputies of the Milli Majlis, Central Election Commission or relevant executive authority.

44.4. In order to be registered, international observers should submit the documents specified in Article 40.7 of this Code. The Central Election Commission shall provide a specific identity card, or badge, in the state language or one of the foreign languages in accordance with the documents submitted by him/her. Only the possession of this card allows the international observer to function in accordance with Articles 40-42 of this Code during the preparation and conduct of elections.

44.5. The term of authority of the international observers shall commence on the day of their registration by the Central Election Commission, and expire on the day of the official publication of the returns (overall returns) of the elections (referendum).

44.6. International observers shall function independently and freely; their activity shall be financed by the organization they are assigned by or at their own expense.

44.7. International observers shall be under the protection of the State while within the territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan. Election commissions, state government bodies and municipalities shall be obliged to render the necessary assistance to them.

44.8. After Election Day, international observers may address the mass media and conduct press conferences addressing election legislation, the preparation and conduct of elections.

44.9. International observers shall have the right to meet with voters, candidates, registered candidates, members of election commissions, authorized representatives of political parties, blocs of political parties, referendum campaign groups, agents of registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups.

44.10. The international observers may not use their status for activities not related to the election campaign or the preparation and conduct of elections.

44.11. The Central Election Commission may cancel the registration of an international observer in the case he/she violates laws or international legal norms.

CHAPTER Eight.

Voters' (Citizens Who Have the Right to Participate in Referendum) Lists

Article 45. Integrated Voters' List (List of Citizens Who Have the Right to Participate in Referendum)

45.1. The Integrated Voters' List (List of Citizens Who Have the Right to Participate in Referendum) (hereinafter – the Voters' List) shall be kept by the Central Election Commission.

45.2. In accordance with Article 46.12 of this Code, information for updating of the Voters' List shall be provided annually by Precinct Election Commissions to the Central Election Commission through the Constituency Election Commissions.

45.3. The Integrated Voter List shall be maintained for election precincts, election constituencies and for the Republic of Azerbaijan, and include the information specified in Article 46.10 of this Code.

45.4. Data from the Voters' Lists approved by Precinct Election Commissions, formed in the manner specified in Article 35.8 of this Code, shall not be included in the Integrated Voter List. Such data shall be presented by the Central Election Commission in the manner it determines, and integrated in a temporary Voters' List. These temporary Voters' Lists shall be added to the Integrated Voters' List.

Article 46. Compilation of Voters' Lists

46.1. The permanent Voters' List for a precinct shall be approved by the Precinct Election Commission each year by 30th of May, in accordance with the format defined by the Central Election Commission and be updated at least 25 days prior to Election Day. After this period and until Voting Day (including Voting Day), voters may be included in the Voters' List only by the Precinct Election Commission in accordance with the rule determined by the Central Election Commission. In accordance with Article 101 of this Code, the voting cards of voters who vote with voting cards, shall be attached to the Voters' List. No additions and amendments to Voters' Lists shall be made on Voting Day. Voters' Lists shall not be published in the press. The Voters' List shall be posted on the relevant website of the Central Election Commission (Constituency Election Commission), in conformity with the rules established by the Central Election Commission.

46.2. The document verifying the inclusion of a voter in the Voters' List is the Voter's Card. The following shall be indicated on the Voter's Card: the voter's forename, surname, patronymic, date of birth, place of residence, name of the election constituency he/she is registered in, and the telephone number and address of the election precinct. A sample of the Voter's Card shall be approved by the Central Election Commission and distributed (delivered) to voters by Precinct Election Commissions in the manner determined by the Central Election Commission. An election commission shall provide a citizen with information on his/her inclusion or exclusion in the Voters' List, upon the citizen's request.

46.3. Temporary lists shall be drafted separately, at the level of the relevant election commission, for voters registered in election precincts formed in accordance with Articles 35.4 and 35.6 of this Code, and for voters indicated in Article 45.4 of this Code.

46.4. Permanent voters' lists shall include information provided by heads of the relevant executive authorities and municipalities or commanders of military units, on voters possessing active suffrage rights. Temporary Voters' Lists shall include information provided by heads of consulates or diplomatic representatives, as well as by heads of the facilities where voters are temporarily located, on voters possessing active suffrage rights.

46.5 Voters' lists of the precincts established in distant or impassible places shall be specified by the Precinct Election Commissions on the basis of information on voters provided by heads of the relevant executive authorities and municipality at least 25 days prior to Election Day or, in exceptional circumstances, 2 days after the Precinct Election Commission is formed.

46.6. For the precincts established within the territory of military units, investigative facilities and penitentiary establishments, the list of voters (military servants of military unit, family members of military servants residing within the territory of the military unit, accused persons detained in investigative facilities, inmates in penitentiary establishments and other voters) shall be updated by the Precinct Election Commissions at least 20 days prior to the Election Day, on the basis of information provided by the commanders of military units, investigative facilities and penitentiary establishments .

46.7. Voters' Lists for the precincts where voters are temporarily located (hospitals, sanatoriums, rest homes) and for ships sailing on election day, shall be approved at least 5 days prior to Election Day by the relevant Precinct Election Commission on the basis of information provided by heads of the facilities where the voters are temporarily located or by the captain of the ship, and checked by the Precinct Election Commission.

46.8. Voters' Lists for electoral precincts created outside of the Republic of Azerbaijan shall be approved at least 25 days prior to Election Day by the relevant Precinct Election Commission, on the basis of information provided by heads of the diplomatic representations and consular offices of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

46.9. If no election precinct is created in a military unit, the commander of the military unit, administration of investigative detainees and administration of relevant penitentiary establishment shall collect and specify information on voters in accordance with the rules defined by the Central Election Commission, if no other rule is provided by this Code, and then submit this information to the relevant Precinct Election Commission at least 35 days prior to the Election Day.

46.10. 2 copies of Voter's Lists shall be prepared. Information on voters is to be placed in the Voters' Lists in alphabetical order or another order according to settlements, streets, houses, or apartments. The Voters' Lists shall contain the voter's forename, surname, patronymic, year of birth (the day and month of birth for those who are 18 years old), permanent address (number of the street, building, apartment, or house, or address of the hospital, sanatorium, rest home or other place of temporary residence), and the number of the election precinct.

46.11. The State Computerized Information System may be used for the compilation of voters' list. The voters' lists shall be prepared in a typewritten format. Only in exceptional circumstances defined by the Central Election Commission may the Voters' Lists be written by hand.

46.12. The first copy of the preliminary Voters' List prepared for the precinct shall remain with the Precinct Election Commission and the relevant act is made. The second copy shall be submitted to the Constituency Election Commission no later than the 5th day of February of each year, but at least 25 days prior to Election Day. Each year, the preliminary Voters' Lists for the constituency shall be drafted in two copies no later than the 5th day of March, signed by the chairperson and secretaries of the Constituency Election Commission, certified by the stamp of the election commission, and submitted to the Central Election Commission by the 5th day of April. If the Central Election Commission finds discrepancies in the Voters' Lists, they shall be corrected and \ approved by the Precinct and Constituency Election Commissions by the 25th of May. The Voter's List for the Republic of Azerbaijan shall be drafted by the Central Election Commission using the State Computerized Information System.

46.13. Voter's Lists for the election precincts created in conformity with Articles 35.5 and 35.6 of this Code shall be signed by the chairperson and secretaries of the Precinct Election Commission and certified by the stamp of the commission.

46.14. After updating the Voters' Lists, Precinct Election Commissions shall examine and consider changes made or to be made to the Voter Lists at the request of voters, as well as changes to be made in light of Article 45 of this Code. They shall also examine the changes made or to be made based on documents submitted by officials, municipalities, state civilian registration offices and bodies which register citizens' addresses and places of residence.

46.15. The head of the executive body providing information on voters shall bear responsibility, as defined by legislation, for the accuracy, completeness, and timely submission of the relevant information.

Article 47. Rule for Inclusion in and Exclusion from the Voters' List

47.1. All citizens who have active suffrage rights shall be included in the Voters' Lists.

47.2. A voter may be included in the Voter's List under the relevant precinct on the basis of the voter's permanent place of residence (i.e. the place a voter has resided for at least 6 out of 12 months prior to the announcement of elections) as determined by the body responsible for recording citizens' place of residence or place of stay.

47.3. Military servants residing outside of the military unit shall be included in the Voters' List, on a general basis, by their place of residence. Military servants, family members of military servants, and other voters residing within the territory of the military unit shall be included in the Voters' List, on the basis of their permanent residence or other place where they mostly reside as defined by the body responsible for registering the place of residence or place of stay of citizens of Azerbaijan, or confirmed by the order of the commander of a military unit on inclusion in the list of military staff of persons employed or conscripted for the military service.

47.4. The basis for including citizens of the Republic of Azerbaijan residing outside of the Republic of Azerbaijan and those who are on a long-term foreign missions or business trips in the Voters' List, shall be the fact a person is permanently residing outside of the Republic of Azerbaijan, or the fact a voter is on a long-term business trip (as determined by the diplomatic representations or consular offices of the Republic of Azerbaijan).

47.5. Voters who are in hospitals, sanatoriums, or rest homes shall be included in the Voter's Lists of the election precincts created there on the basis of an identification card or other substitute document. If no polling station is created in such places in accordance with Article 35.4 of this Code, then such voters shall be included in the Voters' Lists pursuant to information provided to the Precinct Election Commission by the administration of such institutions. The information provided by such institutions shall fully describe all the data contained in the voter's identification card or substitute document.

47.5-1. Citizens arrested during the investigation and those detained by administrative order are included in separate voters' list by the Precinct Election Commissions. Such information is submitted to the Precinct Election Commission at least 2 days prior to the voting day by relevant court that made decision on citizen's arrest, or relevant executive authority body that made decision on citizen's detainment by administrative order. That information must contain full data of identification document or its substitute.

47.6. Persons with no valid court indictment and subject to imprisonment shall be included in voters' lists upon information provided to the Precinct Election Commissions by the administration of investigative facilities. Such information shall include all the data contained in the person's identification card or substitute document.

47.7. Citizens of the Republic of Azerbaijan not able to move may be included in voters' lists according to information provided by their relatives or other persons with whom they have relations. In such case, the identification card or a substitute document of the disabled citizen must be presented.

47.8. Upon appearing in the polling station, citizens of the Republic of Azerbaijan with active suffrage who are in foreign countries, shall be included in the Voters' List on the basis of their international passport or substitute document.

47.9. After the voters cards are distributed and voters' lists are submitted for public display, voters residing within the territory of an electoral precinct and not included in the Voters' List for any reason, shall be added to the Voters' List by the Precinct Election Commission on the basis of their identification card or other substitute document. If necessary, the Precinct Election Commission shall require other documents confirming that the voter lives in the territory of the precinct most of the time.

47.10. A voter may be included in the Voters' List of only one precinct. Should the election commission discover that a voter has been registered in more than one precinct, it will have to investigate the matter and ensure that the voter's name remains on only one list. If the voter is intentionally included in more than one voters' list, he/she may be subject to administrative liability under the Code of Administrative Offences of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

47.11. After voters' lists are approved, a voter may be excluded from the Voters' List on the basis of official documents as well as on the basis of the voting card issued to the voter in conformity with Article 101 of this Code. The voter shall be informed about being excluded from the list in writing. In such circumstances, the date and reason for exclusion of the voter from the Voters' List is to be indicated on the Voters' List. This fact shall be certified by signatures of the Chairperson and Secretaries of the Precinct Election Commission.

The de-registration card for voting shall be certified by the signatures of the commission members issuing it.

Article 48. Public Display of Voter Lists

48.1. The Precinct Election Commission shall submit the voters' lists for public display and for additional verification/updating by informing the voters at least 35 days prior to Election Day, and create the necessary conditions for such display and verification. The voters' lists are to be displayed on notice boards, outside of the voting room, in a convenient place for voters to see and to have access to them.

48.2. A citizen of the Republic of Azerbaijan possessing active suffrage rights may report on his/her non-inclusion in the list, as well as on mistakes and errors that he/she discovers in the list about him-/herself or others. The Precinct Election Commission should check the submitted application and documents regarding the voter's information, correct the mistake, investigate the reasons for the mistake, and/or provide the voter with a written document containing the reason for rejection of voter's application, within one day of the date of application (or immediately, before voting ends, on Election Day).

CHAPTER Nine.

BASIS FOR PARTICIPATION OF POLITICAL PARTIES AND BLOCS OF POLITICAL PARTIES IN ELECTIONS (REFERENDUM)

Article 49. Conditions for Participation of Political Parties (Bloc of Political Parties) in Elections (Referendum Campaign)

49.1. Along with provisions of Article 2.6 of this Code, a political party (bloc of political parties) which participate in elections (referendum campaign) should meet the following requirements:

49.1.1. respect the right of another political party (bloc of political parties) to freely and independently express their political ideas and views during an election (referendum) campaign;

49.1.2. respect the rights of other political parties (blocs of political parties), voters, and public organizations;

49.1.3. not prevent other political parties (blocs of political parties) from establishing free communication with voters;

49.1.4. provide guarantees of free conduct for voters intending to participate in political activities;

Article 50. Bloc of Political Parties

50.1. A bloc of political parties may be formed by a minimum of two political parties. If a political party is a member of a bloc, it may not function as an independent political party or join another bloc during the course of elections. A decision to join a bloc of political parties shall be made in accordance with the charter of each political party joining the bloc of political parties. After a relevant decision is adopted, authorized representatives of the political parties shall sign a joint decision on the establishment of the bloc.

50.2. An authorized representative of the bloc of political parties shall submit the following documents to the Central Election Commission for registration:

50.2.1. copies of the charters of the political parties included in the bloc, certified by a notary;

50.2.2. decisions of the political parties on joining the bloc; and

50.2.3. a joint decision on the establishment of a bloc signed by the authorized representatives of the political parties and certified by the stamp of those parties.

50.3. A bloc of political parties is to be registered, at the latest, within 5 days of the submission of the required documents to the Central Election Commission.

50.4. The bloc of political parties may be refused registration if the documents mentioned in Article 50.2 of this Code are not officially registered, incomplete, or do not meet the requirements of this Code.

50.5. No other political party may be included in the bloc of political parties after the bloc has been registered by the Central Election Commission.

Article 51. The Name and Emblem of a Bloc of Political Parties

51.1. A bloc of political parties shall submit information on its full and abbreviated name to the Central Election Commission.

51.2. The name of the bloc of political parties shall be defined in the joint meeting of representatives of the political parties constituting the bloc. Names of the political parties that are not included in the bloc (regardless of whether they participate in the elections or not) or of political parties that participated in previous elections, cannot be used to name the bloc. If a newly registered bloc of political parties does not include a majority of the political parties that originally established the bloc during previous elections, the newly established bloc may not be named by its previous name. The name or surname of a physical person or an individual may be used by the bloc of political parties on the basis of that individual's written consent.

51.3. A bloc of political parties may also submit its emblem to the Central Election Commission. A bloc of political parties may submit any emblem other than the registered emblem of any political party included in the bloc or the emblems used by other political parties and blocs of political parties for previous or current elections (taking into consideration Article 51.2 of this Code). Symbols of the bloc of political parties should not:

- violate intellectual property rights or trademark rights;
- insult state symbols of the Republic of Azerbaijan or other countries, or religious symbols; or
- violate common, accepted moral norms.

The bloc of political parties should agree with the Central Election Commission on the usage of the bloc's name (which may contain more than 5 words) and emblem in the election documents.

51.4. A bloc of political parties shall not be allowed to change its name or emblem during the election process.

Article 52. Authorized Representatives of a Political Party and a Bloc of Political Parties

52.1. Authorized representatives, as well as representatives responsible for financial issues, shall be appointed by the decision of a joint meeting of a political party, of political parties in a bloc, or representatives of political parties, or by the decision of the congress, conference, or meeting of a managing body of a party or bloc of political parties.

52.2. The authorized representative of a political party or bloc of political parties shall perform his/her functions on the basis of the decision mentioned in Article 52.1 of this Code. This decision shall outline the representative's powers, and include the representative's forename, surname, patronymic, date of birth, ID or substitute document's serial and batch number, address of residence, workplace, occupation or official duty (type of activity if not working). of the decision regarding an authorized representative on financial issues should also contain samples of financial documents and samples of stamps for those documents.

52.3. The list of authorized representatives appointed by political parties and blocs of political parties shall be submitted to the Central Election Commission. A list of authorized representatives of political parties and blocs of political parties, excluding the authorized representatives on financial issues, shall be submitted to the Constituency Election Commission.

52.4. The list of authorized representatives of political parties and blocs of political parties should contain the following information on each authorized representative:

- name, surname, patronymic, and birth date;
- serial and batch number and date of issue of identification document or substitute document;
- address of residence;
- main workplace and position (type of activity if not working); and
- telephone number.

The written consent of each person to be an authorized representative should be attached to the list submitted to the Central Election Commission.

52.5. The authorized body of a political party or bloc of political parties may take a decision to terminate the powers of a representative, providing written notification to said representative. A copy of the decision on such termination of powers should be submitted to the Central Election Commission and Constituency Election Commissions.

52.6. Authorized representatives of political parties or blocs of political parties, who are also involved in governmental or municipality work, may not use their occupation or position during the elections processes.

52.7. The term of office of the authorized representatives of political parties or blocs of political parties shall commence from the day they are appointed and end when the candidacy status is terminated for all candidates, including those in the list put forward by political parties and blocs of political parties and no later than the day of official publishing of the general election results..

CHAPTER Ten.

Nomination and Registration of Candidates During Elections

Article 53. Nomination of Candidates on Their Own Initiative or Directly by Voters

53.1. A Candidate may be nominated through self-nomination or by voters with active suffrage rights, provided that a notification on the matter is sent to the relevant election commission within the territory of which the signatures necessary for supporting the Candidate are collected and in which the Candidate is intended to be registered.

53.2. The candidate or the voters' initiative group that nominates a candidate shall notify the relevant election commission on their initiative in writing. The notification should contain the following information on each initiator and candidate:

- forename, surname, patronymic, birth date;
 - address of residence;
 - serial and batch number of identification or substitute document;
- and
- main workplace or official position (type of activity if not working).

53.3. An application containing the written statement of a candidate to terminate activities incompatible with a post in elective government or with municipal bodies should be submitted with the notification mentioned in Article 53.2 of this Code. This application shall contain information on the candidate (surname, forename, patronymic, birth date, address of residence, education, main workplace, and official position or type of activity if not working). If candidates have a pending sentence, which has not been served or cancelled, the name and number of the relevant Article of the Criminal Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan under which they were sentenced should be recorded in their application. If a candidate has committed a criminal offense abroad, which imposes a criminal liability, and has been sentenced by a court decision that has entered into force, and if the same action imposes liability under the Criminal Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan, the application should contain the title of the relevant law of the foreign country. Information on whether a candidate has foreign citizenship or obligations in foreign countries should be included alongside information on the candidate's citizenship of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

53.4. A candidate may include information on his/her party affiliation in the application using a certified document that proves this affiliation. In such circumstances, a candidate should come to an agreement with the relevant election commission on naming his/her political party with a name containing no more than 5 words. If the political party indicated in the application has already excluded the candidate from membership and sent appropriate notification to the relevant election commission on the matter, then the title of the political party may not be used by the candidate.

53.5. In keeping with the requirements of Article 53.4 of this Code, the relevant election commission should inform candidates and voters' initiative groups on the receipt of submitted documents in writing.

53.6. The relevant election commission shall examine the submitted documents within a 5-day period and submit a decision to the candidate or his/her authorized representative, certifying the nomination from the relevant constituencies. The relevant election commission may not refuse to accept the submitted documents.

53.7. The only bases for refusal of a submitted decision certifying the nomination of a candidate may be:

- if documents mentioned in Articles 53.2 and 53.3 of this Code are not formalized as required; or
- if rules for nomination of candidates defined by this Code are violated.

If mistakes/errors in the relevant documentation can be eliminated through corrections made by the candidate, then the relevant election commission shall notify the candidate within the period set forth in Article 53.6 of this Code, and approve the candidate's nomination after such corrections have been made.

Article 54. Nomination of Candidates by Political Parties and Blocs of Political Parties

54.1. A political party shall make a decision on nominating a candidate in conformity with the charter of the political party. Such a decision should be made by voting collectively.

54.2. A candidate nominated by a bloc of political parties shall be approved by each political party included in the bloc. A decision of a bloc of political parties to nominate a candidate shall be made at the meeting (congress, conference, meeting of the board) of the representatives of the political parties. Such authorized representatives of political parties shall be determined during the congress (conference, meeting of the board) of political parties.

54.3. The decision of a political party or bloc of political parties to nominate a candidate shall be formalized by the minutes. The minutes shall contain the following:

54.3.1. the number of registered participants taking part in the meeting (congress, conference, meeting of the board);

54.3.2. the number of participants required for adoption of a decision mentioned in the agreement on the creation of a bloc of political parties;

54.3.3. the decision on nomination of candidates and results of voting on this decision; and

54.3.4. the date of adoption of the decision.

54.4. A political party or bloc of political parties may nominate persons who are not members of the party or of the parties included in the bloc.

54.5. The authorized representatives of a political party shall submit the following documents to the relevant election commission along with the names of candidates:

54.5.1. a copy of the certificate of registration of the political party, certified by a notary;

54.5.2. a copy of the charter in effect of political the party, certified by notary;

54.5.3. the decision of the congress, conference, or meeting of the board, to nominate candidates and the minutes of the relevant meeting;

54.5.4. the powers of attorney of the authorized representatives of the political parties, certified in an order established by the Civil Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

54.6. The authorized representatives of a bloc of political parties shall submit the following documents along with the names of candidates:

54.6.1. the decisions to nominate candidates of the congresses, conferences, or meetings of the board of the political parties included in the bloc, and the minutes of the relevant meeting;

54.6.2. the decision to nominate a candidate on behalf of the bloc of political parties, made at the meeting, congress, or conference of the representatives of the political parties included in the bloc of political parties, and the minutes of the relevant meeting;

54.6.3. the powers of attorney of the authorized representatives of the bloc of political parties, certified by a notary.

54.7. The authorized representatives of political parties shall submit the documents on candidates nominated in the relevant election constituency to the relevant election commission. The names of the candidates shall be submitted in the format determined by the Central Election Commission, and should be type written or prepared in another format allowing for it to be recognized by a machine.

54.8. The authorized representative of a political party or bloc of political parties shall submit the documents mentioned in Articles 54.1 – 54.7 of this Code together with the candidate's application which should contain:

- commitment to terminate the activities incompatible with his/her position if he/she is elected;

- consent to be nominated as a candidate.

This application should also contain the candidate's:

- surname, forename, patronymic, date of birth;

- address of residence;

- educational background;

- main workplace or official position (type of activity if not working); and

- party affiliation (with the candidate's consent).

If candidates have a pending sentence, which has not been served or cancelled, then the title and number of the relevant Article of the Criminal Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan under which they were sentenced should be recorded in their application. If a candidate has committed an offense which imposes a criminal liability abroad, and if the same action provides for liability established by the Criminal Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan, and the candidate has been sentenced by a court decision which has entered into force, the application should contain title of the relevant law of the foreign country under which the candidate was sentenced. Information on whether a candidate has foreign citizenship or obligations in foreign countries should be included in the application, alongside information on the candidate's citizenship of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

54.9. The election commission shall examine the submitted documents within a 5-day period, make a grounded decision on whether the candidate nominated for the relevant constituency is approved or not, and inform the authorized representative of the political party or blocs of political parties on the issue. The relevant election commission may not refuse to accept the submitted documents.

54.10. The only bases for refusal from registering the candidate's nomination may be:

- if the documents mentioned in Articles 54.1 – 54.7 are not certified as required; or
- if the rules set forth in this Code for the nomination of candidates are violated.

If the mistakes/errors can be eliminated through corrections made by the authorized representative of the political party or a bloc of political parties, then the relevant election commission shall notify the candidate on this issue within the period set forth in Article 54.9 of this Code. After such corrections are made, the relevant election commission shall approve nomination of the candidate.

54.11. The Central Election Commission and Constituency Election Commissions should create conditions to make information about relevant nominated candidates available.

Article 55. Ensuring Equal Status for Candidates During Their Nomination

55.1. All candidates shall have equal rights and responsibilities.

55.2. The following actions shall be considered by this Code as an abuse of one's position or occupation to gain an advantage:

55.2.1. to engage state or municipal officials who are subordinate employees, during their business hours, in activity supporting one's nomination as a candidate;

55.2.2. to use buildings where state bodies or municipalities are located, for activities supporting one's nomination as a candidate, or to be elected if all other candidates or registered candidates could not use such buildings with the same conditions;

55.2.3. to use, for the purpose of collecting signatures and election campaigning, the communication, information, or telephone services provided for the activities of state bodies, state organizations or municipalities;

55.2.4. to use state or municipal transportation free of charge or under privileged conditions, for activities supporting one's nomination or election (this does not apply to persons who use transportation in conformity with legislation of the Republic of Azerbaijan on State Protection);

55.2.5. to involve state or municipal officials in collecting signatures or election campaigning during their business trips;

55.2.6. to use mass media mentioned in Article 77.1 of this Code for collecting signatures or election campaigning under privileged conditions.

55.3. The following may not implement charitable activities during the election campaigning process:

- candidates;
- political parties or blocs of political parties which have nominated a candidate and their authorized representatives, founders, owners, and proprietors;
- legal entities who are persons or organizations mentioned above;
- other physical or legal entities that are functioning on the request or task of persons mentioned above.

The persons and organizations mentioned above shall be prohibited from rendering financial and material assistance to other physical and legal entities, and from offering to render financial and material assistance or services to voters or organizations. Individuals and legal entities are prohibited from undertaking charitable activities on behalf of and with the purpose of supporting: political parties or blocs of political parties, the authorized representatives of these parties or blocs, and candidates.

Article 56. Conditions for Collecting Voters Signatures in Support of Candidates

56.1. The collection of voters' signatures in support of self-nominated candidates or candidates nominated by voters' initiative groups, shall start from the day the decision provided for in Article 53.6 of this Code is adopted. The collection of voters' signatures in support of candidates nominated by political parties or blocs of political parties shall start from the date the decision mentioned in Article 54.9 of this Code is adopted.

56.2. Signatures of voters in support of candidates should be collected within the territory of the election constituency they have been nominated for.

56.3. Each signature sheet should contain the following information about the candidate:

- surname, forename, patronymic, date of birth;
- main workplace or official position (type of activity if not working);
- address of the residence; and
- name and number of the constituency he/she has been nominated for.

If a candidate has a pending sentence, which is not served or cancelled, the title and number of the relevant Article of the Criminal Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan under which the candidate has been sentenced should be recorded in the signature sheet. If a candidate has committed an action abroad that imposes a criminal liability, and if the same action imposes a liability under the Criminal Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan and is sentenced by a court decision that has entered into force, the signature sheet should contain name of the relevant law of the foreign country under which the candidate has been sentenced.

56.4. The signature sheet may also contain the name of the political party, which has been recorded in the candidate's statement of consent to be nominated as a candidate.

56.5. If a political party or a bloc of political parties that nominated a candidate from the relevant constituency collects signatures in support of the candidate, the signature sheet shall contain the name of the political party or bloc of political parties which has nominated the candidate with the information on the candidate. If such information is included in the candidate's application, then the name of the political party to which the candidate belongs and the candidate's status in that political party may be indicated with this information.

Article 57. Rules for Collecting Signatures in Support of Candidates

57.1. The state bodies, municipalities and legal entities, regardless of their type of property shall be prohibited from participating in collection of signatures. It shall be prohibited to make voters sign signature sheets, to prevent them from signing, or paying any kind of reward during the signature collecting processes. If non observance of this prohibition is approved by a relevant court, it can be the basis for considering the collected signatures invalid, and for refusal to register candidates and registered candidates.

57.2. A citizen of the Republic of Azerbaijan who is 18 years old and possesses active suffrage rights may collect voters' signatures. A candidate, political party, or bloc of political parties may sign an agreement on collecting signatures with a person who shall collect voters' signatures. Payment for this job may be made only from the election fund of a candidate, political party and bloc of political parties.

57.3. Signatures in support of candidates may be collected in educational institutions, residential areas, and other venues where election campaigning is not prohibited by law.

57.4. A voter shall record the following information when signing the signature sheet:

- forename, surname, patronymic, date of birth;
- address of residence;
- ID or substitute document serial and batch number and date of issue; and
- date of signature.

This information may be recorded on the signature sheet by the person collecting signatures. This information shall be recorded by hand and its confidentiality ensured.

57.5. Signature sheets shall be prepared in accordance with Appendices # 1, 2, 3 to this Code.

57.6. Voters' signatures in support of a candidate may be collected on the front and reverse side of signature sheets. The reverse side of the signature sheets shall be considered as a continuation of the front, and certifying signatures put on the reverse side.

57.7. After the collection of signatures is completed, signature sheets shall be signed by the person collecting signatures and by the candidate. Before signing the signature sheet, the person collecting signatures shall enter the following personal information:

- surname, forename, patronymic;
- address of residence; and
- ID or substitute document serial and batch number and date of issue.

57.8. If the candidate is nominated by a political party or bloc of political parties, the signature sheet shall be signed by the person collecting signatures and by an authorized representative of a political party, or bloc of political parties, after signature collection has been completed. Before signing the signature sheet, the person collecting signatures shall record the following personal information:

- surname, forename, patronymic;
- address of residence;
- ID or substitute document serial and batch number and date of issue.

The relevant authorized representative shall record his/her surname, name, patronymic and date of signature.

57.9. After a political party, bloc of political parties or voters' initiative group of voters, which nominated a candidate, informs the relevant election commission on nomination of the candidate in writing, they may collectively gather the necessary number of signatures supporting the candidate. In such cases, the integration of signatures supporting the candidate, collected by different persons shall be allowed.

57.10. Initiators of the nomination of a candidate, authorized representatives of a candidate, political party or bloc of political parties shall count the number of signatures collected in support of the candidate, and draw up and sign the protocol on the results of signature collection.

57.11. Signature sheets should be submitted to the relevant election commissions in the form of a folder with numbered pages.

Article 58. Submission of Election Documents for Registration of a Candidate

58.1. To register nominated candidates, the authorized representatives of the candidates, political parties or a bloc of political parties shall submit the following documents to the relevant Constituency Election Commission at the most 50 days and at least by 18.00 30 days prior to the Voting Day.

58.1.1. signature sheets of voters' signatures supporting the candidate;

58.1.2. 2 copies of the protocols on the results signature collection prepared in the form set by the Central Election Commission;

58.1.3. notification on changes made to the candidate's information, submitted according to Articles 53.3 and 54.8 of this Code;

58.1.4. information on the amount and sources of the candidate's income;

58.1.5. information on the property owned by the candidate;

58.1.6. the candidate's initial financial report (including information on funds spent in organizing the collection of signatures).

58.2. Should mistakes be discovered in the documents indicated in Articles 58.1.2.-58.1.6 of this Code, the relevant election commission should inform the candidate on the matter within 48 hours and propose the correction of the mistakes.

58.3. Information on the amount and sources of the candidate's income, for the period of one-year preceding the day elections are announced, should be submitted in a format defined by the Central Election Commission. Information on the total annual income received from the organizations providing the income shall be submitted at the same time. Information on property owned by the candidate shall be submitted in the form found in Appendix # 5 of this Code. The Central Election Commission shall determine the list of information on candidate's property and income to be published.

58.4. Upon receipt of election documents, election commissions shall approve each folder containing signature sheets with their stamp, check that the number of submitted signature sheets matches the number recorded in the protocol on results of signature collection, and provide the candidate and authorized representatives of the political party or bloc of political parties with a written notice of receipt of the election documents that indicates the date and time of receipt, the number of signature sheets received, and the number of signatures therein. The receipt of documents may not be refused if the above-mentioned persons submit the relevant documents to the relevant election commission before the time mentioned in Articles 58.1 and 58.2. The authorized representatives of a candidate, political party and bloc of political parties may not be restricted from entering a relevant building (room).

Article 59. Checking the Accuracy by the Election Commissions of Signature Sheets and Documents Submitted by Candidates, Political Parties, Blocs of Political Parties

59.1. The relevant election commission shall check the accuracy of the information included in the documents mentioned by this Code and the signature sheets of each candidate, as well whether the information on nomination of candidates is in compliance with the requirements of this Code. The relevant election commission shall check the accuracy of personal and other information on the candidates, submitted in accordance by this Code by the candidates themselves, political parties, a bloc of political parties and voters.

59.2. An election commission may apply to the relevant bodies to check the accuracy of information and facts submitted in accordance with this Code. Those bodies should inform the election commissions on the results of their investigation within the period defined by the election commission. If there are less than 40 days remaining before Voting Day, the information should be provided within the period of one-day. The relevant election commission may decide to create working groups of experts invited to check the accuracy of signatures and relevant information. The working groups should be chaired by the member of the commission establishing the group. Independent experts, specialists from the relevant bodies, and specialists of bodies and organizations carrying out registration of population may be involved in such an investigation and receive a fee set by the Central Election Commission. Their opinions shall be accepted as the basis for approving or rejecting the accuracy of the information in the signature sheets. The election commissions may use the voters' lists and the civil registry to check the accuracy of information in the signature sheets.

59.3. Candidates and their authorized representatives, and authorized representatives of political parties or blocs of political parties, may be present at checking of signature sheets at the relevant election commission. The relevant election commission should inform the above-mentioned persons about examination of documents in advance. The election commission may not object to or obstruct the participation of the above-mentioned persons sent by a candidate, political party and bloc of political parties in these events. All signatures in the voter lists should be examined.

59.4. The checking of signatures should be stopped when the number of verified signatures provides sufficient ground for registering the candidate, or when the number of the remaining signatures is insufficient for registering the candidate. The accuracy/inaccuracy of voters' signatures should be approved by the results of the investigation.

59.5. Signatures crossed out in the signature sheets before submission to the relevant election commission shall not be checked or taken into consideration, provided the persons collecting signatures made pertinent notes on the sheets regarding the cross outs.

59.6. If one person's signature appears multiple times during the checking the signature sheets, only one of that person's signatures shall be considered valid and the others shall be considered incorrect.

59.7. Along with the provisions of Article 59.6 of this Code, the following signatures shall also be considered incorrect:

59.7.1. The signatures of voters who do not have the right to vote or who provided incorrect information, as determined by the opinion of the specialists mentioned in Article 59.2 of this Code or by a statement given by the relevant executive authority;

59.7.2. Signatures of voters entered into the signature sheets before the notification on nomination of the candidate is sent to the relevant election commission;

59.7.3. Signatures considered invalid in accordance with the violation of requirements of Article 57.1 of this Code;

59.7.4. Signatures made by one person on behalf of several people, or by several people on behalf of one person; and 59.7.5. Signatures, which are not signed by hand or are signed in pencil.

59.8. If dates of signatures have been corrected on the signature sheets, these signatures shall be considered correct provided the person approving the signature sheets also approves such corrections.

59.9. None of the signatures in the signature sheets shall be considered valid if the sheets are not certified with the handwritten signature of the person collecting the signatures, or if the signature of the authorized representative of a candidate, political party, or bloc of political parties is not correct.

59.10. With the exception of the cases mentioned in Articles 59.7-59.9 of this code, if a written row in a signature sheet does not fulfill the requirements of this Code, only the signature in this particular row shall be considered invalid.

59.11. Under Articles 59.6. - 59.10 of this Code, if a signature is not determined to be invalid during the investigation into the accuracy of signatures and the calculating of their quantity, then changes and notes/comments made in an acceptable manner on the signature list should not be a reason for considering the signature invalid.

59.12. In accordance with Articles 59.6 - 59.10 of this Code, a candidate shall not be registered if the number of valid signatures after removal of invalid signatures is less than the number of signatures required for registration.

59.13. The head of the working group and a member of the relevant election commission with decisive voting rights shall prepare a protocol on the results of the checking of the signature sheets of each candidate, sign it, and submit to the Election Commission for a decision. The protocol shall indicate the number of checked signatures and the number of invalid signatures. The protocol shall be attached to the relevant decision of Election Commission. A copy of the protocol shall be given to the candidate and authorized representative of political party or bloc of political parties at least 24 hours prior to the election commission meeting on registration of a candidate. In the case the number of signatures is below the 78.4. Private TV and radio companies and periodicals may refuse to publish pre-election campaign material. Private TV and radio companies and periodicals may not be forced to publish pre-election campaign materials. If such materials are published, then the conditions for publishing should be equal for all candidates, political parties, and referendum campaign groups (this does not apply to the periodicals provided for in Article 85.4 of this Code).

Article 79. Registration of the Cost and Volume of Print-Space in Periodicals or Airtime in Mass Media Allocated for Pre-Election Campaign

79.1. The TV and radio companies and periodicals allocating free or paid airtime or print-space for registered candidates, political parties, and referendum campaign groups, should register the cost and volume of the allocated print-space and airtime in the form determined by the Central Election Commission. Records on the cost and volume of print-space and airtime allocated should be provided to the election commission which carries out registration of the above-mentioned candidates or groups, at least 5 days prior to Election Day, and at most 5 days after Election Day.

79.2. The registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups are obliged to submit the documents approving consent of payment for paid airtime and print-space upon the inquiry of the relevant election commission.

Article 80. Rules for Allocating Free Airtime on TV and Radio for Pre-election Campaigning 80.1. The following shall have the right to free airtime of TV and radio companies for election campaigning, in accordance with Article 77.2 of this Code:

- Presidential candidates;
- Political parties or blocs of political parties with candidates registered in more than 60 single-mandate election constituencies, or in more than half of all municipalities; and
- Referendum campaign groups with 40,000 or more members.

80.2. The following shall have the right to free TV and radio airtime companies for pre-election campaigning, in accordance with Article 77.3 of this Code:

- Candidates registered in single-mandate constituencies;
 - Referendum campaign groups with 20,000 or more members;
- and
- Political parties or blocs of political parties with candidates registered in more than 1/3 of all municipalities.

80.3. Candidates for membership of a municipality and referendum campaign groups with 2,000 or more members, shall have the right to free airtime for election campaigning from TV and radio companies, in accordance with Article 77.4 of this Code.

80.4. Within a week after the commencement of the period set forth in Article 75 of this Code, a lottery shall be held to divide the free airtime allocated according to Article 80.7 of this Code, on the basis of applications submitted by registered candidates, political parties, and blocs of political parties.

80.5. The total volume of free airtime for election campaigning allocated by the TV and radio companies referenced in Article 77.2 of this Code should be no less than 3 hours a week for pre-election campaigning. The total volume of the free airtime for election campaigning allocated by the TV and radio companies referred to in Article 77.3 of this Code, should be no less than 1 hour and 30 minutes a. If the total airtime of those broadcasting companies is less than 2 hours during a day, the mentioned airtime should not be less than ¼ of the total programming time. The allocated free airtime should be within the time when most viewers can watch it.

80.6. The free airtime provided by broadcasting companies shall be divided on equal terms and amounts among the registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties and referendum campaign groups.

80.7. The date and time of airing pre-election materials shall be determined by a lottery conducted by the relevant election commission in the presence of representatives of the relevant TV and radio companies. The information on the time and place of the draw shall be officially published. The persons mentioned in the Articles 40.2 and 40.4 of this Code have the right to participate in the draw. The results of the lottery shall be formalized by a protocol. The table of division of airtime determined by the lottery should be published in the periodicals mentioned in the Articles 77.2 and 77.3 of this Code.

80.8. Expenses of TV and Radio companies from allocating free airtime to candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups, shall be reimbursed from the state budget.

Article 81. Conditions for Allocation of Paid Airtime for Conducting Election Campaigns on TV and Radio

81.1. Election campaigning on TV and Radio stations not considered by Articles 77.1 and 77.4 of this Code shall begin in accordance with a contract signed with the relevant TV and Radio companies.

81.2. TV and Radio companies considered by Article 77.1 of this Code should keep extra airtime in reserve for paid election campaigning. Candidates for membership of a municipality and referendum campaign groups with 20,000 members or more, may not use such airtime. The amount and terms of payment should be equal for all registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups, and relevant information about such airtime should be published at the latest within 30 days of the official publication of the decision determining the Election Day. The total volume of airtime reserved for paid campaigning by each TV and Radio company may not be less than or twice the total volume of free airtime allocated in conformity with Article 80.5 of this Code.

81.3. Norms of usage of airtime reserved for paid purposes for each registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign groups shall be defined by dividing the total amount of reserved airtime by the total number of registered candidates.

81.4. Airtime mentioned in Article 81.2 of this Code should be presented by TV and Radio companies within the period mentioned in Article 80.4 of this Code. The time and date of election campaign materials to be aired shall be determined by the TV and Radio companies, on the basis of the results of a lottery conducted in the presence of the authorized representatives of candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups who received relevant notification. The lottery should be conducted within the period determined by Article 80.4 of this Code. Airtime shall be presented on the basis of a contract signed after the lottery.

81.5. If a registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group refuses to use airtime after the lottery, they should inform the relevant TV and Radio companies about this decision 2 days prior to the broadcasting day. TV and Radio companies shall decide themselves on how to use the vacant airtime for purposes other than election campaigning.

81.6. Allocation of and charging for airtime of TV and Radio companies not considered by Articles 77.1 and 77.4 of this Code, for registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups, shall be performed conducted on an equal basis and under equal conditions. TV and Radio companies that do not observe these requirements and the requirements of Article 78.2 of this Code may not allocate airtime for election campaigning for registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, or referendum campaign groups.

81.7. The contract on allocation of paid airtime should consider the following:

81.7.1. the method of election campaigning;

81.7.2. airtime date and time;

81.7.3. length of the airtime to be provided, and the terms and amount of payment; and

81.7.4. an act on the use of airtime, indicating the list of programs, name of the program and its broadcasting time, to be drawn up after the conclusion of an agreement indicating the form and conditions of participation of a leading journalist.

81.8. A registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group should submit the payment order for transfer of the full amount of money for airtime to the relevant bank at least 48 hours prior to the broadcasting day. The relevant bank should transfer money immediately receiving the payment order. The bank transfer should not take more than two banking days.

81.9. Payment for airtime should be made from the election fund of a registered candidate, political party, or bloc of political parties and from the pre-election financial fund (hereafter referred to as election fund) of referendum campaign groups.

81.10. If registered candidates, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group violate the conditions set by this Code when using paid airtime, the relevant TV and Radio companies may appeal to the court for termination of the contract on allocation of airtime. TV and Radio companies shall not have the right to use the resulting vacant time for election campaign purposes after termination of the contract.

81.11. Paid air time for election campaigning on TV and radio shall be allocated in conformity with the legislation on advertisement.

Article 82. Requirements for Broadcasting of Election Campaign Programs via TV and Radio

82.1. Paid air time for election campaigning on TV and radio shall be allocated in conformity with the legislation on advertisement.

82.2. It shall be prohibited to interrupt election campaign programs of a registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign groups, transmitted by TV and Radio companies mentioned in Article 77.1 of this Code, with broadcasting of other TV or Radio programs.

82.3. Information on election campaigning activities of registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties and referendum campaign groups should be announced, as a rule, at the beginning of the telecast which is broadcasted without any comments. The registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups shall not pay for airtime spent on such information. In such cases, none of the registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, or referendum campaign groups should be given preference when reporting election campaigning.

82.4. Election campaign telecasts or radiocasts shall be video/audio taped. They shall be maintained by TV and Radio companies for 12 months from the day they have been aired. TV and Radio companies should preserve reports on the allocation of free and paid airtime for 5 years starting from Election Day.

Article 83. Terms for Pre-election Campaigning through Periodicals on a Free Basis

83.1. In order to conduct unpaid pre-election campaigning, presidential candidates, political parties or blocs of political parties with registered candidates in more than 60 single mandate election constituencies or in more than a half of all municipalities, and referendum campaign groups with 40,000 or more members, shall be entitled to relevant space for free advertising in periodicals issued at least once a week, mentioned in Article 77.2 of this Code.

83.2. In order to conduct unpaid pre-election campaigning, candidates registered for single-mandate constituencies and referendum campaign groups with 20,000 or more members, as well as political parties or blocs of political parties whose candidates have been registered in more than 1/3 of all municipalities, shall be entitled to relevant space for free advertising in periodicals issued at least once a week, mentioned in Article 77.3 of this Code.

83.3. In order to conduct unpaid pre-election campaigning, candidates for municipal elections and referendum campaign groups with 2,000 or more members shall be entitled to relevant space for free advertising in periodicals issued at least once a week, mentioned in Article 77.4 of this Code.

83.4. Within a week of the beginning of the period set forth in Article 75 of this Code, a lottery shall be conducted, in the manner determined by the Central Election Commission, among registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, or referendum campaign groups, on the basis of their applications for the use of free publication space.

83.5. Editorial offices of the periodicals indicated in Article 77.1 of this Code shall allocate special pages in their periodicals for free publication.

83.6. The total weekly amount of free space allocated by editorial offices of each periodical indicated in Article 77.1 of this Code to the registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups, shall constitute at least 10% of the general volume of print-space for the period indicated in Article 75 of this Code. The editorial office of the publication shall announce the general volume of free publication space provided for pre-referendum campaigning at least 30 days after the publication of the decision setting the Election Day. Periodicals shall allocate an equal amount of print-space for registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties and referendum campaign groups.

83.7. Allocation of the general amount of free print-space in the periodicals indicated in Articles 77.2 and 77.3, shall be determined by dividing this general amount by the total number of registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups which are entitled to free publication space for pre-election campaigning in those periodicals.

83.8. Dates for free publication of pre-election campaign materials of registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties and referendum campaign groups shall be identified by a draw in the presence of the interested parties. The draw shall be conducted on the date of commencement of the period set forth in Article 75 of this Code. Members of the relevant election commission, as well as persons mentioned in Articles 40.2 and 40.4 of this Code, may participate in the draw process. Results of the draw shall be formalized by a protocol.

83.9. Periodicals' expenses for allocation of free print-space for registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties and referendum campaign groups, shall be reimbursed from the state budget.

Article 84. The Terms for Paid Pre-Election Campaign in Periodicals

84.1. The periodicals mentioned in the Article 77.1 of this Code shall be obliged to allocate paid space for pre-election campaigning of registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups. The basis, conditions, and cost of allocated space should be equal for all registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups, and should be published by the periodicals not later than 30 days after a decision to hold elections has been officially published. The total amount of paid space allocated by the periodicals should not be less than total amount of free space allocated according to Article 83.6 of this Code.

84.2. For a certain price, every registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, and referendum campaign group may buy a space equal to the amount determined by dividing the total amount of space allocated by the total number of appropriately registered candidates and referendum campaign groups.

84.3. The periodicals that are not mentioned in the Articles 77.1 and 77.4 of this Code may publish campaign materials of the registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups according to the contract signed with them.

84.4. Periodicals, which are not mentioned in Articles 77.1 and 77.4 of this Code, shall be paid on an equal basis and under equal conditions for the cost of the amount of space offered to registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties and referendum campaign groups. Periodicals that do not follow these rules and the requirements of Article 78.2 of this Code, may not allocate space for pre-election campaign materials of a registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group.

84.5. After the draw, registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties and referendum campaign groups shall pay the cost of the allocated space in periodicals based on the contract with editorial offices of those periodicals. A registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group should submit a payment order on full payment of the cost for allocated space to the relevant bank at least two days prior to the publication day. If these rules are violated, such a space may not be allocated by periodicals. The relevant bank should transfer money immediately after the receipt of a payment order, but not later than the next banking day. In such cases, the bank transfer may not take more than 2 banking days.

84.6. Expenses for allocated space by periodicals shall be paid from the election funds of the registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group.

84.7. Periodicals should provide the space indicated in the Article 84.2 of this Code within the period mentioned in the Article 75 of this Code.

84.8. The date of paid publication of pre-election campaign materials of a registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group shall be determined by the lottery conducted by the periodicals, on the basis of written requests of their authorized representatives and with participation of interested persons. The lottery shall be conducted on the day when the period defined by the Article 75 of this Code begins. Members of the relevant election commissions, as well as persons mentioned in the Articles 40 and 40.4 of this Code, shall have the right to be present during lottery. An official protocol shall be made on the results of the lottery.

Article 85. Requirements for Pre-Election Campaigning Through Periodicals

85.1. If a registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group refuses to use the space allocated by the periodicals after the lottery, they should inform the relevant periodical of their decision at least five days prior the date of publication. The periodical may not use the vacant space for pre-election campaigning purposes.

85.2. According to this Article, no edits or comments should be made in the publication of pre-election campaigning materials, unless the matter is agreed with the candidates, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign groups.

85.3. Periodicals that are founded by municipalities or legislative, executive, or judiciary bodies, and officially publish their founders' official materials, information, and normative or other acts, may not publish pre-election campaign and other materials.

85.4. Rules on equal allocation of space and Articles 78.1 and 78.3 of this Code shall not be applied to periodicals that have been founded by registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties or political parties which are members of a bloc of political parties.

85.5. Pre-election campaign materials of a candidate, registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group published by a periodical should contain information on which registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group's election funds the publication expenses are paid from. When pre-election campaign materials are published free of charge, materials should reflect to which candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group the publication belongs.

Article 86. Terms of Election Campaigning through Mass Actions

86.1. State bodies and municipalities should assist the registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, and referendum campaign group in organizing and holding meetings and open discussions with citizens.

86.2. Applications of the registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or their agents requesting the allocation of a venue for meetings with voters, shall be considered by the relevant executive authority in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

86.3. Venues (buildings, rooms) which are suitable for holding meetings with voters and which are owned by the state or municipalities shall be provided free of charge by their owners, at the times agreed to by registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, authorized representatives of referendum campaign groups, or their agents, and the election commission. If a venue (building, room) is allocated to one of the registered candidates, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group for conducting pre-election (pre-referendum) campaigning, the owner may not refuse to allocate the same venue (building, room) with the same conditions to another candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group. Election commissions shall create equal conditions for the registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups to conduct pre-election campaigning using mass actions.

86.4. Registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups shall have the right, regardless of the form of ownership, to lease, based on a contract, buildings and rooms owned by citizens and organizations, in order to hold meetings and discussions with voters, and conduct other pre-election mass activities.

86.5. Buildings and equipment considered cultural facilities in accordance with the relevant State register may not be used for pre-election campaigning purposes.

86.6. It shall be prohibited to conduct a pre-election campaign in the territory of military units, military organizations and military institutions. Registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups, and their authorized representatives and agents, may conduct meetings with voters who are in military service within the territory of military unit, when such meetings are arranged by the commanders of those military units in cooperation with the Constituency Election Commission, only if all registered candidates, political parties with registered candidates, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups for this constituency are invited or informed of this meeting at least three days in advance. The persons mentioned above, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups should be provided with equal conditions for conducting such meetings, and opportunities shall be ensured for observers to observe such meetings.

86.7. According to legislation, the relevant executive bodies shall ensure security and public order during pre-election mass actions.

Article 87. Production and Distribution of Printed, audiovisual and Other Pre-Election Campaign Materials

87.1. Registered candidates, political parties with registered candidates, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups shall have the right to produce printed, audiovisual, and other pre-election campaign materials in accordance with the rules defined by the law.

87.2. Before the day of official publication of the decision to hold elections (referendum), the advertising organizations founded (co-founded) by state bodies, municipalities, or organizations of state bodies/municipalities, should create equal conditions for the publishing of pre-election campaign materials by the candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups registered in the relevant, from funds allocated from state bodies and municipalities.

87.3. Printed and audiovisual pre-election campaign materials should contain information on:

- The company that produced it;
- The organization which ordered the company to produce it;
- The number of issues; and
- The date of production.

87.4. A registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group should submit detailed information to the election commission on printed pre-election campaign materials (or their copies), and the addresses of organizations that ordered and produced such materials.

87.5. It shall be prohibited to distribute pre-election campaign materials that violate the requirements of Articles 87.3 and 87.4 of this Code.

87.6. At least 30 days prior the Election Day, the relevant executive authorities and municipalities should allocate locations for posting of pre-election campaign materials on boards within the territory of each voting station, with a request from the Constituency Election Commission. These places should be accessible for voters and information displayed there should be easily readable. Registered candidates, authorized representatives of a political party, bloc of political parties or referendum campaign group shall have the right to obtain a list of locations allocated for displaying pre-election campaign materials from the Constituency Election Commission.

87.7. Except for rooms, display of pre-election materials against the requirements of the Civil Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan on buildings, other places shall be prohibited.

87.8. It shall be prohibited to display pre-election campaign materials on buildings, constructions, and rooms considered to be historical or cultural monuments, included in the relevant state register, rooms used by election commissions, the notice boards specified in Article 98.3 of this Code, and in voting rooms and their entrances.

87.9. The election commission, that obtains information on the distribution of forged published, audiovisual and other pre-election campaign materials or on the violation of rules set by Articles 87.3, 87.4, 87.7, 87.8 of this Code, should take the necessary measures and apply to the law-enforcement bodies, or other authorities in accordance with the Code of Administrative Offences or the Criminal Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan, to stop such campaign activities that contradict the law, and remove the illegally distributed pre-election campaign materials.

Article 88. Preventing the Cases of Abuse During Pre-Election Campaigning

88.1. In compliance with the Criminal Code, the Code of Administrative Offences, and the Civil Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan, pre-election programs (pre-referendum calls) of candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups, meetings and pre-election campaign speeches and materials distributed through the mass media should not contain incitements to overthrow the government by force, change the constitutional system by force, violate the territorial integrity of the country, or insult citizens' honor and dignity. This prohibition should be implemented in accordance with Article 47 of the Constitution of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

88.2. In compliance with the Criminal Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan, during a pre-election campaign it shall be prohibited to abuse the mass media for campaigns which incite social, racial, national or religious hatred and hostility.

88.3. According to Article 30 of the Constitution of the Republic of Azerbaijan and the Civil Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan, it shall be prohibited to conduct a campaign that violates intellectual property rights.

88.4. Candidates, registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, referendum campaign groups, their agents, and other persons and organizations who participate directly in a pre-election campaign shall be prohibited from :

88.4.1. giving money, gifts and other valuable items (excepting badges, stickers, posters and campaign materials with other nominal value) to voters, except for purposes of performing of administrative duties;

88.4.2. rewarding voters who perform administrative duties, or promising voters a reward, on the basis of election results;

88.4.3. selling goods at a discount or providing goods (except for printed materials) free of charge;

88.4.4. providing free or discounted services;

88.4.5. influencing voters during the pre-election campaign by promising them securities, money and other goods and services based on grounds that contradict legislation.

88.5. Commercial and other activities of the following entities may be advertised on the grounds mentioned in Articles 81 and 84 of this code, provided that the advertisement clearly displays the relationship to a political party or candidate:

- Registered candidates;
- Agents, authorized representatives, founders, proprietors, owners, and members of managing boards of political parties or blocs of political parties; and
- Initiators of referendum campaign groups, or legal entities, persons and organizations, mentioned as authorized representatives of such groups.

Such advertisements may only be made at the expense of the relevant election (referendum) funds, and should be stopped 24 hours prior to the commencement of voting.

88.6. If programs of TV and radio companies and periodicals mentioned in Articles 77.1 and 77.4 of this Code participate in the pre-election campaign and do not create conditions for a registered candidate, before the end of the pre-election campaign, to defend his/her dignity and honor or refute misinformation about him/her during the pre-election campaign, such TV and radio companies and periodicals should prevent the distribution and broadcast of false information which injures the dignity and honor of the candidate. If programs of TV and radio companies and periodicals mentioned in Articles 77.1 and 77.4 of this Code do not provide a registered candidate with conditions to defend his/her dignity and honor before the end of the pre-election campaign, such TV and radio companies and periodicals, and their officials may be subject to liability established by legislation.

88.7. If a registered candidate or referendum campaign group violates Articles 88.1-88.3 of the present Code, the relevant election commission should appeal to law-enforcement bodies or the court; other state bodies may use this right as well. If a registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, or referendum campaign group violates other rules for conducting a pre-election campaign defined by this Code, the relevant election commission shall take relevant measures for bringing those guilty to administrative responsibility. The decision of the election commission shall be published in the press.

88.8. If TV and radio companies and periodicals violate the rules for pre-election campaigning defined by this Code, the relevant election commission shall have the right to apply to law enforcement bodies, the court, and the relevant executive authorities, on the initiative of the subordinate press group consisting of journalists in the order defined by the Central Election Commission, with a request to stop the illegal pre-election campaigning and to take the necessary measures regarding the companies, periodicals, and/or their officials.

CHAPTER Fourteen.

FINANCING ELECTIONS (REFERENDUM)

Article 89. Financing, Preparation and Conduct of Elections (Referendum)

89.1. Expenditures made in the preparation and conduct of elections/referendum (hereafter referred to as elections), and the activities of election commissions during their term of office, shall be paid from the state budget. Such expenses shall be considered by the state budget in accordance with the budget division of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

89.2. Funds allocated for preparation and conduct of elections shall be transferred by the relevant executive authority to the bank account of the Central Election Commission within 10 days after the decision to hold elections has been officially published.

89.3. The Central Election Commission shall transfer funds required for preparation and conduct of elections to the Constituency Election Commissions at least 35 days prior to Voting Day, and the Constituency Election Commissions shall distribute the received funds among Precinct Election Commissions at least 10 days prior to Voting Day. In case of elections where funds have not been transferred in time or transferred incompletely, election commissions shall distribute and transfer funds upon their receipt.

89.4. The chairpersons of election commissions shall give orders on how the above-mentioned allocated funds for preparation and conduct of elections are to be used, and shall be responsible for ensuring that financial statements conform to the decisions of the election commission, and that financial statements on expenses are submitted according to the rules and period defined by this Code.

89.5. Upon completion of elections, unused state funds of the election commissions should be transferred, at the latest within 60 days of Election Day, to the account of the Central Election Commission. These funds should remain in this account, to be used for purposes as defined by this Code.

Article 90. Election (Referendum) Funds of Candidates, Registered Candidates, Political Parties, Blocs of Political Parties and Referendum Initiative Groups

90.1. Election (referendum) funds (hereafter referred to as election funds) shall be created to finance activities of candidates, registered candidates, political parties or blocs of political parties which nominate candidates or have registered candidates, and referendum campaign groups.

90.2. The following shall be prohibited from rendering voluntary donations and assistance in kind or services to election funds of candidates, registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups:

90.2.1. Foreign countries and foreign legal entities;

90.2.2. Foreign citizens;

90.2.3. Stateless persons;

90.2.4. Citizens under the age of 18;

90.2.5. Legal entities of the Republic of Azerbaijan, of which more than 30% of the charter (property) capital belongs to persons mentioned in Articles 90.2.1, 90.2.2 and 90.2.3 of this Code on the day of official publication of the decision to hold elections;

90.2.6. International organizations and international social movements;

90.2.7. State bodies and municipalities;

90.2.8. State and municipal organizations and offices;

90.2.9. Legal entities, of which more than 30% of the charter capital belongs to the state or a municipality on the day of the official publication of the decision to hold elections;

90.2.10. Military units;

90.2.11. Charitable organizations, religious associations, institutions and organizations; and 90.2.12. Anonymous donors who do not provide any information or misinform on one of the following items:

For a citizen:

- Forename, surname, patronymic;
- Batch and serial number and date of issue, of identification document or substitute document;
- Address; or
- Date of birth.

For a legal entity:

- Identification number of taxpayer;
- Name;
- Date of registration;
- Bank account; or
- Amount of shares owned by state or municipalities in their charter capital and amount of foreign shares in their charter.

90.3. A candidate, registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, and referendum campaign group shall have the right to issue orders on how to use the election fund they created. Election funds should be spent for their intended purposes. They can be used only for the following purposes:

90.3.1. To finance organizational-technical actions for the collection of signatures in support of the nomination of candidates or approval of referendum campaign group members, as well as to pay the relevant persons for collecting voters' signatures;

90.3.2. To pay pre-election campaigning expenses and information and consulting services; and 90.3.3. To pay for other expenses for work performed directly by legal entities and citizens during the pre-election campaign.

90.4. Candidates, registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups shall use the money transferred to their election funds accounts up to Voting Day, in accordance with the rules defined by this Code. Candidates, registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and referendum campaign groups shall be prohibited from using funds other than the election funds for pre-election campaigning activities and collecting signatures. These rules, except for in the cases mentioned in the Articles 55.3 and 69.8 of this Code, shall not pertain to the funds used by political parties for other purposes not related to the election campaign and not considered part of the pre-election campaign.

90.5. An unregistered candidate, or political party or bloc of political parties with an unregistered candidate, may pay back the unused amount of the election funds (providing delivery expenses are excluded) to donor citizens and legal entities, in the amount appropriate and proportional to the transferred donations, up to the submission of the final financial report. If the unregistered candidate, or political party or bloc of political parties with an unregistered candidate, does not use this right, then the unused money shall be transferred correspondingly to the state or municipal budget.

90.7. After TV and radio companies and editorial offices of periodicals have been reimbursed for free airtime and space in periodicals, the registered candidate, or political party or bloc of political parties with a registered candidate, may transfer the unused amount of the election funds to settlement accounts of the donor citizens and legal entities, in the manner provided for in Article 90.5 of this Code. If the registered candidate, the political party or bloc of political parties with an unregistered candidate does not use this right, then the unused monetary funds shall be transferred correspondingly to the state or municipal budget.

Article 91. Special Election (Referendum) Accounts

91.1. The special election (referendum) account to form an election fund (hereafter referred as election accounts) shall be opened in the relevant bank, determined by the Central Election Commission. Article 103. Ballot Boxes

103.1. Parameters of ballot boxes (separately for ballot boxes and mobile ballot boxes) shall be approved by the Central Election Commission.

103.2. Ballot boxes should be transparent. The level of transparency of the boxes should allow for determining whether they are full or not.

103.3. The slit for placing ballots into ballot box should not allow to place more than one ballot at the same time.

103.4. Ballot boxes shall be sealed on Voting Day by the Precinct Election Commissions' chairpersons in the manner established by the Central Election Commission. Seals should be plastic and should each have their own number.

Article 104. Rules for Voting

104.1. Voting shall be held from 08:00 till 19:00 on Voting Day. The Precinct Election Commission should inform the voters of the place and time of voting at least 25 days prior to Voting Day via the mass media or using notice boards.

104.2. Should the total number of voters in a settlement be less than 50, and more than 1 hour be required to reach the nearest election commission from such a settlement, the Constituency Election Commission may use public transport to deliver the such voters to the election precinct where they are registered. Such transportation expenses shall be paid from funds allocated by the Central Election Commission to the Constituency Election Commission.

104.3. If all voters on the Voter List take part in voting, Precinct Election Commissions of election precincts organized in accordance with Articles 35.4 and 35.6 of this Code may provide information on early completion of voting.

104.4. If a voter ascertains that he/she will not be able to go to the polling station on Voting Day because of his/her state of health or other valid reasons, he/she should inform the Precinct Election Commission directly or via other persons either orally or in writing, at least 24 hours prior to Voting Day on his/her intention to vote outside the voting room. If the intention is declared orally, it shall be made official by a relevant application during the voting period. Constituency Election Commissions may issue permission to ships sailing under the State Flag of The Republic of Azerbaijan, and to remote and almost impassable distant places to hold the voting at the most 10 days prior to Voting Day.

104.5. At 07:50 on Voting Day, the Chairperson shall declare the election precinct open, and show the members of the election commission, voters, and observers who are present the empty ballot boxes and then seal them. At 08:00, he/she shall announce the commencement of voting.

104.6. One of the Precinct Election Commission members stays at the entrance of the election precinct and he/she checks citizens' voter cards, IDs or other identification documents, as well as part of the nail and skin of the voter's left thumb to see if it was previously marked with the liquid indicated in Article 102, and gives permission for entrance. If such a marking is found, the voter shall not be issued a ballot paper. Another member of the Precinct Election Commission checks the availability of the voter's name on the voters' list and issues a ballot paper for that voter. The voter shall be informed that s/he cannot be issued a ballot paper if s/he refuses to have his/her thumb marked. If the voter does not agree, s/he shall be asked to leave the election precinct. A note "refused to be marked" is recorded on the voters' list. If the voter agrees, his/her left thumb shall be marked.

104.7. A ballot paper shall be provided to a voter upon presentation of the voters' card with his/her identification or substitute document. After the voter receives the ballot paper, the serial and batch number of his/her identification or substitute document shall be recorded in the Voter List. The serial and batch number of the identification or substitute document shall be entered in the voter list by a member of the Precinct Election Commission. The voter shall check correctness of the records and sign upon receiving the ballot paper. If the voter is not able to receive a ballot paper independently, he/she may use the help of other persons, except members of Precinct Election Commission and observers. The person who helps the voter should put down his/her surname and initials and sign in the column "signature of voters on receipt of ballot paper” in the Voter List.

104.8. On issuance of a ballot paper, a member of the Precinct Election Commission shall sign the numbered left corner of the ballot paper, cut it along the cut-off line, and keep it.

104.9. Every voter shall vote in person and alone. To vote in place of other persons shall be prohibited. Ballot papers shall be marked in a room or booth where nobody is authorized to enter and equipped with special technical to ensure the secrecy of the vote. A disabled voter who is not able to mark the ballot paper without assistance may invite any other person into the voting booth or room, except members of Precinct Election Commissions or observers. The surname and initials of this person shall be indicated with the voter’s signature on receipt of the ballot paper in the Voter’s List.

104.10. A voter shall place the marked ballot paper and drop it into the ballot-box.

104.11. Ballot boxes should be placed in the area where members of the Precinct Election Commission and observers may easily observe them.

104.12. The Chairperson of Precinct Election Commission shall oversee the maintenance of order in the polling station. His directions are obligatory for persons in the voting room. If the chairperson of the Precinct Election Commission is out, his powers shall be assumed by the secretary of the Precinct Election Commission or any member of the commission charged with this duty.

104.13. A member of the Precinct Election Commission who attempts to influence a voter or violates the secrecy of ballot shall be dismissed from his/her position by compiling a relevant act, and the person mentioned in Article 40.2. and 40.4 of this Code shall be immediately removed from the voting room. The Precinct Election Commission shall take a decision on the case. If the influenced voter has not voted yet, he/she shall not be allowed to vote, his/her ballot shall be withdrawn and invalidated.

104.14. Aside from voters participating in the elections, members of the Precinct Election Commission, and persons mentioned in Article 40.2. and 40.4 of this Code, no other person should be present in an election precinct. State officials shall not be allowed to participate in voting except in the cases when they participate as voters. An official from the law enforcement authority may be present at a polling station if there to preserve the law and order upon invitation of the chairperson of the Precinct Election Commission, and he/she must leave the polling station immediately upon completion of duties.

Voting shall be stopped, if an official from the law enforcement authority is in the voting room during the voting process. Shall order be impossible to be restored for 6 hours during the voting process, the polling station shall be closed upon decision of the Constituency Election Commission. Voting in such election precincts shall be considered invalid.

104.15. If a voter informs that he/she has made an error in marking his/her ballot paper, he/she may ask the commission member who issued the original ballot paper for a new ballot paper in place of the spoiled one. In this case, the Precinct Election Commission member shall cancel the spoiled ballot paper by cutting it in the center, put it in a separate envelope, give a new ballot paper to the voter and make the necessary note to the right of the voters surname on the Voters' List. A separate act shall be prepared immediately recording this occurrence.

Article 105. Voting Outside the Voting Room

105.1. The Precinct Election Commission should create possibilities for all voters, including those who cannot come to the voting room because of the state of their health, to participate in voting. A mobile ballot box for this purpose should be available in the election precinct.

105.2. The number of voters' requests for voting outside the voting room shall be approved by the Constituency Election Commission at least 12 hours before Voting Day. The intention of a voter to vote outside the voting room should be confirmed again by a written application submitted to the Precinct Election Commission, in the presence of no less than 2 members of the Precinct Election Commission who represent various political parties and non-partisans and observers. If a voter did not make a written request for a mobile ballot box, he/she should write an application in the presence of Precinct Election Commission members. The voter shall record the receipt of his/her ballot paper in the request and verify this with his/her signature. The person who issues ballot paper to the voter shall put a stamp indicating the voting date on the voter's card. In such cases, the serial and batch numbers of the identification card or substitute document of the voter shall be indicated in the application. Information on the voter on the Voter's List should be indicated in the application.

105.3. The mobile ballot box shall be used only on Voting Day. Members of the Precinct Election Commission who accompany the mobile ballot box should take the number of ballot papers equal to the number of requests/applications, plus 3 additional ballot papers. The number of used and returned ballot papers from voters requesting a mobile ballot box should be recorded in a separate act. Voters using the mobile ballot box shall be marked on the Voter's List by a member of the Precinct Election Commission. The member of the Precinct Election Commission shall separately keep record of the cases of voting outside of the voting precinct. After the mobile ballot box is returned by the Precinct Election Commission members to the polling station, its slit shall be closed and it shall not be opened until vote counting commences.

105.4. Voting by mobile ballot box should be organized so that there are no violations of the voter's right to vote or of the rules for secret voting and not influencing the voter's choice.

Article 106. Vote Counting in Voting Station

106.1. When voting ends, the Precinct Election Commission chairperson shall announce loudly that: "only the voters who have already received ballot papers and those in the voting room may vote." In this case, voting of only the voters in line in the voting room prior to the announcement shall be ensured. Before opening the ballot box, Precinct Election Commission members shall count and cancel unused ballot papers in the presence of observers in the polling station. The number of unused ballot papers shall be announced and recorded in the final protocol of voting results. The number of signatures of voters who have received ballot papers and envelopes shall be recorded in the final protocol on results of voting. At the same time, the number of voters voting with a de-registration card and those voting outside the voting room using mobile boxes, shall be recorded in the final protocol. Then, the Precinct Election Commission chairperson shall examine the stamps and seals of the ballot boxes, show them to the Precinct Election Commission members and observers, and open the ballot boxes.

106.2. Ballot boxes shall be opened one by one: first the mobile ballot box, then the immovable ballot box. Ballot papers in the mobile ballot box shall be counted first. Their number should not exceed the number of requests. When counting ballots from the mobile ballot box, if the total number of ballot papers is more than the number of requests (total number of voters who were issued ballot papers), then all votes in the mobile ballot box shall be considered invalid by decision of the Precinct Election Commission. An act on this, which includes a list of the surnames of the commission members that accompanied the mobile ballot box, shall be attached to the final protocol. The number of voters who have voted with a voting card shall be added to the number of voters who appear on the Voter List of the precinct.

106.3 (Removed)

106.4 If there are doubts on the validity of a vote, the Precinct Election Commission shall vote to determine if the vote is considered valid. If a decision is made to consider the vote invalid, the reasons for the decision shall be recorded on the reverse side of the ballot paper. Such a record should be approved by the signatures of the chairperson and secretary of the Precinct Election Commission. Invalid votes shall be packed separately.

106.5. Counting of votes by the Precinct Election Commission chairperson, with participation of Precinct Election Commission members, shall continue without break until the count is finished. During this period, every used ballot shall be stamped. All Precinct Election Commission members and observers shall be informed of the results of voting.

106.6. The final protocols on voting results shall be completed in the presence of the persons specified in Articles 40.2 and 40.4 of this Code.

106.7. The First copy of the protocol, together with the following documents shall be sent immediately, but not later than 24 hours after Voting Day, to the Constituency Election Commission, accompanied by the chairman of the Precinct Election Commission, two members representing different political parties and observers: complaints (applications) about violations of this law received by the Precinct Election Commission and decisions made by the Precinct Election Commission with respect to these complaints and applications, an act on receipt of ballot papers by the Precinct Election Commission, an act on cancelling the unused ballot papers, indicating the number of such ballots, an act on issuing voting cards and on cancelling unused voting cards, recording their number; an act on the number of torn off left corners of the ballot papers; an act on the number of spoiled ballot papers mentioned in the Article 104.15 of this Code, along with the act provided for in Article 105.3 of this Code, the ballots and the voter list for the precinct, together with voting cards attached. All documents mentioned above should be signed by the chairperson and secretaries of the Precinct Election Commission. Verified copies of complaints (applications), decisions of Precinct Election Commissions and acts mentioned above, shall be attached to the 2nd copy of the protocol.

106.8. The second copy of the protocol, the torn off left corners of ballot papers, the torn off pieces of spoiled ballot papers with the list of persons mentioned in Article 40.2 and 40.4 of this Code who observed the voting and vote count shall be kept by the secretary of the Precinct Election Commission until the commission has finished its activities.

106.9. The Precinct Election Commissions established outside of the Republic of Azerbaijan shall send the first copy of the protocol on voting results together with the attached documents to the Constituency Election Commission determined by the Central Election Commission within 3 days of Election Day.

106.10. The Constituency or Precinct Election Commission shall consider voting ineffective if legal violations that occurred during the conduct of elections (referendum), or the course of determining election results, do not allow for identifying the voters' will; or if there is a court decision.

106.11 After being compiled, the 3rd copy of the protocol of the Precinct Election Commission shall be posted on the notice board, and kept there for 5 days.

Article 107. Completion of Protocol of a Constituency Election Commission

107.1. The documents provided for in Article 106.7 of this Code shall be submitted to the Chairman of the Constituency Election Commission. Instructed by the Chairman of the Constituency Election Commission, a member (or members) of the Commission shall check for the compliance of the submitted documents with requirements of Article 106.7 of this Code, as well as for the presence of inconsistencies in voting results. Voting results shall then be entered in the final list of voting results for the Constituency. A receipt, signed and stamped by the Chairman of the Constituency Election Commission, confirming the acceptance of documents of the Precinct Election Commission, shall be given to the Chairman of the Precinct Election Commission.

107.2. Protocols of Constituency Election Commissions shall be completed within 2 days following Voting Day, on the basis of the integrated information from protocols of Precinct Election Commissions. Integration of the above-mentioned information shall be carried out without interruption.

107.4. The first copy of the protocol of the Constituency Election Commission together with the following documents shall be sent immediately, but no later than 2 days after Voting Day, to the Central Election Commission, accompanied by the chairperson of the Constituency Election Commission, and representatives of various political parties: complaints (applications) about violations of this law received by the Constituency Election Commission on Voting Day,, and decisions made by the Constituency Election Commission with respect to these complaints and applications, an act on receipt of ballot papers by the Constituency Election Commission, an act on canceling the unused ballot papers, recording the number of such cards; an act on issuing voting cards and on canceling unused voting cards, recording their number. The mentioned acts shall be signed by the chairperson and secretaries of the Constituency Election Commission. Verified copies of complaints (applications), decisions of Constituency Election Commission and acts mentioned above shall be attached to the 2nd copy of the protocol.

107.5. The 2nd copy of the protocol, along with packaged and stamped ballots, the cut-off left corners of those ballot papers, and a list of persons mentioned in Article 40.2 and 40.4 of this Code who observed the voting and vote count, shall be kept by the secretary of the Precinct Election Commission until the commission finishes its activities.

107.6. Should the Constituency Election Commission discover mistakes or inadmissible corrections and inconsistencies in the protocol (including other documents attached thereto) of a Precinct Election Commission, the Constituency Election Commission may adopt a decision on the recount of votes in the relevant election precinct. In this case, the recount of votes shall be undertaken by the members of the Constituency Election Commission with decisive voting rights. The relevant Precinct Election Commission and the persons indicated in Articles 40.2 and 40.4 of this Code shall be notified in on the recount of votes. A protocol shall be compiled on recount of votes and the words "recount of votes" shall be recorded on it.

107.7. The 3rd copy of protocol of the Constituency Election Commission and copies of protocols of relevant Precinct Election Commissions shall be posted on the notice board, and kept there for 10 days.

Article 108. Completion of Protocols of the Central Election Commission

108.1. Provisions of Article 107.1 of this Code shall be implemented when submitting the election documents of the Constituency Election Commission to the Central Election Commission.

108.2. The relevant protocol of the Central Election Commission shall be completed on the basis of the integrated information from protocols of Constituency Election Commissions. Integration of this information shall be carried out without interruption. The Central Election Commission shall not compile protocols regarding returns of Municipal Elections or Elections to the Milli Majlis. The Central Election Commission of the Republic of Azerbaijan shall prepare protocols on general returns of elections To the Milli Majlis of the Republic of Azerbaijan and to municipalities.

108.3. The following shall be attached to the first copy of the relevant protocol of the Central Election Commission: Complaints (applications) about violations of this law on Voting Day, received by the Central Election Commission, and decisions made by the Central Election Commission with respect to these complaints; an act on the receipt of envelopes and ballot papers by the Central Election Commission; an act on canceling of the unused ballot papers, recording their number; and an act on issuing voting cards and on canceling unused voting cards, recording their number. The above-mentioned acts shall be signed by the chairperson and secretaries of the Central Election Commission. Certified copies of complaints (applications), decisions of the Central Election Commission, and the acts mentioned above shall be attached to the 2nd copy of the protocol.

108.4. Should the Central Election Commission, within at the latest 4 days after Voting Day, discover mistakes or inadmissible corrections and inconsistencies in the protocols (including other documents attached thereto) submitted by the Constituency Election Commissions, the Central Election Commission may adopt a decision on the recount of votes in the relevant election constituency. In this case, the recount of votes shall be undertaken in the presence of the members of the Central Election Commission with decisive voting rights. The persons indicated in Articles 40.2 and 40.4 of this Code shall be notified in advance of the recount of votes. A protocol shall be compiled on the recount of votes and the words "recount of votes" be recorded on it.

108.5. The 3rd copy of protocol of the Central Election Commission and copies of protocols of Constituency Election Commissions shall be posted on the notice board, and kept there for 15 days.

CHAPTER Sixteen.

COMPLAINTS ON AND ACCOUNTABILITY FOR VIOLATION OF CITIZENS' RIGHT TO VOTE

Article 112. Filing Complaints on Actions (Lack of Actions) and Decisions that Violate Citizens' Rights to Vote

112.1. Voters, candidates, registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, referendum campaign groups, agents of registered candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, referendum campaign groups, observers, and election commissions may file complaints about decisions and actions (lack of actions) which violate citizens' right to vote within 3 days of the date the decision is published or made, or the date actions (lack of actions) occurred, or the interested person is informed about it.

112.2. The persons indicated in Article 112.1 of this Code may submit their complaints to the relevant superior election commission.

112.3. If complaints of the persons indicated in Article 112.1 are initially not considered by a superior election commission, such persons may consequently file complaints on the decision or the action (inaction) of the constituency election commission to the Central Election Commission, and on the decision or the action (inaction) of the Central Election Commission to the Court of Appeal.

112.4. If the infringement described in the complaint can be considered a criminal action according to the Criminal Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan, the relevant election commission can apply to relevant public prosecutor's bodies and make decisions regarding elimination of the shortcomings or infringements indicated in the complaint. The Central Election Commission must make a grounded decision on consideration of each complaint. If the investigation of the complaint indicates the likelihood of a crime, the prosecuting body should be informed about it. The relevant prosecuting body must consider the complaint within 3 days.

112.5. Complaints submitted by citizens must contain the following:

112.5.1. The name of the commission for handling citizens' complaints to which the complaint is addressed;

112.5.2. Address for sending the complainant a notification about the time when the complaint will be considered;

112.5.3. Decision, action, or lack of action, which are the subject of a complaint;

112.5.4. If it is a decision, it must be attached to the complaint; names of the election commission or state institution, which are the subjects of the dispute must be recorded; and the official must be indicated;

112.5.5. If it is an action, the name (position) of the person who committed the unlawful action, the substance of the action, and the place and time the action was committed must be clearly indicated;

112.5.6. If it is a lack of action, the applicant must indicate the demand which was not considered and the name of the institution or person that did not consider the demand;

112.5.7. The basis for the complaint can be an assumption of a violation of the Election Code and other legislative acts;

112.5.8. Evidence for purported violation or explanation as to what constitutes the violation;

112.5.9. Demand of the applicant;

112.5.10. In the case the complaint is filed with the superior Commission about a decision of the lower Commission, the decision of the relevant election commission must be annexed to the complaint.

112.5.11. The applicant must sign the complaint. If the complaint is filed by political parties or a bloc of political parties running for elections, then the complaint must be signed by the authorized representative with his/her document of authorization attached.

112.6. If the court cancels the decision of the election commission, the same election commission should make a new decision on the issue, or a superior election commission should make a relevant decision based on the decision of the court. Non-implementation of the court resolutions shall impose criminal liability in accordance with the Criminal Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

112.7. Examination of the complaint about the decision on voting results and election returns or investigation of the facts regarding violation of this Code shall not be considered as a violation of the immunity of candidates considered to be elected in conformity with this Code. A candidate considered to be elected may not refuse to testify as a witness during administrative, civil, or criminal investigations regarding the complaints on the violation of citizens' rights to vote while he/she was being elected (except for cases provided for in the Civil-Procedure Code and the Criminal-Procedure Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan).

112.8. The election commission shall have the right to receive citizens' and officials' information and to require necessary documents and materials while considering the following:

- issues on cancellation of registration of a registered candidate or referendum campaign group;
- issues on refusal of registration of a candidate or referendum campaign groups; and
- appeals on invalidation of the election of a registered candidate.

112.9. The superior election commission shall have the right to cancel the decision of a subordinate election commission, to make a decision regarding the substance of the matter or order reexamination of the issue..

112.10. A decision on each complaint received by the election commission during the election processes shall be made within 3 days, or immediately if complaints are received on Election Day or the day after the Election Day, and delivered to the plaintiff.

112.11. Courts should consider complaints concerning decisions of election commissions within 3 days (if no lesser timeline is identified by this Code). A complaint on the court decision may be filed with a superior court of instance within 3 days.

Article 112-1. Investigation of Complaints on Violation of Citizens' Election Rights.

112-1.1. In order to investigate complaints on actions (lack of actions) and decisions that violate citizens' election rights relevant expert groups shall be created at the Central Election Commission composed of 9 members, and at the Constituency Election Commission composed of 3 members. Commissions' lawyer members may be included in the composition of these groups. Rules for establishing expert groups shall be determined by the Central Election Commission.

112-1.2. Rules for handling citizens' complaints shall be established by the Central Election Commission.

112-1.3. The election commission must register received complaints, in numerical order with dates of receipt.

112-1.4. Once the complaint is registered the expert group will have the following responsibilities:

to issue an opinion on the complaint to the relevant election commission together with the investigation documents;

112-1.4.1. to issue an opinion on the complaint to the relevant election commission together with the investigation documents;

112-1.4.2. to require additional information about the complaint;

112-1.4.3. to apply to the relevant state body through the Central Election Commission for additional information;

112-1.4.4. to obtain additional evidence (video, written materials etc.) if necessary;

112-1.4.5. to take other actions determined by the Central Election Commission.

112-1.5. The expert groups within the Constituency Election Commission must follow the following rules when citizens submit complaints:

112-1.5.1. Receive the written complaint and register it if it is made in person;

112-1.5.2. If the complaint is submitted in person, the applicant must be given a receipt on the complaint;

112-1.5.3. If the complaint is received in violation of the rules established by this Code, an opinion must be issued on sending the complaint back to the applicant;

112-1.5.4. If the complaint is under the jurisdiction of the commission that received the complaint and of another body, the expert must propose that the Constituency Election Commission consider the complaint on its substance and that it resolve the issues within the commission's responsibilities and send the other issues under another body's responsibilities to that other body for resolving.

112-1.5.5. If the Constituency Election Commission receives a complaint from the election subjects containing criminal actions related to the elections, the group shall investigate the issue in conformity with Articles 112-1.4 and 112-1.11 of this Code, and must issue an opinion to the Constituency Election Commission on taking actions about the issues within its responsibilities, on making a grounded decision on informing the Prosecutor's Office about the actions if it is concluded that actions considered by the Criminal Code took place. (A copy of the complaint shall be attached to the information provided.)

112-1.5.6. If the expert has difficulties in establishing whether there are actions or probability of such actions considered by the Criminal Code while investigating the complaint, the Constituency Election Commission, along with recommendation to take actions within its responsibilities established by this Code, must state an opinion on sending the complaint to the Central Election Commission for it to make an opinion on this issue.

112-1.5.7. If the Constituency Election Commission receives a complaint from the election subjects containing criminal actions related to the elections, and if the expert concludes that actions considered by the Criminal Code took place, the expert shall issue an opinion on informing the relevant Prosecutor's office about those actions. A copy of the complaint shall be attached to the information provided.

112-1.6. The expert group within the Central Election Commission must follow the below mentioned rules along with Article 112-1.5 of this Code:

112-1.6.1. 112-1.6.2. If the relevant expert group's official does not take measures that can satisfy the applicant, a complaint can be filed about an action (lack of action) against the official of the group in accordance with this Code.

112-1.6.3. If the written complaint is of a criminal nature but does not relate to elections, such a complaint must be sent to the Prosecutor's office by the Central Election Commission immediately.

112-1.6.4. While discussing the complaint received from the Constituency Election Commission, the expert shall give an opinion in order to establish whether the violation reported in the complaint is a criminal case established by the Criminal Code, and determine the probability of a criminal action.

112-1.6.5. If the expert determines that those are the cases mentioned in Article 112-1.6.4, s/he shall issue an opinion to send the complaint to the relevant prosecutor's office by the Central Election Commission.

112-1.6.6. If the cases mentioned in Article 112-1.6.4 or other violations are not determined in the complaint received, then an opinion shall be made on the case that it shall be archived.

112-1.6.7. If it is refused without any ground to investigate the complaints considered by Article 112.5, then the Central Election Commission shall take actions within its responsibilities on imposing the liability on the official (officials) of the Constituency Election Commission and its expert group in compliance with the rules established by the legislation.

112-1.7. Rules for conducting meetings related to investigation of complaints by the election commission shall be determined by the Central Election Commission. If the applicant expressed willingness to attend the meeting in his/her appeal, s/he must be personally informed, about the place and time of the meeting by telephone or mail, a day prior to the meeting.

112-1.8. The expert shall inform about the complaint at the meeting. If the applicant or his/her authorized representative is present at the meeting s/he can explain the complaint. A representative of the Constituency Election Commission whose decision is under discussion can be invited to the meeting of the Central Election Commission and s/he has the right to justify the decision made.

112-1.9. The applicant has the right to present new evidence via documents or expert.

112-1.10. The expert that investigates the complaint must issue an opinion within the period established by Article 112.10. If additional investigation is needed, the relevant election commission can make a decision. Such a decision must be made within 3 days from the date of receipt of complaint, and immediately on Election Day.

112-1.11. Members of the expert groups that investigate the complaints can make the following opinions:

112-1.11.1. on cancellation of the decision of a lower election commission;

112-1.11.2. on warning the election subject in conformity with Article 113.1 of the Election Code;

147.2. Each voter may sign in support of more than one candidate.

147.3. Voters' signatures shall be collected through the procedure mentioned in Articles 56 and 57 of this Code.

CHAPTER Twenty Four.

CANDIDATE REGISTRATION DURING ELECTIONS TO THE MILLI MAJLIS

Article 148. Registration of a Candidate during Elections to the Milli Majlis

148.1. Candidates shall be registered in accordance with the rules mentioned in Article 60 of this Code.

148.2. No candidate shall be registered in more than one single-mandate constituency.

148.3. If rules mentioned in Article 148.2 of this Code are violated, the prior registration of the candidate shall be considered valid. But a decision made on the later registration shall be canceled by the decision of the relevant election commission (if a former registered candidate does not submit an application refusing his/her previous registration).

148.4. The activity of registered candidates shall be regulated by Articles 69-71 of this Code.

148.5. A list of registered candidates in the constituency shall be published by the Central Election Commission at least 20 days prior to Voting Day, in periodicals specified in Article 77.2 of this Code.

148.6. Political parties and blocs of political parties, which have nominated or registered candidates in more than 60 single-mandate constituencies, may appoint a member with consultative voting rights to each election commission. A candidate registered in a single-mandate election constituency may appoint a member with consultative voting rights to the relevant election constituency or each of the Precinct Election Commissions within the territory of the election constituency.

Article 149. Postponement of Elections to the Milli Majlis

149.1. If none of the candidates or only one candidate has been registered in a single-mandate constituency, during the period mentioned in Article 58.1 of this Code, elections in the relevant constituency shall be postponed for two months, in accordance with the rules mentioned in Article 145 of this Code, with the purpose of allowing for the nomination of additional candidates to conduct election activities.

149.2. If none of the registered candidates or only one registered candidate remains in an election constituency till Voting Day, elections in the single-mandate constituency shall be postponed for not more than 3 months, in accordance with the order mentioned in the Article 145 of this Code, to allow for nomination of additional candidates to conduct election activities.

Article 150. Reimbursement of Transport Expenses of a Registered Candidate during Elections to the Milli Majlis

150.1. According to Article 70.2 of this Code, the cost of travel using city, suburb, and inter-city transport (except for taxis and arranged journeys) generally used by a candidate registered in a single-mandate constituency within the relevant election constituency, shall be reimbursed upon submission of relevant receipts.

150.2. In cities with several election constituencies, transport expenses within the city of a candidate registered in one of these constituencies shall be reimbursed upon submission of relevant receipts.

150.3. If a registered candidate resides outside of his/her single-mandate constituency, his/her expenses for 4 journeys by motor or railway transport or 2 round trip journeys by plane to the constituency shall be reimbursed upon submission of relevant receipts.

150.4. Travel expenses of a candidate registered in a single-mandate constituency shall be reimbursed by the relevant Constituency Election Commission from funds allocated for preparation and holding of elections.

150.5. This type of reimbursement shall be carried out at the expense of allocations of the Central Election Commission.

Article 151. Immunity of a Registered Candidate during Elections to the Milli Majlis

A registered candidate may be subject to liability only with consent of the General Prosecutor of the Republic of Azerbaijan, in the manner established in Article 70.4 of this Code.

Article 152. Number of Agents of Registered Candidates During Elections to the Milli Majlis

152.1. Each candidate registered in a single-mandate constituency shall have the right to appoint up to 10 agents. The relevant Constituency Election Commission shall register the above-mentioned persons.

152.2. The status of agents shall be determined by Article 72 of this Code.

Article 153. Candidates' Relinquishing of Candidacy

153.1. Candidates' relinquishing of candidacy during elections to the Milli Majlis shall be regulated by Article 73 of this Code

153.2. Persons who have performed actions mentioned in Articles 73.1-73.2 of this Code shall have the right to re-nominate their candidacy for any single-mandate constituency, in accordance with rules and period considered by this Code.

Article 154. Refusal of a Political Party, Bloc of Political Parties from Participation in Elections to the Milli Majlis

154.1. A political party according to its Charter, and a bloc of political parties according to a decision of the authorized representatives of its parties, shall be entitled to withdraw a candidate and registered candidate nominated in a single-mandate constituency upon written application at any time within at least 10 days prior to Voting Day.

154.2. A political party in a bloc of political parties may apply to the Central Election Commission to refuse to participate in the elections as a member of the relevant bloc of political parties, based on the decision of the authorized body of political party, at least 10 days prior to Voting Day.

154.3. A political party, which has refused to participate in the election as a member of a relevant bloc of political parties may participate in the elections as an independent political party or may join another bloc of political parties in accordance with the rules established in this Code.

154.4. If all but one of the political parties constituting a bloc of political parties refuse to participate in the elections after the candidate nominated by the bloc of political parties is registered, then the remaining political party may participate in the elections as a bloc of political parties, keeping its name and emblem. This case will not serve as grounds for refusal/cancellation of registration of candidates.

154.5. If a bloc of political parties refuses to participate in the elections, it shall not mean that political parties included in that bloc may not participate. In this case, re-nomination of a candidate and carrying out of other necessary election activities shall be required in accordance with this Code.

CHAPTER Twenty Five.

Preparation for Elections to the Milli Majlis

Article 155. Special Requirements for Conduct of Pre-election Campaign in Mass Media During Elections to the Milli Majlis

155.1. The participation of candidates, political parties, and blocs of political parties in the pre-election campaign shall be regulated by Chapter 13 of this Code.

155.2. One third of the total free airtime on TV and radio should be allocated for registered candidates, political parties, and blocs of political parties that have registered candidates in more than 60 single-mandate constituencies, in order to conduct discussions, round tables, and other election campaign activities. Rules for conduct of such events shall be defined by the Central Election Commission.

155.3. Airtime provided for joint election campaign activities of the registered candidates, political parties and blocs of political parties on channels of TV and radio companies specified in Articles 77.2 and 77.3 of this Code, shall be allocated and calculated, and broadcast separately. The registered candidates, political parties and blocs of political parties should use such free airtime on an equal basis. In such a case, the amount of free airtime for each candidate, political party and bloc of political parties shall be determined separately.

155.4. The norm for paid airtime allocated by TV and radio companies specified in Article 77.1. of this Code shall be determined by dividing the total amount of airtime by the total number of candidates, political parties, and blocs of political parties that have registered candidates in more than 60 single-mandate constituencies.

155.5. The amount of free space allocated by the periodicals specified in Article 77.1 of this Code shall be determined by dividing the total amount of free space by the total number of candidates, political parties, and bloc of political parties that have registered candidates in more than 60 single-mandate constituencies. In this case, the amount of free space shall be allocated separately for the candidates and separately for the political parties and blocs of political parties. They may use the space on the basis of relevant payment.

155.6. Refusal of registered candidates, political parties, and blocs of political parties that have registered candidates in more than 60 single-mandate constituencies, from participation in activities mentioned in Article 155.2 of this Code, shall not result in an increase of free airtime allocated in accordance with Article 80.6.

Article 156. Election Funds of Candidates, Registered Candidates, Political Parties, and Blocs of Political Parties during Elections to the Milli Majlis

156.1. The maximum limit of a candidate's election fund assets should not exceed 500 thousand manats.

156.2. Election funds of candidates and registered candidates nominated for a single-mandate constituency may be organized from the following financial resources:

156.2.1. the special funds of candidates and registered candidates — the value of the special funds may not be more than 500 thousand manats;

156.2.2. funds of candidates or political parties, which have nominated a registered candidate, or political parties in a bloc of political parties -- the value of the funds may not be more than 150 thousand manats;

156.2.4. voluntary donations by citizens or legal entities in respective amounts of no more than 3,000 and 50,000 manats;

156.3. Political parties and blocs of political parties that have nominated or registered candidates in more than 60 single-mandate constituencies, may create a unified election fund.

156.4. Election funds of political parties and blocs of political parties may be formed only from the following financial resources:

156.4.1. special funds of political parties and blocs of political parties not exceeding 500 thousand manats (such funds of blocs of political parties are formed from the funds of political parties which are included in that bloc);

156.4.3. voluntary donations by citizens and legal entities in respective amounts of no more than 3,000 and 50,000 manats.

156.5. The maximum limit of the election fund assets of a political party or bloc of political parties shall be determined by multiplying the amount stipulated in Article 156.1 of this Code by the number of nominated or registered candidates. At the same time, the amount spent for each candidate should not exceed the amount provided for in Article 156.1 of this Code. Observance of this condition should be indicated in political parties and blocs of political parties' financial statements.

Article 157. Special Election Accounts during Elections to the Milli Majlis

157.1. Candidates should open a special election account to form their election fund within 5 days of submitting a notification on nomination in a single-mandate constituency to the Constituency Election Commission.

157.2. Political parties and blocs of political parties, which intend to open a single election fund for their candidates, shall open a special election account to form the single election fund, within 5 days of submitting the list of candidates nominated in more than 60 single-mandate constituencies to the Central Election Commission.

157.3. A candidate, political party, or blocs of political parties shall open a special election account on the basis of the certified copy of the notice of the Constituency Election Commission on nomination of a candidate in a single-mandate constituency, and upon attaching thereto the documents specified in Articles 53 and 54 of this Code. The candidate, political party, or bloc of political parties may assign their authorized representative to open the special election fund. The candidate, registered candidate, political party, or bloc of political parties may allow another person to use the funds from their election account by informing the Central Election Commission in writing.

157.4. If the constituency of a candidate or registered candidate changes, he/she may return the balance remaining in the special election account, by distributing it proportionally among the persons and legal entities who contributed voluntary donations. Should this right not be used, the bank will transfer the funds to the account of the Central Election Commission within 3 days, based on written instructions of the relevant election commission. Then, the candidate or registered candidate should submit a final financial report to the Central Election Commission and should submit a copy of the financial report to the Constituency Election Commission. Opening a special election account in a new constituency shall be regulated in conformity with the rules defined by this Code.

Article 158. Cancellation of the Unified Election Fund

If the number of candidates registered in single-mandate constituencies of a political party or bloc of political parties that has created an unified election fund is 60 or less, the special election account of the political party or bloc of political parties shall be closed, and a special election account shall be opened for each candidate and assets of the unified election fund proportionally divided among the election funds of these candidates.

Article 159. Transparency in Use of Election Funds During Elections to the Milli Majlis

159.1. It will be obligatory for the following information on the candidate registered or nominated in a single-mandate constituency to be published in the mass media in accordance with the rules mentioned in Article 77.3 of this Code:

159.1.1. on the financial statement of expenditure of funds, if the election funds for political parties and blocs of political parties and of candidates or registered candidates respectively exceed 10,000 or 2,500 manats;

159.1.2. the legal entities who made donations to the election funds of political parties or blocs of political parties or to candidates or registered candidates in amounts exceeding, respectively, 5,000 or 1,250 manats, (in this case, the possibility of transfer of funds through several installments of donations should be taken into account);

159.1.3. the number of citizens who made donations in election funds in amounts exceeding 250 manats;

159.1.4. the funds returned to the donors and the grounds of their return; and 159.1.5. the total amount received in and spent from an election fund.

159.2. It will be obligatory for the following information on the unified election fund of a political party or bloc of political parties to be published in the mass media in conformity with the rules mentioned in Article 77.2 of this Code:

159.2.1. the financial statement of expenditure of funds, if the election funds exceed 10,000 manats;

159.2.2. the legal entities that made donations to the election funds in amounts exceeding 5,000 manats (in this case, the possibility of transfer of funds by the same legal entity through several installments of donations should be taken into account);

159.2.3. the number of citizens who made donations more than 250 manats;

159.2.4. funds returned to the donors and the grounds for their return; and 159.2.5. on the total amount received in and spent from an election fund.

Article 162. Payment for Free Airtime and Free Space in Periodicals Allocated to Registered Candidates, Political Parties, Blocs of Political Parties during Elections to the Milli Majlis

162.1. A candidate, political party, or bloc of political parties not considered by Article 161 of this Code should pay the full cost of free airtime and free space to the TV and Radio companies and periodicals mentioned in Articles 77.2 and 77.3 of this Code. This amount should be paid from the election fund by the candidate, political parties, and blocs of political parties before the day of submission of the final financial report. The Central Election Commission shall transfer the following to the TV and Radio companies and periodicals mentioned in Articles 77.2 and 77.3 of this Code within 3 days of the official publication of the general results of elections:

- the list of candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties considered by paragraph 1 of this Article, as well as the list of political parties included in the bloc of political parties mentioned above;
- addresses of such candidates, parties, and blocs of parties; and
- certified copies of extracts from joint decisions of a bloc of political parties on payment of used free airtime and space allocated by periodicals.

162.2. Within 10 days of the date of official publication of the general election results, the TV and Radio companies and periodicals mentioned in Articles 77.2 and 77.3 of this Code shall send relevant information on the cost of the allocated free airtime and free space, their legal addresses, and bank account to the candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and political parties in the blocs of political parties not considered by Article 161 of this Code.

162.3. The cost of the allocated free airtime and space in periodicals considered by Articles 80.5, 83.6 and 155.2 of this Code shall be determined in a manner considered by Articles 80.6 and 83.7 of this Code, i.e. by multiplying the total amount of free airtime and space provided to the candidates, political parties, and blocs of political parties by TV and Radio companies and periodicals, by the cost of airtime and space allocated for publishing information as determined by TV and Radio companies and periodicals.

162.4. When political parties and blocs of political parties with candidates registered in more than 60 single-mandate constituencies use free airtime to conduct joint election campaign activities considered by Article 155.2 of this Code, the amount of funds returned by each political party and bloc of political parties shall be determined by the TV and Radio companies by dividing it proportionally by the total number of participants in the joint campaign activity.

162.5. If a candidate, political party, or bloc of political parties refuses to use free airtime in conformity with the rules and period defined by Article 81.5 of this Code, the cost of presented free airtime shall not be paid.

162.6. TV and Radio companies and periodicals considered by Articles 77.2 and 77.3 of this Code shall inform the Central Election Commission within 12 months of Voting Day about the candidates and political parties considered by Article 161 of this Code that did not completely pay the cost of free airtime or space. The Constituency Election Commission shall inform the Central Election Commission within 12 months of Voting Day about citizens or political parties not considered by Article 161 of this Code and who owe debts to the election commission.

Article 163. Money Remaining in Special Accounts of Election Funds of Candidates, Registered Candidates, Political Parties, Blocs of Political Parties during Elections to the Milli Majlis

The relevant bank, according to written instructions of the relevant election commission, should transfer money remaining in special accounts of election funds of candidates, registered candidates, political parties, or blocs of political parties to the account of the Central Election commission 60 days after Voting Day.

Article 164. Return of Money Received by Candidates, Registered Candidates, Political Parties and Blocs of Political Parties to Their Own Accounts during Elections to the Milli Majlis

164.1. If there is no money in the election fund or it is short of money, the cost of free airtime and space in periodicals allocated for a registered candidate, political parties and blocs of political parties shall be paid from their own funds.

164.4. If a political party or bloc of political parties which has not fulfilled the requirements of Article 162.1 of this Code prior to submitting a final financial report, and which undertakes obligations toward TV and Radio companies and periodicals to pay the relevant funds, may be given time to pay for used free airtime and free space in periodicals within a 12 month period effective from Voting Day.

164.5. If obligations considered by Article 164.4 of this Code are not fulfilled and if the period mentioned for returning the funds expires, that money shall be returned by the court. If a registered candidate, political parties or bloc of political parties do not fulfil the requirements of Article 164.4 of this Code, the money shall be returned by the court before the period for submission of the final financial report expires if they do not undertake obligations mentioned in Article 164.4 of this Code before submitting their final financial report.

164.6. If a candidate or registered candidate loses his/her status, the obligations of the candidate or registered candidate described in Article 164 of this Code shall be transferred to that person who was considered a candidate or registered candidate. Should the candidate or registered candidate be nominated by a political party or a bloc of political parties, the obligations charged by Article 164 of this Code to the political parties and bloc of political parties will be imposed on the political parties including those which entered the bloc of political parties, after the end of elections.

In any case, the maximum limit of the election fund assets of a political party or bloc of political parties may not exceed 500,000 manats. At the same time, the amount expended for each candidate should not exceed the amount provided for in Article 225.3 of this Code. Observance of this condition should be indicated in the financial statements of political parties or blocs of political parties.

Article 226. Special Accounts of Political Parties, Blocs of Political Parties, and Candidates for Municipal Membership, 226.1. Candidates for municipality membership should open special accounts for creating their election fund within 5 days after submitting notification on the commencement of signature collection to the Constituency Election Commission.

226.2. The political parties, which intend to open a single election fund for their candidates, shall open a special election account to form the unified election fund, within 5 days of submitting the list of the candidates nominated in more than 1/3 of municipalities to the Central Election Commission.

226.3. A candidate, political party, or bloc of political parties shall open a special election account on the basis of the certified copy of the notification on nomination of a candidate submitted to the Constituency Election Commission, and upon attaching thereto the documents specified in Articles 53 and 54 of this Code. The candidate, political party, or bloc of political parties may assign its authorized representative to open the special election fund. The candidate, registered candidate, political party, or bloc of political parties may allow another person to use the funds from its election account by informing the Constituency Election Commission (or the Central Election Commission) in writing.

226.4. If the municipality where the candidate or registered candidate is nominated changes, he/she should return the money remaining in the special election account, by distributing it proportionally among the persons and legal entities that made donations. After doing this, the candidate or the registered candidate should submit a final financial report to the Constituency Election Commission. Opening a new special election account shall be regulated in conformity with the rules defined by this Code.

Article 227. Cancellation of the Single Election Fund

If the number of candidates registered in municipalities, of a political party or bloc of political parties which created an unified election fund, covers half or less than half of the municipalities, the special election account of the political party or bloc of political parties shall be closed, and concurrently a special election account shall be opened for each candidate. Assets of the unified election fund shall be proportionally divided among the new election funds of the individual candidates.

Article 228. Transparency in Usage of Money from Election Funds of Political Parties, Blocs of Political Parties, and Candidates for Municipal Membership

228.1. It shall be obligatory to publish the following information on the election fund of the candidate for municipal membership in the mass media mentioned in Article 77.4 of this Code:

228.1.1. the financial report on use of a candidate for municipal membership's election fund, if its value exceeds 1,000 manats;

228.1.2. the legal entities who made donations to the election fund of a candidate for municipality membership, if the amount donated exceeded 2,500 manats (in this case, possibility of transfer of funds by the same legal entity through several installments of donations should be taken into account);

228.1.3. the number of citizens who made donations, to the election fund of a candidate for municipality membership exceeding 250 manats;

228.1.4. funds returned to donors and on the grounds for their return; and

228.1.5. the total amount of money received in and spent from the election fund of a candidate for municipality membership.

228.2. It shall be obligatory to publish the following information on the political parties or blocs of political parties in the mass media in conformity with the rules mentioned in Article 77.2 or 77.3 of this Code:

228.2.1. the financial statement of expenditure of funds, if the election funds exceed 10,000 manats;

228.2.2. the legal entities who made donations to the election funds exceeding 5,000 manats (in this case, possibility of transfer of funds by the same legal entity through several installments of donations should be taken into account);

228.2.3. the number of citizens who made donations exceeding 250 manats;

228.2.4. the funds returned to the contributors and the grounds for their return;

228.2.5. the total amount received by and spent from the election fund.

Article 230. Obligations to Return Budget Funds Received by Candidates for Municipal Membership, Political Parties, Blocs of Political Parties or Registered Candidates for Municipality Membership

A candidate for membership of a municipality who participated in voting and received at least 3% of the votes considered valid, or who is considered to be elected, as well as a registered candidate for municipality membership, or a political party or bloc of political parties which have registered candidates in more than half of municipalities who withdrew candidacy under compelling circumstances, shall be obliged to return unspent funds transferred to their election funds by the municipality to the same municipality within 15 days of Election Day. After this period expires, the relevant bank should, without any dispute, transfer the amount mentioned in letter of the relevant municipality to its account.

Article 231. Payment of Cost of Free Airtime and Free Space in Periodicals by Candidates for Municipal Membership, Political Parties, and Blocs of Political Parties

231.1. The candidate, political party or bloc of political parties not mentioned in Article 230 of this Code, should pay in full the costs of free airtime and space allocated by TV and radio companies and periodicals mentioned in Articles 77.2, 77.3 and 77.4 of this Code. The given cost should be paid by the candidate, political party or blocs of political parties from election funds by the day the final financial report is submitted. The Central Election Commission shall send the following to the TV and Radio companies and offices of periodicals mentioned in Articles 77.2, 77.3 and 77.4 of this Code within 3 days after the general results of elections are officially published:

- the list of candidates, political parties or blocs of political parties, as well as a list of political parties included in the mentioned blocs of political parties;
- their addresses;
- certified copies of extracts from joint decisions of blocs of political parties on the payment of used free airtime and space allocated by periodicals.

231.2. Within 10 days after the official publication of final election results, the TV and radio companies and periodicals mentioned in Articles 77.2, 77.3 and 77.4 of this Code shall inform the candidates, political parties, blocs of political parties, and political parties included in a bloc not considered in Article 230 of this Code, about the cost of used free airtime and free space in periodicals, the companies' legal address, and the companies' bank information.

231.3. The cost of free airtime and print-space mentioned in Articles 80.5, 83.6 and 224.2 of this Code, shall be determined by multiplying the total volume of airtime and print-space allocated for the candidate, political party, or bloc of political parties in accordance with the rules defined in Articles 80.6 and 83.7 of this Code, with the cost of airtime and print-space, as determined by TV and radio companies and periodicals.

231.4. When political parties and blocs of political parties use free airtime to conduct joint campaign activities considered by Article 224.2 of this Code, the amount of funds returned by each political party and bloc of political parties shall be determined by TV and Radio companies by dividing it proportionally by the total number of participants of each joint TV program.

231.5. If a candidate, political party, or bloc of political parties refuses to use free airtime in accordance with the rules and period defined by the Article 81.5 of this Code, the cost of presented free airtime shall not be paid.

231.6. TV and Radio companies and periodicals considered by Articles 77.2, 77.3 and 77.4 of this Code shall inform the Central

Election Commission on the candidate or political parties considered by Article 230 of this Code, which did not completely pay the costs of free airtime and print-space, within 12 months of Voting Day. The Constituency Election Commissions shall inform the Central Election Commission about citizens or political parties not considered by Article 230 of this Code and those who have debt obligations to the election commission, within 12 months of Election Day.

Article 232. Money Remaining in Special Accounts of Election Funds of Candidates for Municipal Membership, Political Parties, or Blocs of Political Parties

The relevant bank should transfer money remaining in the special account of election funds of candidates for municipality membership 30 days after Voting Day, in accordance with the written instruction of the Constituency

Election Commission, to the budget of a relevant municipality.

Article 233. Return of Money by Candidates for Municipal Membership, Political Parties, or Blocs of Political Parties, at their Own Expense

233.1. If there is no money, or there is a shortage of money, in the election fund, municipal money shall be returned by the registered candidate, political party, bloc of political parties, and the cost of allocated free airtime and space in periodicals be reimbursed by political parties and blocs of political parties, at the expense of the candidates, political parties, or blocs of political parties.

233.2. If a bloc of political parties is responsible for returning municipality money allocated for payment of free airtime and print-space, the money to be returned shall be proportionally distributed among the political parties included in the bloc before Voting Day, unless otherwise is established in the joint decision on creation of the bloc of political parties and submitted to the Central Election Commission.

233.3. If a registered candidate who is not considered by Article 230 of this Code undertakes to submit a final financial report and to return the funds in conformity with this Code, he/she may return funds of municipal budget to the municipal account, within 6 months of voting day.

233.4. Before the submission of the final financial report, the political parties, or blocs of political parties, not considered by Article

230 of this Code and who do not fulfil requirements of Article 230 of this Code but undertake obligations before TV and Radio companies, or periodicals to repay the relevant amount of monetary funds, may be provided with a prolongation of a period of 6 months starting from Voting Day to pay the amounts of municipal budgets and the cost for used free airtime and print-space.

233.5. If the obligations considered by Articles 233.3 and 233.4 of this Code are not fulfilled, and if the period mentioned in the obligations on returning the funds expires, then that money shall be returned by the court. If a registered candidate, political party or bloc of political parties not considered by Article 230 of this Code and has not fulfilled the requirements of Articles 233.3 and 233.4 of this Code, does not undertake the obligations mentioned in Articles 233.3 and 233.4 of this Code, the money shall be returned in the court prior to expiration of the period for submission of final financial report, unless the final financial report is submitted.

233.6. If a candidate or registered candidate loses his/her status, the obligations of the candidate or registered candidates under this Article shall be imposed on the person who was considered as a candidate or registered candidate. Should the candidate or registered candidate be nominated by a political party or bloc of political parties, the obligations charged by this Article to the political parties and bloc of political parties shall be imposed on the political parties including those which entered the bloc of political parties after the end of elections.

233.7. The Central Election Commission shall provide the Constituency Election Commission with information about citizens who are considered by Article 230 of this Code and who have obligations to municipalities, within 5 days of the formation of Constituency Election Commissions and after a decision on determination of main, repeat, or by-elections is officially published.
