

In 2014, Saint Lucia made a moderate advancement in efforts to eliminate the worst forms of child labor. The Government ratified the UNC CRC Optional Protocol on Armed Conflict. The Government funded training workshops on human trafficking for Government and NGO officials and continued to fund education initiatives, including after-school programs, transportation subsidies, and school meals. However, although research is limited, children in Saint Lucia are reported to engage in child labor in agriculture and in the worst forms of child labor, including in commercial sexual exploitation. Saint Lucia also continues to face legislative gaps. The law does not fully protect children from illicit activities, and the Government has not adopted a list of hazardous activities prohibited for children. Further, Saint Lucia has not conducted research to assess the nature and scope of child labor.

I. PREVALENCE AND SECTORAL DISTRIBUTION OF CHILD LABOR

Although limited, research shows that children in Saint Lucia are engaged in child labor in agriculture and are engaged in the worst forms of child labor in commercial sexual exploitation.(1-3) Table 1 provides key indicators on children’s work and education in Saint Lucia. Data on some of these indicators are not available from the sources used in this report.

Table 1. Statistics on Children’s Work and Education

Children	Age	Percent
Working (% and population)	5-14 yrs.	7.5
Attending School (%)	5-14 yrs.	99.7
Combining Work and School (%)	7-14 yrs.	8.2
Primary Completion Rate (%)		91.6

Source for primary completion rate: Data from 2012, published by UNESCO Institute for Statistics, 2015.(4)

Source for all other data: Understanding Children’s Work Project’s analysis of statistics from MICS 4 Survey, 2012.(5)

Based on a review of available information, Table 2 provides an overview of children’s work by sector and activity.

Table 2. Overview of Children’s Work by Sector and Activity

Sector/Industry	Activity

* Evidence of this activity is limited and/or the extent of the problem is unknown.

‡ Child labor understood as the worst forms of child labor per se under Article 3(a) – (c) of ILO C. 182.

Limited evidence indicates that children are sometimes engaged in commercial sexual exploitation with the knowledge or encouragement of parents in situations of financial need.(1) Saint Lucia lacks data on the prevalence of child labor, and especially on the worst forms of child labor, including human trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation.(11)

II. LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR THE WORST FORMS OF CHILD LABOR

Saint Lucia has ratified most key international conventions concerning child labor (Table 3).

Article 23 of the Occupational Health and Safety Act prohibits the employment of persons under age 18 in industrial undertakings, which may include working with machinery and in extreme temperatures.(6, 15, 21) However, Article 23 states that young persons who have attained the age of 16 but not yet 18 may engage in these activities if they are supervised as part of an apprenticeship or vocational training program.(15) This provision may expose these children to hazardous work. In addition, research found no evidence that the Government has determined hazardous occupations or activities prohibited for children working in non-industrial sectors.(22, 23)

Research found no evidence that Saint Lucia has laws that prohibit the use of children in illicit activities, such as drug trafficking.(11, 23)

Saint Lucia does not have a standing military; the police force is responsible for the security of the country. The minimum age for recruitment to the police force is 18.(7, 20)

Article 16 of the Education Act guarantees free tuition for children attending public institutions. However, other unspecified charges may be applied if approved by the Education Minister.(19)

III. ENFORCEMENT OF LAWS ON THE WORST FORMS OF CHILD LABOR

The Government has established institutional mechanisms for the enforcement of laws and regulations on child labor, including its worst forms (Table 5).

Table 5. Agencies Responsible for Child Labor Law Enforcement

Organization/Agency	Role
Ministry for Education, Human Resource Development, and Labor	Enforce laws on child labor, in part through labor inspections conducted by its Department of Labor.(7, 11, 23)
Royal Saint Lucia Police Force	Enforce criminal laws related to the worst forms of child labor. Contains a Vulnerable Persons Unit that investigates cases of child labor, abuse, and neglect, and works in collaboration with the Division of Human Services.(6, 22, 24) Uses a specific manual for the investigation of crimes related to children.(7)
Office of Gender Relations	Provide referrals to trafficking victims for health and legal services.(10)

Law enforcement agencies in Saint Lucia took actions to combat child labor, including its worst forms.

Labor Law Enforcement

In 2014, Saint Lucia's seven labor inspectors conducted general labor inspections, during which they looked for indications of child labor. Reports indicate that labor inspectors did not receive specific training on child labor.(3) No information is available on the number of inspections carried out during the reporting period; however, no child labor violations were found during inspections. Inspectors are allowed to conduct unannounced inspections.(3) Inspectorates recommend penalties and the Labor Commissioner assesses the fines.(3)

Criminal Law Enforcement

No information is available on the number of investigators responsible for enforcing criminal laws on the worst forms of child labor. The Government funded a training workshop, led by the International Organization for Migration on human trafficking, for 32 participants from 20 government ministries and NGOs. During the first quarter of 2014, 130 police officers were trained in human trafficking laws and on how to coordinate and address trafficking-in-persons' issues with other organizations.(2)

During the reporting period, the Government initiated two sex trafficking cases, and in March 2014, the Government identified four potential trafficking victims, a significant increase from 2013 in which there were no cases initiated or victims identified.(2) No information is available regarding whether the Government issued penalties in these cases. (3, 10)

IV. COORDINATION OF GOVERNMENT EFFORTS ON THE WORST FORMS OF CHILD LABOR

The Government has established mechanisms to coordinate its efforts to address child labor, including its worst forms (Table 6).

Table 6. Mechanisms to Coordinate Government Efforts on Child Labor

Coordinating Body	Role & Description

Trafficking in Persons Task Force	Coordinate the detection and referral of trafficking-in-persons cases among law enforcement, social service, and immigration officials pursuant to the Counter-Trafficking Act.(7, 17) Currently, developing a national plan of action to combat trafficking in persons with the participation of the International Organization for Migration.(10)
Office of Gender Relations	Provide referrals to trafficking victims for health and legal services.(9)

No information is available on whether the Government-funded NGO shelter assisted trafficking victims during the reporting year.(2)

Research found no evidence of programs to specifically address children found in child labor in agriculture and in the worst forms of child labor, including in commercial sexual exploitation.
