- (2) The Registrar or authorised officer may defer the payment of a fee under subsection (1) if the fee is not a fee mentioned in any of items 123 to 125 and 219 to 221 of Schedule 1 and:
- (a) in the opinion of the Registrar or authorised officer:
 - (i) for a filing fee for a document—the need to file the document is so urgent that it overrides the requirement to pay the filing fee before the document is filed; or

 - (b) the person liable to pay the fee in relation to the proceeding is represented by a lawyer who is not charging the person in relation to the proceeding.
- (3) If the payment of a fee is deferred, the fee must be paid:

- (2) If the liable person has not paid the fee, the relevant court may:
- (a) if paragraph (1)(a) applies—invoice the person for the fee; or
 - (b) if paragraph (1)(b) applies—invoice the person, or the lawyer representing the person, for the fee.
- (3) The approved user of court services must pay the fee within 30 days after the approved user, or the person represented by the approved user, receives the invoice.

Approval of user of court services

- (4) A person or a lawyer is an approved user of court services in relation to the relevant court if the Registrar of that court has approved the person or lawyer for this section.
- (5) In deciding whether to approve a person or lawyer for this section, the Registrar must consider the following:
- (a) the person or lawyer's financial history with the court, including the frequency of dealings with the court and whether fees have been paid;
 - (b) whether the person or lawyer provides a guarantee;
 - (c) whether the person or lawyer is, or is likely to be, a regular user of the services of the court;

- (3) The Registrar may impose written conditions on the authorisation of a person for this section.

2.18 What happens if fee is not paid

- (1) This section applies if the payment of a fee:
 - (a) is not deferred under section 2.15; and
 - (b) cannot be invoiced under section 2.16.
- (2) If a person is required to pay a fee mentioned in Schedule 1 in relation to a proceeding before, or at the time of, the filing of a document or the provision of a service for which the fee is payable, the document must not be filed or the service must not be provided until the whole fee is paid.
- (3) However, the relevant court for the proceeding, or a Judge or Registrar of that court, may allow the document to be filed or the service to be provided despite the fee, or part of the fee, not being paid.

Part 2 Fees

Division 2.5 Payment of fees

Section 2.18

- (4) If a setting down fee or a hearing fee, or part of that fee, for a hearing is not paid in relation to a proceeding:

Division 2.6—Miscellaneous

2.19 Refund of fees

General

- (1) A person is entitled to a refund of an amount in relation to the payment of a fee mentioned in Schedule 1 if the person pays more than the person is required to pay for the fee under this regulation.
- (2) The amount to be refunded is the difference between the amount paid by the person and the amount that the person is required to pay for the fee.

- (8) For subsections (5) and (7), formal orders means orders finalising the proceedings that were to be the subject of the hearing.

earlier CPI number is the CPI number for the last March quarter before the start of the relevant period.

- (5) However, if the Australian Statistician changes the reference base for the Consumer Price Index, then for the application of this section after the change is made, regard must be had only to CPI numbers published in terms of the new reference base.
- (6) In this section:

CPI number means the All Groups Consumer Price Index number (being the weighted average of the 8 Australian capital cities) published by the Australian Statistician.

March quarter means a period of 3 months ending at the end of March.

- (1) The amount of remuneration set out in Schedule 2 is increased on 1 July 2014, and on each second 1 July following that day.
