

In 2015, Maldives made a minimal advancement in efforts to eliminate the worst forms of child labor. The Government acceded to the Palermo Protocol on Trafficking in Persons, incorporated a human trafficking module into the training curriculum for all new Maldives Immigration hires, and adopted the National Anti-Human Trafficking Action Plan (2015–2019). Although research is limited, evidence indicates that children are engaged in the worst forms of child labor in commercial sexual exploitation, sometimes as a result of human trafficking in Maldives. The Government has not determined specific hazardous occupations or activities that are prohibited for children and the compulsory education age of 13 leaves children ages 13 to 15 vulnerable to the worst forms of child labor. The Government does not have a coordinating mechanism, policy, or social program that specifically addresses child labor, including its worst forms.

I. PREVALENCE AND SECTORAL DISTRIBUTION OF CHILD LABOR

Although research is limited, evidence indicates that children are engaged in the worst forms of child labor in commercial sexual exploitation, sometimes as a result of human trafficking in Maldives. (1, 2) Table 1 provides key indicators on children’s work and education in Maldives.

Table 1. Statistics on Children’s Work and Education

Children	Age	Percent
Working (% and population)	5-14 yrs.	3.9 (2,364)
Attending School (%)	5-14 yrs.	79.5
Combining Work and School (%)	7-14 yrs.	4.0
Primary Completion Rate (%)		114.4

Source for primary completion rate: Data from 2009, published by UNESCO Institute for Statistics, 2015.(3)

Source for all other data: Understanding Children’s Work Project’s analysis of statistics from Demographic and Health Survey, 2009.(4)

Based on a review of available information, Table 2 provides an overview of children’s work by sector and activity.

Table 2. Overview of Children’s Work by Sector and Activity

Sector/Industry	Activity
Agriculture	Fishing,* activities unknown (5)
Services	Domestic work* (1, 2)
Categorical Worst Forms of Child Labor‡	Commercial sexual exploitation,* sometimes as a result of human trafficking* (1, 2)

* Evidence of this activity is limited and/or the extent of the problem is unknown.

‡ Child labor understood as the worst forms of child labor per se under Article 3(a)–(c) of ILO C. 182.

No current data are available on child labor in Maldives, and a national survey on child labor has not been conducted. Some girls from Bangladesh and Maldives are trafficked for commercial sexual exploitation to Malé, the capital of Maldives, but evidence of the problem is limited.(2) The Maldives Human Rights Commission is assessing the scope of the human trafficking problem in the country, but its findings have not been published.(6, 7)

II. LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR THE WORST FORMS OF CHILD LABOR

Maldives has ratified all key international conventions concerning child labor (Table 3).

In 2015, the Government of Maldives acceded to the Palermo Protocol on Trafficking in Persons.

The Government has established laws and regulations related to child labor, including its worst forms (Table 4).

* No conscription (15)

‡ Age calculated based on available information

While the legal framework prohibits the employment of children in work that may be detrimental to their health and safety, the Government has not determined specific hazardous occupations and activities that are prohibited for children.(16)

Children in Maldives are only required to attend school up to age 13. This standard makes children ages 13 through 15 vulnerable to the worst forms of child labor because they are not required to attend school but are not legally permitted to work

III. ENFORCEMENT OF LAWS ON THE WORST FORMS OF CHILD LABOR

The Government has established institutional mechanisms for the enforcement of laws and regulations on child labor, including its worst forms (Table 5).

Table 5. Agencies Responsible for Child Labor Law Enforcement

Organization/Agency	Role
Labor Relations Authority, Ministry of Economic Development (MED)	Enforce the child labor provisions of the Employment Act. Assess minor fines and make recommendations to the Minister of Human Resources on additional fines or other actions to penalize violators.(17)
Family and Child Protection Unit, Maldives Police Service (MPS)	Investigate complaints of child labor and commercial sexual exploitation. Refer cases to the Prosecutor General's Office for prosecution.(17)
Prosecutor General's Office	Prosecute crimes, including those involving the worst forms of child labor.(17)
Family Child Protection Services (FCPS), Ministry of Law and Gender	Receive referrals of children who have been exploited, including in child commercial sexual exploitation, and provide care for such victims.(17)
Maldives Immigration	Maintain a blacklist of employers who violate any provision of the Employment Act and prohibit blacklisted employers from hiring new workers until violations are corrected. Identify victims of human trafficking in coordination with the MPS.(17, 18)
Anti-Human Trafficking Units, the MPS, and DIE	Investigate human trafficking-related offences and enforce laws prohibiting trafficking in persons.(19)

Labor Law Enforcement

Research did not find information on whether labor law enforcement agencies in Maldives took actions to combat child labor, including its worst forms (Table 6).

In 2015, a human trafficking module was included in the training curriculum for all new Maldives Immigration hires.(18) The IOM also conducted trafficking in persons training for government officials, including the Maldives Police Service (MPS), Maldives Immigration, and the Ministry of Law and Gender.(18)

In 2014, the most recent year for which information is available, anti-human-trafficking units in the MPS comprised seven officers, including three female officers.(20) The Family and Child Protection Unit employed 25 officers to process child abuse cases in Malé, and an unknown number of officers in police stations throughout the country's islands. The Prosecutor General's Office employed 45 prosecutors for all areas of its work across the country.(17)

Investigators have insufficient funding and resources, such as office facilities and transportation.(17) Police and other officials lack adequate training on procedures for identifying human trafficking victims and providing referrals to protective services, including for children.(21) Maldives Immigration and the MPS lacked the capacity to pursue child trafficking investigations.(18)

IV. COORDINATION OF GOVERNMENT EFFORTS ON THE WORST FORMS OF CHILD LABOR

Although the Government has established a coordination mechanism on human trafficking, research found no evidence of mechanisms to coordinate its efforts to address child labor, including all its worst forms (Table 8).

Table 8. Mechanisms to Coordinate Government Efforts on Child Labor

Coordinating Body	Role & Description
Anti-Human Trafficking Steering Committee	Coordinate anti-human-trafficking activities and implement the country's National Anti-Human Trafficking National Action Plan under MED leadership.(17, 22) Members include the MPS, the Supreme Court, the People's Parliament (Majlis), the Attorney General's Office, the Prosecutor General's Office, the Human Rights Commission, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Ministry of Home Affairs, DIE, the Customs Service, the Ministry of Islamic Affairs, and the NGO Advocating the Rights of Children.(9, 10)

V. GOVERNMENT POLICIES ON THE WORST FORMS OF CHILD LABOR

The Government of Maldives has established policies related to child labor, including its worst forms (Table 9).

Table 9. Policies Related to Child Labor

Policy	Description
National Anti-Human Trafficking Action Plan (2015–2019)†	Sets out the Government's goals to combat human trafficking.(18)
UNDP Country Program for Maldives (2011–2015)*	Aimed to support the ILO in developing a Decent Work framework to address youth unemployment. Aimed to promote equitable access to justice and rule of law by increasing the capacity of the Prosecutor General's Office, including training on human rights issues.(23)

* Child labor elimination and prevention strategies do not appear to have been integrated into this policy.

† Policy was approved during the reporting period.

Although the Government of Maldives has adopted the National Anti-Human Trafficking Action Plan, research found no evidence of a policy to address child labor, including its worst forms.

VI. SOCIAL PROGRAMS TO ADDRESS CHILD LABOR

In 2015, the Government of Maldives funded and participated in programs that include the goal of eliminating or preventing child labor, including its worst forms (Table 10).

Table 10. Social Programs to Address Child Labor

Program	Description
FCPS Shelters and Rehabilitation Centers	Ministry of Law and Gender-operated centers on many of the country's islands, which provide services such as temporary shelter, vocational training, and rehabilitation and counseling for children in need, which could include children rescued from abusive work situations.(6, 24)
Blue Ribbon Campaign Against Human Trafficking†	Government campaign, implemented by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, that aims to raise awareness of human trafficking in Maldives among students and the business community.(25)
Child Help Linet	Government-maintained hotline used to report cases of child abuse and general issues that children face.(26)
Trafficking in Persons Hotlinet	Government-operated hotline dedicated to receiving reports of human trafficking cases.(18)
UNICEF Country Program (2011–2015)	UNICEF program, worked with the Government to monitor schools to ensure that authorities and communities maintained safe and sanitary learning environments for children.(27) Worked to build the capacity of the FCPS staff to protect children from violence and abuse. Advocated increased protection for children who are victims of crimes and witnesses to crimes.(27)
Enhancing Education Development Project†	$11 million World Bank and Government of Maldives-funded, 5-year project, that aims to strengthen access to primary and secondary school education in Maldives and improve its quality. Funded with approximately $10 million from the World Bank and $1 million from the Government of Maldives.(28)

† Program is funded by the Government of Maldives.

In 2015, the Government allocated funds for the construction of a new shelter for victims of human trafficking. The shelter is expected to be completed in 2016.(18)

Existing social programs do not specifically address the worst forms of child labor in the commercial sexual exploitation of children.

VII. SUGGESTED GOVERNMENT ACTIONS TO ELIMINATE THE WORST FORMS OF CHILD LABOR

Based on the reporting above, suggested actions are identified that would advance the elimination of child labor, including its worst forms, in Maldives (Table 11).

Data provided is the gross intake ratio to the last grade of primary school. This measure is a proxy measure for primary completion. This ratio is the total number of new entrants in the last grade of primary education, regardless of age, expressed as a percentage of the population at the theoretical entrance age to the last grade of primary. A high ratio indicates a high degree of current primary education completion. Because the calculation includes all new entrants to last grade (regardless of age), the ratio can exceed 100 percent, due to over-aged and under-aged children who enter primary school late/early and/or repeat grades.
