

AFGHANISTAN

ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF IRAN

TURKMENISTAN

-3

HERĀT

FARĀH

Lashkar Gah
Zarani

NIMRÜZ

This political map of Afghanistan displays its 34 provinces, their capitals, and provincial boundaries. The map also shows the national boundary and the capital Dushanbe of Uzbekistan to the north, and the Line of Control in Jammu and Kashmir agreed upon by India and Pakistan. Neighboring countries include Tajikistan to the northeast, China to the east, and Pakistan and India to the south. An inset map shows the location of Afghanistan relative to the world map.

Provinces and Capitals:

- JOWZJĀN: Sheberghān
- Mazār-e Sharīf
- BALKH: Sar-e Pol
- SAMANGĀN: Samangān
- BAGHLĀN: Baghlān
- NŪRESTĀN: Mahmud-e Rāqi
- KONDŌZ: Kondōz
- TĀKHĀR: Taloqān
- BĀMĀN: Chaghcharān
- PARVĀN: Bāmān
- KĀBUL: Kabul
- LĀGHĀMĀN: Chārikār
- KAPISA: Meydān Shahr
- NĀNGĀRHĀR: Jalālābād
- VARDĀK: Meydān Shahr
- LOWGĀR: Gardiz
- PAKTIĀ: Paktiā
- KHOWST: Khowst
- GHAZNĪ: Ghaznī
- ZĀBOL: Qalāt
- PAKTIKA: Sharān
- ORUZGĀN: Tarin Kotw
- KANDAHĀR: Kandahār
- SHARĀQĀN: Kāndahār Gāh

Neighboring Countries:

- CHINA (northeast)
- TAJIKISTAN (northeast)
- PAKISTAN (southeast)
- INDIA (southeast)
- Jammu and Kashmir (southeast, controlled by India)
- Jammu (part of Jammu and Kashmir)

Map Legend:

- National capital (star)
- Provincial capital (circle)
- National boundary (solid line)
- Provincial boundary (dashed line)

Scale: 0 to 250 km / 0 to 150 mi

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Dotted line represents approximately the Line of Control in Jammu and Kashmir agreed upon by India and Pakistan. The final status of Jammu and Kashmir has not yet been agreed upon by the parties.

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.

Dotted line represents approximately the Line of Control in Jammu and Kashmir agreed upon by India and Pakistan. The final status of Jammu and Kashmir has not yet been agreed upon by the parties.

- ★ National capital
 - Provincial capital
 - National boundary
 - - - Provincial boundary

