Judicial harassment against Mr. Igor Kalyapin - RUS 002 / 0411 / OBS 057

The Observatory for the Protection of Human Rights Defenders, a joint programme of the International Federation for Human Rights (FIDH) and the World Organisation Against Torture (OMCT), requests your urgent intervention in the following situation in the Russian Federation.

Description of the situation:

The Observatory has been informed by reliable sources about the arbitrary arrest and judicial harassment against Mr. Igor Kalyapin, head of the Inter-Regional Committee Against Torture of Nizhny Novgorod.

According to the information received, on March 31, 2011, Mr. Igor Kalyapin was arrested by the police along with other 53 peaceful protesters, at 6 p.m. at Freedom Square in the city center of Nizhny Novgorod. The arrests occurred during a public rally aiming at defending and promoting the freedom of assembly guaranteed by Article 31 of the Russian Constitution, within the framework of the Strategy 31 [\[1\]](#).

Mr. Igor Kalyapin was taken to the Nizhny Novgorod police station and detained for approximately 4 hours before being released. During his custody, he was informed that he was charged of "participation in an unsanctioned demonstration". The first hearing was planned on April 1, 2011 before the Supreme Court of Nizhny Novgorod but was finally postponed to an unknown later date.

The Observatory is deeply concerned about the ongoing attempts to hinder the right of the human rights defenders to freedom of assembly. The Observatory also condemns the arbitrary arrest and judicial harassment against Mr. Igor Kalyapin and urges the Russian authorities to drop the charges against him since they aim at sanctioning his human rights activities.

Actions requested:

Please write to the authorities of Russian Federation, urging them to:

- i. Guarantee in all circumstances the physical and psychological integrity of Mr. Igor Kalyapin as well as of all members of the Inter-Regional Committee Against Torture and all human rights defenders in the Russian Federation;
- ii. Immediately and unconditionally drop the charges pending against Mr. Igor Kalyapin as they are arbitrary and seem to only aim at sanctioning his human rights activities;

iii. Put an end to any act of harassment - including at the judicial level - against Mr. Igor Kalyapin as well as against all human rights defenders in the Russian Federation, and ensure in all circumstances that they are able to carry out their legitimate activities without any hindrance and fear of reprisals;

iv. Comply with the provisions of the United Nations Declaration on Human Rights Defenders, adopted by the UN General Assembly on December 9, 1998, especially:

- its Article 1, which states that "everyone has the right, individually and in association with others, to promote and to strive for the protection and realisation of human rights and fundamental freedoms at the national and international levels",
- its Article 5, which provides that "everyone has the right, individually and in association with others, at the national and international levels (a) to meet or assemble peacefully";
- its Article 6 (b) and (c), which states that "everyone has the right, individually and in association with others [...] as provided for in human rights and other applicable international instruments, freely to publish, impart or disseminate to others views, information and knowledge on all human rights and fundamental freedoms and [...] to study, discuss, form and hold opinions on the observance, both in law and in practice, of all human rights and fundamental freedoms and, through these and other appropriate means, to draw public attention to those matters",
- and Article 12.2, which provides that "the State shall take all necessary measures to ensure the protection by the competent authorities of everyone, individually and in association with others, against any violence, threats, retaliation, de facto or de jure adverse discrimination, pressure or any other arbitrary action as a consequence of his or her legitimate exercise of the rights referred to in the present Declaration";

v. Comply with the provisions of the Declaration of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe on the protection of human rights defenders and the promotion of their activities, and in particular With Article 2.i), in which the Committee calls on member States to "create an environment conducive to the work of human rights defenders, enabling individuals, groups and associations to freely carry out activities, on a legal basis, consistent with international standards, to promote and strive for the protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms without any restrictions other than those authorised by the European Convention on Human Rights;;

vi. More generally, ensure in all circumstances the respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms in accordance with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and with international and regional human rights instruments ratified by the Russian Federation.
