

NEPAL: Reports of Security Incidents, Jan - Apr 2009

The density of events indicated by shading on the map represents the sum of the reports of abductions, killings, clash and IED explosions as reported to OCHA and the UN Department of Safety and Security, and not necessarily the total number of actual incidents. IED: Improvised Explosive Device.

Effort has been made to verify information received through secondary sources though this has not always been possible.