Asylum seeker

Article 3

Recognised Refugee

Article 4

Recognised refugee is an alien who, after examination of his claim, has been found to fulfil the requirements set out in the Convention of Article 2 sub-paragraph 1 of this law, that is, a person who owing to well-founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group or his political opinion, is outside the state of his nationality and is unable, or, owing to such fear, is unwilling to avail himself of the protection of that state, or who, not having a nationality and being outside the state in which he had a habitual place of residence, is unable, or, owing to such fear, is unwilling to return to it.

Person under Subsidiary Protection

Article 4-a

A Person under Subsidiary Protection is an alien who does not qualify as a recognised refugee but to whom the Republic of Macedonia shall recognize the right of asylum and shall allow to remain within its territory, because substantial grounds exist for believing that if he returns to the state of his nationality, or if he is a stateless person, to the state of his previous habitual residence, he would face a real risk of suffering serious harms.

Serious harms, in the sense of paragraph 1 of this Article are:

- death penalty or execution;
- torture or inhuman or degrading behaviour or punishment, or
- serious and individual threats to a civilian's life or person by reason of indiscriminate violence in situation of international or internal armed conflict.

- prior to his or her admission in the Republic of Macedonia has committed one or more crimes outside the scope of paragraph 1 of this Article, which would be punishable by imprisonment, had they been committed in the Republic of Macedonia, and if she or he has left her/his country of origin in order to avoid sanctions for the crimes committed.

Principle of Non-Refoulement

Article 7

The asylum seeker, recognised refugee or person under subsidiary protection cannot be expelled, or in any manner whatsoever be forced to return to the frontiers of the state:
