

CAR: Clashes in Sido

7 May 2010 - Clashes between rebels in Sido and the Central African Republic (CAR) Army have caused an estimated 2,500 people to be displaced in the last few days. About 1,000 have reached a site for internally displaced persons in Kabo, some have crossed into Chad where more than 4,000 are seeking refuge in Moula refugee camp, and other are hiding in the bush. The ongoing offensive in the Sido area has been under way since mid-April.

Map Sources: UNHCR, UNOCHA, UNCS.

Reference: UNHCR. Civilians fleeing clashes in CAR moved to Chad refugee camp. 7 May 2010.

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations. Map created on 11 May 2010 – www.reliefweb.int