Release of Mr. Mahmudur Rahman - BGD 001 / 0610 / OBS 075.2

The Observatory for the Protection of Human Rights Defenders, a joint programme of the International Federation for Human Rights (FIDH) and the World Organisation Against Torture (OMCT), has received new information and requests your urgent intervention in the following situation in Bangladesh.

New information:

The Observatory has been informed by reliable sources about the release on March 17, 2011 of Mr. Mahmudur Rahman from the Gazipur district jail after having served nine months and a half in prison. Mr. Rahman is the Editor of the opposition Bangladeshi newspaper Amar Desh, which regularly reports on corruption cases.

On August 19, 2010, the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court had sentenced him to six months of imprisonment for "gross contempt of court" for having published a report on April 21, 2010 where the role of the Attorney General's Office was criticized. The Court also fined Mr. Mahmudur Rahman with 100,000 Taka (about 1,130 Euros). The contempt of court notice was brought before the Court by two lawyers reported to be supporters of the Government.

On the same day, the Court also sentenced Mr. Oliullah Nomana, staff reporter of the Daily Amar Desh and Mr. Hashmat Ali, publisher of the same newspaper, to fines of 10,000 Taka (about 113 euros) for contempt of court in relation to their responsibility in the publication of the report. Moreover, Mr. Nomana was sentenced to one month imprisonment.

The Observatory welcomes the release of Mr. Mahmudur Rahman and thanks all the persons, institutions and organisations who intervened in his favour.

However, the Observatory remains concerned that Mr. Mahmudur Rahman remains on bail and prosecuted for 48 cases [\[1\]](#) under numerous charges including "defamation", "sedition" and "anti terrorism acts". The Observatory firmly denounces the ongoing acts of judicial and administrative harassment against Mr. Mahmudur Rahman and his colleagues which seem to merely aim at sanctioning their freedom of expression, as well as the arbitrary detention and acts of ill-treatment Mr. Rahman previously suffered.

Background information:

On June 1, 2010, the Tejgaon Thana Officer-in-Charge raided the press office of Amar Desh with armed forces, and declared its closure. On June 2, 2010 at approximately 4 a.m., agents of the Tejgaon police station entered the Amar Desh offices, arrested Mr. Mahmudur Rahman, who was remaining on the spot, and took him to the Dhaka Cantonment Police Station (CPS) for interrogation. The police forces also resorted to excessive use of force against the protesting journalists who attended the scene, beating them with sticks.

On the same day at 4 p.m., Mr. Rahman was reportedly charged under Sections 419, 420 and 500 of the Penal Code for "cheating by personation", "dishonestly inducing delivery of property" and "defamation".

In the early morning, the Tejgaon Police Station had also filed a case against him (Case No. 2(6)2010), as well as against the Amar Desh Deputy Editor Mr. Syed Abdal Ahmed, the Assistant Editor Mr. Sanjeeb Chowdhury, the City Editor Mr. Jahed Chowdhury, reporter Alauddin Arif, and the office assistant Saiful Islam, as well as against 400 unnamed people for, inter alia, "obstructing Government officials to perform their duties" during Mr. Rahman's arrest, under Sections 143, 342, 332, 353, 186, 506, 114 of the Penal Code.

On June 6, 2010, another case (Case No.5 (6) 2010) was filed against Mr. Rahman at the Kowali police station for, inter alia, "obstructing Government officials to perform their duties" under Sections 143, 186, 332, 353, 225B/34 of the Penal Code, while he was already in custody.

On June 7, 2010, Mr. Rahman was placed under a four-day detention period, on the basis of the two latter cases.

Messrs. Syed Abdal Ahmed, Sanjeeb Chowdhury, Jahed Chowdhury, Alauddin Arif and Saiful Islam, were not arrested, but were given a pre-arrest bail from the High Court Division of the Supreme Court on June 10, 2010.

Moreover, on June 8, 2010, the Magistrates Court No. 7 issued another four-day detention period in Uttara Model Police Station against Mr. Rahman, for "printing banned leaflets" under Section 6(1) of the Anti Terrorism Act 2009, as well as an additional four-day detention period for "conspiring against the State" on the basis of a case lodged under Sections 121A ("waging war or attempting to wage war against the State"), 124A ("sedition") and 114 ("abettor present when offence is committed") of the Penal Code, leading to a total remand period of 12 days.

On June 9, 2010, the Magistrates Court ordered that Mr. Rahman be taken in remand to the Tejgaon police station. However, in contravention to these orders, Mr. Rahman was kept in the CPS, inside the Cantonment area.

Mr. Rahman further reported that on the night of June 10, 2010, five or six men entered his cell and removed his clothes, and then proceeded to hit him very hard with their elbows in his chest and back, whereupon he lost consciousness. When he awoke, he found himself lying in the room of the Second Officer of the CPS.

On June 12, 2010, Mr. Rahman was brought before the Magistrates Court on the basis of Case No. 2(6) 2010. He then reported that he was subjected to acts of inhuman and degrading treatment while in detention.

He was reportedly unable to stand on the dock and the Magistrate allowed him to sit. The Magistrates Court ordered that Mr. Rahman be sent to jail and undergo a full medical check-up on the basis of jail regulations. The Magistrate also allowed Mr. Rahman's lawyers to meet him for half an hour.

On the same day, the police of the Detective Branch of Dhaka Metropolitan area submitted an application seeking a four-day remand to question Mr. Rahman regarding the case filed at the Uttara police station under the 2009 Anti-Terrorism Act. The remand was granted by the Magistrates Court. Mr. Rahman was then taken to the Detective Branch offices in Dhaka on that day, without any medical check-up being performed.

On June 16, 2010, Mr. Rahman was brought before the Court of Magistrate Ismail Hossain after completion of four days remand at the Detective Branch office in the case under the Anti Terrorism Act 2009. The Magistrate ordered the jailor to arrange his medical check up. He underwent treatment at the jail hospital under a medical board. The Magistrate further ordered that he may be taken to remand if he is physically fit.

On June 20, 2010, the jail authority gave the fitness certificate about Mr. Rahman for interrogating him at remand. Then, Mr. Mahmudur Rahman was again placed under a four-day detention remand.

On June 24, 2010, the Magistrates Court ordered Mr. Rahman's transfer to the Dhaka central prison. Before the hearing, on June 23, 2010, Mr. Rahman was kept blindfolded and handcuffed to the window bar of a small room for ten hours, from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.

In July 2010, Mr. Rahman was transferred to the Gazipur district jail, which made it more difficult for his lawyers to visit him, as well as for him to access the medical treatment he required.
