

CÔTE D'IVOIRE: Unrest and Refugees

Area with refugees

16 Dec 2010 - An estimated 3,500 people have fled to Nimba (Liberia) and 200 into Nzerekore (Guinea) from villages near Danané and Guiglo. At least seven people died after clashes between soldiers and supporters of Alassane Ouattara in Abidjan, while New Forces fighters tried to storm positions in Tiebissou.

Map Sources: FAO, Global Discovery, UNCS.

References: UNHCR. Ivorian refugees continue to enter Liberia. 14 Dec 2010.

BBC. Ivory Coast troops fire on Alassane Ouattara supporters. 16 Dec 2010.

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations. Map created on 16 Dec 2010 – www.reliefweb.int
<http://ochaonline.un.org>