Administrative harassment against Mrs. Evgenia Chirikova - RUS 001 / 0211 / OBS 026

The Observatory for the Protection of Human Rights Defenders, a joint programme of the International Federation for Human Rights (FIDH) and the World Organisation Against Torture (OMCT), requests your urgent intervention in the following situation in the Russian Federation.

Description of the situation:

The Observatory has been informed by reliable sources about the administrative harassment against Mrs. Evgenia Chirikova, leader of the Campaign for the Defence of the Khimki Forest in the Moscow region [\[1\]](#).

According to the information received, on February 21, 2011, employees of the Russian Child Protection Service came to the house of Mrs. Evgenia Chirikova in order to proceed to an inspection. She did not open the door.

The employees of the service told her by phone the next day that their visit was allegedly in the follow-up to a letter, signed from her neighbours, accusing Mrs. Evgenia Chirikova of hitting and mistreating her two 4 and 9 years-old daughters. However, the neighbours denied having written the letter. Since the incident, Mrs. Evgenia Chirikova has not been taking her children to school anymore, for fear that they would be taken away by the Child Protection Service.

The Observatory also deplors that previously, on February 1, 2011, Mrs. Alla Chernysheva, active member of the same campaign, was detained in the town of Khimki, for allegedly holding a fake bomb to a protest rally on the same day. This pretext legitimated the dispersion of the rally by the authorities. She was released 6 hours later.

The Observatory recalls that Mrs. Evgenia Chirikova already faced judicial harassment and was condemned on August 4, 2010 for "holding an unsanctioned rally" and "resisting the police" [\[2\]](#). Moreover, throughout the past year, other environmental activists have been threatened and journalists covering the Khimki project have been brutally beaten.

The Observatory condemns the administrative harassment against Mrs. Evgenia Chirikova through the use of the Russian Child Protection Service, as well as the ongoing judicial harassment and threats faced by the environmental activists, which seem to merely aim at silencing their work and hindering their human rights activities.

Actions requested:

Please write to the authorities of Russian Federation, urging them to:

[1] The Campaign for the Defence of the Khimki Forest opposes plans, since 2006, to build a highway to connect Moscow to St. Petersburg through Khimki that would pass through the forest. Local residents opposed the project arguing that it is a protected part of the Moscow's "green belt" designed to counterbalance the city's pollution and to protect wildlife. As plans have continued forward, the activists set up a camp in the forest itself.
