

PAKISTAN: IDP camp attack

18 Apr 2010 - Relief work has been suspended at the Kacha Pakha camp for internally displaced persons (IDPs) outside of Kohat town after two bomb attacks killed 41 IDPs. Fresh fighting in Orkzai and Kurram is bringing new IDPs to the camp which houses an estimated 1,000 people.

Map Sources: Europa Technologies, PFRF, UNCS.

Reference: IRIN. Pakistan: Relief work suspended after dozens killed in IDP camp attack. 18 Apr 2010.

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations. Dotted line represents approximately the Line of Control in Jammu and Kashmir agreed upon by India and Pakistan. The final status of Jammu and Kashmir has not yet been agreed upon by the parties. Map created on 19 Apr 2010 – www.reliefweb.int