Clarification based on information from sources

39. On the basis of the information provided by the source, the Working Group decided to clarify 39 cases; 33 individuals were reportedly detained in a revealed location, while six were reportedly released from detention.

Information from sources

40. A source provided new information concerning an outstanding case, which was transmitted to the Government of Egypt. The case was clarified on the basis of the information provided by the Government, which was also confirmed by the source before the expiry of the period prescribed by the six-month rule (see para. 41 below).

Information from the Government

41. During the period under review, the Government transmitted information concerning 19 outstanding cases. On the basis of the information provided, which was also confirmed by sources (see para. 42 below), the Working Group decided to apply the six-month rule to 11 cases and to clarify six others. The information provided on the last two cases was considered insufficient to lead to a clarification.

Clarification

42. The Working Group decided, on the basis of information previously provided by the Government of Egypt, to clarify seven cases following the expiry of the period prescribed by the six-month rule (see A/HRC/WGEID/108/1, para. 48) and one other case on the basis of information provided by the source before the expiry of the period prescribed by the six-month rule (see A/HRC/WGEID/109/1, para. 31), concerning Salah Attia Al Fiky, Usama Salah Al Fiky, Ahmed Sabr Mohamed Labib, Ahmed Mohamed Ahmed Mohamed Younis, Aly Mosaad Al Sayed Aly Qotb, Khalid Mosaad Al Sayed Qotb, Ammar Adel Zeanelabedin Mohammed Mohammed Omar and Abdelrahman Hussein. Two individuals were reportedly released and six others are reportedly detained in a revealed location.

43. The Working Group also considered the information submitted by the Government on 9 June 2016 concerning the cases of Magdy Hassan Amer Hassan, Sabry Anwar Mohamed Abdelhamid, Amr Mohammed Mohammed Al Emam, Osama Mustafa Mohamed Mahmud El Barghi, Abdul Rahman Ashraf Mussad Ghazi Qirdah and Ihab Omar Hassan Abu Hamed. The Working Group decided to consider the six cases clarified on the basis of the information provided by the Government, which was confirmed by sources.

44. The Working Group thanks the Government of Egypt for its reply to the general allegation provided on 30 August 2016 and for the information on a large number of cases provided on 15 August 2016, which demonstrated its commitment to engage with the Working Group. These communications will be submitted for the consideration of the Working Group as soon as a translated version of them is received.

Duplication

45. The Working Group decided to consider two cases duplicates. The duplicate cases were subsequently deleted from the records of the Working Group.

Ethiopia

Urgent action

46. On 22 June 2016, the Working Group, under its urgent action procedure, transmitted a case to Ethiopia concerning Dabassa Guyyo Safarro, allegedly kidnapped on 27 September 2015 by Ethiopian and Kenyan security forces, and allegedly last seen at a place called Tewodros Adababay, Xor Hailochi Center, in Finfinnee, Addis Ababa, on 3 June 2016.

Mozambique

Joint allegation letter

80. On 5 August 2016, the Working Group transmitted, jointly with three other special procedure mechanisms, an allegation letter concerning the alleged ill-treatment, torture and execution of civilians by security forces during operations against the Mozambique National Resistance (RENAMO) and the unearthing of a suspected mass grave near Gorongossa.

Observation

81. The Working Group emphasizes the importance of preserving mass grave sites, including of ensuring that an effective criminal and forensic investigation can be conducted, and of taking appropriate measures to assist victims in finding truth and justice. It also reminds the Government that, under article 13(1) of the Declaration, whenever there are reasonable grounds to believe that an enforced disappearance has been committed, the State shall promptly refer the matter to that authority for such an investigation, even if there has been no formal complaint. No measure shall be taken to curtail or impede the investigation. It also recalls that, according to article 13(6), an investigation, in accordance with the procedures described above, should be able to be conducted for as long as the fate of the victim of enforced disappearance remains unclarified.

Information from sources

97. The Working Group, on the basis of updated information provided by a source, and in accordance with its methods of work, reopened a case, which it had clarified at its 90th session, in 2010, concerning Ehsan Arjumandi, a national of both the Islamic Republic of Iran and Norway, allegedly abducted on 7 August 2009 by a Pakistani intelligence agency while he was visiting relatives in Turbat and Mand districts, Balochistan province.

Information from the Government

98. On 15 July 2016, the Government of Pakistan transmitted information concerning 56 outstanding cases. The information provided was considered insufficient to lead to a clarification.

Observation

99. The Working Group remains concerned at the large number of cases it has transmitted to the Government of Pakistan under its urgent action procedure. Many of the cases concerned individuals abducted in the Sindh province and reportedly affiliated with the Muttahida Quami Movement. In this regard, the Working Group stresses that, as provided for in article 7 of the Declaration, no circumstances whatsoever may be invoked to justify enforced disappearances, and that, according to article 10 (2), accurate information on the detention of such persons and their place or places of detention, including transfers, should be made promptly available to their family members, their counsel or to any other persons having a legitimate interest in the information.

100. The Working Group thanks the Government of Pakistan for the information that it provided on 15 July 2016 on a large number of cases. The Working Group reiterates its call upon the Government to ensure that information provided includes the specific details required to clarify the fate and whereabouts of the person, such as the exact place of detention, if in custody, or the person's address, if at liberty.
