

International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families

Distr.: General
24 April 2015

Original: English
English, French, Russian and Spanish only

ADVANCE
UNEDITED VERSION

---

Committee on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families

Concluding observations on the initial report of Kyrgyzstan*

1. The Committee considered the initial report of Kyrgyzstan (CMW/C/KGZ/1) at its 273rd and 274th meetings (CMW/C/SR.273 and 274), held on 13 and 14 April 2015, and adopted, at its 287th meeting, held on 22 April 2015, the following concluding observations.

A. Introduction

2. The Committee welcomes the submission of the initial report of the State party (CMW/C/KGZ/1), which was prepared in response to the list of issues prior to reporting (CMW/C/KGZ/QPR/1). The Committee also welcomes the additional oral information provided by the delegation that was headed by H.E. Ms. Gulnara Iskakova, Permanent Representative of the Kyrgyz Republic to the United Nations, and comprising representatives from the Ministry of Labour; Migration and Youth, the Ministry of Justice, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and from the Permanent Mission of the Kyrgyz Republic to the United Nations Office at Geneva. The Committee appreciates the open and constructive dialogue held with the delegation.

3. The Committee notes that some countries where Kyrgyz migrant workers are employed are not parties to the Convention, which may constitute an obstacle to migrant workers' enjoyment of their rights under the Convention.

4. The Committee notes that in May 2015, the State party will enter the Eurasian Customs Union (ECU) and that Kyrgyz migrant workers and members of their families will therefore have access to benefits under ECU agreements.

B. Positive aspects

5. The Committee notes that the State party has concluded some bilateral and multilateral agreements, at the regional and international level, and encourages the conclusion of such agreements in so far as they promote and protect the rights of migrant workers and members of their families. The Committee notes in particular the State party's ratification of/accession to:

---

* Adopted by the Committee at its twenty-second session (13-24 April 2015).

- (a) ILO Migration for Employment Convention No.97 (September 2009);
  - (b) Convention on the Legal Status of Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families in the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS) Region (November 2008);
  - (c) Agreement among the Member States of the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS) on Cooperation in Combating Trafficking in Persons and in Human Organs and Tissues of 2005 (December 2006);
  - (d) Protocol to the Minsk Agreement (2000) on Travel of Citizens of the Eurasian Economic Community without Visas (March 2005);
  - (e) Worst Forms of Child Labour Convention No 183 (May 2004); and
  - (f) Agreement on Cooperation of States-Members of Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS) on the Return of Minors to Their States of Residence (the Chisinau Agreement) of 2002 (May 2004).
6. The Committee welcomes the establishment of the Ministry of Labour, Migration and Youth (in 2012) and the adoption of the Law No.4 on Foreign Labour Migration (January 2006).
7. The Committee also welcomes the following institutional and policy measures:
- (a) Regulations on the order of interaction of state bodies and other organisations in the system of “single window” (October 2013);
  - (b) The long-term employment programme 2020, including the programme of employment abroad (September 2013);
  - (c) The program of social security and pension provision for migrant workers-citizens of the Kyrgyz Republic working in the Russian Federation (April 2013); and
  - (d) The Governmental programme to combat trafficking in persons in Kyrgyz Republic for 2013 – 2016 (January 2013).

C. Principal subjects of concern, suggestions and recommendations

1. General measures of implementation (arts. 73 and 84)

Legislation and application

8. The Committee notes with concern that the definition of labour migrant in the State party’s legislation is not in line with the Convention, as it includes only migrant workers who are documented or in a regular situation.

9. The Committee recommends that the State party take the necessary steps to ensure that its national laws and policies are in line with the provisions of the Convention, including in particular amending legislation to ensure protection of the rights of all migrant workers both in regular and irregular situations, in accordance with the Convention. The Committee also recommends that the State party strengthen its efforts to improve the coordination among ministries and agencies at all levels of government for the effective implementation of the rights protected under the Convention.

10. The Committee is concerned about the lack of information on the application of the Convention by domestic courts.

11. The Committee invites the State party to provide information on the application of the Convention by domestic courts in its next periodic report.

12. The Committee notes that the State party has not made the declarations provided for in articles 76 and 77 of the Convention recognizing the competence of the Committee to receive and consider communications from State parties and individuals concerning violations of rights established by the Convention.

13. The Committee recommends that the State party consider making the declarations provided for in articles 76 and 77 of the Convention.

14. The Committee is concerned that the State party has not yet ratified or acceded to the International Labour Organisation (ILO) Migration Workers (Supplementary Provisions) Convention, 1975 (No.143), the Private Employment Agencies Convention, 1997 (No.181) and the Domestic Workers Convention, 2011 (No. 189).

15. The Committee recommends that the State party consider ratifying or acceding to the above instruments as soon as possible.

16. The Committee is concerned that the Ombudsperson of Kyrgyzstan does not have a comprehensive mandate pertaining to the rights of migrant workers, and that it lacks adequate financial and human resources to effectively discharge its mandate.

17. The Committee recommends that the State party provide the Ombudsperson of Kyrgyzstan with a broad mandate to effectively carry out the promotion and protection of the rights of migrant workers and members of their families under the Convention. The Committee also recommends that the State party provide adequate support to the Office of the Ombudsperson to enable it to effectively discharge this mandate.

Data Collection

18. While welcoming the efforts of the State party to collect information and statistical data on migration issues, the Committee is concerned at the lack of sufficient information on migration flows and on other migration-related issues. It also regrets the lack of information on the different criteria required to evaluate the effective implementation of the Convention, in particular with regard to migrant women, unaccompanied migrant children and migrant workers both in and from the State party.

19. The Committee recommends that the State party strengthen its efforts to ensure that the system for the compilation of migration-related statistics covers all aspects of the Convention and that detailed data is collected on the status of migrant workers in the State party. It encourages the State party to compile both qualitative and quantitative information and statistics that are disaggregated by sex, age, reason for entry and departure from the country, and the type of work performed. In cases where it is not possible to obtain precise information, for example, in the case of migrant workers in an irregular situation, the Committee would appreciate being provided with information based on studies or estimates.

Training on and dissemination of the Convention

20. The Committee regrets the information provided by the State party that no training programmes were organized by the State party for public officials working in the area of labour migration at national and local levels. It is also concerned about the lack of dissemination of information concerning the Convention and the rights enshrined therein among all relevant stakeholders, including national, regional and local government bodies, civil society organizations, and migrant workers as well as members of their families.

21. The Committee recommends that the State party develop continuing education and training programmes on the Convention and that such training be made available to all officials and others who work in migration-related areas. The Committee also recommends that the State party ensure that migrant workers have access to information about their rights under the Convention and to work with civil society organizations to disseminate information on the Convention and promote its implementation.

Corruption

22. While welcoming the progress achieved by the State party in combating corruption, the Committee is concerned that the level of corruption in the State party remains high.

23. The Committee recommends that the State party take more effective measures to address all instances of corruption relating to the migrant workers and members of their families, and undertake appropriate inquiries into allegations of corruption. The Committee also recommends that the State party conduct information campaigns with a view to encouraging migrant workers and members of their families who claim to be victims of corruption to report the corruption, and raise awareness among migrant workers and their families as to which services are free of charge.

2. General principles (arts. 7 and 83)

Non-discrimination

24. While noting that, according to the State party's Constitution (art. 16, para. 2) and the Legal Status of Foreign Nationals Act (art. 3), migrant workers have equal rights with citizens of the State party, the Committee is concerned at information that migrant workers, in particular undocumented and irregular migrant workers, and members of their families, may in practice suffer from various forms of discrimination, in particular in the area of employment, education and health.

25. The Committee recommends that the State party:

(a) Ensure that all migrant workers and members of their families both in regular and irregular situation within its territory or subject to its jurisdiction enjoy, without discrimination, the rights recognized by the Convention, in accordance with article 7 thereof, both in law and in practice; and

(b) Intensify its efforts by promoting information campaigns for public officials working in the area of migration, especially at the local level, and for the general public on the elimination of discrimination against migrant workers and members of their families.

Right to an effective remedy

26. The Committee notes the information provided by the State party that migrant workers have the same right to redress, as the State party's nationals. The Committee, however, is concerned that no information has been provided on the number of cases and/or proceedings brought by migrant workers and members of their families, including those in an irregular situation, which may reflect a lack of information provided to them by the State party on the rights and legal remedies available to them.

27. The Committee recommends that the State party ensure that, in law and in practice, migrant workers and members of their families, including those in an irregular situation, have equal opportunities to nationals of the State party to file complaints and obtain effective redress in the courts in cases where their rights under the Convention are violated. The Committee also recommends that the State party take additional measures to inform migrant workers and members of their families, including those in an irregular situation, about the judicial and other remedies available to them in case of a violation of their rights under the Convention.

3. Human rights of all migrant workers and members of their families (arts. 8-35)

Consular Assistance

28. The Committee notes the progress made in improving and broadening the State party's consular services through the adoption of consular protocols for assisting and protecting the rights of migrant workers in transit and in the country of destination. The Committee, however, is concerned by the lack of information on whether human and financial resources made available to the State party's consulates in Russia and Kazakhstan are sufficient for them to provide migrant workers with proper assistance and protection. It is also concerned at the lack of deployment of female officers in its consular services.

29. The Committee recommends that the State party take the necessary steps to ensure that its consular services can effectively meet the needs of Kyrgyz migrant workers and members of their families in terms of protecting their rights and providing them with assistance. Those steps should include the allocation of sufficient human resources and funding, and the development of continuing training programmes, including gender and children's rights sensitization training for consular officials on the Convention and other human rights treaties.

Urgently required medical care

30. The Committee notes the measures taken to ensure that migrant workers and members of their families have access to health services. It is concerned about the lack of information on specific programmes to guarantee access to emergency medical care for migrant workers and members of their families, in particular those who are in an irregular situation in the territory of the State party.

31. The Committee recommends that, in accordance with articles 28 of the Convention, the State party adopt concrete and effective measures to ensure access to emergency medical care for all migrant workers and members of their families.

Education

32. The Committee notes the measures taken to ensure that migrant workers and members of their families have access to education for their children. It is concerned about the lack of information on specific programmes to guarantee access and open up education to migrant workers and members of their families who are in an irregular situation in the territory of the State party.

33. The Committee recommends that, in accordance with articles 30 of the Convention, the State party adopt concrete and effective measures, for example through specific programmes, to ensure access to education, and to make it possible to enter and remain in the education system, including for the children of migrant workers in an irregular situation.

4. Other rights of migrant workers and members of their families who are documented or in a regular situation (arts. 36-56)

Pre-departure right to be informed

34. The Committee is concerned about the lack of standard pre-employment and pre-departure orientation at the Employment Centres established by the Ministry of Labour, Migration and Youth.

35. The Committee recommends that the State party take appropriate measures to disseminate information on the rights of migrant workers under the Convention, as well as conditions of their admission and employment and their rights and obligations under the law and practice of States of employment. The Committee also recommends that the State party develops targeted pre-departure and awareness-raising programmes, including in consultation with relevant non-governmental organizations, migrant domestic workers and their families, and recognized and reliable recruitment agencies.

Right to vote

36. The Committee notes the efforts of the State party to facilitate the right to vote by opening polling stations in different cities in the Russian Federation. It is, however, concerned at the low level of involvement of Kyrgyz migrant workers abroad during the 2010 Parliamentary elections due to insufficient number of polling stations.

37. The Committee recommends that the State party strengthen its efforts to guarantee the rights to vote of Kyrgyz migrant workers living abroad by facilitating their registration and participation in the next national elections.

Frontier workers

38. While noting that the principle of equality is applied to frontier/seasonal workers according to the State party's legislation, the Committee notes with concern that frontier workers working on the State party's territory do not enjoy in practice the same rights as the national workers, as their remuneration is often unregulated and they do not have contracts which makes them vulnerable to exploitation and discrimination.

39. The Committee recommends that the State party take necessary measures to ensure that frontier workers enjoy the same rights as the national workers and invites the State party to provide information in its next periodic report on the measures taken to ensure that frontier and seasonal workers may enjoy the rights to which they are entitled by reason of their presence and work in the territory of the State party, in accordance with article 57 of the Convention.

5. Promotion of sound, equitable, humane and lawful conditions in connection with international migration of workers and members of their families (arts. 64-71)

40. The Committee is concerned about the reports that Kyrgyz migrant workers and members of their families suffer from discriminatory attitudes and are often targets of hate crimes and xenophobic assaults in the main countries of employment, in particular in the Russian Federation. The Committee is particularly concerned that Kyrgyz migrant workers are frequently subjected to violence, abuse, threats and intimidation by employers, public officials and private individuals in countries of employment.

41. The Committee recommends that the State party provide consular assistance to Kyrgyz migrant workers who are victims of discrimination and violence, to protect their rights and interest in the counties of employment with a view to promoting the investigation, prosecution and sentencing perpetrators of crimes against Kyrgyz migrant workers. It also recommends that the State party raise awareness among its nationals about the potential risks of migration.

42. The Committee notes the efforts of the State party to combat human trafficking in the State party. The Committee is, however, concerned about the persistence of human trafficking in the State party, as well as about the lack of data on the scale of the phenomenon in the State party, and, in particular, on the number of cases involving women and children.

43. The Committee recommends that the State party:

(a) Effectively implement its Programme to Combat Trafficking in Persons 2013-2016, ensuring its full compatibility with the Convention;

(b) Evaluate the phenomenon of trafficking in persons and compile systematic disaggregated data to better combat trafficking in persons, especially of women and children, and to bring perpetrators to justice;

(c) Afford protection and assistance to all victims of human trafficking, particularly by providing shelters, medical care, psycho-social support and other measures to assist in their reintegration into society; and

(d) Strengthen training for law enforcement officials, judges, prosecutors, labour inspectors, teachers, health care workers and the staff of the State party's embassies and consulates, and disseminating more widely information on trafficking in persons and assistance to victims.

6. Follow-up and dissemination

Follow-up

44. The Committee requests the State party to include in its second periodic report detailed information on measures taken to follow up on the recommendations made in these concluding observations. The Committee recommends that the State party should take all appropriate measures to ensure that these recommendations are implemented, including by transmitting them for consideration and action to members of the Government and Parliament (Zhogorku Kenesh), as well as to local authorities.

45. The Committee also requests the State party to involve civil society organizations more closely in the implementation of the recommendations contained in the present concluding observations.

Follow-up report

46. The Committee requests the State party to provide, within two years, i.e. 24 April 2017, written information on the follow-up to the recommendations contained in paragraphs 27, 29, 31 and 33 above.

Dissemination

47. The Committee also requests the State party to disseminate the Convention and the present concluding observations widely, including to public agencies, the judiciary, non-governmental organizations and other members of civil society, so as to increase awareness thereof among the judicial, legislative and administrative authorities, civil society and the public in general.

7. Technical Assistance

48. The Committee recommends that the State party avails itself of international assistance, including technical assistance to develop a comprehensive programme aimed at the implementation of the above recommendations and the Convention as a whole. The Committee also calls upon the State party to continue its cooperation with specialized agencies and programmes of the United Nations system.

8. Next periodic report

49. The Committee requests the State party to submit its second periodic reports by 24 April 2020 and to include therein information on the implementation of the present concluding observations. Alternatively, the State party may follow the simplified reporting procedure, whereby the Committee draws up and adopts a list of issues that is transmitted to the State party prior to the submission of its next report. The replies of the State party to that list of issues will constitute its report under article 73 of the Convention. In that way, the State party does not submit its report in the traditional manner. This new optional procedure was adopted by the Committee at its fourteenth session in April 2011 (see A/66/48, para. 26).

50. The Committee draws the State party's attention to its harmonized treaty-specific guidelines (CMW/C/2008/1) and reminds it that periodic reports should be in compliance with the guidelines and not exceed 21,200 words (General Assembly resolution 68/268). In the event that a report exceeding the established word limit is submitted, the State party will be asked to shorten the report in accordance with the above-mentioned guidelines. If the State party is not in a position to review and resubmit the report, translation of the report for purposes of examination by the treaty body cannot be guaranteed.

51. The Committee requests the State party to ensure the wide participation of all ministries and public bodies in the preparation of its next periodic report (or replies to the list of issues, in the case of the simplified reporting procedure) and, at the same time, to consult broadly with all relevant stakeholders, including civil society, migrant workers and human rights organizations.

52. The Committee also invites the State party to submit an updated common core document, not exceeding 42,400 words, in accordance with the requirements in the harmonized guidelines on reporting under the international human rights treaties, including guidelines on a common core document and treaty-specific documents, approved at the fifth inter-committee meeting of the human rights treaty bodies in June 2006 (HRI/MC/2006/3 and Corr.1).

---